KEWASKUM JOINS SEMI-PRO. LEAGUE

Central Wisconsin Baseball League is Formed at a Meeting at Fond du Lac. To Include Six Clubs.

A semi-pro baseball league of the different clubs of this vicinity was formed at a baseball meeting held at Fond du Lac last Sunday.

The league will comprise clubs from Fond du Lac, Theresa, Mayville and Kewaskum as a certainty, and North Fond du Lac, Waupun, Ripon, Princeton and Schleisingerville to be considered. Sunday ball will be played.

The meeting was called at 3 P. M., Anderson of Fond du Lac being appointed Chairman, and Byron H. Rosenheimer of this village, as Secretary.

The following clubs were represented: Theresa, Mayville, North Fond du Lac, Waupun, Kewaskum and Fond du Lac. The representatives from each club, besides speaking very much in favor of the newly formed league, also gave their ideas as to how to make it a success.

Another meeting will be held at Fond du Lac, Sunday, March 6th, when officers will be elected and the final arrangements made for the perfection of the league.

Kewaskum was represented at the meeting by Geo. H. Schmidt, B. H. Rosenheimer and Erwin D. Koch.

The Teachers' Meeting.

The teachers meeting held at the High School building at West Bend last Saturday was a marked success. About seventy teachers were present, and an unusually strong program was presented. All of the discussions were profitable, and the lecture by Prof. Sanders was appreciated by all who heard it.

At the business meeting, a new constitution was adopted, officers elected and the old Association is now in running order again. It was decided by the executive committee that another meeting be held at Hartford, March 19 in order to reach more generally the teachers of the western half of the county. It is not intended, however, to make these meetings at Hartford and West Bend duplicates. All meetings are intended for all teachers. It was further decided that a bulletin be published and sent to teachers and school board members periodically during the school year—this bulletin to contain matters of interest concerning the schools and education in general. The first bulletin will be issued within the next ten days.

The officers elected were as follows: President—Prin. Charles H. Jaehnic, Fredonia, R. D.; Vice-President—Miss Agnes L. Clark, Barton, R. D.; Secretary-Treasurer—Prin. R. W. Beger, Colgate, R. D.; Executive Committee—Chas. H. Jaehnic, ex-officio; F. W. Bucklin, ex-officio; J. J. Foote, Jackson; W. O. Mielahn, Schleisingerville; H. C. Hauschild, Kewaskum, R. D. 5a.

Conductor Left Behind.

Passenger train No. 7 leaving Milwaukee at 7:20 P. M. ran from West Bend to Barton last Tuesday night without a conductor and brakeman. Through some mistake the engineer started the train out of West Bend while the conductor and brakeman were in the station.

The conductor made an effort to have the dispatcher at Barton notify the engineer of the train of what had happened when the train reached that point, but the Barton station was closed. Finally the conductor managed to reach a saloon near the depot at Barton over the telephone and after telling the saloon keeper what had happened, directed him to be at the depot when the train pulled in and notify the engineer.

This the saloon keeper did and the train was backed up to West Bend and the conductor and brakeman waiting there were taken aboard. The train was over an hour late in reaching this village.

To Organize Brass Band.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held at Krahn's tailor shop Monday evening for the purpose of organizing a brass band. A temporary secretary was elected and instructed to secure new books. The newly organized band is expected to have about twenty-five members. A meeting will be held next Tuesday evening when an organization will be perfected.

Coldest This Season.

Last Tuesday night was the coldest night experienced here this winter, and it is said that not since 1889 had the temperature gone so low in February. Thermometers here varied and registered degrees of coldness from 18 to 22 below zero. The cold wave according to reports is general throughout the country. If the cold weather continues much longer there is liable to be a fuel famine in Kewaskum, as many are already out of wood and are unable to get any from the farmer.

LOSES DOUBLE HEADER

Both the Girls and Boys of the Local High School Lose to the Girls and Boys of the West Bend School.

Last Friday evening the local High School suffered a double defeat at the hands of the West Bend High School. The local girls being defeated by a close score of 6 to 4, while the boys were defeated by the overwhelming score of 25 to 7.

The girls of both schools played the preliminary game, which was very interesting and exciting, their lineup was practically the same as when the two teams played against each other at West Bend. Olive Opgenorth, center for the locals played the star game.

The game of the boys proved to be one-sided, which is because the locals were completely outclassed. The score at the end of the first half was 7 to 5 in favor of the visitors, which score made it look as if the locals would hold their own and have a fighting chance to win, but in the second half the Benders rallied and had the ball in their possession most all of the time. Klumb, forward for the visitors, was easily the star, his perfect throwing of field goals and free throws was easily the feature. Credit must be given him for his fine work.

NOTES:

Oakfield here next Friday evening.

Romaine had an off day throwing free throws.

West Bend no doubt has the best teams of the two schools.

Peters, center for West Bend, was in the game all of the time.

Regner's refereeing in the girls game did not prove satisfactory.

A wire netting in front of the stage would prove to be the only thing.

School yells were given by the rooters of both schools at different intervals.

The crowd at the game was the largest that ever witnessed a game of basketball in this village.

March 11th the Menominee Falls high school girls team will play the local high school girls. Look forward to this game.

CONGRESS IN SESSION.

Senate.

The senators' session was very brief on the 16th, it having exhausted the uncontented bills on the calendar and being unable to proceed with other business on account of its rules.

Mr. Davis of Arkansas engaged in an excited denunciation of John D. Rockefeller on the 17th in connection with the consideration of a bill granting right of way for an oil and gas line across the state. The bill was then passed, Mr. Davis casting the only vote in the negative. The Senate also passed the diplomatic bill appropriating $4,000,000, and appointed a committee to investigate the cost of living.

The principal feature of the proceedings in the Senate on the 18th was the delivery of a speech by Senator Vandenberg in support of a measure proposed by him looking to co-operation of the engineers' corps of the army with other agencies devoted to the development of the resources of the country.

The Indian appropriation bill occupied the attention of the Senate during six hours on the 19th. Most of the debate was upon an amendment for the abolition of Indian warehouses in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and San Francisco.

Bills providing for a commission to investigate the business methods of the government and for the issuance of $30,000,000 of certificates of indebtedness in the interest of irrigation projects were discussed by the Senate on the 21st. Neither measure was disposed of. Senator Aldrich estimated that the former measure would effect an annual saving of $100,000,000. The House bill to require railroad companies to supply handbrakes, step ladders, etc., was passed.

The Senate heard Washington's farewell address read on the 22nd, passed a few bills of minor importance and adjourned.

House.

A number of local bills were passed by the House on the 16th.

The Indian appropriation bill and measures of interest to the District of Columbia were under consideration until adjournment was taken on the 17th.

Discussion of various features of the Indian appropriation bill and the reference of many war claims to the court of claims occupied most of the time of the House on the 18th. No important amendment was made to the Indian bill. The House leaders determined to make their policy of sticking closely to business, without allowing extended time for general debate upon appropriation measures, today refused to make any concession to members of the minority who desired opportunity to speak, beyond that which a strict enforcement of the rules permitted. Late in the day the postoffice appropriation bill was reported to the House.

