LANDING NAVAL GUNS.

British Authorities Alarmed Over the Burgher Invasion.

UPRISING IS IMMINENT.

The Boers Occupy a Number of British Towns and Are Now Near Graaf Reinet.

London, Jan. 3.—There is an unconfirmed report from Cape Town current that fighting has occurred eighty miles north of Matiesfontein.

Cape Town, Jan. 3.—The authorities are greatly alarmed over the extent of the Boer invasion of Cape Colony, and a possible attack on Graaf Reinet.

That the situation is considered grave is shown by the fact that big naval guns on the battleship Monarch, now in the Cape Town harbor, are being moved up at the most advantageous defensive positions.

It is true that the Dutch have not joined the invaders in a considerable number, but a lack of arms is believed to be the true reason for abstention.

Many places, however, are freely offered arms and information readily supplied to the Boers.

In the early proclamation of martial law the Boers were given a free rein.

This division does not include Cape Town itself.

The latest reports show the situation to be generally as follows:

First.—The Boers are now in the neighborhood of Frasersburg.

Second.—The Boers are now in the neighborhood of Frasersburg.

Third.—The Boers are now in the neighborhood of Frasersburg.

RUSSIA BREAKS FAITH.

Assume Protectorate Over Chinese Province of Manchuria.

ASSURANCES VIOLATED.

London, Jan. 3.—Under an agreement made public this morning Russia virtually assumes the protectorate over the Chinese province of Manchuria, contrary to the assurances heretofore made to the powers.

The Times, commenting on the agreement, declares: "It is utterly irreconcilable with Russian official attitude toward China and the assurances she has volunteered to the powers."

In fact, the situation contemplated by the Anglo-Russian agreement seems definitely to confront us.

The text of the agreement is as follows: "Russia undertakes to assist in the construction of a railway for a Russian political resident, the disarming of the Chinese soldiers, and the disarmament of all Chinese forts and arsenals."

Second.—The Boers are now in the neighborhood of Frasersburg.

The marriage of Wm. Kippenhan one of our young and prosperous business men, to Miss Mathilda Hosp of Kohlsville, took place in the Reformed church at 8 p. m. last Saturday, with Rev. Lienkemper officiating. The bride was attended by Annie Klockebush and Maggie Kippenhan, while Albert Abel and Jos. Hosp, Jr., were the groomsmen. The young couple will reside here, where the groom is doing a good blacksmithing business. We extend congratulations.

The funeral of Mrs. Chas. Brandt, on the 28th ult., was one of the largest ever held here. The cortege left the house at 10 a. m. for the St. John church, a mile south of Kohlsville, where services were held and the body interred in the adjoining cemetery. The deceased was born on Oct. 23, 1862, in the town of Hartford, and married Charles Brandt on June 27, 1884. One child was born to them but died in its infancy. Besides her husband she leaves two sisters—Mary Ann (Mrs. L. Kohl) and Sarah (Mrs. G. Kohl)—both residing at Kohlsville. Her father and mother died when she was but a child. The bereaved relatives have our sympathies.

Persons who suffer from indigestion can not expect to live long, because they cannot eat the food required to nourish the body and the products of the undigested food they do eat poison the blood. It is important to cure indigestion as soon as possible, and the best method of doing this is to use the preparation known as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and restores all the digestive organs to perfect health. All druggists.

The Woman Brown Loved.

Last evening a gentleman who was sitting by his window casually said: "There goes the woman whom Geo. Brown's awfully in love with."

His wife, who was in the back room getting supper ready, dropped a plate, stumbled over the baby, and ran to the window saying: "Where? Where? Tell me quick!"

"The one with the long cloak, just at the street corner."

Then the woman at the window said in tones of deep disgust: "Why that's George Brown's wife."

"Exactly," remarked the brut husband. Then the disappointed woman went back and got the supper, ready, but her usually sweet disposition was soured for the entire evening.—X.

The Dear Child—Oh, Mrs. Bloom, when did you get back? Mrs. B.—Bless you, dear, I was not away. What made you think so? Child—Why, I heard mamma say that you were at Loggheheads with your husband for over a week.—X.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly, and its early use prevents consumption. All druggists.

A Strange Russian Custom.

If a Russian girl wishes to study at any of the universities which admit women, etiquette does not allow her to do so until she is married, so she goes through the civil service of marriage with a male student, whom she probably never sees before; and this marriage is quite legal, though they may never speak to each other again. On the other hand, if they so desire, they are married for life; if they don't, the marriage is dissolved when the university course is run, and they are free to marry someone else.

Twelve Years In Chains.

Atrocious Treatment of a European Prisoner By Bloodthirsty Arabs.

When Lord Kitchener defeated the cruel monster Khalifa Abdullah in the battle of Omdurman he learned he had held Mr. Chas. Neufeld, a European, in bondage for twelve years. He was kept in chains and endured the most frightful cruelty. He had given up all hope of freedom, but the English conqueror gave him instant liberty. The long suffering of Neufeld often has its parallel in common life. It is but a short time since a man in Mississippi, who had been bound by the chains of a cruel malady for forty years, was made free by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Although a physician, no medicine known to Dr. O. B. Cooke of Maben, Miss., would cure his malignant cough until he tried this supreme remedy; then he wrote: "It is the finest medicine for any and all troubles of throat, chest and lungs I ever used in my life. It has cured me of a cough I have suffered with for forty years." Think of this, all ye whom hope has led from. The glory of this marvellous medicine is the vast number of hopeless sufferers it has saved. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Hay Fever simply cannot exist unless Dr. King's new Discovery is used, and countless victories attest its power over La Grippe, Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhage and Pleurisy. If suffering a free trial bottle will show how it soothes and heals inflamed membranes while 50c and $1.00 bottles are guaranteed to cure. Sold by all druggists.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it always gives great satisfaction. In these days of the gripe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—So. Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by L. Rosenheimer.

