

DEATHS OF THE PAST WEEK

MRS. W. SCHULTZ PASSES AWAY
Mrs. Wilhelmina Schultz, 73, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Jandre, in the town of Auburn, on June 27th, with whom she has made her home the past four years prior to which she lived in the town of Greenbush, Sheboygan county. Deceased was born in Germany on August 18, 1857. At the age of 22 years she immigrated to this country, and after her marriage to Mr. Schultz, the couple went to farming in the town of Greenbush. Her husband preceded her in death eight years ago.

She is survived by the following children: Oscar Schultz, town of Farmington, Mrs. Anton Bauman, town of Lima; Otto and Arthur Schultz, of the town of Mitchell; and Mrs. Walter Jandre, town of Auburn.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon, June 30th, at one o'clock from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Jandre, town of Auburn, with services in the St. John's Lutheran church at New Fane at 1:30 conducted by Rev. C. J. Gutekunst. Burial was made in the Woodlawn cemetery at Plymouth.

GEORGE NEBELSICK PASSES AWAY

George Nebelsick, a well known and respected resident of the town of Barton since 1890, passed away at his home on Saturday morning, July 2nd. Death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage. On August 11, 1926 Mr. Nebelsick suffered a paralytic stroke, and has been confined to his home since.

Deceased was born in Emmern, Hanover, Germany, June 2, 1859. He came to America in June 1882, settling at Milwaukee where he resided for 8 years. On August 26, 1886 he married Miss Emma Gollnast. In April 1890 the then young couple went to farming on the present homestead. Besides his wife, he is survived by Henry, a policeman, Rudy, employed by the Chicago Surface Lines; Albert, an attorney, all of Chicago; Bertha (Mrs. Edward White) of Milwaukee; and William at home.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Alfred H. Otto of West Bend officiating. Interment was made in the Filgrim's Rest cemetery at West Bend.

MRS. WALTER MCKEE DIES

Mrs. Walter McKee, nee Nancy Bahr, passed away at the St. Joseph's hospital in Milwaukee last week Friday, after being ill for several weeks with Bright's disease. Mrs. McKee, only 31 years of age, was very well known in this part of the county, and was for several years teacher in the graded schools at Boltonville. She is survived by her husband and two sons.

The funeral was held Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the St. John's church in the town of Farmington. Burial was made in the congregation's cemetery. Rev. Father J. Beyer of St. Michaels officiated.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of Joint School District No. 5, of the Village and Town of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, that the annual meeting of said District for the election of officers and the transaction of other business, will be held in the auditorium of the High School building, on the 11th day of July, 1932, at 8 o'clock in the afternoon; it being the second Monday in July.

Dated at Kewaskum, Wisconsin, this 1st day of July, 1932.

Signed: EMIL C. BACKHAUS,
District Clerk

INCOME TAX EXTENDED TO AUGUST 1

Last week Friday Governor La Follette issued a proclamation at Madison extending payment of income taxes without penalty until August 1. Under the proclamation, the taxpayers may file an affidavit for a further extension to October 15, after August 1, and they may pay their taxes in three installments. Under the extensions thus granted the unpaid taxes will not be reported delinquent, as would otherwise have been the case, and the penalties of 2 per cent, plus an interest charge of 1 per cent a month will not apply. All county treasurers were sent a copy of the proclamation.

Horicon will entertain the Dodge County Skat League at the City Park Hall, Sunday afternoon, July 10, 1932. Mayor Markham is inviting skat players to come with picnic lunches, and bring their families, for a day of shade and sunshine at the Horicon City Park where thousands annually enjoy the free use of the playground equipment for young and old. The playing starts at 2 o'clock p. m. The next session of the League will be awarded at this meeting.

DEDICATION AT ST. BRIDGET'S TUESDAY

On next Tuesday, July 12th, the newly rebuilt St. Bridget's Catholic church building at St. Bridget's will be dedicated. High mass will be read starting at ten o'clock, which will be followed with dedication ceremonies.

The church edifice, which was destroyed by fire November 27, 1931, from some unknown origin, was an old land mark of the town of Wayne. The congregation at St. Bridget's was started in 1848, and was one of the first Catholic congregations organized in the county. Four of the charter members are still living, namely: John Rimmel of Campbellsport, Nic Hess of the village of Kewaskum, John Schmidt of West Bend and Anton Kudeck of the town of Wayne. The destroyed building was erected in 1868 under the supervision of Jos. Schield, mason contractor and John Massans, carpenter contractor.

Rev. Father Miller was its first pastor, he served two years, and resigned. His vacancy was filled in 1870 by Rev. Schumacher of St. Kilian, and served until 1875, when he was succeeded by Rev. Jacobs. In 1877 he resigned and Rev. Father Grome, then pastor of the Holy Trinity church at Kewaskum, was assigned the parish duties in connection with his duties at Kewaskum. After eighteen years of service, in 1895, Rev. Grome resigned, and Rev. Ph. J. Vogt, the present pastor, then took charge.

The New London Construction Company of New London were the contractors in the rebuilding work, and was done under the supervision of Leo Schoenrock, superintendent of the company. The building itself is very plain, and simple in construction. It is efficiently arranged, has ample space and an abundance of light.

DEDICATION CHICKEN DINNER

Immediately after the Dedication ceremonies of the St. Bridget's church at St. Bridget's next Tuesday, July 12, the ladies of said congregation will serve a dedication chicken dinner. The ceremonies start at ten o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.

FREE CHEST CLINIC AT HARTFORD

Arrangements have been completed by County Nurse McKenzie with the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, for a free chest clinic to be held at the city hall at Hartford on Wednesday, July 13.

Any resident of the county may come to the clinic for a free examination for defects of the lungs and heart. The clinic will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Children under six years will not be examined unless they have had close contact with someone having tuberculosis.

A parent or guardian must accompany any child under 16 years of age because accurate information concerning a child's past illness or possible contact with tuberculous persons is of great aid to the examining doctor.

No treatment will be given at the clinic. All persons whose examinations reveal to be in need of treatment or further medical advice will be referred to their own family doctors.

The clinic is sponsored by the Washington County Board, which shares with the W.A.T.A. in financing this health service.

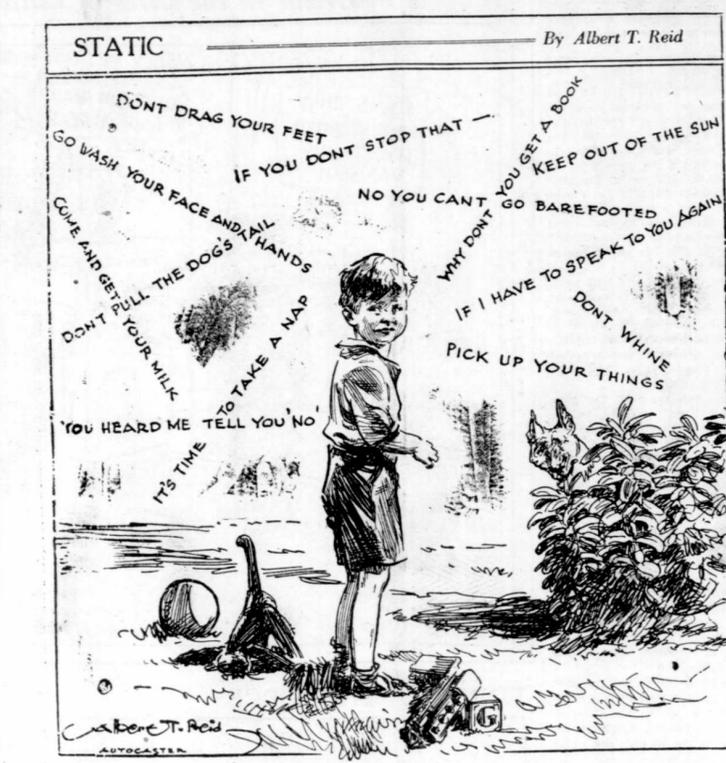

The W.A.T.A. raises funds to carry on its work for better heart particularly the prevention of tuberculosis, by the annual sale of penny Christmas seals.

FOND DU LAC COUNTY ESTABLISHES INCOME RECORD

Residents of Fond du Lac county in spite of the depression were very prompt in meeting their payments of personal and corporation income taxes before the expiration of remittances without penalty. A check up of the books of County Treasurer M. Washburn shows that approximately 15 per cent of the total amount of the income tax due remains unpaid. Collections up to Wednesday noon totaled $211,457.01, leaving $36,965 yet to be collected. The collections on Tuesday alone amounted to $52,051.09. A number of checks from large income taxpayers remained unopened in the treasurer's office at the time of the check-up.

GOVERNOR LA FOLLETTE TO SEEK ANOTHER TERM

Governor Philip F. LaFollette on Wednesday announced that he will be a candidate for re-election. In his statement he outlined causes of the business depression and his program for relief, reviewed progressive accomplishments in the state legislature, assailed the platform on which the conservative Republican ticket will run and summed up that progressives intend to "face the arrogant forces of entrenched privilege" in the coming campaign.

NEW REVEREND TENDERED RECEPTION

Last week Friday evening, Reverend and Mrs. Richard Gadow, were tendered a "get acquainted" reception by the members of the Evangelical Peace church at the church parlors. The affair was sponsored by the Ladies Aid. A very appropriate program was arranged for the event, after which the Reverend and his wife were introduced to all those present. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies.

FOUR CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ours and family spent the Fourth at Fond du Lac.

Mrs. Joe Ketter spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gust. Tunn at Campbellsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klabuhn spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Buettner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider and daughter Rosella spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klabuhn, Sr.

Erwin Ketter spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Baumhart at Campbellsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Klabuhn, Jr., spent Monday and Tuesday with relatives at Clintonville and Marytown.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buettner of Milwaukee were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buettner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schneider and daughter Jeanette, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Seefeld and son Vernon, Charley Seefeld and son John and Michael Schick of Fond du Lac, John Flitter spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. M. Weisler and family.

EAST VALLEY

Mrs. Julius Reysen and daughter Ruth were business callers at Kewaskum Tuesday.

Miss Flora Reysen of La Grange, Ill., is spending a few days with Julius Reysen and family.

Wm. Hammes and friend of Chicago spent over the Fourth at July with the former's parents here.

Mrs. Rudolph Zilch and daughters Leone and Fern of Birnamwood called at the Julius and Henry Reysen homes Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Schladweller and Joe Schladweller spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Math. Schladweller at Random Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Guldin of Lomira, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Boegel of St. Kilian spent Monday evening at the Wm. Pesch home.

Mrs. Peter Steichen and daughter Bernice of Milwaukee spent their 4th of July vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pesch and family.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridget's on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

Mrs. Katherine Simon of Stanley, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crane of Chicago spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nic Hammes and family and other friends.

Subscribe for the Kewaskum Statesman and get all of the news of your community.

HELP TO MAKE HOME TOWN BEST ON EARTH

Fair competition is the life of trade. Home business institutions that are helping to pay for the maintenance and improvements of a city, are entitled to the trade of the citizens of the home city.

Outside business concerns do nothing toward the building of the home city and local merchants should not be forced to compete with them.

Buying away from home should be stamped out forever. Every dealer and every activity should be united to make business of the home city better. Now is the time to get busy and make local business better.

All should take a mental inventory and find out how they stand in ability and honesty of purpose and willingness to make the home city bigger and better.

No man is a success who only enriches himself. The man is a success whose success enriches the community. There is only one city in the world in which to live and prosper and that is the city in which you live.

A good way to boost the home city is to buy from the local business concerns who advertise in local papers.

Local advertisers are the people who lead in the things that keep a city moving forward in the march of progress.—Press, Gottenberg, Iowa.

LAKE FIFTEEN

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gatzke spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Schultz.

Otto Lavrenz of Milwaukee is visiting with his brother, Gust. Lavrenz, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nieman and family of Sheboygan spent from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wunder.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gatzke and daughter Gretchen spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gatzke and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rain at Campbellsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Molkenthine and children of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Molkenthine and Mrs. Herman Molkenthine of New Prospect, Mrs. C. Krawald and daughter Eleanor of New Fane spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wunder.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Gatzke and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gatzke and son Walter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Janssen, Miss Elsie Gatzke and Milton Muench of Beechwood visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Gatzke and daughter Gretchen and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Gatzke.

CHILD DEATHS DECREASE IN STATE

Deaths of children of one and two years decreased 127 in 1931 over 1930, the state board of health recently announced. In 1931 there were 470 deaths compared 597 in 1930. Pneumonia was the cause of 111 deaths, 33 below its toll for 1930. Accidents claimed 67 lives and tuberculosis 41. Other death causes for this group included, in order of their importance: diarrhea, malformations, influenza, enteritis, measles, scarlet fever, appendicitis and whooping cough.

NEW INCOME CHIEF TAKES OVER OFFICE

W. Merrill Sawyer of Kenosha, has been appointed new income tax assessor of the Fond du Lac district to succeed E. P. Worthing who recently resigned. Mr. Worthing turned over the keys of the office to his successor last week Friday. The Fond du Lac district is composed of Washington, Fond du Lac, Dodge and Winnebago counties. The plans of the state tax commission are to add several more counties to the district.

NORTH FONDY INCREASES LEAD

BADGER STATE LEAGUE STANDING

W L Pct
N. Fond du Lac.....	7 1 875
Menomonee Falls.....	4 4 500
West Bend.....	4 4 500
Kewaskum.....	3 4 428
Sheboygan Falls.....	2 4 333
Mayville.....	2 5 285
No games played Sunday (Rain)

Monday's Results

North Fondy 10, Menomonee F. 9. (Only Game Played)

Next Sunday's Games

Sheboygan Falls at Kewaskum
North Fond du Lac at Mayville
Menomonee Falls at West Bend

Rain on Sunday interfered with the baseball schedule of the Badger State League, consequently no games were played. On Monday, July 4th, however, the postponed game of Menomonee Falls and North Fond du Lac was played at the latter place and the Tigers increased their lead for first place by defeating the Falls team in a slugfest, score 10 to 9. The Tigers made an up-hill fight and won the game in their last of the ninth inning by staging a five run rally. Habbe and Pommerville were the battery for the Tigers, while Amend and Schellenbein did the battery work for the Falls. Both pitchers struck out 8 men and allowed 14 hits. Five errors by the Falls team, three of which were charged against their catcher was the cause of their defeat. This loss for Menomonee Falls places them in a tie for second place with West Bend. The score by innings:

Menomonee F....	201 000 330—9 14 5
North Fondy ..	040 004 005—10 14 0

SHEBOYGAN FALLS HERE NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday Sheboygan Falls will be entertained by the locals in their first clash of the season, the first game which was scheduled between these two teams at Sheboygan Falls on June 5th was rained out. Sheboygan Falls come here as one of the contenders for first place. A week ago Sunday they defeated the Menomonee Falls club at the latter place 6 to 1. This game should be very interesting as both are evenly matched. Real Major league baseball can be expected. Come and root the home team to victory.

INDIANS 4, BATAVIA 3.

In a snappy and close game played in the local diamond July 4th the Indians added another victory by defeating a mixed team from Batavia, score 4 to 3. Marx and Schaefer were on the battery line for the locals and Held did the twirling for the visitors with Habbeck and Bruessewitz on the receiving end.

The Indians were given a real scare in the visitors time to bat in the last inning, with a score of 3 to 1 against them, the visitors had a 2 run rally to bat with one man out, Lay got a double when Habbeck in center field lost the ball, in the sun, and Marx singled over short Lay scoring the winning run. Both pitchers did remarkably well, Marx having the edge, struck out 12 men and allowed 8 hits. Held struck out seven and allowed seven hits. The box score:

Batavia	AB	H	R	E
R. Mehlos, 2b-ss.....	4	0	0	0
Fabian, rf.....	4	1	0	1
Scider, 3b.....	2	0	1	0
Sauerwald, 2b-lf.....	4	1	1	0
Bruessewitz, ss-c.....	4	1	1	0
Theis, cf-lf.....	4	1	0	0
L. Mehlos, 1b.....	4	1	0	0
Habbeck, c-cf.....	4	0	0	0
Held, p.....	3	1	0	0
Total.....	33	6	3	1

Kewaskum	AB	H	R	E
Klabuhn, pb.....	2	0	0	0
Schaefer, c.....	2	0	0	0
Casper, ss.....	3	0	0	0
Stenschke, cf.....	2	1	0	0
O'Connell, lf.....	4	0	0	0
Lay, 1b.....	4	2	1	0
Marx, p.....	3	2	1	0
Harbeck, rf.....	2	0	1	0
Smith, 3b.....	3	1	0	1
McLaughlin, 2b.....	2	0	2	0
Total.....	26	7	4	3

Two-base hits, Lay, Held; base on balls, off Marx 2; off Held 3; struck out by Marx 12, by Held 7.