The Senate was not in session on the 19th.

The House took action on the 21st assuring an appropriation of $125,000 for completing the work of the immigration commission. A large number of local bills were passed and further progress was made upon the Indian appropriation bill, which upon adjournment had been about half completed.

The House passed the Indian appropriation bill on the 22nd practically in the form recommended by the committee, carrying $8,250,000. The postoffice appropriation bill was also taken up and after being in session for five and one-half hours the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON THE MODEL AMERICAN

FATHER OF THIS COUNTRY IDEAL REPRESENTATIVE OF PEOPLE, DECLARES HUGHES.

TIMES HAVE NOT CHANGED.

First President Did Not Conform to Better Standards of Period "Superior in Virtue to Our Own."

GOVERNOR HONORED WITH DEGREE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 22.—In accord with a custom of nearly 100 years, the anniversary of the birth of George Washington was observed today by the University of Pennsylvania as "University Day," the feature of which was the announcement of a number of gifts to the institution, the conferring of degrees and the address of Gov. Hughes of New York, the orator of the occasion. The exercises were held in the Academy of Music. Gov. Hughes

Washington's Address
Read in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—As recognition of Washington's birthday the Senate today listened to the reading of the farewell address of the father of his country. The reading was done by Senator Chauncey M. Depew of New York, who was designated by the vice president to perform this service. Senator Depew took the platform immediately after the opening prayer by Chaplain Pierce, who alluded to the day as one of "grateful and holy remembrance." The attendance of senators was scant, but was compensated for by the large number of visitors in the galleries. Mr. Depew was in good voice, and he was heard throughout the chamber. The reading occupied about an hour.

The only reference to George Washington in the House of Representatives when it met today was by Rep. Henry H. Couden, the blind chaplain. Extending the morning prayer beyond the usual time consumed in that devotional exercise, Mr. Couden referred to the "influence of the great work and character of Washington upon the destiny of the American republic."

was honored with the degree of doctor of laws.

Provost Charles C. Harrison announced that the medical school had been given $100,000 by an unnamed alumnus and that in a few days the university will come into $50,000 for the endowment of ten beds in the University hospital.

Presenting Gov. Hughes, Provost Harrison spoke of the governor's courage and disinterestedness.

"To all our minds, in all our hearts," the provost said, "a great light shines in the firmament of our country in the character and personality of the gentleman who is about to address you."

COMMITTEE FAVORS MEYER'S NAVAL PLAN.

House Members Approve Reorganization Scheme and Would Give It Year's Trial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—The House naval committee today voted a tentative approval of Secretary Meyer's plan of reorganization, which will give the secretary the power to put his plan into practice for one year. The committee voted to consider and compare the secretary's plan of naval administration next fall.

PIRATES ROVING LAKE.

Chief of Police Steward Declares Crews of Small Tugs Are Selling Liquor Illegally to Sailors.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 22.—Modern pirates are roving Lake Michigan. They are the crews of small tugs which go out to sea with cargoes of liquor and take away the pay of sailors before they reach shore.

This is the conclusion of Chief of Police Steward, who has ordered the police jurisdiction of Chicago to be extended three miles out into the lake. It has been the practice of these tugs, he says, to sell liquor "out on the water" without a license. The sailors call the tugs "life savers," and it often happens in rough weather, according to the chief, that drinks are dispensed from the ends of long poles which reach up to the decks of the vessels, the "prices" of the drinks being handed back in a similar fashion.

As soon as navigation opens, the chief announced, a full fleet of ships, manned by policemen, is to sail out to run the "pirates" out of business.

IMMIGRANTS IN PANIC.

Italians, Locked in Room, Think Disinfectant Is Fire and Refuse to Be Quieted.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Use of a powerful disinfectant in the corridors and detention rooms of the immigration station at Ellis island today, caused more than 100 Italians, locked in one of the rooms, to become panic-stricken, refusing to be calmed when assured that the thick fumes which stifled them were not caused by fire.

In trying to escape the imaginary fire, the men beat at the barred windows and ran around the room in a frenzy of fear. Four of them were seriously injured in the crush they had when they were ordered to be removed to the island hospital for treatment. One man was severely cut when, after succeeding in tearing away the heavy screening from one of the windows, he broke through the heavy glass. Attendants from all parts of the station were rushed to the scene, but it was some time before the immigrants could be quieted.

Just About Even.

A domestic scientist says that wives waste one-fifth of their husbands' incomes. Taking into consideration that the average husband wastes another fifth, things seem to even up pretty well. Philadelphia Inquirer.

Best Shot in Great Britain.

Lord Walsingham, whose generous gift of his wonderful collection of moths to the Natural History museum will be greatly appreciated by student and layman alike, shares with Lord de Grey the distinction of being the finest shot in Great Britain. He is probably the only man who can, and does, shoot wasps on the wing. This, needless to say, requires not only a marvellous eye, but also the steadiness of hands. The weapon with which his lordship performs this remarkable feat is a miniature rifle, specially constructed after his own design. The rifle, which is captured and belongs to the world's record for a grouse bag. After shooting single-handed for fifteen hours, he once accounted for 1070 grouse. Another time, with 1100 cartridges, he brought down 842 birds.

NICARAGUAN REBELS GAIN BIG VICTORIES

INSURGENTS CAPTURE GRANADA AND EVADE TROOPS.

ADVANCE OF CHAMORRO'S SOLDIERS CAUSES UNEASINESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—Victories of immense importance to the insurgent army in Nicaragua are told in dispatches being received today at the state department.

Gen. Chamorro, with the main division of the insurgent army, has completely evaded the government forces and by a flank movement has taken the city of Granada. The Chamorro family is powerful in the capture of the city is most important. It is inferred that Gen. Estrada, once believed to be going in the direction of Greytown, is marching to make a junction with Chamorro, and that the capture of the city is the result of a conference with the guerrilla warfare which has raged for the last few days. The losses of the provisional troops were slight.

Complete disorder and panic are spreading through the Madrid troops and the government. All trains on the railroad east of Managua have been abandoned, and the line is used only for military purposes. The situation in the surrounding country is becoming more serious for the government. The insurgents also recaptured the government steamer Victoria on Lake Managua.

Madrid, taking alarm at the spirit of unrest among the populace, which has increased every day as Chamorro's troops have been advancing, has practically declared a dictatorship over the departments of Granada, Masaya and Carazo, and has put Julian Irujo in charge with plenary powers. The appointee was Zelaya's prime minister.

PORTUGUESE PLOT IS WIDE SPREAD

GOVERNMENT APPARENTLY IS GREATLY PERTURBED.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION BROUGHT FROM GERMANY.

LISBON, Portugal, Feb. 23.—(By way of the Spanish frontier.)—The government apparently is much perturbed by the discovery of a widespread revolutionary plot. Arrests of suspects are being made daily. Confidential information has reached the authorities that a cargo of arms and ammunition for the revolutionists is being brought from Germany.

CHINESE SOLDIERS HAVE ENTERED TIBET.

Dalai Lama, Famous Ecclesiastical, Flees with Several of His Ministers Into India.

