CELEBRATE THEIR SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Flaseh entertained last Thursday in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The happy couple together with their children, brothers and sisters attended. Holy mass at 8 o'clock, celebrated by the Rev. Conrad Flaseh, Deceased a brother of Mr. Flaseh. The home was beautifully decorated with white and green crepe paper streamers and silver leaves. At 12 noon to the strains of Schubert's Wedding March played by Miss Apollonia Flaseh, the couple together with the bridesmaid and best man of twenty-five years ago and the brothers and sisters marched to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served. The Misses Amelia and Magdalena Richards assisted their mother, Mrs. A. Richard and Miss Anna Tonia in the serving. The table was artistically decorated with silver leaves and the center piece was a large cake with silver trimmings. The afternoon was spent in social conversation. Many neighbors and friends were entertained at a dancing party in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Flaseh were married February 7, 1899, at Holy Trinity's at Milwaukee, by the Rev. Conrad Flaseh. They have since resided on the farm which they now occupy. They are the parents of nine children, namely: Apollonia of Milwaukee, Leo of Madison, Alphonse, Magdalena, Amelia, Lucia, Francis, Conrad and Paul. Relatives from away who came to help in the joyful event were John Knarr, Mr. and Mrs. John Ameringer and family of Stanley, Mrs. Joe Knueffel and son Donald of La Crosse, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Beck and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Haas and family, William Knarr and Miss Apollonia Flaseh of Milwaukee, Mrs. Anna Karant and daughter Virginia of La Crosse, and Mrs. Flaseh of Madison. Mr. and Mrs. Flaseh were the recipients of many beautiful pieces of silverware.

AUTOMOBILE TAX DEDUCTIONS

Deductions allowed taxpayers in connection with the maintenance and operation of automobiles are the subject of frequent inquiries from taxpayers in filing an income tax return. The following is for the guidance of owners and prospective owners. Such cost for garage bills, gasoline, repairs, etc.—may be deducted as a business expense when an automobile is used wholly for business purposes, or in trade, profession, or farming. When used mainly for such purposes and partly for the pleasure or convenience of the taxpayer and his family, the cost may be prorated and that attributable to business or the other pursuits mentioned deducted as a business expense. The same rule applies with regard to the deduction for depreciation, which is allowed when an automobile is used wholly in business, trade, profession or farming, and must be apportioned accordingly, when used partly for such purposes and partly for pleasure. If an automobile is used almost exclusively for pleasure, deduction for depreciation is not allowed. The purchase price of an automobile, even when used wholly in business, cannot be deducted from gross income. It is a capital expenditure, deduction of which is expressly disallowed by the revenue act. The 5 per cent tax which attaches to the sale of an automobile cannot be deducted by the purchaser because it is a tax levied on the sale by the manufacturer, and must be returned and paid by him. The manufacturer may reimburse himself the amount of the tax by agreement with the purchaser, in a manner prescribed by Treasury regulations. So far as the purchaser is concerned, the tax is a part of the cost to him of the automobile. The manufacturer may not deduct the tax in his return, unless the amount is included in his gross income. An automobile license fee is regarded as a tax, and may be deducted whether the automobile is used for business or for pleasure or convenience. In the event of a collision between a truck and an automobile used for pleasure or convenience, the owner of the truck may claim a deduction for damages, provided the truck was being used for business at the time of the collision. No deductions is allowed the owner of the automobile, because it was not being used for business purposes. Amounts expended by owners of automobiles used for pleasure or convenience in repairing damages thereto caused by negligent operation do not constitute deductible losses. Taxpayers are advised not to delay in the filing of their returns. To do so results in confusion and congestion during the closing days of the filing period, which ends at midnight of March 15th.

ITEMS WERE OMITTED

Due to the fact that this village was without power and electric lights from last week Sunday evening until Wednesday evening, caused by damage done to the electric line near the depot and vicinity, which was swept by a heavy west storm, we were unable to set any type for the paper until Thursday morning. Ordinarily, the work of setting type begins on Tuesday morning. Consequently the large amount of work it takes to get out the Statesman, had to be done practically in one day, with the result that all news items had to be set up as rapidly as possible to assure publication on schedule time. A number of important news items as well as paid advertisements were unintentionally omitted, either by being overlooked or overlooked by the printer in the tie-up. If any of your items were omitted, do not blame us, as odds were heavily against us, and up to Wednesday evening, all hopes of publishing the Statesman at all were very much in doubt. Had this occurred, it would have been the first time since the organization of the Statesman twenty-eight years ago, that an issue had been skipped.

WRUCKE DENIES HE MADE MOTION

This office is in receipt of a letter from H. A. Wruke of Campbellport in which he emphatically denies a report published in the Milwaukee papers to the effect that he made a motion at a recent meeting of the Wisconsin Skat League to adopt a resolution of confidence in Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. The letter reads as follows: Campbellport, Wis., Feb. 12, 1924. Milwaukee Sentinel, Journal, Wisconsin News, Wisconsin News, Dear Sirs: Regarding the Wilson resolution adopted at the Wisconsin Skat League Convention Sunday A. M. at Auditorium, Milwaukee, your articles in yesterday's papers were entirely wrong, and should be corrected at once. There were only about 150 delegates present, and there was no delegate by the name of Phillips from Campbellport who introduced the resolution, neither did I make the motion to adopt the resolution, in fact, I did not say a word, as I was busy at the time the matter came up, as chairman of the committee on credentials. You can get full information from Secretary Oscar E. Schweser. I am sure it was a delegate from Milwaukee who introduced the resolution, but I cannot give you his name, undoubtedly the Secretary can. I request and demand that you immediately correct the article, and give it the same prominence that you gave the article in yesterday's papers. Please advise me fully, and oblige, yours truly, H. A. Wruke, Vice-President, Wis. Skat League.

HAD A BAD SCARE

J. M. Kohler, the well-known shoe man and amateur comedian had quite a trick played on him by the electric lights Sunday evening. John was sitting in the kitchen of his home at about 10:30 Sunday night, and just as the lights went out he happened to sneeze. Straightening up from the effects of the sneeze he discovered that he was in total darkness. Within and without everything was black. John had read about people going suddenly blind from sudden exertion or fear, and naturally thought he had lost his eyesight. He called to members of the family who were in another room, saying he had become blind and when they hastened to his aid and struck a light. John was most agreeably surprised to learn that he could see as good as ever. John says he has had the experience of knowing how it would feel to be deprived of one's sight—but that experience is enough there are still some people cruel enough to blame John of blowing out the electric lights when he sneezed.—Campbellport News.