FOND DU LEAGUE STANDINGS

W L Pct
Brownsville.....	6 4 600
Oakfield.....	6 4 600
Campbellsport.....	5 4 557
Waucousta.....	4 5 444
Lomira.....	4 6 400
Eden.....	3 5 375

It required ten innings July 4th for Brownsville to tie Oakfield for first place, by defeating the latter, score 11 to 10. Eddie Lehman, formerly with Kewaskum of the Badger State League did the twirling and although hit freely kept the hits well scattered. Campbellsport is trailing the leaders with five victories and four defeats. On Monday they defeated Lomira, score 11 to 6, while Waucousta took into camp Eden by a score of 8 to 4.

UNITED IN MATRIMONY

FLORENCE RALSTON-CARL M. SCHNURR

Carl M. Schnurr of Campbellsport, a former resident of the town of Kewaskum, on Saturday was married to Miss Florence Ralston of Alburquerque, N. M., at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ida Schnurr, at Campbellsport last Saturday. The wedding was performed by Rev. C. F. Spray of Burlington.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon in princess style and was supplemented with the wedding veil worn by her mother. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her ornaments were a string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She was attended by Miss Margaret Mudgett of Zion, Ill., as maid of honor, who was attired in a shell pink crepe dress and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses. Arthur Mayer of Madison was best man.

Preceding the ceremony a piano solo "Because" was played by Miss Elizabeth Filler of Wonevoo. As the wedding party assembled Miss Filler played "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Ralston, was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, school of music in 1931 and for the last year has been teaching at Argonne. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Iota. The groom is also a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, completing his course in 1930. He is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho. He has been a member of the Argonne High School faculty since his graduation.

Those in attendance at the wedding were: Mrs. Ida Schnurr, Campbellsport; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schnurr and daughter Bernice, West Bend; Martin M. Schnurr and family Wilmot, E. Spoel and family, Campbellsport; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dixon, Argonne, Wis.; Miss M. Mudgett, Zion, Ill.; Arthur Meyer, Madison; Miss Lillian Kaste, Fountain City, Wis.; Miss Kathleen Backus, Lancaster, Wis.; Miss Emma Niendorf, Mazomanie, Wis.; Miss Elizabeth Filler, Wonevoo, Wis.

The couple left to spend three weeks at a cottage on Lake Pokegama near Grand Rapids, Minn. We wish the newly weds best wishes.

MARRIED AT MILWAUKEE

A very pretty wedding took place at the Mother of Good Counsel Catholic church, Milwaukee, last Tuesday, July 5th, when Rev. Willard Unser, pastor of said congregation, performed the wedding ceremony that united in Holy Bonds of Matrimony, Miss Lillian Geier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geier, of the town of Kewaskum, and Joseph Zacher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zacher, Sr., of Milwaukee.

After a wedding dinner and reception which was attended by immediate relatives, the young couple left on a wedding trip via train to Canada, Seattle, Washington, and other points of interest in the western states. Upon their return they will go to house-keeping at 3041 62nd Street, Milwaukee. Congratulations to the happy ones.

WASHINGTON COUNTY 4H WORK BEING PUSHED

Due to the demand for more 4H Club work in Washington County, the County Fair Association has engaged a trained leader to work especially with the girls domestic science projects for the summer. This will mean that Boy's and Girl's 4H Club members can be offered more help than in the past and that a larger number than formerly can be enrolled.

Miss Luella Smith of Albany, former Club leader of Green County, began work July 1st and is busy meeting with the 4H Clubs of the county already in operation for the year and in assisting with the organization of a limited number of new groups. Since enrollments for this year close Saturday, July 9, it is important that boys or girls interested in this activity get in touch with Miss Smith or County Agent, E. D. Byrns, at the court house this week. This valuable work is open to all boys and girls between the ages of ten and twenty.

FOND DU LAC COUNTY 4H NEWS

The Happy Worker 4-H Club of Campbellsport, met June 29 at the home of Frances and Sylvester Schrauth. Miss Dolores Bowen is leader of the Club. After the business meeting, games were played and a marshmallow roast enjoyed. The next meeting will be held July 13th at the home of Doris Klokke.

JULY 15TH IS DEAD LINE

July 15th will be the dead line for auto truck, tractor and tractor owners to secure their 1932-1933 state licenses. Heretofore there were no days of grace. Several of the trucks are already displaying the new green and white plates.

Subscribe for the Kewaskum Statesman and get all of the news of your community.

Under Frozen Stars

★ By ★ George Marsh
Copyright by Penn Pub. Co.
(WNU Service)

CHAPTER II—Continued

The old Indian's eyes snapped with humor. "He don't spik nodding; he sen for Esau."

"What'd you do, Esau?" Esau puffed for a space, his eyes on his moccasins; then he said: "Mak-wa, de boeg shaman, mak' medicine no more."

Stuart leaned forward curiously. "You chased him out of the country?" The old man shook his head. Stuart turned to Omar, who chuckled: "Esau nevaire tell, but Makwa come to Wolf riviere to trade next tam widout hees ear. Ah-hah! He no good for shaman after he lose hees ear."

"You mean they were cut off?" Omar nodded. "Widout dem he was no good to mak' de medicine."

Stuart glanced doubtfully at the spunklike Esau. "Do you intend to cut off Jingwak's ears, Esau?" he laughed. "That will be some job! They're a wild lot up there in the Pipestone country; they might cut off yours—or worse."

The lean face of the old Ojibwa shaped a cryptic smile as he rose with a grunt and went out to visit the gill-nets below the post.

"Do you believe the old rascal actually cut off the medicine man's ears?" Stuart demanded of the grinning Omar.

"No one know. Esau nevaire tell." "But the shaman, you say, lost his magic with his ears?"

"Ah-hah! All de Ojibwa laugh at heem affair dat." "Well, I'll say that's a great yarn, anyway. But what do you suppose Esau meant when he said he'd put the devil into Jingwak?"

The half-breed shrugged. "I don't know. De fader of Esau was a shaman, a sorcerer. Esau, mebbe, got frien' among de devil."

His supplies and trade-goods properly checked and stowed away against the coming of the Ojibwas for the Christmas trade, Stuart prepared to follow the freight canoes, with his fur from the spring trade, down to Lake Expansé, the headquarters of the district. There he would listen, in sullen silence, while his chief, Andrew Christie, talked deep into the night of the failure of Sunset House to obtain its share of the trade.

With endless reiteration of the stiff-necked inspector would dwell on the cost of building the post and its small yearly returns in fur while Jim, raging inwardly, endured in silence. And, from the increasing stiffness in the manner of his chief, the discouraged Stuart knew that the end of Sunset House would mean the end of his advancement in the Company's service.

For a failure is a failure. The fact that he had been chosen to lead a forlorn hope—that Sunset House was doomed from the beginning, would be forgotten. He would have had his chance. If he stayed with the Hudson's Bay, they would send him somewhere as clerk, assistant to a luckier man.

But the journey to Lake Expansé would consume a fortnight, and the thought of what might await him behind a certain split rock on an island ten miles across the untrifled surface of Mitawanzanama led him to postpone his start with Omar.

The spell of the northern summer was on cloudless sky; the dusky, spruce green of the ridges; the cool depths of the translucent lake, as Jim gaddled alongshore toward the sturgeon set-lines at the outlet, to deceive the sharp eyes which followed his departure from the post. Then with a savage lunge his paddle tore the water to foam. Across the lake they laughed at the name, Sunset House, did they? So they held the whole Pipestone and Sturgeon river trade by bribing a sorcerer! Well, as Omar said, there were ways of handling a shaman. Esau was an old hand at that game. He and Omar should have their wish. They would go to the summer camps of the Pipestone Lake Indians—carry the war into the enemies' country. Jim Stuart's future as a fur-man was at stake. He'd played fair, but now all rules were off and henceforth there'd be no quarter.

Then his anger cooled as he thought of the girl whose message he was paddling ten miles to look for at the split rock. A reckless game, this, he admitted. Some day she'd be seen and followed. They, even, might be caught! Then what? He laughed aloud at the thought. Well, she was worth it—this bewildering daughter of LeBlond.

It was mid-forenoon when the birch-bark of Jim Stuart approached the split rock on the stony beach of the island. Stepping from the canoe, Jim's eager eyes searched the bushes behind the rock for the telltale white of the note which she had promised to leave. Then, lying under a stone, he saw to his surprise a folded sheet of paper, as if torn from a small note book. It did not seem like her—this scuffed scrap of paper at his feet.

Fuzzled, he picked it up and read: "This is your first and last warning. Louis LeBlond will see that there are no more love notes here for you. The next time you come for a letter you'll get lead."

The note was written in pencil in an immature hand and unsigned. "Paradis!"

He had followed her canoe at a distance and, finding her note, had left this. And now LeBlond would not allow her out of his sight—would watch her as a hawk watches a rabbit. Jim Stuart had seen the last of the girl who had filled the living room at Sunset House with laughter—whose departure had left him lonely, vaguely restless, puzzled with himself.

FROM THE BEGINNING

From his fur post, Sunset House, in the Canadian north, Jim Stuart, trader in charge, with his headman, Omar, rescues a girl from an overturned canoe in the lake. She is Aurore LeBlond, daughter of Stuart's rival in the fur business, and proves to be a charming companion. In a spirit of fun, she and Jim arrange to exchange notes on a certain island. LeBlond, with Paradis, his half-breed lieutenant, arrives in search of the missing girl. Paradis displays enmity toward Jim, though LeBlond acknowledges his debt of gratitude to Sunset House.

Nice dog in the manger, this Paradis! The head man of LeBlond had only run true to form in spying on the girl who laughed at him. Then the angered Stuart rasped aloud: "Get lead, eh, if I come again? If I could meet Monsieur Paradis here, I'd come tomorrow!"

"Weel today do?" From the thick spruce in his rear a voice beckoned Jim in his tracks, as Paradis appeared in the brush back of the canoe, carrying a gun. Stuart was unarmed. With evident satisfaction, Paradis looked at the man who watched him.

"Well, Monsieur Stuart, here ees Paradis!" he taunted. "You have your weesh. What weel the writer of love notes do about eet?"

"You're a pretty specimen of a man, Paradis," said Jim coolly, refusing to take the situation seriously. "You swing a gun on me, then ask me what I intend to do. Drop that gun and come down here on the beach, if you're not afraid, and I'll show you what I'll do about it."

"Ah, he boasts," Paradis grinned in derision. "Well, there's only one way to call a bluff," drawled Jim. "You hold the cards. It's your play."

"Yes, it ees my play," As Paradis bent with laughter, Jim edged a yard nearer. "But I have not made up my mind wedder to shoot you for de insult."

On his knees, Stuart rapidly drove the light birchbark out into the strait with his brisk stroke. From LeBlond's canoe could not be seen! With a lurch of his heavy body, Jim rolled the light canoe over as he plunged into the lake.

As the speeding canoe capsized, with a cry the surprised Paradis slid headlong into the water as his rifle exploded. Rising beyond reach of the boat, for an instant he beat the water desperately; then sank.

Holding the struggling Paradis away with a stiff left arm, Jim sucked in a deep breath and sank beneath the surface; then, as he rose, struck the gasping man fiercely in the face. The fingers which clutched Stuart's shirt relaxed, and he pushed the half-conscious trader to the boat floating bottom up.

"Now, can you hear that dog-whip sing?" he laughed. But the man Jim held beside the overturned canoe was too busy coughing up water to hear-too frightened to answer.

"You're a clever man with the Indians, Paradis, but there's some tricks you don't know," taunted Jim, as he swam beside the boat. "Look out! You'll roll into the lake if you move!" he warned, as the dazed passenger lifted a livid face to the man in the water.

At last they reached the shore, and wading to the beach with the man who had ambushed him, Jim dropped him none too tenderly.

"Now, what are you going to tell LeBlond, when you can walk and are able to find your boat which you have hidden somewhere on this shore?" he asked of the hiccoughing Paradis propped on his elbow, his red eyes picturing his fear of what awaited him at the hands of the Hudson's Bay man.

Paradis weakly shook his head. "You deserve a good north country bentin, my friend, for throwing that gun on me. You might have pulled that trigger. But for spying on Miss Aurore, you deserve—I'll take this," Stuart suddenly bent over the shivering Paradis, who shrank from the blow he anticipated, and jerked a knife from his sheath on the other's belt. "Yes," Jim went on, "you deserve getting this between your ribs for following her out here, and I'm going to let you have it." With a black scowl Jim drew back the skinning knife and thrust savagely at the helpless man at his feet. The mottled face of Paradis went white, as he shrank from the blow. But the shining blade stopped inches from his ribs.

"How dyub like that, my brave beauty? Not so nice when the other man has the whip hand, eh?" "Don't! don't!" whimpered the man on the beach, too weak to move. "I onlee play wid you—I nevaire shoot!"

"Well, the least I can do is to cut a birch whip and give you what you promised I'd get."

But Stuart had had enough of this head man of LeBlond's. The yellowness of spirit of the one who, an hour before, had held a rifle on his heart, disgusted him. And across the lake Omar was waiting.

"Just remember one thing, Paradis," he said, "when you lie about what happened this morning—I didn't let you drown when I had good reason to. From now on, between you and me there'll be war. You've started to put me out of business—you and LeBlond; but before you're through you'll know you've been in a fight. Now go back and tell them a cock-and-bull yarn about what happened to you!"

Turning from the surprised Paradis, Jim stepped into his boat and started for Sunset House. As he passed the split rock, he suddenly swung the canoe with a sweep of his paddle and started furiously back up the shore. Her note? Paradis must have it in his pocket. It could be dried and read.

But when Jim reached the strip of beach where he had left his man, it was empty.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Important Small Things
Little failures and little successes, little faults and little virtues, a few kind words here, a few sharp words there, helping or hindering more than we know—life made up of these small things. We can live only day by day. The truly great events are few and the trifles many, and it is out of the seemingly unimportant that we must build our character, our human existence and our eternal record.—Exchange.

Stuart's heart started with a leap. The man was crazed! He would shoot! With a desperate bound Jim strained to reach the madman—to deflect his aim; but fell, sprawling in low brush far short of his goal, as Paradis backed away, his gun still covering his enemy.

"Hi!" chuckled the other, "that was worth de blow in de face at Medicine Stone—to see you jump like a frog." Jim got to his feet, his eyes on the grinning face behind the rifle barrel. He must get closer—risk being hit, to get that gun. But how?

Lowering the rifle, Paradis said with a chuckle: "Now that I have made you jump, I weel make a leetle hole through your heart, Monsieur Jean Stuart." Then he raised the rifle and took deliberate aim.

The leveled gun was yards away, with low bush between. It was hopeless. If he rushed, Paradis couldn't miss him. Then, sucking in a deep breath, Jim deliberately folded his arms over his chest, and taking a desperate chance, challenged: "All right, I'm ready! Now—right through the heart!"

For a space the black tube covered the chest of the man whose eyes did not waver. "Your arm is een de way. De shot weel not be a clean one," muttered the man whose finger slowly curled on the trigger.

Jim Stuart's straight gaze held the grinning face behind the black tube sighted on his laboring heart, but doubt slowly chilled him. Had he misjudged his man? Did Paradis, after all, intend to murder him? Slowly, under the strain, the sweat broke from his forehead. Better to take the chances of a rush than to be shot like a spy against a wall. Then, as Jim stiffened for a headlong leap, with a laugh Paradis dropped his gun butt.

"Now we go on!" see Louis LeBlond." Jim let the breath out of his lungs. It had seemed minutes while he looked into that gun muzzle. It had taken all the nerve he had. But it had worked—that trick; or was Paradis merely baiting him?

"Get into your boat! Take de stern and paddle! If you move, I shoot you for sure!" ordered Paradis.

Jim did as he was told. Facing him, with the gun in his hands, Paradis squatted in the bow of the boat, and they started along the shallows of the shore.

"You think you are luckee I deed not shoot you, Monsieur Stuart of de Hudson's Bay; but when Louis Le-Blond hear you come to meet hees daughter—den you weesh I shoot. Dat heez dog-whip of Jules—ah! I can hear it seeng now. Crack! She go on your back!"

The threats of Paradis fell on deaf ears. Jim was not worrying over LeBlond. But he did not relish the humiliation of being brought into the post by the unbalanced Paradis. He pictured the mirth in the eyes of Aurore LeBlond. But as for the jealous and demented Paradis, he almost pitied him. There would be no mercy when she learned how he had spied upon her movements. And LeBlond? She'd laugh at him, as she did that night at Sunset House.