CALCUTTA, British India, Feb. 23.—Chinese troops today entered Lhasa, the capital of Tibet and the residence of the Dalai Lama, supreme head of the Lamaist hierarchy. Upon the approach of the soldiers, the famous ecclesiastical fled with several of his ministers into India.

Serious trouble has been expected owing to the action of the small Chinese army, which, marching from Sze-Chuen, China, subdued eastern Tibet, levying contributions on the Lama's people and showing no respect for the monasteries. The Tibetans, resenting the desecration of their holy places, petitioned the Chinese foreign board, praying that the Chinese should withdraw from the interests of the Buddhists. The petition was disregarded, as the Chinese propose to make the administration of the country purely Chinese.

The Dalai Lama appealed to Lord Minto, the viceroy of India, but the latter refused to intervene. When the Chinese troops were reported as moving from the province of Kham, ostensibly to strengthen the garrison at Lhasa, the Lama hastily quitted the capital and proceeded toward Darjiling.

PRESIDENT IN NEWARK.

Taft Goes Over to Jersey Side After Paying Visit to J. Pierpont Morgan's Art Gallery.

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 23.—This is "Taft day" here and the city has taken on holiday attire in honor of the visit of President William H. Taft, who came this afternoon as the guest of the Newark board of trade.

In New York this morning President Taft paid a visit to J. Pierpont Morgan's art gallery at East Thirty-sixth street and Madison avenue. His purpose in visiting the financier's art gallery was to inspect a portrait of Mr. Morgan which is being painted by a Peruvian artist, Banca Flor.

The President watched the South American artist work on the portrait for fifteen minutes. Capt. Butt said President Taft might possibly give the artist a commission to paint a portrait of himself in the white house. The only person present in the art gallery during the President's visit were Lewis Cass Ledyard, the lawyer, and the secret service men.

ELECT PERCY SENATOR.

Mississippi Legislators Name Greenville Man to Succeed the Late A. J. McLaurin.

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 23.—The two houses of Mississippi Legislature met in joint session today and unanimously elected Hon. Leroy Percy of Greenville as United States senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator A. J. McLaurin.

Kossuth Disciple's Wealth to Poor.

A few days ago at the age of 82 there died at Zombor in Hungary one of Kossuth's followers named Stefan Komjath, who had always led an eccentric existence and had been regarded as a man of merely moderate means. But on his death he left behind him a fortune and had riched his wealth chiefly for the purpose of distributing it at his death in benefiting his fellow citizens. His bequests included 80 morgan of land and 60,000 kronen for an institute

PHILADELPHIA STILL IN HANDS OF THE RIOTERS

CARS ARE STONED UNTIL SUPPLY OF GLASS FOR WINDOWS BECOMES EXHAUSTED.

STRIKERS PLAY WITH SOLDIERS

State Invincibles Are Stripped of Arms and Clothing and Jeered by Crowds on Streets.

THREE DEAD REPORTED TO DATE.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 23.—Three dead, three lying at the point of death in hospitals and more than 1000 persons injured, is the toll exacted by the reign of lawlessness which has existed in this city for three days and which it was predicted would be renewed today as the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company expected to have more cars in operation than in one day since the strike started.

Unlike the preceding days, this morning opened bright with just enough crispness in the air to make one feel like a new man. The failure of the state forces to intimidate the strikers in the northeastern section of the city yesterday was the basis of a conference was called this morning between Gov. Stuart, Gen. Stewart, Brig. Gen. Bowman and Maj. Reynolds. The day's developments and this conference, it was said, would decide whether the entire National guard of Pennsylvania should be called out or whether the police authorities should be given further time in which to demonstrate ability to cope with the situation.

It was understood that Mayor Reynolds was anxious to call upon the state troops, but Director of Public Safety Clay was opposed. The director contended that the state police, an experienced mounted organization which has done effective duty in different parts of the state, should at first be brought into action. There are only 200 men in this organization, but they are the pick of the state, and of a caliber not easy to intimidate.

Dynamite Car Barn.

Thus far the rioters have made street cars the principal objects of their attacks. The northwestern section of the city and Market street under the very eyes of the mayor, have been the main scenes of such operations. Dynamite was used last night in a car barn in the northwestern section where fifteen policemen were asleep. No one was injured.

The fact that the sympathetic strike was not declared by President John J. Murphy of the Central Labor union acted as a stimulus to the tired police officials of the city, who were anticipating a strike of 100,000 men. A move is on foot, however, to have the sympathizers of the striking street railway employees arrested. Fully 100 men, 100 strong, and thereby show the mayor and other officials the giant proportions of the threatened uprising, should it later decide to call these men out.

The decision not to have this army of workers engage in the struggle at present was due to Organizer Clarence O. Pratt, of the street car men's union. He pointed out to Murphy that the time was not opportune for this move. The union leader decided to take the advice of Pratt, and defer calling for such drastic action by the strike sympathizers.

The right of Murphy to call a general strike of all transport organizations organized with the central union is disputed by a majority of the local labor leaders. Careful investigation shows that Murphy as head of a general strike but is only vested with the authority to suggest one. It then rests with each trade union to act upon the matter.

Jokes on the "Soldiers."

The placing on guard of the state fencibles along Lehigh avenue is now admitted to have been a mistake. The members of this organization which exist in the use of a city armory, are mostly very young men, some of them mere boys. They were placed all along the street and when the rioters, marching from Kensington, heard the drum beat of the young soldiers they turned out in force to greet them.

Lehigh avenue was soon filled with a mob of jeering strike sympathizers and general disorder ensued that lasted for hours and was only broken up by the regular police after the militiamen had been removed to their armory and a revolver shot fired.

Practical jokes of every description were played upon the members of the Fencibles. Some were partially stripped of their clothing and after their arms had been taken from them were chased up and down the streets by bands of young toughs. Tin indicators were stuck on the ends of their bayonets and the buttons of the district collected. The brass buttons from the uniforms as souvenirs. The young soldiers were not assembled in squads, but were stationed separately—some in a square apart. One young girl stuck a hat pin in a soldier's back, and caused him to jump and the crowd to laugh.

The third death as a result of the conflict of jeering strike sympathizers and rioters occurred today when John H. Hough, 18 years old, died in the Samaritan hospital. A policeman who was protecting a motorist in the operation of a car as it was passing north of Germantown avenue at Westmoreland street saw boys throwing stones at the car. The policeman opened fire on them, and one bullet struck Hough in the neck. The boy was not believed to be mortally wounded, but his condition took a turn for the worse during the night. Hough is the boy who in an ante-mortem statement to the coroner said he was one of the rioters who had agreed to assemble and attack cars.

The noon hour when great hordes of people were released from big industrial plants and other places of human activity passed with little general disorder, much to the relief of the authorities. There were disturbances at Third street and Seventh street caused by the stoning of cars, but the throng was kept moving by mounted men.

Kossuth Disciple's Wealth to Poor.