CONTRACTOR WINS LAW SUIT

Fred C. Schultz of West Bend suing contractor, Froemming Bros., Milwaukee paving contractors, and Agg Schroeder, Milwaukee general contractor, won a law suit in Circuit Court of Shawano county at Shawano last week. Shavone county was suing the above contractors as assignees of the widow's claim for the death of John Kluge, who was killed in 1922. The case required all witnesses to appear at the trial, including ex-sheriff Wm. S. O'Brien, Highway Commissioner Charles Johnson and several others were subpoenaed for two days. As Kluge was an employee of the above county at the time that company was trying to collect the amount from the above contractors. The jury found that the barrier erected on the west end of the project was sufficient and that the deceased, John Kluge, was guilty of contributory negligence in driving around the barrier.—West Bend News.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Ed. Frei Gets Settlement For Peculiar Accident. A. H. Adams of Juneau, agent for the Supreme Casualty Insurance company of Milwaukee was in the city last Saturday to adjust the claim of Ed. Frei, who strained the ligaments of his neck while removing his right shirt during the latter part of November. Ed. received the sum of $116.60 in full settlement of his claim.—Horizon Reporter. First Robin Here With Snow Storm. With snow piled ten or twelve feet high in drifts, is no time for robins to begin their flight to this part of the state, but Kenneth Jones, reported to us Sunday that he saw one in a tree on City Clerk Wm. Radke's lawn that morning while delivering milk. Had he been delivering anything but milk, we would have doubted the clearness of his eyesight, but under the circumstances, and our knowledge of his veracity, makes us believe that the misguided red breast has put in his appearance. Unless he is a Wisconsin resident, we presume Mr. Robin is winging back south about as fast as he is able, about this time.—Horizon Press. Seek To Open Up Women Case. Judge Chester A. Fowler recently took under advisement the petition of the town of Osoeola for a new trial of the case in which a jury awarded Ezekiel Bowen $2500 damages for injuries received in an automobile accident near the village of Dundee in October 1922. Attorney T. L. Doyle, for the town, claimed that important new evidence has been discovered since the trial which was held at the January term of circuit court. Mr. Bowen was charged with driving carelessly when Slattery's car slipped over an embankment on the highway outside the village of Dundee. The jury found that the town of Osoeola was to blame for not having kept the guard rails of the highway in good condition, and also found that Con Slattery was in no way responsible for the accident. A part of the new evidence included in the town's petition for a new trial are affidavits stating that Mr. Slattery was intoxicated at the time of the accident. —Ferdinand LaC Commonweath. GIVEN PRELIMINARY HEARING. That Margaret O'Donnell, London girl, whose recent death caused the arrest of W. E. Griggs, chauffeur of the charge of manslaughter, was bright mentally and in a normal mental condition at the time she signed the statement accusing Griggs, was the declaration of Dr. H. E. Teubing at the opening of the hearing of W. E. Griggs charged with the slaughter of the result of the death of Margaret O'Donnell, London girl, in Madison, Wis., on Monday afternoon, January 14, 1924. The defendant, W. E. Griggs, appearing for the defendant objected to the introduction of statements made by the girl on an affidavit stating that all questions dealing with the death of the girl were in fact, and that the defendant under the constitution should have been given a right to meet with a face to face at the time the questioning was taking place.—Reporter.

LEGION TO HOLD BIG MASK BALL

At the regular monthly meeting of the Kewaskum Post No. 384, of the American Legion, held in the M. W. A. Hall last Monday evening, it was decided to hold a Pre-Lenten dance at the Kewaskum Opera House on Saturday evening, March 1st. The prizes will be awarded as follows: 1st, Best Married Couple, $3.00; and $2.00 winning the second Married couples prize, $3.00 for the first Single Couple and $2.00 for Single Couple winning second prize. The committee in charge will leave nothing undone to make this dance, the first one to be given by this organization a most enjoyable affair. Weber's orchestra of six pieces has been engaged to furnish the music, who will play popular pieces for both young and old. Other business transacted at the Legion meeting, was the organization of a Legion band. A number of those who are planning on joining this musical organization were present at the meeting, and work of perfecting an organization of that kind is now well under way. The first rehearsal will be held next Monday evening, in the M. W. A. Hall, under the directorship of Albert Hron. It was also agreed upon at the meeting to show several reels of war pictures at the Opera House some time between March 2nd and 10th. The title of the pictures to be shown, is called: "Wisconsin In Action." This is thought to be of great interest to local people, as it pictures the activities of Wisconsin soldiers at the front during the World War. LARGEST FOX FARM. The largest fox farm in the world will be located in the town of Cedarburg, and work in equipping this farm has been started. The men behind this gigantic enterprise are Mr. John Nieman and Fromm Bros., who have fox farms near Thiensville and the Wittensberg brothers who own the Cedarburg Canning Co. The farm will be located on the former Behrens farm now owned by the Cedarburg Canning Co. and as soon as weather conditions permit work will be started to equip the place on a scale that will make it the largest enterprise of this kind in the world. Ten carloads of lumber have already arrived and are under roof in the plant of the All-tite Chain Co. near the Northern car barns. From this lumber 900 kennels will be built. The farm will start with 450 pair of foxes. When the work is started Mr. George W. Wittenberg, who is field manager of the Cedarburg Canning Co. will resign this position to give all of his time to the new enterprise. Nine hundred barrels will be used in building the kennels. Each kennel contains a large barrel where the fox makes its home, and around this barrel straw is added to keep the little home warm at the Thiensville fox farms last year over 40 tons of straw was used in building the kennels. When this work is started Ozaque county will become the center of the fox raising industry of the world. There are now three large farms near Thiensville, and the one to be built in Cedarburg will be larger than any of these.—Cedarburg News.

The roof of the barrack was smashed into splinters, the little girl was literally covered with snow, and it was nothing less than a miracle that she was not killed. The rafters were broken and the broken parts were all about her, but luckily none of them struck her. The barrack was repaired Saturday and the roof strengthened.—West Bend Pilot.

MAY REGULATE THEIR DANCES

Juneau, Feb. 14.—The dance ordinance is not a dead issue in Dodge county. Latest reports indicate that the Federation of Women's clubs in the county is sponsoring a movement to have the matter reconsidered by the Dodge county board. At the January session of the board the matter was up for consideration and the special committee to which it was referred in November reported at the January meeting that it was deemed advisable that each city, village and township regulate its own dances and provide for proper regulation. The original resolution included only villages and townships, leaving cities excluded. It is now reported that all cities should be included under the ordinance and it remains to be seen what effect the Women's clubs will have in bringing the matter before the board at their next session here in May.

TROOPS AGAIN SENT TO HERRIN

Klan and Anti-Klan Forces Shoot It Out—One Dead, One Wounded.

Marion.—The war in Williamson county flared up into new flames late Friday night. Klan and anti-klan forces are arrayed against each other in Herrin and threaten to shoot it out.

One man was killed, another is dying, and three have been kidnapped. Five companies of state troops are on duty in Herrin to prevent more bloodshed.

It is the same old trouble which has been the beginning of many battles. Bootlegging is the cause or is being made the cause for the raids and counter raids and pitched battles.

On the one side is the Klan and its "dry" raiders, headed by S. Glenn Young. On the other is the sheriff of Williamson county and his deputies.