Beyond the island of the split rock, across a half-mile of quiet water, lay another and larger one. As Jim paddled leisurely, ignoring the abuse of the man squatted in the bow, holding his rifle, he wondered whether this strait was visible from LeBlond's place on the mainland.

OUR COMIC SECTION

Events in the Lives of Little Men

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

Michael, the Iconoclast

THE FEATHERHEADS

Felix Knows His Fashions

Picking 'Em

"Are you fond of horses?" asked the turf expert. "Oh, I simply adore them!" exclaimed the lady who is always effusively pleasant.

"Which is your choice among these?" "Oh, the one with the brown complexion wearing his mane in braids!"

Teacher—What is a man called who deceives his fellow countrymen? Elmer—A radio announcer!

GOING DOUBLE

A young actor had been entrusted with the lines: "The king is dead. Long live the king!"

When the supreme moment came, however, nervousness caused him to lose his head. He paraphrased his words: "Long live the king! He's dead."

DOUBLE REASON

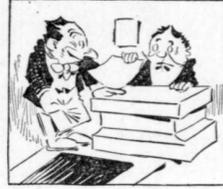

She followed her husband down the stairs and seated herself opposite him at the breakfast table.

"I hope you weren't annoyed because I sharpened a pencil with your razor, darling?" she innocently asked.

"Yes, I was—twice," he replied patiently. "Twice, darling?" she echoed.

"Yes, after I had given up trying to shave I tried to write with the pencil," he returned.

NOW THEY BOTH KNOW

"Of course you know, landlord, that living is very dear, and—"

"Yes, yes, of course. In fact, I shall have to raise my rents on account of it. Here's a new contract with an additional $100 per year?"

Long Journey

A man who spends a good deal of time traveling is devoted to golf when at home. He is more celebrated for enthusiasm than for accuracy.

One day he got into a deep bunker, where he stayed for a long time. His opponent strolled over to discover the globe-trotter had dug quite a sizable hole in his efforts to dislodge the ball.

"Well, Bill," he said, genially, "off to Australia again?"—London Tit-Bits.

Benefits of College

Overheard in a restaurant near the City Hall park: "How's your son making out at college, Bill?"

"Fine; he's improving all the time." "Getting good marks, eh?"

"Well, his marks aren't so hot, but his letters touching me for money are becoming more grammatical every week."—New York Sun.

Unexpected Flight

A dub golfer had lost his ball and not unaturally was inclined to be annoyed with his caddy. "Why the deuce didn't you watch where it went?" he demanded angrily.

"Well, sir," said the boy, "it doesn't usually go anywhere, and so it took me unpreparedlike."—Boston Transcript.

Thermometer

Gene, in her first term at school, insisted that she was a "thermometer" and her parents were at a loss to know what she meant. Later her mother visited the school and heard the teacher call the pupils in the front seats her "front monitors."

Then Gene whispered: "That's me, mom!"

HUBBY'S TOPIC

Mrs. Oldwood—Does your husband talk much about his mother's cooking? Mrs. Newwood—No. He talks about mine.

Seeking Adequate Protection

"How did that big boy in gangland come to get sent to the penitentiary?" asked Bill the Burg.

"Must o' been p'ltical influence," replied Dick the Dip. "He got so unpopular a bulletproof vest wasn't protection enough. He needed high stone-work."

Change for Her

"Flo Filmer the movie star, is very fond of working in her garden." "I suppose she enjoys having a real plot to work in."

Experience Improves

The wedding was over at last. "Phew, that was an experience," said the bridegroom. "Did I look like a fool at the altar rail?"

"No," replied the best man, "but anyone could see that you were yourself."

Simplified

Voice—I can't catch the name. Professor—B for Brontosaurus, R for Ramayana, A for Athanasius, U for Usimbara, N for Neptunism.—Die Woche im Bild (Oltzen, Switz.).

Gonna Be Herself

"Even if you can't have all the new things you want I don't see why you can't be cheerful," growled her husband.

"I absolutely refuse to be a hypocrite," she snapped.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Get the Point?

Batch—What's the best month to get married in? Marr—October. Batch—Why, there's no such month. Marr—Just so.—Boy's Life.

The Kitchen Cabinet

EVERYDAY FOOD

TAKE a center cut of fresh salmon, cover with cold water and plenty of salt. Bring slowly to a boil, removing all scum, and simmer until the fish is tender. Drain well and serve with the following sauce: Take six tablespoons of butter, the yolks of two eggs, put them into a double boiler, stirring briskly until the butter is dissolved. Mix two tablespoons of flour with the egg mixture, add the juice of a lemon and one cupful of milk, a little grated nutmeg and pepper and salt. Stir constantly, until it thickens to a smooth custard.

Pike a la Tartar.—Cut a fresh pike into slices and lay the slices into a marinade of olive oil, minced onion, salt and pepper, finely cut mushrooms and parsley. Cover the fish with the marinade and broil, brushing with the marinade. When the fish is a golden brown, place on a hot platter and serve with parsley and a tartar sauce.

Spinach With Egg.—Boil spinach in very little water. Beat up two eggs for each pound of cooked chopped spinach, sprinkle with bread crumbs that have been well buttered. Pour over olive oil or butter and heat thoroughly. Serve hot.

Consomme Royal.—Beat two eggs, add salt and one-half cupful of milk. Pour into a square shallow pan and cook over hot water until the custard is firm. Cool, cut into small squares and serve in hot consomme.

Glazed Peach Fritters.—Peel, stone and cut into halves, firm peaches. Toss about until well covered with sugar, being careful not to break them. Canned peaches may be used. Take two cupfuls of flour, one-half cupful of water and mix this batter with the whites of two eggs well beaten, adding salt and a tablespoonful of melted butter. Bring some hot vegetable oil to the proper heat, dip each peach into batter then fry in the hot fat. When lightly brown drain on a paper and sift over powdered sugar. Place in a hot oven for a few minutes to glaze. Serve on a dolly-covered plate while hot.

(©, 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

My Neighbor Says:

WHEN washing ceilings or walls tie a rag around your wrist. This will catch the water that may run down and prevent it running down your arm.

Dry celery leaves and parsley, then pulverize. Keep in salt shakers. They are worth the trouble to prepare and make a tasty garnish.

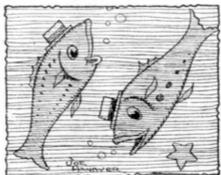

To remove peach stains from linens, stretch the stain across a bowl and pour boiling water through it until the stain disappears.

Lace window curtains should always be soaked for an hour in cold water, to which a little borax has been added before being put into warm sun.

(© by the Associated Newspapers (WNU Service))

Pharmacy Offers "Movies"
One California pharmacy, to stimulate trade, dispenses moving pictures along with its other stock to patrons.

FAVORITE SONG

First Fish—What is your favorite song?
Second Fish—Rocked in the cradle of the deep!

Individuality and Unity
In all things that are purely social we can be as separate as the fingers, yet one as the hand in all things essential to mutual progress.—Washington.

Cheerio Chapters Fun for All the Children

Edited by DOROTHY EDMONDS

SENTENCE FUN

(In each of these sentences is concealed the name of some famous man. Read the sentences out loud for it is by tricks of pronunciation that the names will reveal themselves to you.)

- Down by the stream a woman was performing what looked to be a mountain task, literally washing tons of clothes.
 - A boy was pulling something out of his dog's coat. "This burr goes to stick forever it seems," he said laughing.
 - Views of a delicate spider web stir many people to wonder over the intricate skill of these tiny creatures.
 - Twenty golfers rounded the largest lick on the eastern hemisphere in record time.
 - "Ha e you a match?" said one teamster to another. "Shur man, and here 's is," he answered.
 - A man with a parrot was irritated by the silly question of every passerby who said, "Polly want a cracker?" Finally, exasperated he said angrily, "Na, polly on to you," and hastened home.
 - There wasn't a real reason perhaps but Rose felt sad when she saw the other girls preparing to go to that very special party.
 - A farmer was amused at watching one of his neighbors trying to persuade a mule to pull an extra load. "Guess he don't be of the same mind as you about that thar load, now do he?" he laughed.
 - A negro was telling his friend about a ghost he had seen the night before. "I tell yo massa saw it with his own eye, as shorra as I be standin' heah!"
- (To help you—in the first sentence is the name of Washington written as two words, you see, and

A MOVABLE TOY

The picture speaks for itself. Cut out the various parts and join them together with thread that is strong as shown in the completed diagram in the lower corner. When strung together this way you can move his legs and arms and make him dance, by simply pulling the string.

only discernible when you read the sentence out loud. The others are like this, only some are not even spelled as the name at all, dependent only on sound.

(©, 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lights of New York

By WALTER TRUMBULL

The more we learn of the "beer racket" here in New York, the more remarkable we find it. It really isn't a racket. For some time it has been, in the main, a highly organized and orderly business. Those engaged in it want no trouble. Gun play, with its attendant publicity, is the last thing they desire.

The beer supply of New York is controlled by possibly six men. They are the manufacturers and wholesalers. The beer they furnish is of fine quality, made by experts from the best materials. Distribution is scientific. Greater New York is divided into districts, with clearly defined boundaries. In each of these districts there is a distributor, jobber, or middle man—call him what you please. If he attempts to do business outside his allotted district, discipline is swift. Oh, no; he is not "put on the spot" or beaten up or anything of that sort. That is not the manner in which big business works. His supply is cut off. That leaves him an outcast. Should he try to get rough, something might happen to him, of course. Many engaged in the trade were pretty tough citizens before brains high up showed them there was more profit in being business men. They are not going to let a few "outlaws" jeopardize their highly comfortable living. And an outsider who becomes obnoxious also may be dealt with firmly.

"What was the real low down on Legs Diamond?" I once asked a man in a position to give me a correct answer.

"Diamond was just a fresh mug," he said, "who got the idea he could muscle in where he didn't belong."

"How about Capone?" I asked.

"Capone," he answered, "was the front guy for smarter men."

This same man told me that, counting all types, from a room back of a store to the elaborate establishments, there were 50,000 speakies in Greater New York. Add the proprietors and employees of these places to drivers, handlers, workmen and the rest, and you will see that the result is quite an industry. Of course, a great part of the money obtained goes for protection and graft. The beer men have nothing to do with the importation of hard liquor. That is a separate racket, in the hands of half a dozen different gangs.

A smart, personable girl lost her position as a private secretary and couldn't get another. She figured her assets as an education, a knowledge of stenography, and a portable typewriter. She also figured that there must be a number of persons in a big city who had no use for a permanent secretary, but who hated to write or answer letters. The only way she knew to find them was to look up names in the telephone book and then try to sell her idea by a house-to-house canvass. Her proposition was that she would come once a week, take dictation, and type letters for a dollar an hour, with a minimum of one hour's work. Getting the first customer was the hardest. Now her business has worked up to $35 a week. That is to say, she has an equivalent of five customers a day. One recommends her to another and she is hoping to increase her business so as to gross $50 weekly. The thing is, of course, to try to get as many of her clients as possible in one part of the city.

(©, 1932, Bell Syndicate.)—WNU Service.

THE CHANGE

Mrs. Naggs—Why are you so indifferent to me since we were married?
Naggs—I'm not indifferent. You're different.

Useless Sorrow

There is no wisdom in useless and hopeless sorrow.—Johnson.

Lake Tahoe's First Beauty Queen

Miss Wilna Spilvalo, daughter of a prominent California family, who as "Miss San Francisco" was crowned the first beauty queen of Lake Tahoe and of northern California for 1932 at Brockway on the shore of Lake Tahoe. Miss Spilvalo, who is seventeen, was picked from a score of northern California's fairest to receive the crown.

dry areas and generating 1,200,000 horse power hydroelectric energy. The dam will check disastrous river floods. When the Six Companies, dam contractors, started work just one year ago they couldn't get into Black canyon except by boat. The spiteful Colorado boils through the canyon so viciously that it is five feet higher in mid-stream than at the banks.

The work was as dangerous as construction work can be. There is a rumor that insurance experts estimated that 200 men would be killed the first

NO BED OF ROSES FOR THE OPTIMIST

Must Lead a Wretched Life, Says Pessimist.

I shudder when I think what the life of an optimist must be like. To go on, year after year, believing in El Dorado, in something turning up, in the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, in the good times ahead, in what lies just around the corner, in the ship that will come in, in Lady Luck, in the divinity that shapes our ends; and to be assailed, day after day, by the realities of life—how can any but the most thick-skinned remain an optimist and survive? (I am convinced that all suicides are incorrigible, but thin-skinned, optimists.)

But take your thorough-going pessimist—take me! I do not believe that life has anything to offer, except such pleasure as one may derive from the business of daily living. I am always prepared for the worst. A cloud to me means not a silver lining, but the probability of rain and the possibility of pneumonia.

I have no genial faith in the intelligence or the courtesy of motorists: I always wait for the red light and then look both ways and around the corner. When anything pleasant happens I am astonished and delighted. And since many pleasant things do happen to me, I am constantly deriving from life a kind of spontaneous enjoyment. Each time I am convinced that this thing will not happen again; and then, after a while, I find myself, once more, agreeably disappointed.

I am no Abou ben Adhem; my name will head no celestial roll call. Far from loving my fellow men, I regard them with suspicion and considerable distaste. I do not accept persons "on faith"; nor do I "look for the good" in them. If there is any good—I mean good—I wait for it to evolve itself; (there is no hurry!).

In this way I avoid expending my energy upon hordes of persons who do not interest me; also I escape, almost entirely, that disheartening disillusionment which optimistic lovers of humanity experience so often.

I expect little or nothing from my friends and in this I am not too frequently disappointed.

Thus, not only does my affection for them remain undiminished, but I never fail to be genuinely touched by the occasional evidences of their loyalty and esteem.—Elmer. Rice in the Forum and Century.

This Man Had Faith Lost 24 Pounds

"Last November I weighed 192 lbs. Today, (February 5th, 1932) I am down to 168 lbs. and full of pep all day long—since using Kruschen I have not had to use the laxative that was customary."—Theo. A. C. LaFleur, Providence, R. I.

What do you think of this—you men who doubt—you stay fat—because you want to think that nature made you that way.

You're all wrong—most fat men were made fat because of their inability to handle a knife and fork in a business like manner.

Be frank with yourself. Are you too timid to take a safe, harmless conditioner that not only takes off surplus fat but is so helpful that it makes you feel years younger?

To reduce safely take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—cut down on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. Kruschen is sold by druggists the world over. A jar that costs but a trifle will last four weeks—but be sure you get Kruschen—your health comes first.

Seasonal Soliloquy
"In a day or two, now, Brown will be looking in. Nice fellow Brown!"
"And Jones, Jones will look me up any day now. Sociable sort of chap too, Jones."

"Robinson, too. Soon he seeing old Robinson. Interesting lad to talk to. Wonder how he's getting on all this time?"
Shouldn't be surprised if old Smith drops in, too, one of these evenings.

"Yes, it will be fine to see 'em all again. Fine—"
"All the same, I shall be wanting the lawnmower myself before long."
—Passing Show.

Foiled Again
Movie Actress—Did you explain to that newspaper editor that I detest publicity?
Her Press Agent—Yes, and even that failed to make him give you any space.

One who lives by his wits spends his time in looking for those who haven't any.

SOME FACTS ABOUT A CUTICURA SOAP PERFECT SKIN

From childhood the perfect skin has been thoroughly and regularly cleansed by a pure soap and one that contains medicinal properties which soothe, heal and protect against skin troubles.

More than three generations have found that Cuticura Soap meets just these requirements and has been using it to keep the skin in healthy condition.

Price 25c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Malden, Mass.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Have you anything around the house you would like to trade or sell? Try a classified ad. The cost is only a few cents and there are probably a lot of folks looking for just whatever it is you no longer have use for.

CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS

Mercolized Wax Keeps Skin Young

Get an ounce and use as directed. Fine particles of wax skin used until all defects such as pimples, liver spots, tan and freckles disappear. Skin is then soft and velvety. Your face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out the hidden beauty of your skin. The cream wrinkles in one ounce powdered Mercolized dissolved in one-half pint weak brand. At drug stores.

Find Crustaceans
Discovery of five species of small crustaceans hitherto unknown to science, almost microscopic in size, inhabiting Chesapeake bay, is announced by Dr. Charles R. Wilson in a Smithsonian institution report. They are copepod crustaceans, distant relatives of the crab and the lobster, and constitute the chief supply of many fish eaten by man. These discoveries resulted from a biological survey of the bay conducted under the direction of the bureau of fisheries. Vast multitudes of the small creatures were found to swarm the bay waters.