A few days ago at the age of 82 there died at Zombor in Hungary one of Kossuth's followers named Stefan Komjath, who had always led an eccentric existence and had been regarded as a man of merely moderate means. But on his death he left behind him a fortune and had riched his wealth chiefly for the purpose of distributing it at his death in benefiting his fellow citizens. His bequests included 80 morgan of land and 60,000 kronen for an institute for the blind, 200 morgan and 400,000 kronen for a school, 1200 morgan and 200,000 kronen for a cadet training institution and 250,000 kronen for a church. Two hundred and fifty thousand kronen were left to a priest, his servant and estate, stewards receive 200,000 each and 120 other persons 3000 kronen each. Lokal Anzeiger.

JEWISH WORSHIP REFORMS.

Important reforms in Jewish worship have been decided upon by the congregants of the West London synagogue, the home of English Reform Judaism. In the course of a manifesto issued by leading members of the congregation emphasis is laid upon the fact that since the synagogue was founded seventy years ago thought and habit have vastly changed in England, and the changes have reacted on Jewish opinion.

The congregants have resolved on shorter services, partly to be rendered in English as many members are unable to follow the Hebrew reading, the study of that language being at present to a large extent abandoned.

"We do not," adds the manifesto, "consider it would be necessary to add to the beautiful prayers of our liturgy, but it might be advisable to introduce metrical versions of the Psalms, in the singing of which the members could join."

Another innovation is the sitting together of men and women during divine service, a thing unheard of in the old Moslem tradition, which separates the sexes in oriental manner. But the reformers urge that this would be "in consonance with their deepest religious feelings."—New York Sun.

How to Keep Baby's Skin Clear.

Few parents realize how many estimable lives have been embittered and social and business success prevented by serious skin affections which so often result from the neglect of minor eruptions in infancy and childhood. With but a little care and the use of the proper treatment, the skin and hair may be preserved, purified and beautified, minor eruptions prevented from becoming chronic and torturing, disfiguring rashes, itching, irritations and chafings dispelled.

To this end, nothing is so pure, so sweet, so speedily effective as the constant use of Cuticura Soap, assisted, when necessary, by Cuticura Ointment. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole proprietors, for their free 32-page Cuticura Book, telling all about the care and treatment of the skin.

TWENTY CENTS A DAY.

A Professor Declares That Amount Sufficient for Nutritious Daily Fare.

Dr. Franklin A. White, Harvard's expert in dietetics, advocating the use of corn meal, oatmeal, cheap syrup and especially herring and potatoes as substitutes for meat, said: "There is no reason why any working man or woman could not live on 20 cents a day. The great trouble is that the present cheap nutritious foods because we do not care for their flavor, or because we imagine they are not as palatable as other and much more costly foods. The very best of food is the present, and great movement will be the discovery by many persons that they can get along on little or no meat, and feel in better health than ever before."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. This tube is inflamed by a running cold, or by imperfect drainage, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by this method, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give you a hundred dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Jewish Colonies in Holy Land.

From time to time various colonies of Jews have actually returned to the Holy Land. There are records of Jewish settlements there as early as 1170, and in the sixteenth century the Jews of Livorno, "where only Jews were to dwell," were permitted to settle in the Holy Land, paratively modern times that the foundation of Jewish colonies began in 1825, the ideas of Laurence Oliphant and the Earl of Shaftesbury. In 1870, the British government purchased 700 acres of land for the Jews of Jerusalem and the foundation of the colony of Petah Tikvah. After the Russian persecution of 1881, large numbers of Jews emigrated and in the period 1888 there were about 200 Jewish colonies in Palestine.—London Chronicle.

A Good Manager.

Homer S. Taylor, president of the National Archery association, said at an archers' dinner in Chicago:

"An archer must be very skillful and calm and cool to succeed. He must handle his bow as Mrs. Peareck of Michigan avenue handles her husband."

"Mr. Peareck came home very late the other night from an important political meeting. In the hall he kicked up rather a row, growling and swearing to himself till his wife called to him from upstairs."

"What's the matter, my dear?"

"Matter—hic—is, Mr. Peareck shouted, 'that there are two tracks here, and I dunno which one to hang my hat on.'"

"But you've got two hats, haven't you?" said Mrs. Peareck sternly. "Hang one on each rack and come up to bed. You're tired."—Detroit Free Press.

BADGERS ESCAPE FROM WRECKAGE IN BITTER COLD

PASSENGER TRAIN LEAVES RAILS NEAR LITTLE SUAMICO AND IS DEMOLISHED.

PULLMANS BECOME SPLINTERS

Smoking Car Is Hurlled 400 Feet from Track and Whole Train Is Debris.

NOT ONE FATAL INJURY RESULTS.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Feb. 19.—[Special.]—The North-Western road passenger train No. 2, running between Ishpeming and Chicago, was wrecked one mile north of Little Suamico at 1:30 o'clock this morning and the whole train was demolished. No one was killed but fourteen passengers were more or less injured. It is miraculous that some were not killed or more seriously injured. No bones were broken, however, and the injuries are not of a serious nature. Several badgers were passengers.

The cause of the wreck is believed to have been a broken rail. The tracks were torn up for two miles.

Cars Are Demolished.

Two of the sleepers were telescoped and the smoking car was hurled 400 feet away from the right of way. The other cars were smashed and are piled up in a mass of twisted iron and shattered timber.

The train was made up of four sleepers, one baggage and one express car, a Pullman and two day coaches.

The injured passengers were nearly all in the sleepers en route to points in Illinois and Wisconsin. The train was in the darkness and was forced to escape in their night clothes. The thermometer registered 10 degrees below zero.

Resume Their Journey.

Some of those who were seriously injured resumed their journey later during the morning and all of the other passengers have left the city since the wreck except a number of the injured who are at St. Vincent's hospital. All of the injured passengers were taken to the hospital.

The right-of-way is blocked and wrecking trains from Green Bay and Escanaba are at work now clearing the tracks. It will take the day and night to get the right-of-way open for traffic. The rail is being sent to Oconto, making a delay of perhaps two hours.

List of Injured.

The injured passengers are as follows: Tony Wassum, Chicago, hip and knee injured; J. Dalton, Escanaba, back and hip injured; James King, Deperre, head hurt; J. A. Higer, Chicago, shoulder injured; C. M. Melander, Deperre, back hurt; P. C. Deibel, Deperre, arm and shoulder injured; E. P. Smith, ankle sprained; F. D. Pixley, Chicago, back and hip injured; E. R. Mayer, Kokomo, leg bruised; John Epinger, Oshkosh, and prison warden; Shaw, Shaw, slightly injured.

One of the sleepers was overturned and left to be taken to the hospital.

WHOLE FAMILY JAILED

COURT DELAY REVEALS CHILDREN IN SORRY PREDICAMENT.

Mother Cannot Afford to Attend Hearing of Divorce Suit Brought Against Her Husband.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—Because she did not have any money with which to pay her railroad fare, Mrs. Inez Fisher could not appear in circuit court here this morning when a divorce action she brought against her husband, Charles, for alleged cruel and inhuman treatment, was called for trial. The action was started in January and Mrs. Fisher's father came and took her and the children to his home. A letter from the clerk of the court at Cedar Rapids was read in court today to the effect that after the arrival of Tempest and his daughter, all of them were placed in jail for vagrancy and were released on Tempest's promise to go to work. The court here ordered Fisher to go to Cedar Rapids and get her family.