The real cause of and the circumstances surrounding the night's battle are somewhat in doubt. These facts are known:

Constable Caesar Cagle, leader in the Klan and a dry raider, was shot and killed.

Deputy John Layman was seriously wounded. Three of Herrin's police force—Chief John Ford, Assistant Chief Grain and Patrolman Frank Stephens—have been spirited away.

Klan leaders asserted they were kidnapped. The sheriff's forces say they were arrested and taken away for "safekeeping."

The first version of the affray was telephoned to Marion by Sheriff George Galligan of Williamson county. The sheriff asserted that he was in a room at the Home club in conference with Col. A. L. Culbertson of the Illinois National Guard, who was sent to Herrin to prevent a threatened outbreak.

Suddenly, the sheriff reported, three Herrin policemen broke in to the room and opened fire. Layman fell and the policemen rushed out. Cagle, the sheriff reported, was shot later in the street near the Jefferson hotel.

The Klansmen assert that the trouble began with the killing of Constable Cagle. They allege that Cagle was attacked and shot dead by a mob headed by Deputy Sheriff John Layman and that, following that attack, the mob went to the Home club; that the Herrin police received a riot call there, and that the shooting of Layman followed in that place.

The proclamation for military rule was issued by Adj. Gen. Carlos Black. He says it is the only solution for this stormy county's predicament.

Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman of Chicago is in full command of all troops in Williamson county. General Black makes this distinction between the military rule that has been declared and martial law: Under martial law the military is in supreme authority, under military rule the military is technically subordinate to the chief law enforcement officer of the county, which in this case is Coroner W. T. McCown.

The situation here is bad, General Black said, and it is not getting any better. The atmosphere of peace and quiet that characterizes Herrin, Marion, Johnston City, West Frankfort and other nearby towns is superficial. Underneath are forces that would throw the county into bloodshed. They are held in restraint only by the presence of the troops, and when these leave they will break out again.

Herrin Officials Are Ousted by Gen. Black. Herrin, Ill.—With Sheriff George Galligan and S. Glenn Young, leaders of the rival anti-klan and klan factions which have torn this district asunder for weeks, removed from authority, Williamson county was virtually placed under martial law on Monday night by a military order from Maj. Gen. Milton J. Foreman, ordering the citizenry disarmed and deposing from office all special deputy sheriffs and policemen.

S. Glenn Young, who appointed himself chief of police and dictator of Herrin on Saturday following the kidnapping of Chief of Police John Ford, surrendered his authority at the demand of Adj. Gen. Carlos E. Black, after he had arrested A. T. Pace, foreman of the coroner's jury holding an inquest into the riots in which Constable Caesar Cagle was killed and Deputy Sheriff John Layman, was seriously wounded.

M. TSAMADOS

M. Tsamados, recently appointed charge d'affaires of the Greek legation in Washington upon resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and Greece after an intermission of about three years.

The real cause of and the circumstances surrounding the night's battle are somewhat in doubt. These facts are known:

Constable Caesar Cagle, leader in the Klan and a dry raider, was shot and killed.

Deputy John Layman was seriously wounded. Three of Herrin's police force—Chief John Ford, Assistant Chief Grain and Patrolman Frank Stephens—have been spirited away.

Major General Foreman's order, which is tantamount to martial law, came after all civil authority in the county had been delegated to him by peace officers and magistrates.

Major General Foreman declared that the guardsmen were in Williamson to restore law and order, to eradicate "class rule," and to protect citizens.

COOLIDGE BACKS CABINET MEMBER

President Refuses to Dismiss Denby at Request of Senate.

Washington.—President Coolidge issued a formal statement announcing that he would not dismiss Secretary of the Navy Denby at the behest of the senate.

By a vote of 47 to 34, the senate late in the afternoon declared its sense of that body that the President immediately should call for the resignation of Mr. Denby because of the leases of navy oil reserves that the navy secretary and Albert B. Fall, the secretary of the interior, had made to E. L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair.

A few hours later President Coolidge issued a formal statement announcing that he would ignore the senate resolution, which he pronounced an invasion of executive functions.

President Coolidge issued the following statement denying that the senate has the right to force the resignation of an executive officer:

"No official recognition can be given to the passage of the senate resolution relative to their opinion concerning members of the cabinet or other officers under executive control.

"As soon as special counsel can advise me as to the legality of these leases and assemble for me the pertinent facts in the various transactions, I shall take such action as seems essential for the full protection of the public interests. I shall not hesitate to call for the resignation of any official whose conduct in this matter in any way warrants such action upon my part.

"The dismissal of an officer of the government, such as is involved in this case, other than by impeachment, is exclusively an executive function. I regard this as a vital principle of our government.

"In discussing this principle, Mr. Madison has well said: 'It is laid down in most of the constitutions of the world in right in the republics of America; it is to be found in the political writings of the celebrated civilians, and it is everywhere held as essential to the preservation of liberty that the three great departments of government be kept separate and distinct.

"President Cleveland likewise stated: 'The correct principle in discussing requests and demands made by the senate upon him and upon different departments of the government, in which he said:

"They assume the right of the senate to sit in judgment upon the exercise of my exclusive discretion and executive function, for which I am solely responsible to the people from whom I have so lately received the sacred trust of office.

"My oath to support and defend the Constitution, my duty to the people who have chosen me to execute the powers of their great office, and not to relinquish them, and my duty to the chief magistrate, which I must preserve unimpaired in all its dignity and vigor, compel me to refuse compliance with these demands."

"The President is responsible to the people for his conduct relative to the retention or dismissal of public officials. I assume that responsibility. And the people may be assured that as soon as I can be advised so that I may act with entire justice to all parties concerned and fully protect the public interests I shall act.

"I do not propose to sacrifice any innocent man for my own welfare, nor do I propose to retain in office any unfit man for my own welfare. I shall try to maintain the functions of the government unimpaired, to act upon the evidence and the law as I find it and to deal thoroughly and summarily with every kind of wrongdoing.

"In the meantime such steps have been and are being taken as fully to protect the public interests."

Change Shenandoah Chiefs for Pole Trip. Washington.—A shake-up in the commanding personnel of the navy's glider ship, the Shenandoah, preparatory to the flight to explore the North pole regions is impending, the transfer to take place within a few days, according to information in naval circles.

When the big airship begins the first leg of her cruise to Alaska and her subsequent flight over the uncharted regions of the North pole, a start scheduled for the first of June, she will have a new commanding officer, with assistants selected from young officers who have had practical experience in navigating lighter-than-air ships.

Orders are expected within a few days detaching Commander F. R. McCrary from command of the Shenandoah and the naval air station at Lakehurst and assigning him to a sea command.

Lincoln's Son Arrested. Aurora, Ill.—Sensational developments in the Warren J. Lincoln murder case were resumed on Monday night when it became known that John Lincoln, twenty-one-year-old son of the confessed slayer, had been arrested and placed incommunicado in a cell at the Aurora jail.