"Operative Words."

"Operative words," says a member of the bar, "are of the utmost importance in legal documents and in business affairs."

"Probably the most seriously important operative word in human affairs is composed of but three letters, and it appears in print thus: 'Yes.' When she says 'yes' to a man it means that she transfers her heart and hand to him who asks her to, etc. This little word establishes the most important contract of society, and while it may afterward be dissolved by mutual consent, if one of the contracting parties deniers and backs out, a suit for damages is open to the other.

"In auction sales the property put up is anybody's until the auctioneer says 'gone' or 'sold' and the hammer drops. No matter how the sale is regarded, or how much the parties would like to retract, it stands, and the courts will sustain it.

"In a will they are 'give, devise and bequeath.' Real property is 'bequeathed' and personal property 'bequeathed.'"

"In a note the borrower must 'promise to pay, and in a bond he must 'bind' himself.

"In some states certain words are necessary in a deed to convey real estate. The courts generally have held however that the word 'grant' will carry a good title. In a lease the word 'let' must be used. In a quit-claim deed the words 'quit-claim' must be used."

—Exchange.

A teacher was trying to illustrate the meanings of the words 'biped' and 'quadruped' and showed the pictures of a horse and a rooster. Finally he held the pictures aloft and encouragingly asked: "Now, scholars, which one am I?" "The rooster," replied several of the pupils.—X.

An eastern magazine recently gave a prize for the following definition: "A kiss is a noun, though generally used as a conjunction. It is never declined. It is more common than proper; it is not very singular, and is generally used in the plural and agrees with you and me."

Housewife—It's very queer that the potatoes you bring should be so much bigger at the top than at the bottom of the sack. Farmer—Madam it comes about this way. Potatoes grow so fast now that by the time I get a sack full the last picked naturally are larger than the first.—X.

—Hartford Times, Jan. 3: Friday last Fred day of the town of Ashippun came to this city to take home a threshing engine, which had been overhauled by John Landt. The engine is one of the old kind and had to be transported with horses. When but a few miles from home Mr. Day got off and walked along one side of the engine, and while doing so he accidentally fell so that the front wheel passed over his left leg. No bones were broken, but the leg was quite severely bruised.

—Kewaskum has a new pool champion in the person of Joe Grittner, the cattle dealer, who recently came out the victor of a contest wherein he played against the combined skill of two local experts. While admitting that the terms of the game gave him three shots to his opponents' two, Joe claims that he was equally handicapped by getting the most crooked "stick" in the rack at Marx's pool-table. At any rate, as it was Joe's first appearance in such a role, the vanquished still marvel at his skill and probably surmise that he "got his hand in" while wielding a stockman's stick.

—Last Wednesday the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company inaugurated its system for pensioning old and deserving employes. Any employe between 65 and 69 years of age, having served thirty years and become disabled in service, will receive a pension of 1 per cent. per month on his monthly rate of wages in the last ten years of his service. Any employe having reached the age of 70 years, and who has been thirty years in the employ of the company, will be retired upon a pension of 1 per cent. per month, calculated the same as in the previous case stated. Officials of the road claim that the new system will benefit the aged persons on their lines, while the cost will be but $200,000 per year.

PRIZE FIGHT AT DUNDEE. The 20-round boxing contest at M. Cahill's last Saturday evening, between Perry Queenan of Chicago and George Locks of Milwaukee, was the most interesting entertainment ever witnessed in this vicinity. It was a lively fight from the time the gong sounded until the last part of the third round, when Queenan landed a clean left upper-cut on the jaw, which sent Locks to the floor, where he was counted out by the referee, Michael Murphy. Locks was the aggressor and did some excellent work until the knock-out blow was given. There were three preliminary bouts by local boxers, who made a good showing.

Cured of Deafness. Dr. Secrist cured me of deafness and nervous prostration a year ago, and I remain cured today. The cure is permanent.—PETER SRELIAN, Barton, Wis. Doctor Secrist will be at the Hotel Weinand at West Bend on Wednesday, Jan. 9th.

The young people of the St. Matthew congregation gave a very successful card party at Murray & Naughton's hall on the 27th ult. John Naughton and Ella Prehn captured the leading prizes, while Bert Hall and Mrs. Hoffmann won the booby prize in euchre. At schafkopf Hugo Kuehl won the first prize and Chas. Glass easily took the booby.

The midnight flashlights met at the mill Monday night to escort the new century in, and the reader may rest assured the society did honor to its reputation. The old century went out with a bang, and the new came in with a bang. Of course advantage was taken of the opportunity afforded to initiate some new members, and it was done so thoroughly that a number of them are still looking pretty blue.

Gus Dickmann and wife, August Treiber and family, C. J. Glass and wife, Carl Koepke and wife, Wm. Wedde and wife, Herman Schimmelpfennig and Gus Koepke spent the afternoon and evening of Jan. 1st with Albert Koepke. A sumptuous supper was served, and the evening was spent in card playing and story telling. Albert Koepke related some very interesting incidents of early frontier life in the Dakotas, and his story about buffaloes and potatoes was especially interesting to the ladies.