CRYPTOGRAMS MAY EXPOSE GRAFTERS.

Patrick Calhoun of San Francisco Shows Series of Cipher Messages in Newspaper Personal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 23.—Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads company whose second trial for the attempted bribing of a city supervisor is pending here, is said to have brought to the attention of District Attorney Pickett a series of cipher messages which are alleged to relate to the graft prosecution and which appeared in the personal column of a local newspaper during portions of 1908 and 1909. Mr. Calhoun makes the request that the district attorney investigate the relation of these messages to the graft cases.

The cryptograms, it is said, number forty-six in all, and bear reference to many phases of the prosecution, from the bribing of the houses, ex-Superior of James Matthews, chief witness for the state, to the case of S. P. Flynn, historian of the same side. From the conviction of Abe Ruef to the disagreement of the jury in Calhoun's first trial, there is said to be hardly an important legal action which the cipher messages do not concern. Threats against the life of Calhoun are mingled with cipher communications to another attorney, to the death of Chief of Police Biggy. Jurors in the Calhoun case are freely mentioned.

The key to the cryptograms lies in reading the first letters of each word in the numerous personal. The district attorney is said to have in his possession all the messages and their translation. He is asked to lay them before the grand jury.

SCENTS YELLOW PERIL.

Leslie M. Shaw Declares That Japanese Intend to Dominate the Pacific or Fight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—A speech by Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, in which the possibility of a serious struggle with Japan is strongly suggested, was given at the Manhattan Club here today.

Mr. Shaw delivered the speech Tuesday night in Morristown, N. J., the dinner of the Washington Association, which he headed for a banquet on the same night and held up before his audience the peril of Japanese domination of the Pacific.

"Japan," declared the former cabinet member, "is making a race between the two countries. Do you go to Japan to live, and you live with you are told to live. The Japanese come and go to live in your country. You can't buy land there for any amount of money, but the Japanese want to buy land everywhere. Your children can't go to school there, but the Japanese want to go to school in this country with your little girls."

FOUR MORE BODIES

One Hundred and Seventy-three Corpses in Cherry Shaft Yet to Be Found.

CHERRY, Ill., Feb. 19.—Four more bodies were taken out of the St. Paul mine today. This makes a total of 124 bodies recovered since the disaster of November 13.

It is estimated that 173 bodies are yet to be found. Whether they will be brought to the surface by any great number, was declared to be uncertain because of obstructions in the tunnel, ground tunnels which must be removed.

Charles Atherton, known as the "tor boss" who was shot while at his post of duty by Melas Mandelich, Friday afternoon, was reported today to be dying. Atherton has been here only three days, and was said to be unknown to the would-be assassin, who was charged over having been dismissed.

WIFE WANTS DIVORCE.

Beautiful Woman Charges That Husband Demanded at Pistol Point That She Sing Her Wer.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Feb. 19.—[Special.]—The divorce action of Mrs. Elizabeth Burford against William B. Burford began in circuit court today. Mrs. Burford is a beautiful woman, and Mr. Burford is interested in telegraph wiring and various other enterprises.

Mrs. Burford testified that on January 18, at a dinner party, her husband forced the guests to leave with the exception of herself and Milton Kerr, a local singer, and pointing a revolver at Kerr's head, told him he intended to get a divorce from his wife and that if Kerr did not marry her within a year, Burford would blow his (Kerr's) brain out.

The plaintiff, who appeared on the stand in an elaborate costume, related other causes of what she called "cruel and inhuman treatment."

Judge Higbee held the matter open.

ANTS HAVE CATTLE.

Young Lady at Harvard Makes Discoveries with Microscope.

Edith N. Buckingham, Radcliffe, '02, now one of Prof. E. L. Mark's associates in the Harvard zoological laboratory, has the distinction of being the most eminent woman authority on ants. Miss Buckingham has been studying the habits of these insects for seven years, and has discovered the ant's known peculiarities. Miss Buckingham has built tiny frames of aluminum to hold plates of glass, between which is spread the earth in which the ants burrow and build their homes, rearing their young and caring for their microscopic flocks and herds under the eye of the young woman who has set herself to make a notable addition to the description of ant life. She has noted many things in connection with ant life relative to the building of their homes, tending their cattle and erecting sheds for the same cattle, and has already become distinguished in scientific circles as an original thinker. She is the daughter of Dr. E. M. Buckingham, a Boston physician.

BANKER ALLEN CONCOCTS PLOT

FEDERAL OFFICIALS ARE ASTOUNDED AT LETTERS WRITTEN WHILE A PRISONER.

PLANS TO CONCEAL HIS STOCKS.

Sheriff Halbach Gets Hold of Correspondence Which Bank Wrecker Tried to Smuggle.

CONVICT IS HASTENED TO PRISON.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—Phil Allen, Jr., wrecker of the First National Bank of Mineral Point, Wis., whose acts of frenzied finance ruined hundreds of depositors and furnished the federal government one of the worst cases of the kind ever on record, was taken to the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., this afternoon by United States Marshal R. E. Plunk. He is under sentence of ten years.

The decision to get Allen out of the way now, instead of holding him until the calling of the conspiracy cases against President Calvert Spensley, Mrs. Edith L. Allen (the banker's wife), Miss Addie Jackson (her sister), and Guy Roe (her brother-in-law), was made as a result of discoveries of secretly written letters in which Allen attempted to frame up deals against the receiver for his estate, the Central Wisconsin Trust company of Madison, with the purpose of concealing stocks and retaining them in the names of relatives.

Astounded Officials.

By these means Allen is more than ever revealed as a prince of criminals of the most clever type, and the attorneys and federal officials in charge of the case have been amazed at the depths of duplicity to which he has gone. Allen now is in the hands of Richmond, Jackson & Swanson, attorneys for the trustee, which were intercepted by clever work by Sheriff John P. Halbach, evidence of the most damaging and complete kind of Allen's bold attempt to hoodwink the government and his creditors.

Early in January a Milwaukee lawyer who visited Allen in his cell in the Dane county jail on legal business, took from Allen two letters to mail, the object being to dispatch them from another city.

Intercepts Letters.

Two weeks later Sheriff Halbach intercepted two more letters addressed to the same man. Allen had given them to a friend, an elderly man and an old acquaintance, from whom the sheriff took them.

The letters disclose a scheme to conceal and retain assets that for all-around cleverness and boldness cannot be beaten. Allen sought the aid of such a man to insure stocks and deceive the receiver. The scheme is intricate in its details, and took a master mind to work it out. In the letters Allen gave expression to a deep resentment towards the receiver and attorneys for taking stocks of his wife.

MAP OUT GLIDDEN TRIP.

First Automobile to "Spy Out the Land" for Run of 2200 Miles Leaves Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 23.—The first automobile to traverse the route and "spy out the land" for the 1910 Glidden tour left here today. Frank X. Zirbie, who drove the pace-maker in the national highway tour from New York to Atlanta, after having a few months before carried dispatches from Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, New York, to Mackinac, West, San Francisco, was at the wheel of the car, which was loaded with photographic supplies and map-making equipment. As planned for 1910, the Glidden tour will start from Denver, June, and cover 2200 miles. The principal controls will be established in Louisville, Ky.; Nashville and Memphis, Tenn.; Little Rock and Texarkana, Ark.; and Fort Worth, Tex.; Oklahoma City, Okla.; Topeka and Wichita, Kan.; St. Joseph, Mo.; Des Moines, Cedar Rapids and Davenport, Ia.; Rock Island, Moline and Chicago, Ill.