This action followed a five-hour grilling of the youth in the home of Police Chief Frank Michels, where he was taken in an effort to escape newspapermen.

Final Terms of Income Bill Given to House

Washington.—The federal tax reduction bill was started on its way to passage or defeat.

By a strictly partisan vote the ways and means committee ordered the bill favorably reported to the house, the fifteen Republican members voting for it, three Democrats voting against it, and the other eight Democrats voting "present."

Debate on the tax bill is expected to continue for two or three weeks.

The bill, as approved by the ways and means committee, is satisfactory to Secretary Mellon, although some changes have been made in the original treasury draft.

The principal changes made by the committee in the original treasury bill are the following:

The bill contains a provision by Chairman Green for reduction of 25 per cent in the tax payable in 1924 on the income of 1923.

The normal tax on the first $4,000 of net income is reduced from 4 per cent to 3 per cent, and upon the remainder of the net income from 8 to 6 per cent.

Spurious Bond Case Causes Stir in House

Washington.—Heated debate broke out in the house on Saturday over the charges of Charles B. Brewer, special attorney of the Department of Justice, that millions in spurious Liberty bonds are in circulation.

Representative LaGuardia, Republican of New York, declared that he and other progressives had satisfied themselves that Mr. Brewer had more than $1,000,000 in duplicated bonds in his possession.

BADGER STATE HAPPENINGS

Stevens Point.—Although potatoes are not at a satisfactory price, the value of the potato crop is high, taking the figures on production for 1923, just issued by the Wisconsin Crop and Livestock Reporter, and computing the value at the present market prices—48 to 50 cents a bushel. The crop, in the four counties of which Stevens Point is the center—Portage, Marathon, Waupaca and Waushara—totalled $2,500,000. The Portage county crop alone is worth $800,000. Its acreage in 1923 was 22,543.

Marinette.—Leo Terlep, farmer near Miles, sees in the fact that his net income from his cleared acreage this year is twice that of last a definite assurance that prices of agricultural products are returning to normal. Books kept by Mr. Terlep show that his income from a 40-acre farm with 25 acres under cultivation was $420 in 1921, $390 in 1922 and $950 in 1923. Corn, oats, rye, potatoes and dairy products yielded a snug margin of profit in 1923.

Tomah.—C. C. Barry, Tomah, while driving in a closed car near Sparta, with the temperature about 6 below zero, happened to address a remark to his companion, glanced at her and saw that she was unconscious. Although there was no odor of gas, he opened the doors of the car and put on all speed for the city. Both received treatment for carbon monoxide poisoning. The car was found to have a disconnected exhaust pipe.

Couderay.—Sixteen sleighloads of logs were brought into Couderay by one steam caterpillar log hauler for the Bekkedal Lumber Co. This is the largest load ever hauled in this city by one tractor. The logs scaled about 60,000 feet. The steam log haulers travel at the rate of six miles an hour and do the work of 100 horses. The wide sleighs travel in ice rutted roads and the hauler on the frozen ground between the ruts.

Tomahawk.—The Wisconsin Valley Electric Co. has announced that construction work will begin this spring on the new high tension line between Alexander dam, just north of Merrill, and the city of Tomahawk. The cost will be $80,000, and another large sum will be spent in erecting and equipping three substations at the Tomahawk city plant, at Jersey City, and at the plant of the Tomahawk Kraft Paper Co.

Manitowoc.—Manitowoc's fire loss in 1923 was the largest in 20 years, amounting to $43,000. On that amount, $34,000 was confined to one fire, that of the Henry Esch Sons' Co. The remaining $9,000 represented losses in all other fires during the year. One hundred and forty-one calls were answered by the department in 1923. These are the figures contained in the annual report of Chief J. H. Kratz.

Sheboygan.—Peter Kirat of Sheboygan has a peculiar distinction. It is claimed that he is the oldest living charter member of any organization in Wisconsin. Mr. Kirat is 91 years old and when he was 27 he and a number of other German singing enthusiasts of the then village of Sheboygan organized the Concordia Singing society. All of the others have long since passed away.

Barron.—Each person in Barron uses an average of more than seventy-seven gallons of water daily, according to the report of O. J. Muegge, assistant state sanitary engineer. The examination made on Dec. 5, 1923, showed that the water is pure. The average consumption is 123,290 gallons a day, or seventy-seven gallons to each person.

Juneau.—Low water in Rock river and an extremely cold winter has worked a combination that has been disastrous to fish, according to predictions being made by members of the Izaak Walton club. Ice harvested measures 20 to 24 inches in thickness and in some places on Hustisford point it is said there is nothing but a mud bottom.

La Crosse.—Erection of a beautiful fireproof memorial band shell in Riverside park, dedicated to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the three wars, is planned as a result of a joint conference of representatives of civic, military and governmental bodies in La Crosse. The structure will cost $15,000.

Institute.—Henry Dettman has started a stage line between Vainy and Sturgeon Bay and will make the trip twice a week for the remainder of the winter. He will carry passengers, baggage and freight.

Baraboo.—The state highway commission has made a survey of the big hill between Baraboo and Sauk City on route 12 and will reduce the grade, making it more safe for auto tourists. A number of accidents occurred at this place last season, owing to the sharp turns and steep grade.

Juneau.—L. J. Lees, former merchant of Juneau, purchased two pairs of silver fox at a cost of $3,000. He intends to establish a fox farm near Juneau.

Marinette.—The Marinette flour mill is being razed. The machinery was sold to the Hamilton Machinery Co., Menominee, Mich. The business will be discontinued entirely. The mill, one of the pioneer institutions of Marinette, was damaged by fire a year ago.

Baraboo.—Sherman Luce has resigned as a member of the Baraboo fire department after thirty-four years of service during which he missed only three fires.

Monroe.—Other cheese factory milk prices look pale beside that of $2.28 a hundred pounds just paid to patrons of the Benkert Brothers factory near Monroe. The cheesemaker, William Gempeler, made 6,005 pounds of limburger cheese in October from 45,786 pounds of milk. His product sold for 26 cents a pound. The highest price on record so far paid to patrons of a Swiss cheese factory in Green county is $3.12. This is at the Franklin factory near Monroe.

Nellisville.—The 9-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Christensen was burned to death at the farm home near Nellisville. Mr. and Mrs. Christensen went to the barn to milk, leaving the baby lying on a bed, with a lamp on a table close by. An older child tipped the burning lamp over. John Palmer, a neighbor, saw the blaze in passing. He extinguished it before the house was destroyed, but found the child burned to death.

Almond.—Members of the Albert Hetzel family Almond, were nearly asphyxiated by gas escaping from their furnace. Occupants of the house were overcome by the gas, with the exception of Mrs. Hetzel, who was able to reach the telephone and call for help from neighbors. A physician arrived in time and although he found all of the members of the family ill, they are now recovering.