KILLS ANTS

Peterman's Ant Food is sure death to ants. Sprinkle it about the floor, window sills, shelves, etc. Effective 24 hours a day. Inexpensive. Safe. Guaranteed. More than 1,000,000 cans sold last year. At your drugstore's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

Another Edison Memorial
A fourth memorial to Thomas A. Edison at his birthplace, Milan, Ohio, is being planned. Edison's estate has taken over the birthplace, a small cottage, for memorial purposes. The state highway department has designated part of the Edison highway that is to cross the state. Seeds from the cherry tree on the estate have been scattered throughout the nation by the Boy Scouts and the United States Department of Agriculture. Now a 2,000-foot bridge across the Huron river to be crossed by the Edison highway, known in his boyhood as the "wheat road," is being planned.

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Flying Into a Temper
Touchy... irritable! Everything upsets her. She needs Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to soothe her nerves and build up her health by its tonic action.

Cause and Effect
Teacher—Don't you know that punctuation means that you must pause?
Willie—Certainly I do. A guy in a flyover punctuated a tire in front of our house Sunday and he paused for half an hour.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Remove Dandruff—Stops Hair Falling—Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair—Keeps Hair Soft and Shiny. 50 cents by mail or at drug stores. Hileco Chemical Works, Paterson, N. J.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at drug stores. Hileco Chemical Works, Paterson, N. J.

MEN, Learn the Barber Trade. Our course is complete and embraces every phase of the profession. Best equipped and most modern barber college in the world. No other trade or profession can be learned with such little time or money. The Wisconsin Barber College, 1231 No. 3rd St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Authoritative Art
"Do you enjoy politics?"
"Yes," answered Miss Cynenna.
"Only I think some of our statesmen would be more entertaining and influential if they would imitate Paderewski and learn to play the piano."
—Washington Star.

Static Sounds Familiar
Mary—You think more of that old radio than you do of me.
Husband, John—Well, dear, I get less interference from it.

TANGLEFOOT HOUSEHOLD INSECTICIDES

FLY SPRAY FLY PAPER FLY RIBBON

Standard for Over 50 years

W. N. U., Milwaukee, No. 28-1932.

Totem Poles Made by Competing Boy Scouts

Here are the 91 totem poles made by Boy Scouts in all parts of the country in the totem pole carving contest sponsored by the United States Department of the Interior with the co-operation of the Boy Scouts of America, the Alaska railroad, the Alaska steamship company and the Northern Pacific and Burlington railroads. They were shown at the twenty-second annual meeting of the National Council of Boy Scouts of America at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York.

English "Righto" Being Replaced by U. S. "O. K."

London.—The American "O. K." is rapidly displacing the British "Righto" in everyday conversation in Great Britain, despite the opposition of educators.

continue to gain in popularity here and have become the principal agencies of "the Americanization of England."

One English columnist the other day made four telephone calls to different numbers as a test and in each case the conversation ended with "O. K." from the person at the other end.

Here at Last!

SUMMER U.S. OF A.

All Set to Tame Colorado River

Boulder City, Nev.—A year ago the torrential Colorado river beat its muddy waters unmolested against the precipitous sides of Black canyon—where the Colorado forms the boundary between Nevada and Arizona.

Today it looked upward and knew that its tempestuous career was doomed. For overhead, ant-like, Charles A. Shea, construction director of Six Companies, Inc., builder of Hoover

How It Started

By Jean Newton

Why Is It a "Pneumatic" Tire?
AS EVERYBODY knows, there are two kinds of tires—those which are solidly rubber throughout and those which can be used only around an inflated rubber tube.

This latter kind of tire, as we know is called a "pneumatic." But why is it known as "pneumatic"? The answer illustrates again how much our every-day English owes to its classic forbears.

For the word "pneumatic" is an old Greek word meaning "of air." Mrs. Leo Brauchle, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charles Berger, of Ames, are visiting relatives at Mt. Hill, a few days this week.

Carl Peters and family of Westfield and William Kniekel and family of Milwaukee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porschbacher Monday.

Louis Schaefer and family of Junction and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz of Milwaukee spent the Fourth here with Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz.

Miss Frances Zelmet of Milwaukee is enjoying a two weeks' vacation here with her mother, Mrs. Mathilda Zelmet and other relatives and friends.

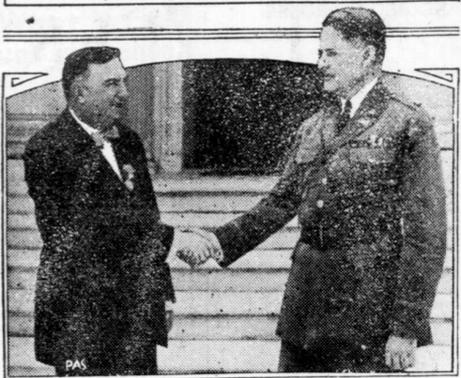

Miss Alma Buss, who is engaged in Deaconess work in Cincinnati, is spending her vacation here with her mother and other relatives.

will go into Hoover dam is progressing rapidly, Shea said.

After the Colorado has been diverted from its age-long course, the dam proper will be started. Up Black canyon's sides, Hoover dam will rear its concrete bulk 730 feet, the highest dam ever constructed. Its crest will be 1,150 feet long. Back of this barrier dam will be impounded 20,500,000 acre-feet of water.

Waters from this lake—115 miles long and twice as large as San Francisco bay—will be used for irrigating

Lee and Grant at Richmond, Va.

Grandsons of the famous Civil War Generals, Robert E. Lee and U. S. Grant, were honor guests at the Confederate Reunion, held this year at Richmond, Va. On the left is Dr. Boeling Lee, shaking the hand of Gen. U. S. Grant, 3d. They took an active part in the reunion.

STATE BANKING DEPARTMENT OF WISCONSIN
Transit No. 79 407
Report of the Condition of the

Bank of Kewaskum

Located at Kewaskum, in Wisconsin, at the close of business on June 30, 1932, pursuant to call by the Commissioner of Banking. AN OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts, including rediscounts, if any:
Commercial Paper	10,000.00
All other Loans and Discounts	603,283.96	610,283.96
Overdrafts		881.58
United States securities owned:
Owned and unpledged	31,830.00	31,830.00
Other Bonds—Unpledged	402,235.00	402,235.00
Banking House	10,000.00	10,000.00
Furniture and Fixtures	4,000.00	4,000.00
Other real estate owned		4,000.00
Cash on hand and due from Federal Reserve Bank and approved reserve bank	101,635.96	101,635.96
Cash items	17.19	17.19
Total		$1,164,343.69

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock paid in		$50,000.00
Surplus fund		50,000.00
Undivided profits	21,816.25	21,816.25
Amount of other reserve funds	21,816.25	21,816.25
Less current expenses and taxes paid	1,506.00	1,506.00
Dividends unclaimed	247,454.96	247,454.96
Individual deposits subject to check	5,547,562.52	5,547,562.52
Cashier's checks outstanding	522,740.10	522,740.10
Time certificates of deposit	265,044.30	265,044.30
Savings deposits	787,784.40	787,784.40
Cash variation	134.52	134.52
Total		$1,164,343.69

State of Wisconsin, County of Washington, ss.
I, B. H. ROSENHEIMER, Vice-President of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
B. H. ROSENHEIMER, Vice-President
(Notarial Seal)

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of July, 1932.
Edw. C. Miller, Notary Public
(My com. expires Aug. 13, 1933)
Correct Attest:
A. L. Rosenheimer,
A. W. Koch
Directors

ARMSTRONG

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Dretzka and children of Cudahy spent the week-end at the Joseph Shea home.

Miss Margaret Twobitz had as her guest her cousin, Miss Rose Mary Beagan, of Beechwood.

Miss Eileen O'Connor had as her guest over the week-end, Miss Evelyn Johnson of Fond du Lac.

A number from this vicinity attended the Home-coming picnic at the St. Michael's church, Mitchell Sunday.

The crops in this vicinity, with the exception of hay, which is light, look splendid after the heavy rains we've been having.

A four weeks vacation school for the children of Our Lady of Angels Parish opened Tuesday morning. The classes are in charge of two Sisters of the Notre Dame Order of Milwaukee.

Daniel Shea, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shea, is in a critical condition at St. Agnes hospital, Fond du Lac, as the result of injuries received when he was run over by a gravel truck late Saturday afternoon.

The Conger family enjoyed a reunion in the form of basket picnic at Long Lake Monday. In the evening the guests who included, Mrs. Mariette Conger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phipps and daughters, Florence and Doris of Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. Iva Conger and children of Greenbush, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jandfeld and daughters, Thelma and Verna, of Oakfield, retired to the home of Mrs. Imogene Conger for supper.

Mrs. George R. Twobitz entertained at a five-thirty o'clock dinner Tuesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Betty's, fifteenth birthday anniversary. The guests, numbering eighteen, were arranged at small tables prettily decorated and centered with little baskets of prairie roses, while baskets of snapdragon, elder-berry and asparagus-fern were placed about the home. After dinner with which Mrs. Twobitz was assisted by her daughters, Nora and Laura May, and by the Misses Irene and Ella Twobitz, hearts were played, honors going to Miss Helen Foy and Sylvia Schmidt. Delightful musical selections were rendered throughout the evening by Miss Dorothy Graff, Miss Anna Marie Schockmel, and Misses Bernadine and Margaret Pesch. Guests included the Misses Rose Mary Beagan, of Beechwood; Margaret and Bernadine Phipps of Campbellport; Eunice Rosenbaum of Fond du Lac; Alice Foy, Florence Scannell, Catherine Hovey, Rose Ann O'Brien, Genevieve Foy, Alice Gray Eunice Anderson, Sylvia Schmidt, Helen Foy, Laura Marie Scannell, Anna Marie Schockmel, Margaret Twobitz, and Dorothy Graff, all of Armstrong.

BOLTONVILLE

Mrs. S. E. Weierman of Waldo spent the week-end with the Ben Weierman family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haentz of Milwaukee spent Friday at the Geo. Hiller home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belzer visited with Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Billoe at Kewaskum Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Doman and family spent Wednesday evening with the Geo. Hiller family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leider of Milwaukee called on the latter's father, Herman Hiller, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hiller and sons spent Sunday afternoon with the Hugo Haug family near Fillmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Dettman and family spent the Fourth with the Ernest Torke family near Cascade.

Mrs. Geo. Fay and sons and Mrs. Catharine attended the dinner given by the St. Michael's church at Parnell on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glover of West Bend and Dorothy Licht of Kaukauna spent Monday evening with the Ben Woog family.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Matthies and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belger and family visited at the Carl Gruendeman home Sunday evening.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridgets on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Art. Groeschel and daughter Mabel and Carl Becker and Lillian Donath visited with the Elmer Garbisch family at Parnell Sunday.

No baseball game was played here Sunday due to the rain. On Monday afternoon Cedarburg played here. Next Sunday our team travels to Jackson to play.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Frauenheim entertained the following over the week-end: Mr. and Mrs. Al. C. Zarnke and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibson of Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Strauss spent Sunday with the Richard Heineman family at Lake Mills, and on their return home Monday they called on Mr. Strauss' sister at Woodland.

Funeral services for Mrs. Walter McKee of Milwaukee were held at the St. John's church here Monday. She will be remembered as Nan Bahr, formerly teacher at our graded school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stautz, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Quass and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stautz and sons of Kewaskum and Harvey Albright and son Albert of West Bend spent the 4th with the Chas. Eisentraut family.

American forest land supplies employment to a million people and the finished products made from wood are valued at more than two billion dollars.

West Bend THEATRE

Admission: Children 10c, Adults 30c
Sunday Matinee 10c and 25c till 6 p. m. After 6 p. m. 10c and 30c. Sunday continuous from 1.30 to 11 p. m.

Friday and Saturday July 8 and 9
"My Husband Will Believe Me."
"He was away when they came and framed me!" Can such things be? Could it happen to you? SEE
"NIGHT COURT"

With Anita Page, Philip Holmes, Walter Houston, Lewis Stone.
Comedy and News

Sunday, July 10
Would You Do It?
—would you rot in jail and live a life of shame? See, sympathize, laugh and cry—over

"The Strange Case of Clara Deane"

Wynne Gibson enacting six phases of the woman's life! With Pat O'Brien and Frances Dee
Comedy, News, Cartoon

Monday & Tuesday July 11 & 12
A Great Romance!
"THE WET PARADE"

With Dorothy Jordan, Lewis Stone, Robert Young, Walter Houston, Jimmy Durante and many more

Twice the length of an ordinary picture because it's got something to say—and says it with thrills. Great Events, Great days, tears, laughs, drama, thrill upon thrill, all are here in this mightiest of screen entertainments!

Comedy and Comedy

Coming Wednesday, July 13

"Wild Women of Borneo" AND "Forbidden Pleasures"

Women so wild their own natives shun them. Savage rites no man may see! Forbidden places!

MERMAC

Admission 10c and 30c

Friday and Saturday, July 15 and 16
TOM MIX in "The Texas Bad Man"

See TOM and TONY outwit the smartest band of outlaws the West had ever known, and win the girl for the "good bad man." It's action from start to finish.
Comedy, Sportlight, Cartoon, Chapter 8—Run-Tin-Tin in "LIGHTNING WARRIOR"

WAYNE CENTER

Miss Verna Spoel spent Friday afternoon at the home of John D. Coulter.

The Wayne ball team will play the Barton team on the Wayne diamond here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Berger and family of Chicago spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kullman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Zanders and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schlosser spent the Fourth at the Wm. Forrester home.

Sunday, July 10, German services at the Salem's Reformed church at 9:45 a. m., combined with the Lord's supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jossand family, Miss Wuester of Milwaukee spent over the Fourth at the home of Mrs. Carl Struening.

Mrs. John Hawig and Miss Rosella Hawig of Milwaukee and Miss Norma Hawig visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Simon Hawig.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridgets on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kugler and Mrs. R. Olwin and Mrs. George Petri of Milwaukee spent over Sunday and Monday at the R. W. Petri home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawig and daughters, Rose and Marcella, Mrs. J. Nisicus and daughter Lizzie, and Mrs. Schmidt of Milwaukee spent the 4th at the John P. Werner home.

Herman Bruhn and daughter Elsie and son Richard were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Lowe at West Bend Wednesday evening, the occasion being their daughter Beverly's first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Becker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schroeder and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker and Mrs. J. Marose, all of Milwaukee, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Geidel of Kewaskum spent the Fourth at the Schmidt and Borchert homes.

Faith and Works
'Twas an unhappy division that has been made between faith and works. Though in my intellect I may divide them, just as in the candle I know there is both light and heat, but yet put out the candle, and they are both gone; one remains not without the other. So 'tis betwixt faith and works.
—John Selden.

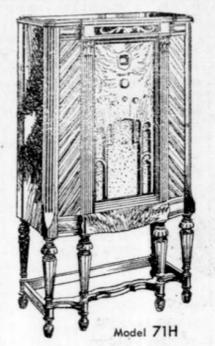

Subscribe for the Statesman and get all of the news of your community.

PHILCO smashes old RADIO standards with

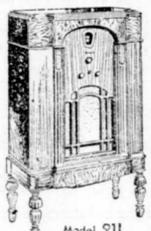

Never before has any radio, at any price, made such a great advance as the 1933 PHILCO. An array of amazing improvements, in 1933 PHILCO only, establishes new, higher radio standards.

For instance, with this radio you need not record stations in a log book or in your memory! And you can tune in stations perfectly without even hearing them. In this radio, fading of distant stations and blasting of locals are counteracted. New PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes are more efficient and consume less current than any AC Tubes ever before used. Above all, 1933 PHILCO tone purity and clarity are unapproached.

You will want a 1933 PHILCO for your home. Never has your radio dollar bought as much. Just think of it—super performance priced to compete on the old standard! Come in today. See and hear these marvels of modern radio.

$69.50 1933 six-legged High-boy with 1933 7-tube PHILCO tone perfection, volume, selectivity, ease of operation—a new radio standard, far underpriced. We will gladly demonstrate it. Come in. See it. Hear it. Buy it. Enjoy it.

$89.50 Beautiful solid walnut and oriental wood Lowboy containing supreme 9-tube PHILCO balanced super-heterodyne quality, 1933 PHILCO—Twin Speakers, new PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes, Shadow Tuning, Tuning Silencer, Automatic Volume Control, 4-Point Tone Control and the other new PHILCO achievements. Try it. We'll demonstrate in your home, gladly.