SKELETON IS NOT HIS.

Bones Buried as Being Those of Badger—Man Dies Recently.

VIROQUA, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—Bones believed to have been those of Michael O'Boyle will probably never be identified, as O'Boyle died only recently at San Diego, Cal., according to the sisters in charge of a hospital in that city.

A skeleton was found years ago under a rock on the farm which O'Boyle had owned and as no word was ever heard from him again, the community was one in believing that the bones were his, but the manner of his death could not be ascertained. He had left a mercantile business in Elroy thirty-eight years ago to go to the Golden Gate country.

After his wife's death he returned to his three children, left in care of a grandparent, and he suddenly disappeared shortly afterward. P. F. and Mary O'Boyle of Kendall and M. J. COTTON SLUMPS AGAIN.

Extreme Weakness Marks Re-opening of Market—Bulls May Have Abandoned Their Campaign.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—There was a renewal of the weakness in the cotton market today, with May selling off to 13.87 and the old crop months generally to a new loss of about 3/16 points shortly after midday under heavy liquidation and bear pressure.

Nothing appeared in the news over the holidays to account for the extreme weakness, but the character of the selling and the absence of support beyond covering by speculative and trade shorts suggested a final abandonment of the bull campaign.

One reason assigned was the approach of the planting season. Other causes were rumors of free offerings from the south.

THREE ON VESSEL HURT.

Elevator Drops Into Hold of Steamer Kansas and Men Go to the Emergency.

Three men were injured at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon in falling a distance of fifteen feet on a freight elevator on board the steamer Kansas of the Northern Michigan Transportation company's line.

J. W. Kelly, whose home is in Chicago, had both ankles broken. Charles Almond, living at the Marine house, 131 Reed street in this city, received a fracture in each ankle. Stanley Look, 1047 Ninth street, escaped with a bruised right leg.

The elevator dropped into the hold as the trio were descending on it with some freight to be unloaded below. All were treated in the Emergency hospital.

Carlo Giro, Convicted of Murder, Protests His Innocence Just Before Death Current Is Turned On.

OSHING, N. Y., Feb. 23.—Carlo Giro, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Sophie L. Staber in Brooklyn last July, was electrocuted in Sing Sing prison today, protesting his innocence to the last. Just before the current was turned on the condemned man murmured a prayer, and then cried:

"Shame on you Christian people who put me to death when I am not guilty."

Giro was convicted with Frederick Schliemann of having shot and killed Mrs. Staber during a burglarious raid on the Staber house. Schliemann is still in the death house awaiting execution.

BANKER ALLEN CONCOCTS PLOT

FEDERAL OFFICIALS ARE ASTOUNDED AT LETTERS WRITTEN WHILE A PRISONER.

PLANS TO CONCEAL HIS STOCKS.

Sheriff Halbach Gets Hold of Correspondence Which Bank Wrecker Tried to Smuggle.

CONVICT IS HASTENED TO PRISON.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—Phil Allen, Jr., wrecker of the First National Bank of Mineral Point, Wis., whose acts of frenzied finance ruined hundreds of depositors and furnished the federal government one of the worst cases of the kind ever on record, was taken to the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., this afternoon by United States Marshal R. E. Plunk. He is under sentence of ten years.

The decision to get Allen out of the way now, instead of holding him until the calling of the conspiracy cases against President Calvert Spensley, Mrs. Edith L. Allen (the banker's wife), Miss Addie Jackson (her sister), and Guy Roe (her brother-in-law), was made as a result of discoveries of secretly written letters in which Allen attempted to frame up deals against the receiver for his estate, the Central Wisconsin Trust company of Madison, with the purpose of concealing stocks and retaining them in the names of relatives.

Astounded Officials.

By these means Allen is more than ever revealed as a prince of criminals of the most clever type, and the attorneys and federal officials in charge of the case have been amazed at the depths of duplicity to which he has gone. Allen now is in the hands of Richmond, Jackson & Swanson, attorneys for the trustee, which were intercepted by clever work by Sheriff John P. Halbach, evidence of the most damaging and complete kind of Allen's bold attempt to hoodwink the government and his creditors.

Early in January a Milwaukee lawyer who visited Allen in his cell in the Dane county jail on legal business, took from Allen two letters to mail, the object being to dispatch them from another city.

Intercepts Letters.

Two weeks later Sheriff Halbach intercepted two more letters addressed to the same man. Allen had given them to a friend, an elderly man and an old acquaintance, from whom the sheriff took them.

The letters disclose a scheme to conceal and retain assets that for all-around cleverness and boldness cannot be beaten. Allen sought the aid of such a man to insure stocks and deceive the receiver. The scheme is intricate in its details, and took a master mind to work it out. In the letters Allen gave expression to a deep resentment towards the receiver and attorneys for taking stocks of his wife.

Bones Buried as Being Those of Badger—Man Dies Recently.

VIROQUA, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—Bones believed to have been those of Michael O'Boyle will probably never be identified, as O'Boyle died only recently at San Diego, Cal., according to the sisters in charge of a hospital in that city.

A skeleton was found years ago under a rock on the farm which O'Boyle had owned and as no word was ever heard from him again, the community was one in believing that the bones were his, but the manner of his death could not be ascertained. GOLD WAVE IS FATAL

BODY OF DEAD CHICAGOAN IS FOUND IN THE SNOW.

Woman Falls Out of Bed and Nearly Freezes to Death Before Being Rescued.

RACINE, Wis., Feb. 23.—[Special.]—One man frozen to death and a woman half frozen is the result of the present cold wave. The body of John Bisdorf, 38 years old, was found 40 feet from the home of his brother, George Bisdorf. Bisdorf was a resident of Chicago and came here several weeks ago to live with his brother. He left home Sunday afternoon and nothing was seen of him until the body was found this morning.

Bisdorf had been drinking and a bottle of whisky was found in one of his pockets. It is presumed that he started for home and fell on the way and was unable to help himself.

Mrs. John Evans, who has been ill for several weeks, fell out of her bed Tuesday night and was unable to get back. This morning neighbors broke into the house and found her badly frozen and almost dead. She was taken to a hospital and only slight hopes are entertained for her recovery.

BANK ORDERED CLOSED.

Shortage of $144,000 in Individual Deposits Causes Comptroller to Take Action.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 23.—The National City bank of Cambridge closed its doors today by order of the comptroller of the currency at Washington. A bank examiner is now in charge of the institution.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 23.—A shortage of $144,000 in the individual deposits caused the closing of the doors of the National City bank of Cambridge, according to information received by the comptroller of the currency. It is not known here who is responsible for the shortage.