Casco.—Farmers who raise bees this year will receive $7.50 a ton, $1 more than last year, according to Ernest Krause, field man of Casco, who declared that the sugar companies had guaranteed that price. A bonus of $4.75 a ton on bees will be given farmers for their 1923 crop, in addition to the regular price received, Mr. Krause reports.

Merrill.—The new dam above Merrill has been named the Walter Alexander dam in honor of Walter Alexander, pioneer of Wausau and prominent throughout the Wisconsin river valley. The action was taken at the meeting of the board of directors of the Wisconsin Valley Electric Co. at its annual meeting recently held.

Kilbourn.—Carroll Sullivan, 22, Friendship, was arrested by Sheriff Frank E. Parks while in the act of tapping the money drawer in the office of the Friendship Electric Light & Power Co. Money had been missing from the cash drawer for several weeks. Sullivan was bound over to circuit court for trial.

Marinette.—Bernard Tierney, Crivitz, Marinette county, met with an unusual accident in the barn on his farm. A cow got caught in a beet fork that was standing in the barn and when Tierney went to open the door the cow kicked the fork loose and it struck him in the face, making several ugly lacerations.

Oconto.—The family of H. Zenisek, Hickory, had a narrow escape from death when a water tank attached to their kitchen range exploded, tearing the stove to pieces and scattering fragments of steel and cinders over the room, which the family had left just a few minutes before.

Tomahawk.—The farm residence of T. Turgeon was destroyed by fire at Tomahawk. An old trunk containing clothing was all that was saved. Had the wind blown in another direction, all the farm buildings would have been destroyed, as there was no water with which to fight the flames.

Green Bay.—Edward Mero, an old man, was found dead in the kitchen of his farmhouse, a mile and a half south of Sunario, Wis., when his son, Thomas, returned from a visit with a neighbor across the road. Heart disease is believed to have been the cause of death.

Janesville.—Eighty-three convictions for violation of the prohibition laws were obtained in the municipal and circuit courts of Rock county during 1923, according to the district attorney. Fines of $17,051 and sentences of ten years and four months were imposed.

Green Bay.—Ray Weinberg, 26, of Menasha, was instantly killed by a falling tree while working in the woods near Neopit as a teamster. He was skidding logs where timber was being cut and, his vision obscured by the falling snow, he failed to realize his danger.

Birchwood.—Raymond Leary, a schoolboy of Birchwood, who broke his arm several weeks ago while cranking an automobile, broke the same arm in two places while sliding down hill.

Port Washington.—William Endthoff lost three fingers off one hand and two of the other, in a punch press accident at the Gilson company plant, Port Washington.

Stevens Point.—When a scart with which they were playing upset a pot of hot coffee on the stove at their home, Lorraine and Eleanor Thompson, of Norske, near Stevens Point, were severely burned.

La Crosse.—Directors of the La Crosse Interstate Fair association, at the annual meeting, voted to consider the advisability of having the fair the last five days this year, closing on Saturday night instead of Friday night.

Janesville.—To further the erection of the $500,000 hotel in Janesville, the Chamber of Commerce will raise $100,000 in stock among local residents. The campaign for the hotel will be made under the direction of H. S. Haggart, F. H. Jackman, Russell Parker, L. I. Stewart and R. G. Cunningham.

Jamesway Makes Poultry Pay

Jamesway 5 in 1 Feeders

The value of any mash feeder is based absolutely on the time, labor and feed which it will save. The JAMESWAY five-compartment construction permits the feeding of egg mash, oyster shell, meat scrap, charcoal and grit in one feeder. This combination of feeds allows the hens to balance their own ration as their body needs require. This is a big factor in egg production and hen health and vitality. The specially designed feed saver pan prevents the wasting of valuable egg mash. The sturdy construction of this feeder, the fact that it is made of hot galvanized best bloom copper bearing steel sheets means no repairs, no upkeep, low cost, when convenience, durability, economy, time saved and labor-saving possibilities are considered. The Feeder is designed to give years of satisfactory, profitable service. These feeders are made in two sizes. The 3-foot hopper, No. 520, holds fifty pounds of egg mash, enough for 75 hens for a period of one week. The large 5-foot hopper, No. 621, holds 160 pounds of egg mash, which is enough for 150 hens, for a period of one week without refilling.

NERVOUS & HALF-SICK WOMEN

Relieved by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

These Three Letters Prove It

Lowell, Mass.—"I am sending you a few lines to let you know what good your medicine has done for me. I want you to let every one know that it has helped me in nervous troubles. I have four children and you know there is a lot to do where children are. They would come in from school and they would start telling me about their little troubles but I could not stand it. I had to send them away. I could not even walk on the street alone I was so nervous. I found one of your books and read it and then I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got it and had taken one bottle when I saw a change in myself. I was surprised. The children can talk all they want to now and it does not bother me. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. JOSEPH LEMERS, 84 South Street, Lowell, Mass.

Felt Like A New Woman
Springfield, Missouri.—"For four or five months I was run-down, nervous, my back ached and I did not feel like doing a thing. Sometimes my legs ached and I felt like they would break and I had a hurting in my sides. I had been reading in the newspapers the letters of other women who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the advertising of it appealed to me so I bought some and saw results in a few days. I had hardly been able to do my own work and after taking the Vegetable Compound I felt like a new woman. I recommended it to my friends who have troubles like I did, and hope they will find the same results."—Mrs. M. CARPENTER, 607 W. Chase Street, Springfield, Missouri.

40 Years Old, Feels Like 20
Hagerstown, Md.—"I was very bad off with backache, a bearing-down feeling in my body and a pain in my left side. I could not be on my feet at times and once I was so bad I walked bent over to one side for three weeks. My sister read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me a bottle. I got so much relief that I took more until I was well. I am now 40 years old and feel like 20. I am sure this medicine will help all women."—Mrs. MARY E. SANDY, 436 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown, Md.

Over 100,000 women have so far replied to our question. "Have you received benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?" 98 per cent of these replies are "Yes." That means that 98 out of every 100 women who take this medicine for the ailments for which it is recommended are benefited by it. All druggists are having increased sales of this medicine.

Yes, Why Not?
"If the world's chemists and the world's engineers would hold annual meetings in a friendly spirit, for the salvation of mankind! If they could agree together that to exercise their ingenuity on the perfecting of destructive agents for the use of governments was a crime; to take money for a betrayal of their species! If we could have such exchange of international thought as that, then indeed we might hear the rustle of salvation's wings. And—after all—why not?—John Galsworthy."

Stop the Pain.
The hurt of a burn or a cut stops when Cole's Carbolicaine is applied. It heals quickly without scars, and is sold by all druggists, or send 30c to The J. W. Cole Co., Rockford, Ill.—Advertisement.

Doubling Up
A teacher of music in a public school was trying to impress upon her pupils the meaning of a song that they were about to learn. After explaining the first sign, she said: "Now, children, what do you say; if it means forte, what does it mean?" "Eighty!" shouted one enthusiastic pupil.

Don't tell your secrets and don't let other people tell you theirs.