- Shadow Tuning
- Inclined Sounding Board
- Twin Speakers
- New PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes
- Echo Absorbing Screen
- Tuning Silencer
- Illuminated Station Recording Dial
- Illuminated Grille
- Automatic Volume Control
- Tone Control
- Distance Switch

... and many other startling improvements

You can have any PHILCO on our usual easy terms

You can begin to enjoy your PHILCO right away. Decide now to have it placed in your home today on our liberal Budget Payment Plan.

FREE A well-built Electric Fan will be given with each new FREE Philco during July only
MILLERS FURNITURE STORE

Kewaskum, Wis. Phone 317

WE CARRY A COMPLETE LINE OF PHILCO HIGH EFFICIENCY TUBES

Up-to-the-Minute and Practical

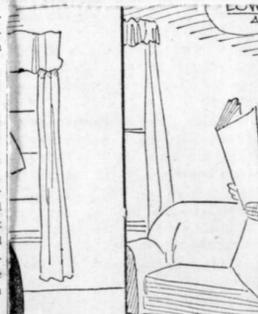

- Every woman wishes to be as well-dressed as possible without spending too much time or money on her clothes. That is why so many women in this community turn first to the page in this newspaper which contains the illustrated fashion articles by Miss Cherie Nicholas.
- For Miss Nicholas is an authority on fashions—not the freak models and the extreme styles, but the fashions in dress which the modern woman demands, those which are up-to-the-minute and at the same time economical and practical.
- Be sure to look for these articles in each issue of this newspaper and then tell your women friends about them. They will be glad to know how they, too, can wear clothes which carry the message of the well-dressed woman.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Our rates for this class of advertising are 1 cent a word per issue, no charge less than 25 cents accepted. Memorial Notices $1.00. Card of Thanks 50 cents. Cash or unused government postage stamps must accompany all orders.

For Sale.
FOR SALE—Service Holstein and Guernsey Bulls. Inquire of K. A. Honick, Kewaskum, Wis. Phone 91. 2-6-1f

Miscellaneous
MONEY TO LOAN on farm mortgages. B. C. Ziegler and Company, West Bend, Wisconsin.

GOING DOUBLE
The control of grasshoppers by the use of poisoned mash has proved effective in at least one Wisconsin county this year. In Langlade county where the treatment has been extensively applied an average of as many as 186 dead hoppers to the square foot is reported. The average cost for materials is said to be but 15 cents to the acre.

IT ISN'T BEING DONE TODAY

Advertising Your Needs Is The Modern Way

Be Modern --- Consult The CLASSIFIED - COLUMNS

Brains do it—not brawn! Don't try to get what you want with a bludgeon. Knock-down and drag-out days are over. More modern facilities are at your service. The Kewaskum Statesman, through its classified columns—carries your need to the minds of the people you want to reach—immediately—effectively—inexpensively. One person at a time is the most you can personally interview. Your advertisement—inserted in the classified columns, reaches all the people who are interested—simultaneously. Your advertisement works for you—locating what you want in the shortest possible time. Insert an advertisement—read the advertisements. It's the modern way

DO YOU NEED

- Salesmen
- Office Clerks
- Stenographers
- Chauffeurs
- Gardners
- Furnace-Men
- Laundresses
- Painters
- Furniture
- Housemaids
- Used Cars
- Apartments

Read The Classified Ads

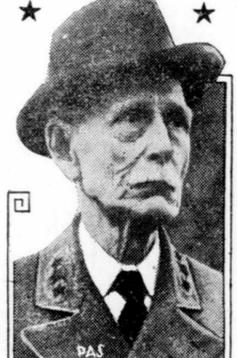

Kewaskum Statesman
Telephone 281
Kewaskum, Wis.

Subscribe for the Statesman

KETTNER

WHEN you see that signature on a cartoon in these columns look carefully at the cartoon. It will have been drawn by M. G. Kettner, one of the leading cartoonists of America. We are proud of the fact that he is numbered among the contributors to our columns, and know that his work appeals to all of our readers. In a kindly way he pictures our kind of "folk" and his cartoons are never of the offensive type. Call them to the attention of your friends.

Confederate Commander

General Homer Atkinson, Richmond, Va., is the new Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans. He was a member of the Home Guards at Petersburg who stood off the Union forces, June 9, 1864. He is also Commander of the Department of Virginia.

BEECHWOOD

Mrs. Raymond Krahn called on Mrs. Frank-Schroeder Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Krahn and son motored to Sheboygan Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nertes visited the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kreutzinger.

The Beechwood firm's picnic and dance which were held the 4th of July were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Krahn and family visited Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kreutzinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Glass and Walter Reysen of Ada visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Art. Glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kreutzinger and son of Milwaukee visited Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Kreutzinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Krahn visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ruddle Krahn and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Krahn and son Robera.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridgets on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

"What we all want is to employ our lands most profitably. In this the individual, the community, the county, the state, and the nation have common interest."—from Recreation as a Land Use, a recent bulletin published by the Agricultural Experiment Station, Madison.

Lieut. Massie on Duty

Lieut. Thomas H. Massie, U. S. Navy, is aboard the U. S. S. New Mexico, now being reconitioned at Philadelphia. He reported for duty June 23, his first assignment since the "honor slaying" trial in Honolulu.

In 1914 there were no cheese factories operating in southern states. Today the production in the South exceeds 6,000,000 pounds, a recent report indicates.

MCCORMICK-DEERING

Treated Against Destruction by Insects

Length, Strength, Weight Guaranteed

Arrange now for your harvest twine requirements. Insure saving all the grain—prevent delay and trouble—order a supply of McCormick-Deering Twine, wound in the convenient "Big Ball" with the patented cover.

Six Big Balls to the bale of McCormick-Deering Twine means less stops in the field to fill the twine can. Every ball guaranteed to contain full listed length and strength.

The original "Big-Ball" Twine is plainly marked McCormick-Deering. It is your guaranty against breakage or waste.

A. G. KOCH, Inc.
Kewaskum, Wisconsin

IGA SPECIALS!

DANDY BRAND SALMON, 1 pound can	10c
I. G. A. TOMATO SOUP, Per can	5c
AIRY FAIRY QUICK BIS KIT, Per package	23c
RICE POPS, 2 for	19c
WHEAT POPS, 2 for	17c
I. G. A. MATCHES, 6 boxes for	21c
ASSORTED COOKIES, 2 pound package	35c
FLY SWATTERS, at	8c
I. G. A. SOAP CHIPS, 2 for	31c
I. G. A. TOILET PAPER, 3 rolls for	19c
JAR RUBBERS, 3 packages for	10c
MASON JAR CAPS, Per dozen	23c

Leave Your Orders for Sturgeon Bay Cherries Here

JOHN MARX

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

HARBECK & SCHAEFER, PUBLISHERS

Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office, Kewaskum, Wis.

SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS

TERMS—$2.00 per year; $1.00 for six months. Advertising rates on application.

AROUND THE TOWN

Friday July 8, 1932

Get your New Electric Fan free at Millers Furniture Store.

Miss Angeline Stoer spent over the holidays with her parents at Ashford.

Miss Lillian Nelson of Chicago spent the week-end with Miss Amanda Buss.

Hubert Wittman and family were the guests of relatives at Mayville on Monday.

Roman Gruber of West Bend made a business call on John Gruber Thursday.

Miss Kathryn Marx of Milwaukee was a holiday visitor under the parental roof.

Perry Nigh and Walter Nigh and children were Fond du Lac visitors on the Fourth.

The annual school district meeting will be held at the school house Monday evening.

Edwin Miller and wife of Milwaukee spent the Fourth here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Koehn called at the Robert Bartel home last Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Kathryn Reinold was the guest of relatives at South Milwaukee over the holidays.

—Henry Weddig and family spent the Glorious Fourth with the Fred Finert family at West Bend.

—Dr. John B. Miller and family of Milwaukee called on his brother, Ed. F. Miller and family Monday.

—William Bunkelmann and family spent July 4th with the Ch. Klumb family in the town of Barton.

—Mr. and Mrs. Roman Smith were at Oshkosh on Sunday where they spent the day visiting relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knoebel, Jr., of Berlin spent the Fourth here with Mr. and Mrs. Ph. McLaughlin, Jr.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Hetzel of West Bend spent last week Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Schultz.

—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gessert spent the Fourth with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dilling, at St. Cloud.

—Mrs. S. E. Witzig and family had as their guests on the Fourth: Mr. and Mrs. Alva Witzig of La Grange, Ill.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reinders and Clarence Kudek and family enjoyed the holidays camping at Round Lake.

—Edward E. Miller and brother Frederick were at Milwaukee Tuesday, where the former transacted business.

—Fred Buddenhagen and family of Milwaukee visited over the holidays here with Mr. and Mrs. Ph. McLaughlin.

—Fred Bassil and family and Mrs. Peter Wagner and children spent the Fourth with Henry Ramthun and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Schlosser of Milwaukee were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Schlosser on the Fourth.

—John Strachota and family of Milwaukee are enjoying their summer vacation here with Mr. and Mrs. Val Peters.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Schaefer visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schaefer, at Barton on Sunday.

—Math. Stockhausen and family of Milwaukee were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stellpflug the Fourth.

—Mrs. Edwin Krause and son Edwin of Milwaukee were week-end visitors with her mother, Mrs. Casper Brandstetter.

—Chas. Pfeiffer and family of Milwaukee are spending a week here with Mrs. Pfeiffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Andrae.

—Mrs. Margaret Miller and daughter Margaret visited with the Schneider and Kohler families at West Bend on the Fourth.

—Jos. Schoofs and family entertained over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. William Schill and grandson, William, of Milwaukee.

—William Guth and family of Chicago were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Siegel from Thursday until Monday.

—Gottlieb Guenther and family of Port Washington called on Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Mertes for several hours Monday afternoon.

—New postage rates went into effect on Wednesday. Postmaster Erwin Koch experienced no difficulty because of insufficient postage.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kippenhan on Monday were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Storck at the latter's cottage at Cedar Lake.

—Miss Blanche Altenhofen of Milwaukee is spending a two weeks' visit with the Nigh and Krueger families in the town of Auburn.

—Edward "Pat" Miller has installed a new Philco Transitone Automobile Radio in his car. He invites you to have a ride with music.

—Orlin Backhaus, Jack Wolf and Rev. Blum of Marshfield were pleasant visitors with the Henry Ramthun family over the Fourth.

—August Bilgo, Jr., and family, Mrs. August Bilgo, Sr., Mrs. Minnie Mertes and daughter Mona were at Mayville Monday visiting relatives.

—Darwin Perkins and family of Marengo, Ill., visited from Saturday until Monday with Mrs. Wm. Muckelherde and other relatives.

—William Eberle and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Guenther motored to Milwaukee Monday where they spent the day with relatives.

—John Andrae, Sr., and son John are at present employed at Wilton, Wis., where they are assisting in building a state highway bridge.

—Master Carroll Haug returned home this week after spending two weeks with the Edw. Guth and Mrs. Olive Haase families at Adel.

—Mrs. Leo Brauchle, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charles Berger, of Columbus, are visiting relatives at Joliet, Ill., a few days this week.

—Carl Peters and family of West Bend and William Kniekel and family of Milwaukee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Perschbacher Monday.

—Louis Schaefer and family of Juneau and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schultz of Milwaukee spent the Fourth here with Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz.

—Miss Frances Zelmet of Milwaukee is enjoying a two weeks' vacation here with her mother, Mrs. Mathilda Zelmet, and other relatives and friends.

—Miss Alma Buss, who is engaged in Deaconess work in Cincinnati, Ohio, is spending her vacation here with her mother and other relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bartel and Mrs. Christian Backhaus and children spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. William Bartel and son Alvin.

—Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Backus of Cedarburg and Mrs. Lauritta Habenstein of Wisconsin Rapids visited with Wm. F. Backus Tuesday evening.

—Walter Reichman and family of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Casper of Waukesha spent over the holidays with S. N. Casper and family.

—William Schaefer, Otto Stenschke, Earl Dreher, Elmer Ramthun, Albert Hron and "Casey" Heberer enjoyed a week's vacation camping at Forest Lake.

—J. H. Martin and Norton Koerble and their respective families called on the former's brother, Geo. H. Martin, and family at large Cedar Lake last Monday.

—Attorney Edward Gehl of Hartford has been prominently mentioned the past week for the appointment of United States District Attorney at Milwaukee.

—Louis Bath and family, Mrs. Math. Bath, Don Harbeck and Gregory Harter motored to Wabeno where they visited with relatives from Friday until Monday.

—Mrs. Wenzel Slavik and daughter Rosemary who spent two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Gruber, returned to their home at West Bend Wednesday evening.

—Leroy Keller, Chet Keno and the Misses Dorothy Dreher and Martha Stenschke spent from Saturday until Monday with friends at Rhineland, Wisconsin.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Schaefer, son Walter and daughter Miriam, motored to Glenwood City, Wis., on Saturday, where they visited relatives over the holidays.

—Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Piper, Sr., of Cascade and Charles Piper, Jr., of Manitowoc were entertained at the home of Bernard Sell and Frank Piper on the Fourth.

—Harold Marx, William Schaefer and Harold Smith were at West Bend Friday where they assisted the Junior Legion ball team to defeat Hartford Juniors by a score of 6 to 2.

—Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hansen of Blue Island, Ill., Arthur Wilhelm, and Miss Leona Klessig were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Klessig from Saturday until Monday.

—J. H. Kleinhans, while assisting his son Gregory on the latter's farm, accidentally cut himself with a scythe below the knee of his right leg. The wound required fifteen stitches.

—According to D. J. Kenny, school clerk of the West Bend High School, said school next year will save more than $10,000 by cutting the salaries of teachers and cost of administration.

—The new 1933 automobile license plates will consist of White letters on a purple background. The production of the new plates will begin late this summer at the prison factory at Wauwatosa.

—At the regular monthly meeting of the local Modern Woodmen held on Tuesday evening, Harry Schaefer was appointed Camp Clerk to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Elwyn Romaine.

George Seifert and family of Plymouth visited with Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Quade over Friday. On Saturday the Seiferts and Quades attended the funeral of the late Andrew Wollensak at Watertown.

—Paul Tump and family of Wauwatosa visited Mrs. Louis Brandt and children Sunday and Monday. On the latter day all motored to Wauwatosa where they visited with Harvey Brandt and family.

—Live stock trucking at 25c per 100 lbs. or less, depending upon the load, calves on Wednesdays only 65c, including commission and trucking, Walter Schneider, Kewaskum, Wis. Phone 69F3. 2-12tf

—Dave Present, of Present Bros., West Bend, recently returned from Iowa, where he purchased a carload of fine horses especially adapted for farm use. Read their advertisement elsewhere in the Statesman.

—The annual convention of the American Legion of the State of Wisconsin will be held at La Crosse August 14, 15, 16 and 17. It is expected this will be the greatest convention in the history of the Wisconsin Legionaires.

—Millers Furniture Store is showing the complete 1933 line of Philco Radios including the new Philco Transitone Automobile Radio. "Pat" invites you to see and hear these outstanding new Philco models. Read this week's advertisement.

—John P. Fellenz of Wauwatosa, Mrs. Syl. Fellenz and brother, Mr. Schludwiler of West Bend and Mrs. Helen Hitpas and son Jerome of Little Chute, were pleasant callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bartel Monday afternoon.

—A number of relatives and friends assembled at the Opera House last week Friday and tendered Alvin Wisener a surprise party, in honor of his birthday anniversary. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing. All report a most enjoyable time.

Why not get more money for your live stock? You get from 25 to 75 cents per hundred more from K. A. Honeck by trucking to Chicago. I will charge you 50 cents per hundred and I also will buy your milk cow at a better price than anybody else, because I am still buying for an Eastern market. Telephone 91, or call at the Chevrolet Garage, K. A. Honeck. 4-9tf

—Miss Irene Stanke returned to her duties at the Gruber's Bakery on Tuesday after enjoying a two weeks' vacation with relatives and friends at Hatley, Wis. While at Hatley she was maid of honor at the marriage of her sister, Miss Celia Stanke to Mr. Henry Schulist of Polonia, Wis., which took place on Tuesday, June 28th, at 8 a.m. in the St. Ladislav church at Bevent. There were approximately five hundred guests present. All were very royally entertained at the home of Miss Stanke's parents. The newly married couple will reside on the groom's farm near Polonia.

CLEARANCE WEEK

$1.98 Wash Dresses at $1.49	100 Wash Dresses at 79c	Ladies' Hats Your choice at 89c
$2.98 Dresses at $2.29	$2.98 Corselletes at $2.19	Bathing Suits 1.98-3.49
25c and 35c Voile & Swiss Materials 15-27c	70x80 Cotton Blankets 49c	Turkish Towels 22x42 inches 10c-19c

L. ROSENHEIMER

Department Store

Kewaskum, Wis.