C. W. Colman is the name given at the office of the comptroller of the currency as the bookkeeper of the National City bank of Cambridge, whose default caused the closing of the institution. He had absconded with the bank's more than wiped out the capital stock of $200,000 and the surplus and undivided profits amounting to $39,450, thus making the bank insolvent.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

In the cemetery at Carlyle, Ill., Thomas Philip, a farmer, has just erected over the grave of his wife a tombstone bearing this epitaph:

ALICE PHILIP. Born April 16, 1861; died November 15, 1903. TALKED TO DEATH BY FRIENDS.

Mrs. Philip was an invalid for years, and, according to her husband, every acquaintance in the county offered her suggestions on how to get well. She was the subject of much solicitude and, according to Philip, was literally talked to death.

There is an interesting history connected with Sultan, a French poodle, which was buried in a satin-lined metal coffin in a private burying ground at Canton, O., by H. P. Snyder, the owner, who resides at Mount Vernon, N. Y. Sultan was 10 years old and was beloved by both men. The animal was formerly owned by a Christian, and he presented him to Snyder following a fire at Ovrlook street, when, after Christmas had rescued their four French poodles, Sultan dashed back into the burning house in search of Snyder. A few years ago Sultan saved Mr. Snyder's sister from death in a fire in her home in Ohio. The dog was downstairs when the flames were discovered, and he ran up to the room occupied by Miss Snyder, and after arousing her by tugging at the bedclothes and barking loudly, led her down a rear staircase to safety. Every night Sultan slept with his head on a clean white pillow beside Christian, and every morning the dog would tap Christian on the face with his paw to arouse him. There were tears in Mr. Christian's eyes as he told of his devotion to the pet. Sultan was placed in a metal coffin lined with pink satin and interred on a silver plate on which was inscribed his name. Mr. Snyder took the little coffin with him on a limited express train to Canton, O., where it was buried in the family plot.

"Send the wagon and a load of policemen at once to Eighteenth street and Sergeant Avenue—papa's whipping man!" An excited child's voice telephoned this message to police headquarters in Joplin, Mo. Arriving at the home, that of E. F. Berry, a machinist, the police arrested Berry and his wife, despite their protestations that nothing was wrong. At headquarters they were permitted to make an explanation. Berry had returned home and found supper was late. He jokingly told his wife he had to "spank" her for it. Willie, his 6-year-old son, ran from the house to a neighbor's, and called the police. He said later he "knew it hurt when papa spanked, and he wasn't going to let him spank mamma."

The meat boycott is blamed for the marital woes of Samuel Barrymore, who, arraigned in the police court in Paterson, N. J., told Recorder Carroll that he had a rumper because his wife would not buy meat. "My wife is in favor of reducing meat prices," said the prisoner, "and she started this boycott business on me in December. Since then I've had on all sorts of patented foods, and I'm tired of being confronted by a vegetable garden on the table every night. I told her I'd get a divorce unless she gave me some meat. But she won't listen." Sentence was suspended on Barrymore, who was charged with disorderly conduct.

Totally blind for almost three weeks as the result of a nervous shock, sight returned to Miss Christine Carroll, 1174 Third street, south, Minneapolis, Minn. Miss Carroll's oculist says her blindness was the result of tired nerves. Nearly three weeks ago, the sudden closing of a typewriter desk produced a nervous shock and when she opened her eyes after the crash she found herself attacked with blindness.

With the realization that he can live only a short time, Harvey Haley of this City, Ind., a former grocer of Portland, has married Mrs. Lillie Lambert, a cook employed in this city, in order that she may inherit his property at his death. Haley and the woman have been married for a long time, and they had expected to be married, but Haley suffered an illness and the wedding was repeatedly postponed. He was unable to conduct his business and his supply of money was exhausted. Mrs. Lambert loaned him money without asking for security, and in order that she may be reimbursed for the money she has spent in providing him with medical aid and food the sick man desired her to have charge of his estate after his death. That this may be certain a marriage ceremony was performed. Haley is not confined to his bed all the time and his condition is not now regarded as critical, but no hope is entertained for his ultimate recovery. This is the second marriage for Haley and the third for Mrs. Lambert.

William Johnson, a Chicago broker who retired from business two years ago, a millionaire, plans to return to Wadhams, a hamlet near Port Huron, Mich., where he spent his boyhood, and purchase the "old farm." His purpose is to build a country home there to occupy in the summer time. He is 52 years old. Johnson's father sold the farm back in the '60s, when William was 12 years old, and went to Chicago to be a janitor in a broker's office. That is how William happened to become a messenger there, then successively stenographer, bookkeeper, partner in the firm and owner.

Judge Thorpe of San Diego, Cal., held that a team of Missouri mules may be considered a deadly weapon, for the reason that the vicious high-kicking animals, led toward supposed enemy, may do bodily harm with their hind feet. The decision was rendered in the preliminary hearing of Cleve Walsh, arrested on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder by shooting E. W. Ziba, who pleaded self-defense. Among the various weapons used to settle the score were whips, shovels, pitchforks, shotguns, revolvers, and, last but not least, a team of mules. After a fight Ziba, driving his mules, met Walsh, who swore Ziba drove the animals straight into him. As the long-eared Missouri product were ready to raise their hind feet to kick him, Walsh sidestepped and drew a revolver, which he fired at Ziba. The judge said no jury in California could convict a man for defending himself against the attack of vicious mules and ordered the defendant discharged.

A white Ithaca hen of the most unblemished character in Ithaca, N. Y., has been persuaded after a course in dietetics with professors of the Cornell state college of agriculture, to lay eggs bright with the Cornell colors. The yolks are red and the albumen white. A harmless dye was given to the hen with her feed, and when it was seen that her plumage began to turn a delicate pink, her eggs were examined and found to be still more deeply colored. Other adulterations of dye turned the yolk of the egg pink and the hen's feet pink.

A unique booth at a recent fair had a sign outside that read: "Stockings darned—5 cents a hole. Mothers of families come to the fair and bring your darned bags." The adult class of the Bible school had charge of the booth and the space inside was filled with "mothers in Israel" all of whom wore "specs" and knew how to darn from a long experience. The booth needed a goodly sum that compared favorably with the big one beside it, where fancy work and aprons were sold. Notice had been given previously that mothers of families who had heretofore been kept from coming to the annual sale because of overloaded darned bags could come and bring them. Another booth made welsch rabbits to order every evening, serving with the rabbits biscuits, pickles and olives. A class of girls ran the chafing dishes, which were kept in constant operation.

Bert Morphy of Chicago, the singer, who features all conventions of the Elks with his melodies, has agreed to sell his lungs and throat to the Bennett Medical college in Detroit, Mich., after his death. Negotiations between Morphy and the college faculty have been pending for some time. The singer is anxious to secure the organs because of the fact that the singer, who once was in the last stages of consumption, was cured by outdoor singing. Morphy's daughter objected to the transaction when the singer came to Detroit to think over the bargain. Dr. James H. Blair of the college followed him here and argued with Morphy. He doubted his original offer and Morphy finally when assured that his body, minus the throat and lungs, would be returned to his family in good condition.

YANKES GROWING HEMP. The Favorite Way of Getting Rich Quick in the Philippines.

More Americans in the Philippines have taken up hemp growing than any other one thing. Perhaps the chief reason is that it requires less capital, but another reason, according to Cassier's Magazine, is that "hemp will make a fortune of any one who goes into it in the right spirit."