Children Cry for

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER:—Fletcher's Castoria is a pleasant, harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared for Infants and Children all ages.

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Laxatives do not overcome constipation

LAXATIVES and cathartics provide temporary relief only, at the expense of permanent injury. In time, says an eminent physician, an almost incalculable amount of harm is done by the use of pills, salts, mineral waters, castor oil and the like.

Some laxatives, according to an intestinal specialist, contain poisons which affect the stomach and intestines, resulting in grave disorders. Certain laxatives are a direct cause of piles.

Physicians Advise Lubrication for Internal Cleanliness

Medical science, through knowledge of the intestinal tract gained by X-ray observation, has found at last in lubrication a means of overcoming constipation. The gentle lubricant, Nujol, penetrates and softens the hard food waste and thus hastens its passage through and out of the body. Thus Nujol brings internal cleanliness.

Not a Medicine
Nujol is used in leading hospitals and is prescribed by physicians throughout the world. Nujol is not a medicine or laxative and cannot gripe. Like pure water it is harmless.

Get rid of constipation and avoid disease by adopting the habit of internal cleanliness. Take Nujol as regularly as you brush your teeth or wash your face. For sale by all druggists.

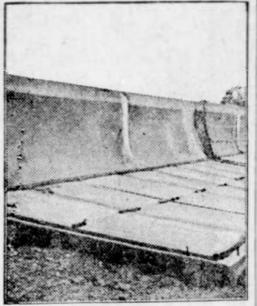

Hot Bed to Start Vegetables Early

Person With Small Plot of Ground Enabled to Prolong Length of Season.

A hotbed enables anyone to have green spring vegetables at a time when this stuff is still selling at a very high price in the markets. It also enables the person with a small plot of ground to prolong the season of certain table vegetables as well as giving him a place to start the growth of flowers or vegetables for transplanting as soon as this outdoor growing season opens.

The four concrete walls should be made about six inches thick and should be started at a depth well below the frost line. Light frame forms may be used above the grade as well as below if the ground is not firm enough when excavated to serve as a form.

The north wall of a hotbed should extend 30 inches above the ground level; the south wall eight inches. A recess three inches wide and two inches deep is made on the inside of the north and the two end walls, while the south wall is left flat. This recess fits the frames for the glass cover.

Standard hotbed window sash are made three by six feet and the measurements are generally made to conform to these measurements.

The concrete for the hotbed walls should be of a 1:2:4 mix—one part of portland cement, two parts of sand and four parts of crushed stone. The sand should be clean and the stone or pebbles not more than one-half inch in diameter. The water used in making concrete should be fit to drink, otherwise, it may bring chemical reactions which would detract from the strength of the concrete.

Concrete should be spaded frequently after being poured into the forms in order that a solid mixture will be formed. Forms should be left in place for at least four days, after which the hotbed is ready for planting.

Necessary Materials.
The following materials are required for a hotbed 12 feet long: 17 sacks of portland cement, 1 1/2 cubic yards of sand and 2 1/2 cubic feet of pebbles. To each added cubic of length, one sack of cement, two cubic feet of sand and four cubic feet of pebbles or crushed rock, will be needed.

Protein Is Absolutely Essential as Stock Feed

A certain amount of protein is absolutely essential in cattle feeding operations. Where alfalfa or clover hay is the sole roughage it is not necessary to use any protein feed, but where alfalfa or clover is fed in connection with other roughages, the addition of 1 pound of cottonseed meal per head per day will reduce the cost of grain materially. If no alfalfa or other leguminous hay is fed, 2 pounds of cottonseed meal per head per day will produce gains considerably cheaper than in the case where none is fed.

Proportion of Grain to Feed Milk Cow Each Day

Cows giving less than a gallon and a half of milk per day need but little if any grain in addition to alfalfa hay and silage. Cows producing more than this amount of milk should be fed grain in the proportion of one pound of grain to each four pounds of milk produced by Ayrshires, Holsteins or Shorthorns and one pound of grain to each three and one-half pounds of milk produced by a Jersey or Guernsey. A good grain mixture to use is 400 pounds corn chop, kafir chop, ground barley or ground oats and 100 pounds of cottonseed meal or linseed oil meal.

Common Tree Names Are to Be Standardized

To correct the use of local and frequently confusing or contradictory common names for tree species, a committee composed of members of the forest service, United States Department of Agriculture, has been at work for some time endeavoring to standardize these terms. The committee, headed by George R. Sudworth, a recognized authority on tree species and author of numerous bulletins on forest trees, has completed the task of going over the entire list of tree species of the United States to determine upon standard common names to be used in all forest service publications.

Fish Meal for Hogs.

Fish meal is as valuable as tankage for hog feed, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. Shrimp bran, a by-product of the shrimp factories, is also a very valuable protein feed for hogs.

Keep the Litter Clean.

Scratching litter in the poultry house, if kept clean and dry, is an aid to egg production, but if the litter is permitted to become damp or filthy it is a fruitful source of disease.

Warns Against Using Imported Clover Seed

Experiments Show Many Plants Winter-Killed.

Warning against the sowing of imported red clover seed in Minnesota is being given by Minnesota experiment station men. Their attitude is based on the results of experiments started at University farm in 1922 when seedlings were made with red clover, furnished by the bureau of plant industry, from leading seed-producing states in this country and from all the foreign countries from which seed is imported. The following winter was mild, but despite that fact from 24.6 to 43.3 per cent of the plants grown from Wales, France, Germany, Holland, Hungary, Australia, France, Wales, Chile and Italy were winter-killed. The plots from seed produced in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Idaho and Saskatchewan showed only 8.3 per cent winter-killing.

The stands on the plots where seed from Wales, France, Chile and Italy was sown averaged less than 20 per cent in every instance, and no cutting for hay were made, says C. C. Army, who made charge of the crops at the Minnesota station. "Where the winter-killing averaged from 40 to 60 per cent, cuttings of hay were made, but the yields were small. Where the winter-killing was 20 to 30 per cent the yields were reduced materially."

Because of the shortage of red clover seed in the United States, the supply being only about 45 per cent of the normal, the importation of large quantities of seed from Chile, France and Italy is forecast. "None of this imported seed should come into the northern tier of states," says Mr. Army. "And, further, farmers and seedsmen in these northern states should see that none of the seed produced at home is shipped out until it is definitely known that all home needs have been taken care of."

Winter Garden Work Is Big Relief in Spring

If the work that may be done in winter is taken care of the work in the spring when we are rushed will trouble us much less. Trash and old stalks of tomatoes and potatoes should be gathered and burned or made into a compost heap. Manure should be spread, and the earlier the better if it is at all fresh, though rotted manure is better spread nearer time when the plowing is to be done in the spring. Then when soil is dry enough and frost is out of the ground any time after New Year the ground may be plowed and it will settle enough to be just what is needed. Seeds will grow out better in a fairly firm soil, and plowed soil will dry out after spring rains and may be worked without loss of this vital time when seeds must be planted for early garden. If all this work is out of the way, the garden tools bright and well sharpened, trellis material all ready to put in place, stakes for things needing them, and poles for the beans and peas all handy, things will move smoothly and we will avoid the discomfort of having the work behind and crowding us, while weeds shout for joy, and crusts form to dissipate the moisture.