Highest Paid Short Fiction Writer

FANNIE HURST is the highest paid short story writer in the world today. There's a good reason for that. She knows human nature and under the magic of her touch, the people about whom she writes become real people, not mere literary creations. The plots of her stories are based on incidents from real life as it is lived every day by the common people.

Such are the stories which are appearing in this newspaper. Be sure to read them and talk to your friends about them, for they like interesting stories, too. And Fannie Hurst's stories are interesting stories.

WHAT SAVINGS DOES.

It brings peace of mind—it insures against emergencies—it promotes self-confidence and reliance—it provides for future comforts and independence.

You, too, can attain all these if you will but save persistently, even though in a modest way.

We invite your account.

IOWA HORSES

One carload just received 1300 to 1800 lbs. Some fine matched teams.

Prices Reasonable
All Horses Guaranteed

Present Bros.
West Bend, Wis.

Bank of Kewaskum

Kewaskum, Wisconsin

The Old Reliable Bank of Good Service.

RCA VICTOR

Again steps ahead in 1932 and smashes into the low price field with the highest quality radios. Nowhere at any time in the history of radios, have you been offered such high quality at as low prices.

All sets are equipped with every advance feature that could be practically applied. RCA has again stepped ahead and proved itself the leader in the radio and electrical recording industry. The line comprises—Table models, Consoles, Radio-phonograph combinations, Home Recording, Automobile, Portable and Short Wave sets. Let your new radio be an RCA Radiola from Endlich's. Prices from $46.75 to $95.00.

Mrs. K. Endlich

JEWELER—OPTOMETRIST

Established 1906

KEWASKUM, WIS.

MACHINE SHOP

General Repairing and Welding
Automobile Fender and Body Straightening and Refinishing
Straightening Axles and Housings
PROMPT SERVICE

Also Distributor of SILENT AUTOMATIC OIL BURNERS and DISTILLATE OIL HEATERS

LOUIS BATH

—AT—

REMMEL CORPORATION

Phone 201

Kewaskum, Wis.

Local Markets

Winter wheat	50-60
Wheat	50-60
Barley	40-50
Rye No. 1	40-45
Oats	25
Eggs, strictly fresh	13c
Unwashed wool	10-12c
Jeans, per lb.	2 1/2c
Hides (calf skin)	15c-20c
Cow hides	50c
Horse hides	75c
Potatoes	40-50
Live Poultry
Old Roosters and stags	7c
Light hens	8-9c
Heavy hens	9c
Ducks, heavy	10c
Ducks, light	9c
Broilers, Leghorns, under 2 lbs.	11c
Broilers, Leghorns, over 2 lbs.	11c
Heavy Broilers, over 2 lbs.	17c

J. B. Fellenz, proprietor of the New Holstein Creamery for several years, recently leased the business to Otto Wick of Plymouth. The latter took charge on July 1st. Mr. Fellenz and family will make their future home at Hartford. Mr. Fellenz is very well known in this part of the county.

—Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Ebanreiter were at Chicago Saturday. They returned home with their son August, who was attending school at La Salle, Ill.

WISCONSIN CHEESE EXCHANGE

Plymouth, Wis., July 1—On the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange today 220 boxes of cheese were offered, which sold as follows: 120 Twins at 84c, State Brand, 50 Twins at 85-8c, State Brand, and 50 Daisies at 9c, State Brand. One-half cent lower was suggested for Standard Brand.

The sales a year ago today were 215 Twins at 11 1-4c.

Subscribe for the Statesman now

Wisconsin News Briefly Told

Waterdown—The Southeastern Wisconsin Cheesemakers' association will hold its next convention here Nov. 3 and 4.
Appleton—Joshua L. Johns of this city was elected a vice-president of the Kiwanis International for 1932-1933 at the annual convention in Detroit.
Muscola—The Meyer hotel, badly damaged by fire April 1, has been rebuilt. It formerly was the Pfister hotel, a leading hostelry here for half a century.
Reedsburg—Construction of a two-story stone and brick municipal hospital has been started here and the building must be ready for occupancy Dec. 1, under the contract.
Burlington—The safe in the Milwaukee road station was blown a few nights ago, but the blast only opened the door part way and the burglars were unable to get at the contents.
Stevens Point—Two barns and two silos at the Portage county poor farm, near Amherst Junction, burned to the ground in a fire that is believed to have been started by spontaneous combustion in hay.
Madison—In a proclamation issued July 1, Gov. La Follette announced that the last day for payment of state income taxes has been extended to Aug. 1 and that any taxpayer unable to settle in that time may obtain a further extension to Oct. 15 by signing an affidavit.
Sturgeon Bay—A total of 34,803 Ringneck pheasant eggs have been laid at the state game farm in Door county this year. All but 14,219 have been set at the farm, the conservation department reports, explaining that 7,039 live birds are in the rearing fields and feather brooders. Nearly 500 pheasants of other species and more than 300 turkeys will be hatched at the farm.
Madison—It's moving time for the state offices that are to have quarters in the new $450,000 state office building. Complete occupation of the new building will save the state approximately $22,000 a year in rent. Part of the highway department, the traveling free library department, real estate board and the industrial commission are among the state departments which will occupy the new building.
Madison—With the realization that the University of Wisconsin will suffer a deficit of approximately $40,000 because of a drop of the summer session enrollment, university officials predict that faculty members are likely to face an additional salary cut of $260,000 next fall. Making their estimates on the records of the last two years, officials see for next fall a 25 per cent drop in enrollment, which would bring a loss of $302,000 in tuition.
Cedarburg—Open warfare developed between the management of the burg horse races and Milwaukee gamblers when the latter invited the track to operate as bookmakers. Deputy sheriffs of Ozaukee county were called in to preserve order. The track management, headed by a former Racine garage owner, accepts and pays bets on the races under a "contribution and refund" system, which has been held to be unlawful under Wisconsin statutes.
Madison—A general reduction of 12 1/2 per cent in the local rates of the Wisconsin Telephone Co. in the 102 cities and villages where it has exchanges has been ordered by the public service commission. No change was ordered in toll rates. The new rates become effective with the first billing period after July 31 and are to continue for one year unless the commission amends the order in the meantime. The 12 1/2 per cent reduction applies as a discount from the net bill. The reduction is expected to save Wisconsin subscribers about $1,500,000 on the basis of 1931 business.
Wautoma—A bell that more than 70 years ago called slaves of Jefferson Davis to prayer and work on his Mississippi plantation now hangs in the schoolhouse belfry in the Waushara county village of Saxeville. The weather beaten instrument, five feet in circumference, was taken near Corinth, Miss., in 1862, shortly after the battle of Shiloh. Sergt. Solomon Howe and Pvt. Thomas Prober and James Watson, Saxeville soldiers, packed it into a hardback barrel. They carried it through nine miles of swamp to the camp of Company A, 16th Wisconsin Infantry, which was commanded by Capt. Edward Saxe for whom the village was named.
Stevens Point—Pleading guilty in circuit court to burglary of the Adolph Harko home in Waupaca county, Henry Kutz, Clintonville, was sentenced to serve nine to ten years in state prison. He was a third offender, having been convicted twice before on burglary charges.
Madison—All cities in the state maintaining a year around program of playground baseball leagues have been invited to send their city champions to the state tournament here Sept. 3, 4 and 5.
Portage—Two local youths, aged 15 and 17, members of a gang of five charged with a series of thefts in Columbia and Juneau counties, have been sent to the state industrial school at Waushara to remain until they are 21. Two other members of the gang are in jail at Mauston, while the fifth is held here. All admit the thefts charged to them.
Platteville—The Wisconsin association of rural letter carriers will hold its annual convention here Aug. 1, 2 and 3.

Superior—Based on a standard menu which includes milk, this city's poor is to be fed at a cost of less than 57 cents per meal.
Madison—Henry A. Town, warden of the Wisconsin state penitentiary from 1902 to 1911 and 1915 to 1921, died here from heart disease.
Neenah—Due to shortened work schedules, the Kimberly Clark corporation has inaugurated a five-day week for salaried employes on July 1.
Madison—Despite a drop in prices, Wisconsin farmers this year are feeding cattle 33 per cent less grain than a year ago, says an official report.
Madison—The Knights of Pythias clubhouse has been sold by the sheriff for $30,000 to satisfy a mortgage. It was constructed at a cost of $90,000.
Green Bay—Miss Lydia Barnstein, Manitowoc, was elected president of the Wisconsin Christian Endeavor society at the annual convention here.
Janesville—Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the hangar and seven airplanes at the Janesville airport, causing damage estimated at $35,000.
Taylor—Glenn Fisher, 26, cashier of the Trempealeau Valley State bank, which closed June 24, has been arrested on a warrant of embezzlement involving about $7,000.
Neillsville—William Bradford is ineligible for re-election as Clark county sheriff, but his wife will attempt to keep the position in the family. She has announced her candidacy for the post.
Grantsburg—Under the $8,000,000 unemployment relief bill passed by the special session of the legislature, Burnett county has received its allotment of $10,000. The amount of the tax collected from this county was only $2,800.
Lake Geneva—Dr. Edwin B. Frost, 63, nationally known blind astronomer, who has been director of Chicago university's Yerkes observatory here since 1905, retired from that position on July 1.
Milwaukee—William A. Schroeder, president of the defunct Franklin State bank, was found guilty by a jury on charges of accepting deposits knowing the bank to be insolvent. The conviction carries with it a penalty of one to ten years in prison.
Kenosha—W. Merrill Sawyer, assessor of incomes for Kenosha county since 1929, has been appointed assessor of incomes for the Fond du Lac district comprising six counties, Ozaukee, Sheboygan, Winnebago, Dodge, Washington and Fond du Lac.
Superior—Two hundred men employed in the Great Northern railway shops are back on full time. They had been working every other week. They will turn out 14 steel underframes a day for new grain cars to handle the heavy traffic expected this fall.
Madison—Frank Volkey, Delton farmer, pleaded guilty to being an accessory to arson, admitting that he coerced his son into setting the family barn afire. He was "hard up" and the barn was insured. Circuit Judge Zimmerman sentenced him to one to three years in state prison.
Madison—About $80,000 is being refunded to some 10,000 Wisconsin truck owners as the result of the state supreme court's decision exempting a large part of the trucks from the 10 mile tax passed by the 1931 legislature. Permit fees of $5 paid to the state are refunded to owners of trucks weighing three tons or less.
Stevens Point—A $20 wolf bounty collected by Anton Rinke at the county clerk's office here in March got him into trouble. His name was found by the conservation commission among those who had no hunting license and he was taken into court, where he pleaded guilty. He was fined $50 but the fine was remitted on payment of the costs.
Madison—The state highway commission has ordered that the proposed Lone Rock bridge carrying state trunk highway 130 over the north channel of the Wisconsin river be constructed at state expense. The order settled a nine-year-old controversy between the commission and Iowa, Richland and Scott counties over which should bear costs of construction.
Waukegan—Employees of the State Bank of Waukegan and two customers were held up by four bandits, who secured about $3,000 in cash. Carl Harwig, president of the bank, was struck on the head by a pistol butt wielded by one of the robbers when the banker demanded demands for more money. Several citizens saw the bandits depart from town in a new sedan, but as there was no suspicion of a robbery, the license number was not noted.
Baraboo—W. H. Armstrong, former mayor of Racine, was elected Wisconsin department commander of the United Spanish war veterans at the annual convention here. Nicholas Schantz, Madison, assistant adjutant general of Wisconsin, was named senior vice-commander. Waukegan was chosen as the 1933 convention city.
Marshfield—Dr. K. W. Doege, former president of the Wisconsin Surgical association, and chief of staff at St. Joseph's hospital here, died after a heart attack.
Madison—The Wisconsin Co-operative Oil association, which has just been organized on a statewide basis, will start its program with 13 local co-operatives as members. A uniform trade name, for gasoline and oil sold is planned.
Theresa—Memories of Solomon Juean, founder of the city of Milwaukee and Dodge county pioneer, will be preserved here as the result of village board action. A home in which the Juean family lived will be moved to a village owned site for preservation.

ROLL CALL VOTE ON PROHIBITION PLANK PLACED ON RECORD

Following is the roll call on the prohibition plank of the Democratic platform. The vote was on adoption of the minority report. Those voting for submission voted Aye, those for repeal, No.

State	Resubmission	Repeal
Alabama	21	3
Arizona	6	6
Arkansas	13	5
California	11	11
Colorado	1	153 1/4
Connecticut	1 1/4	153 1/4
Delaware	4	2
Florida	1	13
Georgia	23	—
Idaho	—	8 1/2
Illinois	—	53
Indiana	—	30
Iowa	—	26
Kansas	—	12
Kentucky	—	27
Louisiana	3	17
Maine	—	10
Maryland	—	16
Massachusetts	—	36
Michigan	—	38
Minnesota	4	18
Mississippi	—	23
Missouri	—	23 1/2
Montana	—	8
Nebraska	—	5
Nevada	—	6
New Hampshire	—	8
New Jersey	—	32
New Mexico	—	1
New York	—	54
North Carolina	—	13
North Dakota	—	10
Ohio	—	49
Oklahoma	—	22
Oregon	—	3
Pennsylvania	—	76
Rhode Island	—	10
South Carolina	—	18
South Dakota	—	6
Tennessee	—	6
Texas	—	45
Utah	—	8
Vermont	—	8
Virginia	—	13
Washington	—	11
West Virginia	—	14 1/2
Wisconsin	—	7
Wyoming	—	26
Alaska	—	6
District of Columbia	—	6
Hawaii	—	6
Philippines	—	6
Porto Rico	—	6
Panama Canal Zone	—	6
Virgin Islands	—	2
Totals	213 1/4	934 1/4
Absent	5 1/2	—

"ECONOMY BILL" IS PASSED BY SENATE

Washington.—The senate adopted the conference report on the national economy bill carrying savings of $150,000,000 to $175,000,000, after reconsidering its previous action of sending the measure back for further conferences with the house.
The senate agreed to changes made by the house in the plan of payless furloughs for government employes.
The major house changes in the furlough plan were reduction of the exemption from $1,200 to $1,000 and establishing a graduated scale of pay cuts for those employes whose services were so needed they could not be given a month's leave without pay, as will the employes who can be spared.
The pay cuts begin at 10 per cent on salaries over $10,000 and range to 20 per cent on salaries of $20,000 and over. Those making less than $10,000 who could not be furloughed would give up 8 1-3 per cent of their year's pay.
One reason for the senate's reluctance to approve the bill may have been that it cuts the salaries of congressmen 10 per cent. The Vice President and speaker of the house suffer 15 per cent slashes.
Even the President is invited to do his part, the measure providing that whatever portion of his salary he wishes to turn back is acceptable to the Treasury department. President Hoover had indicated his willingness to accept a smaller salary as part of the economy program.
The same provision is applied to federal judges, who, like the President, are exempted by Constitution from salary changes during their terms.
The salary and wage cuts provide the great bulk of savings in the measure, but changes in bureaus to eliminate duplication will effect other reductions in government cost.
The conference report was adopted, by a vote of 35 to 11, despite the vigorous opposition of Senator La Follette, Wisconsin Republican, and others.
It was criticized on the ground the bill would do injustice to elderly federal workers by forcing their retirement and would discriminate against married persons.

PLATFORM PLEDGES MADE BY DEMOCRATS

Beside the plank calling for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and modification of the Volstead act, high points of the 1932 Democratic platform include:
A 25 per cent cut in federal expenditures—one billion dollars—and a balanced budget.
A "competitive tariff for revenue."
An international monetary conference to be called by this government to consider rehabilitation of silver.
Endorsement of loans to states for unemployment relief and public construction.
Refinancing farm mortgages; extension of co-operative marketing; effective control of crop surpluses; and endorsement of "every constitutional measure" to help farmers get cost of production.
Regulation of interstate utility companies and stock exchanges.
Fullest generosity for all war veterans, but no mention of the cash bonus.
Relief for depositors of closed banks.
Condemnation of the Hawley-Smoot tariff act and of "extravagances" by the federal farm board.
Strict and impartial enforcement of anti-trust laws, conservation and development of water power in the nation's interest and removal of the government from all fields of private enterprise except where necessary to develop public works and natural resources.
Unemployment and old age insurance under state laws.
An army and navy adequate for national defense based on a survey.
A foreign policy including maintenance of peace, adherence to the World court with pending reservations and opposition to cancellation of foreign debts.
Independence for the Philippines and ultimate statehood for Porto Rico.
Publicity of campaign contributions.
The platform condemns:
Improper and excessive use of money in political activities.
Paid lobbies to influence public officials.
Resistance by administrative officials to congressional efforts to reduce expenditures.
Action and utterances of high public officials designed to influence stock exchange prices.