Nearly all the American hemp plantations are located on the Gulf of Davao, Mindanao. Here the American colony is considerable. These pioneers are not more successful with crops than are the older inhabitants because they use scientific methods and are not afraid of work. The hemp plant belongs to the banana family and Manila hemp thrives anywhere in the world. The Philippine fields supply the entire world with raw hemp for manufacture into rope and cordage. In view of these conditions one would naturally judge that factories for working up the raw product are numerous.

But such is not the case. It is very doubtful if there were more than a dozen rope walks of any nature in existence when the Americans landed. And at present there is but one modern factory in Manila, that being owned and operated by Americans.

A number of British firms which have branch offices in Manila and throughout the provinces do most of the buying and exporting. Exports aggregate anywhere from 200,000,000 to 300,000,000 pounds annually, more than half of which comes to the United States. It is estimated that the average value of the total production is $30,000,000.

Until a year ago hemp had always been stripped by hand—a slow and onerous process. It is now being done by a number of native laborers drag the stocks across a knife provided with iron teeth, thus separating the strands from the pulp.

The inventor had the American arrived than inventors commenced to devise means to do this work by machinery, getting out a better grade of hemp, wasting less and accomplishing more in a given time. Several of these inventors have been successful, and the machines are now doing excellent work, thus increasing the output. The tensile strength of machine stripped hemp is nearly 50 per cent. greater than that of the hand stripped.

A MINISTER'S SON.

Haled Into Court by His Father for Breaking Rigid Rules. The sorrows of being a son of a minister were set forth in detail before Magistrate Conroy in the bustling police court yesterday, when Rev. Robert Ball of No. 270 Onderdonk avenue, Ridgewood, had his boy arraigned on a charge of disorderly conduct. The case came up last week, when young Ball was charged to enlist in the United States army. He changed his mind after looking over the recruiting sergeant and returned to court to stand trial.

Rev. Mr. Ball solemnly detailed the charges against his son, a young man, who is 19 years old and six feet two inches tall, had, it seems, rebelled at going to church three times on Sunday, singing in the choir, teaching Sunday school and attending a midweek service. Furthermore, he stayed out after 10 o'clock at night and refused to obey his father's orders.

"I did stay out once until after 10," stammered the boy, "but I had been out snowballing with the boys," he explained, "and when I got home the door was locked."

The magistrate finally dismissed the disorderly charge as unsupported by the evidence and advised the minister and his son to find some basis on which they could agree to live peacefully together. They took separate ways when they left the courtroom. — New York American.

OPPOSE PROPOSED GIFTS.

New York Legislators Say There Are Too Many Strings. Assemblyman Merritt, Republican leader in the New York Legislature, is promoting strong opposition to the Harriman-Morgan-Rockefeller state park project. Representatives of the Harriman estate and the syndicate of capitalists who offer to supplement with $1,500,000 the gift of Mr. Harriman are being notified that they must explain why there are "so many strings" on their proposed presents of land and $2,500,000 to knock down some W. Park. Less objection is being raised to the Harriman donation, as its terms are not quite so restrictive about the giving of 10,000 acres of land and $1,000,000. The grounds of the opposition to the immediate acquisition of the property and the cash are that the state must abandon the Bear mount prison, on which it has already expended about $250,000, and permit Harriman to sell W. Park. The Palisades commission, and business partner of Morgan, to select a new site for it, that the Harriman stipulation forbids the erection of a tuberculosis hospital in Orange county, where the bulk of the estate is located; that the Palisades commission is authorized to extend its jurisdiction not only from Fort Lee to Stony point, but from Stony point to Newburgh and lay hold of the Ramapo mountains.

Backache is kidney ache, in most cases. The kidneys ache and throb with dull pain because there is inflammation within. You can't be rid of the ache until you cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. J. M. Wright, 107 W. State st., Huntington, Ind., suffered for 15 months with pain in the hips and back, felt worn out and was annoyed with irregular action of the kidneys. "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me so thoroughly that the trouble never came back," says Mr. Wright. Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50c a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Heart Bowed Down.

"See that little woman who just went out?" remarked a Fourth avenue milliner to a customer. "Notice that red hat, did you? Well, as a milliner and a person whose business it is to study the different characteristics of women, I have watched her for two years. It has been a kind of study of the 'evolution of the widow,' says the Louisville Times. "Two years ago she came to me, recently bereaved, and had me make her a hat of deepest black. She was broken hearted and declared she would never again take an interest in the pretty things that women like to wear. A year ago she came again. "Don't you think I might have the least bit of white in my spring hat?" she asked. "Yes," I said; "I think you might; and the hat was made. Three months later she came for another hat, and she stood for a little touch of lavender. Next she had a big white plume, and last week I made her that red hat. It just shows what time will do in lifting up a heart bowed down."

JEWES FILLING HOLY LAND.

Guarantee of Justice Starts Hebrews Toward Old Home.

Owing to the establishment of a constitutional government in Turkey, with guaranteed equal rights for all, the Holy Land is rapidly coming into the possession of Jews. The immigration is astounding in its extent, the Jews coming principally from Russia and Persia. Jerusalem has a population of about 100,000 and four-fifths of this is Jewish. The Jews in Jaffa, Tiberias, Safed and Haifa are reckoned by tens of thousands. Prosperous Jewish colonies spread from Dan to Beersheba and even south to the outskirts of Egypt. There is a constant procession from Persia and every steamer from Odessa carries hundreds of Jews. The valley of the Jordan, once the property of the de throneed Abdul Hamid, is being eagerly sought after by Jewish capitalists who perceive in it a splendid opportunity for settlement by the down-trodden of their race. In some parts of the Holy land the value of land has risen four-fold owing to the enormous demand on the part of the incoming Jews.—Richmond Virginian Pilot.

Patriotism

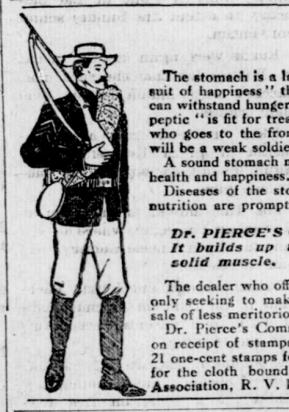

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder. A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness. Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

UNIVERSITY OF TODAY IS TRULY RELIGIOUS

"The university is as truly religious in the twentieth century as it was in the sixteenth or the eighteenth. The fortunate thing is that instead of seeking to express that religious spirit in terms of the sixteenth century, instead of elaborately preserving archaic forms of language, the universities are content to express their religion in terms of life."

This was the significant declaration of the Rev. Henry F. Cope, general secretary of the Religious Education association in an address on "Newer Ideals of Religious Education in Universities," before the third annual conference of church workers in state universities in session at the University of Wisconsin.

"One striking characteristic of American university life is its keenness in contemporary living," continued the speaker. "No matter how proud such an institution may be of the imported ivy on its walls, mediaeval turrets can not hide the modern spirit; it seems itself as a servant of the present times, as first of all concerned with men as they are, with the problems of the city, with sanitation, with social living."