Examples Proving Value of Silo on Dairy Farms

There are so many thousands of examples which prove the value of the silo that it is difficult to select. However, here is one which should be considered by dairy farmers. Some fourteen years ago a cow-testing association was started in a county in a middle-western state. It was a new and unheard-of work to most of the farmers, but they bravely went into the enterprise and a systematic report was kept of some 21 herds. At the end of the year a complete report was made and in it a table was given showing the profit from herds where silage was fed and from those that did not receive silage. The monthly profit per cow in the silage group was $5.22 and in the non-silage group was $2.95. This would make a difference of $2.04 for the silage cow above the non-silage cow, or for a herd of twenty cows the increased profit in feeding silage would be $40.80. This saving was made at a time when dairy products were much cheaper than they are today. The saving refers only to the milking herd and silage was fed to dry cows, heifers, calves, bulls and horses.

Moldy Sweet Clover Hay Proves Fatal to Cattle

Some deaths from feeding sweet clover hay have been reported from the northwest states. Professor Walker of North Dakota states that in every case investigated it was found that the cattle had been fed moldy hay. Lesions similar to those found in anthrax accompanied poisoning with moldy sweet clover hay. He says there is no danger when the hay is free from mold.

Find Actual Plant Food in a Ton of Fertilizer

Plant food costs less in high-analysis fertilizers than in low-analysis fertilizers despite the higher unit price of the former. Figures compiled by the state chemist of Pennsylvania show that the actual plant food in a ton of fertilizer analyzing 17.00 per cent cost $3.01 less than in a ton analyzing 12.47 per cent plant food.

Growing Red Clover.

Like alfalfa, red clover will not grow on a sour soil. It is a biennial hence a shorter rotation must be followed than when alfalfa is produced. It contains about 75 per cent as much protein as alfalfa.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

LION'S SPRING CELEBRATION

"They think," said King Lion to one of the other lions, "that we Lions do not feel the need of change in the spring."

"Of course the keepers understand, but the people who come to the zoo don't understand at all."

"They say: 'Dear, dear, but I do feel restless. I feel as though I would like to go away on a holiday or take a few days off just doing nothing.'"

"And then they look at us as though to say: 'Spring means nothing at all to Lions.'"

"But that is where they are wrong. Spring means something to Lions."

"Of course, it would mean more if we could wander—it might even mean danger. But even in the zoo we celebrate the spring."

"Of course we do," said the other lions.

"My spring celebration," continued King Lion, "might not be the kind of a celebration others might have. 'They might think it was a strange kind of celebration.'"

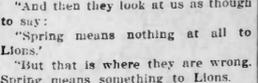

"But I do not have to mind what others think. I'm above gossip."

"Just suppose some one said: 'King Lion looks young for his age; do you suppose it would bother me?'"

"Not in the least."

"And so I do not care what they think of my spring celebration. The keepers help me with it."

"Yes, no sooner had spring shown it was on the way this year than the keepers gave me this great log in the yard of my zoo home.

"Then I began my celebration. I sharpened my claws and put them in their shape for the season."

"It was all in honor of the spring that I did this. Of course, too, it was in honor of my claws!"

The other lion growled a little with amusement.

"Greatly in honor of your claws, I should say," he remarked.

"True! True!" exclaimed King Lion.

"Now, people," he went on for awhile, "may not call their spring cleaning a celebration, but they look upon it as something of great importance, and sharpening my claws is the same way with me, though I make a celebration of it, too."

"I like to go in for a spring cleaning. I like to freshen myself up and look spick and span for this season of the year."

"Just as people get themselves new hats and gloves and coats and so forth, so do I spruce up—only I give all attention to my claws."

"Why shouldn't I? My claws are so handsome, so powerful, so beautiful."

"People haven't wonderful claws such as I have. They have no such beauty."

"In the spring when they clean their houses and throw away old boxes and old papers and old rubbish, but I just settle down by my nice old log and have a splendid time of it."

"I feel sorry for people not having claws. It is true my claws are not of such great use to me here, but even so, I shall not lose my self-respect."

"I shall continue to make them look their best."

"It is just the way I feel," the other lion said. "Just exactly the way I feel."

"And the feelings of a lion are so important," King Lion added.

"Particularly," he said, with a grin, "to a lion!"

"I sharpened my claws."

Ancient Light Built on Cotton Foundation

The employment of cotton as a foundation for buildings erected on sandy soil is a matter of common knowledge, but the story of the first application of the material to this purpose is not generally known.

Dealing with the ancient light at Leanswe, between the Mersey and the Dee, difficulties were encountered in the search for a solid base, and the wreck of a cotton ship offered an inspiration to the builders. Some of the cotton which had been washed ashore was mixed with sand, and on this a massive stone tower was erected so firmly that it was found to withstand the fury of the mightiest tempests.

Handmade Lingerie Is Fashionable; Knitted Jumper for Spring Wear

NOW is the day when the needle-woman finds her craftsmanship at a premium in many directions, and especially in the direction of lingerie. Hand sewing is fashionable. Garments handmade may be no prettier than others machine made, but they outclass their rivals and there is no denying it, for they are considerably more expensive. Women who have the time to sew can afford the luxury of handwork and be economical at the same time. When one must have new underthings it is cheaper to buy Latest Step-In and Kimono.

The materials and make them than to buy them ready made even though the sewing is all machine work. One of the new season's steps-in is shown in the illustration. It is made of crepe de chine with a panel down the front and back outlined by a narrow banding. This allows the introduction of baby ribbon threaded through the banding. Rows of val lace fills make an enchanting decoration along the lower part of the garment and appear on the cambrile portion, where they are headed by an insert of beading carrying narrow ribbon. The shoulder straps are of ribbon. A very practical kimono contrives to be appealingly pretty as well, because of the attractive material used for making it, which is nothing more than an unusually handsome printed challie. It has a side-lit fastening and a carefully finished pocket with a hand of the goods' closely stitched in rows at the top and a piping of silk about the edges. The sleeves and collar are finished in the same way. There are numbers of printed materials for making these attractive morning robes that are so becoming and so cheerful. Printed cotton corduroy, cotton crepe and challie have all the requirements that negligees require. The ribbon is four inches wide, and the loops quite short, so that the tie has to be gathered into a fold each time it passes under a loop, and this gives graceful irregularity to the line.

Vanities Hang From the Wrist. The newest vanity case is a handsome affair on the lines of a silver cigarette case, made in black enamel with gold or silver stripes. It is worn hanging from the wrist by a clasped watch ribbon.