Lace Gown With a Tailored Look

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

SOMEHOW at the mention of a lace gown it seems the natural thing to vision a sort of fluffy-ruffle affair which is pretty and utterly feminine down to the last detail. Well, it may be all that, and many adorable types are as nifty and fanciful as ever, for the lace gown in any and every interpretation remains the idol of fashion.
However, there has crept into the mode a feeling for clothes which have a tailored look. The part of the story which is real "news" is that this tailored-mindedness extends to evening and dinner gowns to such an extent that designers take keen delight in tailoring the sheerest of chiffons, and the latest member to yield to the tailored influence is lace.
One of the outstanding features of the tailored effects which give distinction to the evening modes is the intricate seaming such as dressmakers years ago would hesitate to attempt in handling laces and thin gauzy materials. Note how the art of seaming has been brought to a point of perfection in the fashioning of the handsome lace dinner gown pictured to the left. Here you have a little jacket which effects, by means of seaming—and seaming, too, for that matter—a very high line, but a moment later conveys a medium waistline. A priceless piece of compromise this for when the fashion news came along that the 1932 waistline would be high we sighed heavily for the many women who find high waistlines most unflattering. This indeed is a frock desirable not only for the woman who has a perfect figure but is an excellent model for the woman who has to cross off potatoes, puddings and pies from her menu.

The handsome and new-this-year dune lace of which this gown is made is, as you see, particularly adaptable to tailored treatment. Both Ireland and Venice have had a hand in designing this dune lace and you will find, as the season advances, that the smartest laces belong exclusively neither to the Emerald Isle or to the City of Islands—but to both.
A dinner gown that makes no pretense of being essentially either for debutant or dowager, but is really a gown for all ages, is worn by the lady seated. It has a pleasing low back artfully trimmed with the cutout edging of the soft dune lace. Here also seaming, this time in diagonal movement, is employed thus molding the gown to the figure in those snug-fitting lines which are so universal in fashion's realm this season. One can imagine the effectiveness of a lace gown such as this in wine red or Van Dyke brown which is one of the very new names on the color card or perhaps in a smart navy blue—in fact in any of the dark colorings which have entered the evening mode.
The call for classic gowns of slender silhouette made very simply of lace such as pictured is being heard more and more as summer advances. For afternoon wear the pastel shades are very much liked and usually there is a matching jacket.

NEW RULING AS TO BANK'S INSOLVENCY

Momentous Decision by Indiana Supreme Court.
Indianapolis.—Judge Curtis W. Roll of the Indiana Supreme court in an opinion concurred in by his colleagues held a bank was not necessarily insolvent when the actual cash market value of its assets was insufficient to pay in full the demands of all depositors.
The opinion was given in a decision granting a new trial to John H. Smith, former president of the Exchange bank of Spencer, who was convicted in 1929 of embezzlement. Smith was accused of having accepted a deposit of $82,347 from John E. Harrison, knowing the bank was insolvent when the deposit was offered.
The Supreme court judge held it would be impossible for a bank to keep its assets in a state of liquidity to pay off all depositors on demand.

Siamese Revolt Results in Constitution Grant

Bangkok, Siam.—A constitution providing for a limited monarchy, with a temporary dictatorship by the People's party, was promulgated after it had been signed by King Prajadhipok.
The document, outgrowth of a brief revolt that deprived the king of his absolute powers, provides that the dictatorship shall be replaced by suffrage when the people have been educated in the responsibilities of self-government.
A senate is to be formed soon, half the members to be appointed by the executive of the People's party and the other half to be elected.
It was reported that the constitution gave the voting privilege to women.

Renew Efforts to Move Veterans From Capital

Washington.—Walter W. Waters of Oregon, original leader of the "bonus army" strove to restore harmony among 15,000 veterans torn by dissension and short of food.
Police Superintendent Glassford formally retired as treasurer for the "army" and once more urged it to disperse.
The senate adopted a resolution directing the veterans' bureau to loan the men railroad fare to their homes. The money would be deducted from that due them when the bonus becomes payable—in 1945, under the present law.

Admiral Byrd Demands Check on Extravagance

Chicago.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd speaking before the national conference of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, charged organized minorities with misuse of the Constitution to raid the treasury. He held the Constitution was not written to permit confiscation, by taxes, of a citizen's property through governmental extravagance or abuse.
The Constitution did not anticipate, he said, that 120,000,000 people would support 18,000,000 public office holders, who could not number more than 8,000,000.

Half of Treasure Long Under Water Recovered

Brest, France.—Approximately $2,500,000 in bars of gold and silver has been brought up from the treasure room of the sunken liner Egypt.
When divers of the salvage ship Arctico II resumed their work it was estimated that half the liner's cargo of bullion had been recovered.
The Egypt sank ten years ago after a collision, with a loss of 100 lives.

Prohibition Law Upheld

Baton Rouge, La.—A bill introduced by Representative Claude W. Duke, New Orleans, to repeal the Hood act, the state prohibition law, was defeated in the Louisiana house of representatives, 51 to 36.
Re-Elected by A. A. A. Providence, R. I.—Thomas P. Henry of Detroit was re-elected president of the American Automobile association for his tenth term at the annual meeting of the organization.
MacNider Will Keep Post Ottawa, Ont.—Deluged by questions from Canadian friends as to the truth of reports that he intends to resign his post as American minister to Canada, Col. Hanford MacNider issued a positive denial of the rumors.

Bank Robber Captured

Welland, Ont.—Ronald L. Rideout, sought for bank robberies in several Canadian cities, was captured at Black Rock, N. Y., after a wild battle in which he once escaped.

Stimson Denies Stories Concerning War Debts

Washington.—European war debts and reparations have not been the subject of negotiation, discussion or conversation between American officials and representatives of the interested European governments during the recent weeks, Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson asserted in a formal statement.
Three stories sent from abroad by foreign correspondents of newspapers in this country intimating that the United States had been negotiating with European powers or officials on the war debts situation were categorically denied.

National Deficit Close to $3,000,000,000 Mark

Washington.—The worst financial year in the history of the United States government in peace-time has closed, with a deficit of nearly $3,000,000,000. One year ago the deficit was $202,716,000, and two years ago there was a surplus of $183,000,000.
With the new revenue bill, just enacted, expected to yield $3,261,000,000 in tax revenue, the administration declared the history of the 1932-33 fiscal year will be different. The new tax measure, the President has said, would establish the government's credit "impregably."

Officials Take Pay Cut

Trenton, N. J.—Gov. A. Harry Moore and Chancellor Edwin R. Walker consented to 10 per cent deductions from their salaries for unemployment relief. The governor's salary is $20,000 a year and the chancellor's $19,000.

De Valera Out of Conference

Ottawa.—Eamon De Valera, Irish Free State president, will not attend the imperial conference here, he recalled the Canadian government.

Mexico Fights Smallpox

Mexico City.—Twenty-five thousand tubes of vaccine have been rushed by airplane to Acapulco, Michoacan, to combat an outbreak of virulent smallpox. The vaccine was sent by a War department plane.

Labor for "Dry" Repeal

Columbus, S. C.—Without a dissenting vote, the South Carolina Federation of Labor, in session here, adopted a resolution calling for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment.

OPENING ORATORY

Democrats opened their national convention in Chicago's grand flag-draped Stadium June 27. Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky delivered the keynote address calling for a vote on prohibition repeal, lower tariffs and assailing the Republican record in the depression. He denounced President Hoover and the Republicans for the "extravagant and indefensible" rates of the Smoot-Hawley tariff act and promised "to lift tariff making above the sordid processes of log-rolling and back-scratching."

For the permanent chairmanship of the convention, Jonett Shouse, was defeated by Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana.

The vote was 626 for Walsh and 528 for Shouse.
The rules of the Houston convention of 1928, specifically including the two-thirds nominating requirement, were adopted by acclamation.

Move in Congress for Repeal of "Eighteenth"

Washington.—Representative Loring Black, New York Democrat, introduced a resolution in the house providing for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment in accordance with the action of the Democratic convention.
At the same time Senator Bingham of Connecticut urged that congress be held in session until adequate action is taken on prohibition. He waged a losing fight for repeal at the Republican convention.

Soviet Traders Denied Admission Into Brazil

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.—Police refused to permit four Yugoslav (the Soviet's South American trading organization) agents, including a woman, to disembark at Rio de Janeiro. The police acted on the ground that they are Communist agitators.

Cuba Deports American

Havana.—President Machado of Cuba ordered the deportation of John T. Wilford, editor of the Havana American, to the United States. Wilford has been a consistent critic of the Machado administration.

Fire Destroys Ships

Detroit.—Damage of more than $500,000 by flames which destroyed four ships at the foot of Great Lakes avenue, Ecorse, was counted by the owners.

Imports European Cameras

New York.—Eastman Kodak company has begun importation of European cameras from its Nagel works at Stuttgart, Germany. The new line will supplement the American line, officials stated.

German Statesman Dead

Berlin.—Dr. Ernst Scholz, former minister of economics and retired leader of the late Gustav Stresemann's Populist party, died at his home in this city. He was fifty-eight years old.

SUMMER HATS ARE GAY AND COLORFUL

The hats of this year are enough to lift anybody's spirits. Maybe it's to take our minds off our troubles that they are so defiantly gay, so casually frivolous.
For street and sports wear this summer, the little brimmed vagabond straw—of millan, leghorn, rough straws and Panama—are going to be away out in front. And they ought to be.
They're so smart and practical and tailored, with their impudent little dips over the right eye, their necktie-ribbon bands, their simplicity.
One of the most popular straws for this kind of hat is exactly like that used in men's straws—rough and shiny and correct.

Wrap-Around Is Smart and Very Practicable

Enter the wrap-around week-end wardrobe.
It's the newest thought of the Paris designers, and it's about the most sensible innovation of the day.
The idea is that the wrap-around cut-dress that can be opened out and folded flat is by far the simplest thing to pack without crushing. And if you have a whole set of them, you can jump off the train, change clothes and be ready for what the day brings without having to stop and wait for things to be pressed.
The wrap-around style has been developed in practically every variation or day-time dress.

Newest Pajamas Follow Lines of Evening Dress

Ever since the first hostess pajamas came into town via the beach a few years ago, women have been discovering the joys of the pajama. The new 1932 version of the pajama is taking on disguises and appears as wholly appropriate for the woman who entertains in her own home.
The Paris version of the evening pajama sometimes looks like a pajama at the front but like a dress at the back. Sometimes its trouser lines are completely invisible. Many of the newer ones are so full at the hem that there is not the slightest suggestion of a divided skirt at all.

NEW ROUGH CREPE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

We are hearing so much in regard to navy blue and in fact of the whole range of blues, it seems only fair that a word be said in behalf of brown, for brown remains a great favorite with the smart set, especially touches of brown on light costumes. The ensemble in the picture adopts brown and orange for its color scheme. The frock which is made of one of the popular new rough-surfaced crepes is in burnt orange. It has a wide girlish belt of brown velvet which sets a new high when it comes to waistlines. The large ball buttons are brown and the youthful jacket is of brown velvet in the delightful light weight which is characteristic of this season's weaves.

Fussy Parasol Back

The fussy parasol of the era of rose jars, petticoats and fainting damoscels, has returned, more restrained in design, perhaps, but as dainty and decorative as ever.

Tips on What's New in Women's Styles

Sailors are the preferred type of hat for street and sports wear.
Yarn necklaces are a new accessory trick to wear with sport clothes.
Short evening wraps have exaggerated sleeves with much shirring.
Star and moon shaped clips of rhinestones for the hair are fashionable.
Lacquered fruit is another thing that gives an attractive trimming to the new straw hat.
Cotton laces and cotton meshes of hat types are stressed.
A new chapeau is a trim black satin beret which tilts over one ear.
Evening cottons are proving a fascinating theme with leading couturiers.
Fancy printed linen handkerchiefs add flash of color to milady's costume.
A fashion that is headed for success is the coat of soft beige wool with its lei collar of black or silver fox.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Roosevelt and Garner Named by the Democrats

New York Governor Wins on Fourth Ballot in National Convention at Chicago—Platform Advocates Repeal of Eighteenth Amendment—Lively Scenes in Stadium.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

Chicago.—Thousands of untutored Democrats barged into this city by the lake; 945 of them nominated Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York for President; 1,154 of them selected John N. Garner of Texas for second place on the ticket; practically all who were delegates adopted a platform that included a plank declaring for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment and for immediate legalization of beer and wine. Then they uproariously greeted their Presidential nominee in the Chicago Stadium, and departed for their homes, confident of victory in November.

It took the delegates six full days to do the work of the national convention, and in the doing they put up as pretty a political fight as one could wish for. Several fights, in fact, enough to make a real battle. That was what the spectators wanted and expected, and what the Democrats always seem willing to supply. They enjoy it themselves as do the participants in the traditional Doneybrook Fair.

Why the "stop Roosevelt" effort failed was easily seen. In the first place the New York governor had obtained a running start by corraling a majority of the delegates, in many instances having had no opposition in state preference primaries. Then the anti-Roosevelt groups did not center their efforts on any one man. Finally, after three ballots had failed to bring Roosevelt the required two-thirds, his managers made a deal with the Garner forces that put him over on the fourth ballot with ease. The accretion of 44 California and 46 Texas votes made his hand wagon irresistible for most of the other delegations that had been holding out.

Alfred E. Smith of New York, his standard bearer four years ago, was the only other aspirant who received any considerable vote, and his supporters nearly stood by him to the bitter end. He started with 20 1/2 votes and wound up with 190 1/2 votes.

First Session Not Eventful. Opening their proceedings with dignity that was tinged with buoyancy, the Democrats put on a show the first day that was so uneventful that the spectators might have thought the late Republican convention had reassembled. With considerable difficulty but infinite patience, Chairman John J. Raskob of the national committee managed to obtain order about one hour late. He then delivered a brief but pithy introductory address in the course of which he spoke satirically of the Republicans and took occasion to give unstinted praise to Jonett Shouse, chairman of the executive committee, later a central figure in the most important test contest between the Roosevelt and anti-Roosevelt forces.

Mr. Raskob also paid high tribute to Charles Michaelson, probably the most astute and resourceful director of publicity that any political party in American has ever had.

Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, now came forward and delivered an impressive invocation which had the effect of humbling her hearers, for there was no slurring over of the faults and sins of the people.

Then, in a great glare of flood lights Mrs. Rose Zalian, an Armenian from Boston, sang "The Star-Spangled Banner," in full, rich voice and with dramatic gestures. The audience tried to join in, but as always rather feebly. The first stanza over, the accompanying band stopped and the crowd applauded, but Mrs. Zalian had a surprise. She knew the words of another stanza—which is more than most Americans know—so she went right ahead with them, and the band and its leader had a hard time catching up with her.

Carmak Does Some Keynoting. Mayor Carmak being introduced made the customary welcoming speech on behalf of Chicago, and, being himself an eminent Democrat, he then continued with a miniature keynote speech all his own, earning a cheer when he declared: "The President March has not yet been named." Yet louder cheers greeted this:

"The American people believe that we shall have more respect for the Constitution with the Eighteenth amendment out of it. . . . Let this convention America was reborn."

As the mayor stepped back to his seat, there was a wild yell from the galleries, and the entire Massachusetts delegation arose to its feet cheering. All necks were craned in the effort to see what was causing the excitement. It was one Al Smith, smiling genially, making his way to his place in the New York delegation. With a little encouragement from him, the convention might have given him what is called a "demonstration." But he quietly settled himself between Mayor Jimmy Walker and John W. Davis.

So ended the first day, with no outward evidence of the hot fights that were going on in committee rooms and delegation headquarters. "Tomorrow we will see the battle open," said everyone. Consequently, when Chairman Barkley started proceedings Tuesday noon all seats were filled. The delegates and alternates were anxiously eager for the conflict and the spectators might have been as many men and women of ancient Rome avid for a gladiatorial combat in the Coliseum.

After a pessimistic prayer by Rt. Rev. Mgr. F. G. Ostrowski of Chicago and a sentimental song by Mrs. Howard Austin, the first fireworks were set off, the piece being the contest between Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana and his delegation, selected by the state central committee, and another bunch of delegates named by a state convention. Here was the first open demonstration of the operations of the Roosevelt steam-roller. The credentials committee, controlled by the Roosevelt forces, reported in favor of seating Long and his crowd, they being counted as for the New York governor. A minority report was read by W. Emery Lancaster of Illinois and ably upheld by him and several others.