Lady Jane Tie. The self-sufficient, plain blue wool school dress, when it does permit itself to be adorned, has a way of choosing extremely effective and smart accompaniments, especially when in the hands of a certain young American designer, who devotes herself to exclusive clothes for girls. GOOD THINGS IN SEASON

Ham is such a favorite meat, and often there is a little left over. Try: Ham Timbale. —Take two table-spoonfuls of butter, one-quarter of a cupful of cooked chopped ham, one-half table-spoonful of chopped parsley, two eggs, slightly beaten, salt and pepper to taste. Melt the butter, add the crumbs and the milk and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Add the ham, the eggs and parsley, season well and turn into buttered individual molds, filling them two-thirds full. Set in a pan of hot water, cover with buttered paper and bake twenty minutes. Serve with:

Béchamel Sauce.—Take one and one-half cupfuls of the broth from boiled ham, or broth prepared from the trimmings and bone, with water, a slice of onion, a slice of carrot, a bit of bay-leaf, a sprig of parsley, six pepper-corns, one-quarter of a cupful of butter, the same of flour, one cupful of scalded milk, one-half table-spoonful of salt and a dash of cayenne. Cook the stock with the seasonings twenty minutes, then strain. Melt the fat, add the flour and, when well blended, add the hot seasoned stock and scalded milk. Cook until smooth and thick.

Raisin and Banana Casserole.—Take one cupful of raisins, one cupful of bread crumbs, four cupfuls of bananas, one-half table-spoonful of salt, two table-spoonfuls of sugar and one table-spoonful of butter. Brush the casserole with the butter, put half of the bananas into the bottom of the casserole, cover with bread, then with the raisins, which have been stewed with a little lemon juice and a table-spoonful of flour and the salt. Cover with the remainder of the bananas and sprinkle with sugar. Cover, put into a hot oven and bake twenty minutes; reduce the heat and leave twenty minutes longer. Serve hot.

Baked Ham With Vegetables.—Take a thick slice of ham, place in a casserole, and around it two Bermuda onions sliced and five sliced tomatoes, of the same amount cooked, and one-half cupful of water. Cover and bake in a moderate oven one hour. Put fresh carrots, one or two, through the meat grinder; add a spoonful of scraped onion—more, if liked, and an equal quantity of chopped celery. With a few nuts and a nicely seasoned salad dressing one has a fine, healthful salad, rich in vitamins. Serve on lettuce.

The memories dear that come to me at quiet hour. The dreams we have that do not all come true. The songs we love, a book in shadowed bowers— These priceless gifts are all for me, for you.

SEASONABLE FOODS

While chestnuts are in the market use them in as many dishes as will please the family. Chestnut Salad.—Shell one pound of chestnuts and boil until tender removing the brown skins. While still hot pour over a highly seasoned French dressing and set away to marinate for two hours. Then add equal parts of chopped celery and finely-diced apple and serve with a mayonnaise dressing.

Whey Jelly.—Take one pint of strained whey; add one-half cupful of sugar, one and one-half table-spoonfuls of gelatin, softened in cold water to cover. Add the juice and grated rind of a lemon and orange. Heat the sugar and stir until dissolved, then add the fruit juices and pour into a mold.

Ragout of Veal With Onions.—With a cleaver or pestle flatten a veal steak to about one-quarter of an inch in thickness. With a small, sharp cutter cut it into rounds. Cook these rounds in hot pork fat (salt) until the juice shows on the upper surface, then turn and cook on the other side; add a little broth and let simmer until the meat is very tender—about forty-five minutes; add two table-spoonfuls of flour with tomato juice, salt and pepper to taste, into this dish; add a cupful of tomato pulp cut into pieces and cook ten minutes longer. Have ready small onions, cooked tender in boiling water, drained and browned in butter. Serve the veal and sauce in the center of the platter, with the onions around in a circle.

Ham Pie.—Take five large potatoes, sliced, one pound of ham, uncooked, two medium-sized carrots. Place a layer of potatoes, sliced, in the bottom of the pan; grate one carrot over the potatoes; cover with one-half of the ham, cut into serving-sized pieces; place another layer of potatoes and grated carrot and cover with ham. Pour boiling water to half-fill the dish. Cover and bake until the potatoes are soft. The last fifteen minutes uncover and add more water, if needed.

Pyramid of Cheops Is Still in Good Condition

Save for one surviving pyramid, the seven wonders of the ancient world have passed on. Not only have they disappeared, but their memory is mostly confined to the pages of old books. Strangely enough, the one surviving wonder is the oldest. It dates back almost 4,000 years before Christ, and it is still in good condition. It is the pyramid of Cheops at Ghizeh, in Egypt. The most notable thing about the pyramid was the care taken to protect it from grave robbers. All the entrances were sealed. There were several large chambers near the base of the structure built to mislead any one seeking the sepulchral chamber. This was 138 feet above the ground, and could be reached only by tortuous passages, cleverly concealed. The walls of Babylon were the second wonder. The third wonder was the statue of Zeus in the temple at Ephesus. The fifth was the mausoleum of Halicarnassus, in Caria. The sixth was the Colossus of Rhodes, and the seventh was the lighthouse of Alexandria at Pharos. It was Antipater of Palestine, the Baedeker of the ancient world, who selected the seven wonders about 200 years before the birth of Christ.—Detroit News.

The Grocer's Encyclopedia says that according to the United States standards, bitter chocolate is a mass obtained by grinding cocoa nibs without the removal of any constituent except the gum. When this ground bean, in cocoa form, is sweetened and flavored it is known as sweet chocolate. Cocoa is the ground bean from which part of the oil or fat has been extracted. Cocoa cannot be made into chocolate.

They Paid $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars last year

Find out why folks did it

LAST year 145,000 people paid over $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The demand for these cars has almost tripled in three years. It has become the sensation of Motordom.

There is a new situation in the fine-car field. You should learn what it means to you.

We spend $500,000 yearly on an engineering staff. There are 125 skilled men employed in our department of Research and Experiment. They make 500,000 tests per year.

We employ 1,200 inspectors. Each Studebaker car must pass 30,000 inspections during manufacture.

Then on some steels we pay makers a 15 per cent bonus to insure exactness in them.

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,000 of its price.

We use genuine leather upholstery.

We use Chase-Mohair for the closed car upholstery. Some good upholstery would cost $100 less.

To curb vibration, we machine all surfaces of crank shafts, as was done in Liberty Airplane Motors. Very few cars do that.

Learn Why 145,162 Bought Studebakers in 1923.

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine car field today.

In 1919, the public paid over $80,000,000 for 39,356 Studebaker cars.

In 1921, the public paid over $120,000,000 for 66,643 Studebaker cars, an increase of 29% over 1920.

In 1922, the public paid over $155,000,000 for 110,269 Studebaker cars, an increase of 66% over 1921.

In 1923, the public paid over $201,000,000 for 145,162 Studebaker cars, an increase of 32% over 1922.

In 1924, business has opened with Studebaker as never before.