"Kingfish" Didn't Bluster. The chief debater on the majority side was Long himself, and the "Kingfish" furnished a great surprise. His antics in the senate and in committee rooms since his arrival in Chicago had led to the belief that he would be rampagous. Not so. He was, on the contrary, quite dignified and gave an exposition of his case that was impressive if not entirely convincing. Seemingly, to the unprejudiced hearer, he had the law and the regulations of the Democrats on his side, and whereas, when he stepped to the platform he was greeted by a storm of boos and catcalls, when he finished there was an equally loud salvo of cheers.

The roll call on this matter resulted in the adoption of the majority report, seating the Long delegation, by a vote of 638 1/2 to 514 1/2. It was the severest test of the Roosevelt strength during the day and was not unencouraging to his opponents since it showed some defections in delegations counted on to vote for his nomination. This was especially notable in the case of North Carolina, Iowa and Illinois. On the other hand, the Roosevelt forces made gains in Missouri and Connecticut that had not been anticipated.

There was another contest, in Minnesota, the decision in which meant much to the Roosevelt army. It, too, was decided as the credentials committee had ruled, and by a larger majority than in the Louisiana case, after a debate had been, in the wording of Chairman Barkley, "perpetrated."

Walsh Made Permanent Chairman. For the third time the Roosevelt tactics were now put to the test, the committee on permanent organization reporting the selection of Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana for permanent chairman, and a minority report recommending that the place be given to Jonett Shouse of Kansas, ally of the Raskob-Smith group, who had been picked tentatively last spring by the arrangements committee of the national committee. To the satisfaction of the party leaders, though perhaps not that of the blood-hungry galaxy occupants, the debate developed no unpleasant personalities. The nearest to this came in the speech of Mrs. Bernice S. Pyke of Ohio, who participated in the selection of Shouse by the arrangements committee and who declared that the place should be given to her.

Then bedlam broke loose. Bands blared, the great organ pealed, cowbells jingled, delegations marched shouting and singing through the aisles, state standards waving ahead of them, and in the packed balconies there did not seem to be a single person who wasn't screaming at the top of his lungs. Delaware, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Virginia delegates sat tight, keeping their standards in the sockets, but Texas was split and its liberals paraded with a banner of their own. The tumult lasted nearly 15 minutes, and Mr. Hitchcock then had a chance to finish reading the platform.

Cordell Hull, senator from Tennessee, presented, as an accompaniment of boos, a minority report, a prohibition plank that recommends resubmission of the question to the states but does not declare the party in favor of repeal. Also, it omits the recommendation for immediate legalization of beer and wine. Alfalfa Bill Murray and William G. McAdoo also offered minority reports on other topics, which didn't have a ghost of a chance.

At this point Chairman Walsh announced that the proceedings, between 7 and 9 o'clock, had not been broadcast to the country, and asked if the convention were willing to have the platform and proposed amendments read again. This idea was vetoed at once with a mighty roar of noes.

Wald Demonstration for Smith. Two hours of debate on the wet plank followed, most of the speakers favoring the majority report, though the resubmissionists were not badly represented by such men as Senator Hall, T. A. Walters of Idaho and W. C. Fitz of Alabama. For the repealers came forward early in the debate Al Smith, and the demonstration that was made for him was extraordinarily spontaneous and noisy. For 15 minutes Al stood smiling and actually blushing, waiting for it to subside. If all the delegates who were standing and shouting their heads off had voted for Smith later he would have been nominated on the first ballot. His talk was humorous and snappy.

Governor Ritchie later took the platform to urge adoption of the majority plank, and his welcome was only a little less tumultuous than that accorded Smith. On the roll call the moist resubmissionists were completely swamped. The repeal plank was adopted by a vote of 694 1/2 to 213 1/2.

The other minority reports were still to be acted upon, but it was past midnight and the overwrought delegates waited to go to bed, so the convention adjourned.

Nominations and Hullabaloo. Eager to get at the business of nominating, the convention on Thursday speedily adopted the platform as a whole, two minor changes having been made—some rule for Hawaii, and "continuous responsibility of government for human welfare, particularly the protection of children."

Nominations for President now were called for and, following the prearranged plan, Alabama yielded to John E. Mack of New York state, who offered the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt as a starter.

This chronicler has neither the space nor the inclination to quote at length from the speech of Mr. Mack of from any of the other nominating efforts. And a description in detail of each of the demonstrations would be tedious. It is almost enough to say that every candidate, including Governor Roosevelt, was skillfully and persuasively presented to the convention, and that most of them were plentifully seconded. Senator Tom Connally of Texas spoke for Garner and was followed by Gov. J. B. Ely of Massachusetts, whose eloquence in nominating Al Smith surpassed that of all the others. Ely even dared to allude to the religious prejudice that had contributed to Smith's defeat four years ago, and he gave Roosevelt some shrewd jabs.

Recess until evening, and then the presentation in turn of the names of Harry F. Byrd of Virginia by Carter Glass, Melvin A. Traylor of Illinois by Michael Igoe of Chicago, Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland by Senator Tydings, James A. Reed of Missouri by headquarters of Alfred E. Smith refused to leave until the "happy warrior" came from an important conference and made an impromptu speech. They wished to shake the hand of the 1928 nominee. "I'd like to oblige you," Smith said with a broad grin as he took a campaign cigar from his mouth, "but it's impossible. I've got important things to do, so look at me and let me go."

"Mr. Mayor, you don't know me, but I have met you before," said a man stepping up to Jimmy Walker at the sessions of the resolutions committee.

"Yes," beamed Jimmy, at his best. "Hope you are having a good time," said the admirer.

More yessing by Jimmy. "Yes, I'm from Chi, but you needn't be afraid, I ain't got no machine gun with me," assured the Chicagoan. "I see, I see," observed Jimmy. "Yes, I understand—traveling light."

SUMMARY OF DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

PROHIBITION—Urges repeal of Eighteenth amendment . . . immediate action by congress to submit repeal to state conventions called to act on that sole question . . . the states to enact such laws as will promote temperance and prevent return of the saloon . . . federal government to protect dry states from shipments . . . immediate action by congress to modify the Volstead act to permit beer . . . to provide revenue.

ECONOMY—Urges immediate and drastic cuts in expenditures by abolishing useless commissions, consolidation of departments and bureaus to bring at least 25 per cent reduction.

CURRENCY—Urges sound currency and calling of international conference for the rehabilitation of silver.

TARIFF—Urges competitive tariff for revenue only . . . reciprocity by agreement with other nations . . . international conference to reduce trade and credits.

RELIEF—Urges extension of federal credit to states . . . extension of federal public works, such as flood control and waterways . . . spread of employment by reduction of hours . . . unemployment and old age insurance under state laws.

AGRICULTURE—Urges better financing of farm mortgages through reorganized farm agencies at low rates of interest . . . preference to credits for redemption of mortgaged farms . . . extension and aid to co-operatives . . . control of surpluses.

VETERANS—Urges full justice for all who suffered disability or disease caused by or resulting from actual service in war and for their dependents.

NATIONAL DEFENSE—Urges navy and army adequate for national defense. Survey to eliminate some of expenditures now ever produced in a national convention, and it was just that. Though so complex that it scarcely requires summarizing, the main features of it are given in an adjoining column. Nearly every section was heartily applauded, but the throng was saving up its voices for the climax that came as the speaker uttered the portentous words:

"We advocate the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment."

Then bedlam broke loose. Bands blared, the great organ pealed, cowbells jingled, delegations marched shouting and singing through the aisles, state standards waving ahead of them, and in the packed balconies there did not seem to be a single person who wasn't screaming at the top of his lungs. Delaware, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Virginia delegates sat tight, keeping their standards in the sockets, but Texas was split and its liberals paraded with a banner of their own. The tumult lasted nearly 15 minutes, and Mr. Hitchcock then had a chance to finish reading the platform.

Cordell Hull, senator from Tennessee, presented, as an accompaniment of boos, a minority report, a prohibition plank that recommends resubmission of the question to the states but does not declare the party in favor of repeal. Also, it omits the recommendation for immediate legalization of beer and wine. Alfalfa Bill Murray and William G. McAdoo also offered minority reports on other topics, which didn't have a ghost of a chance.

At this point Chairman Walsh announced that the proceedings, between 7 and 9 o'clock, had not been broadcast to the country, and asked if the convention were willing to have the platform and proposed amendments read again. This idea was vetoed at once with a mighty roar of noes.

Wald Demonstration for Smith. Two hours of debate on the wet plank followed, most of the speakers favoring the majority report, though the resubmissionists were not badly represented by such men as Senator Hall, T. A. Walters of Idaho and W. C. Fitz of Alabama. For the repealers came forward early in the debate Al Smith, and the demonstration that was made for him was extraordinarily spontaneous and noisy. For 15 minutes Al stood smiling and actually blushing, waiting for it to subside. If all the delegates who were standing and shouting their heads off had voted for Smith later he would have been nominated on the first ballot. His talk was humorous and snappy.

Governor Ritchie later took the platform to urge adoption of the majority plank, and his welcome was only a little less tumultuous than that accorded Smith. On the roll call the moist resubmissionists were completely swamped. The repeal plank was adopted by a vote of 694 1/2 to 213 1/2.

The other minority reports were still to be acted upon, but it was past midnight and the overwrought delegates waited to go to bed, so the convention adjourned.

Nominations and Hullabaloo. Eager to get at the business of nominating, the convention on Thursday speedily adopted the platform as a whole, two minor changes having been made—some rule for Hawaii, and "continuous responsibility of government for human welfare, particularly the protection of children."

Nominations for President now were called for and, following the prearranged plan, Alabama yielded to John E. Mack of New York state, who offered the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt as a starter.

This chronicler has neither the space nor the inclination to quote at length from the speech of Mr. Mack of from any of the other nominating efforts. And a description in detail of each of the demonstrations would be tedious. It is almost enough to say that every candidate, including Governor Roosevelt, was skillfully and persuasively presented to the convention, and that most of them were plentifully seconded. Senator Tom Connally of Texas spoke for Garner and was followed by Gov. J. B. Ely of Massachusetts, whose eloquence in nominating Al Smith surpassed that of all the others. Ely even dared to allude to the religious prejudice that had contributed to Smith's defeat four years ago, and he gave Roosevelt some shrewd jabs.

Recess until evening, and then the presentation in turn of the names of Harry F. Byrd of Virginia by Carter Glass, Melvin A. Traylor of Illinois by Michael Igoe of Chicago, Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland by Senator Tydings, James A. Reed of Missouri by headquarters of Alfred E. Smith refused to leave until the "happy warrior" came from an important conference and made an impromptu speech. They wished to shake the hand of the 1928 nominee. "I'd like to oblige you," Smith said with a broad grin as he took a campaign cigar from his mouth, "but it's impossible. I've got important things to do, so look at me and let me go."

PROHIBITION—Urges repeal of Eighteenth amendment . . . immediate action by congress to submit repeal to state conventions called to act on that sole question . . . the states to enact such laws as will promote temperance and prevent return of the saloon . . . federal government to protect dry states from shipments . . . immediate action by congress to modify the Volstead act to permit beer . . . to provide revenue.

ECONOMY—Urges immediate and drastic cuts in expenditures by abolishing useless commissions, consolidation of departments and bureaus to bring at least 25 per cent reduction.

CURRENCY—Urges sound currency and calling of international conference for the rehabilitation of silver.

TARIFF—Urges competitive tariff for revenue only . . . reciprocity by agreement with other nations . . . international conference to reduce trade and credits.

RELIEF—Urges extension of federal credit to states . . . extension of federal public works, such as flood control and waterways . . . spread of employment by reduction of hours . . . unemployment and old age insurance under state laws.

AGRICULTURE—Urges better financing of farm mortgages through reorganized farm agencies at low rates of interest . . . preference to credits for redemption of mortgaged farms . . . extension and aid to co-operatives . . . control of surpluses.

VETERANS—Urges full justice for all who suffered disability or disease caused by or resulting from actual service in war and for their dependents.

NATIONAL DEFENSE—Urges navy and army adequate for national defense. Survey to eliminate some of expenditures now ever produced in a national convention, and it was just that. Though so complex that it scarcely requires summarizing, the main features of it are given in an adjoining column. Nearly every section was heartily applauded, but the throng was saving up its voices for the climax that came as the speaker uttered the portentous words:

"We advocate the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment."

Then bedlam broke loose. Bands blared, the great organ pealed, cowbells jingled, delegations marched shouting and singing through the aisles, state standards waving ahead of them, and in the packed balconies there did not seem to be a single person who wasn't screaming at the top of his lungs. Delaware, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Virginia delegates sat tight, keeping their standards in the sockets, but Texas was split and its liberals paraded with a banner of their own. The tumult lasted nearly 15 minutes, and Mr. Hitchcock then had a chance to finish reading the platform.

Cordell Hull, senator from Tennessee, presented, as an accompaniment of boos, a minority report, a prohibition plank that recommends resubmission of the question to the states but does not declare the party in favor of repeal. Also, it omits the recommendation for immediate legalization of beer and wine. Alfalfa Bill Murray and William G. McAdoo also offered minority reports on other topics, which didn't have a ghost of a chance.

At this point Chairman Walsh announced that the proceedings, between 7 and 9 o'clock, had not been broadcast to the country, and asked if the convention were willing to have the platform and proposed amendments read again. This idea was vetoed at once with a mighty roar of noes.

Wald Demonstration for Smith. Two hours of debate on the wet plank followed, most of the speakers favoring the majority report, though the resubmissionists were not badly represented by such men as Senator Hall, T. A. Walters of Idaho and W. C. Fitz of Alabama. For the repealers came forward early in the debate Al Smith, and the demonstration that was made for him was extraordinarily spontaneous and noisy. For 15 minutes Al stood smiling and actually blushing, waiting for it to subside. If all the delegates who were standing and shouting their heads off had voted for Smith later he would have been nominated on the first ballot. His talk was humorous and snappy.

Governor Ritchie later took the platform to urge adoption of the majority plank, and his welcome was only a little less tumultuous than that accorded Smith. On the roll call the moist resubmissionists were completely swamped. The repeal plank was adopted by a vote of 694 1/2 to 213 1/2.

The other minority reports were still to be acted upon, but it was past midnight and the overwrought delegates waited to go to bed, so the convention adjourned.

Nominations and Hullabaloo. Eager to get at the business of nominating, the convention on Thursday speedily adopted the platform as a whole, two minor changes having been made—some rule for Hawaii, and "continuous responsibility of government for human welfare, particularly the protection of children."

Nominations for President now were called for and, following the prearranged plan, Alabama yielded to John E. Mack of New York state, who offered the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt as a starter.

This chronicler has neither the space nor the inclination to quote at length from the speech of Mr. Mack of from any of the other nominating efforts. And a description in detail of each of the demonstrations would be tedious. It is almost enough to say that every candidate, including Governor Roosevelt, was skillfully and persuasively presented to the convention, and that most of them were plentifully seconded. Senator Tom Connally of Texas spoke for Garner and was followed by Gov. J. B. Ely of Massachusetts, whose eloquence in nominating Al Smith surpassed that of all the others. Ely even dared to allude to the religious prejudice that had contributed to Smith's defeat four years ago, and he gave Roosevelt some shrewd jabs.

Recess until evening, and then the presentation in turn of the names of Harry F. Byrd of Virginia by Carter Glass, Melvin A. Traylor of Illinois by Michael Igoe of Chicago, Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland by Senator Tydings, James A. Reed of Missouri by headquarters of Alfred E. Smith refused to leave until the "happy warrior" came from an important conference and made an impromptu speech. They wished to shake the hand of the 1928 nominee. "I'd like to oblige you," Smith said with a broad grin as he took a campaign cigar from his mouth, "but it's impossible. I've got important things to do, so look at me and let me go."

"Mr. Mayor, you don't know me, but I have met you before," said a man stepping up to Jimmy Walker at the sessions of the resolutions committee.

POULTRY

SAVE THE POULTRY BY KILLING MITES

Simple Treatments to Get Rid of Lice.

By O. C. UFFORD, Extension Platformman, Colorado Agricultural College.

Many Colorado farmers and poultrymen save money and cut costs of production simply by preventing their poultry and poultry houses from becoming infested with lice and mites. Lice and mite infestations affect the health, growth and production of poultry. These pests can be easily controlled by proper action. Lice, which live on the birds and are known as biting parasites, may be controlled by smearing a small amount of blue ointment mixed with an equal amount of petroleum jelly, lard or vasoline, around the vent. This treatment should never be used on small chicks. Dusting powders such as sodium fluoride may be placed in the feathers on different parts of the body to control lice.

When large flocks are to be treated for lice, nicotine sulphate may be applied with a brush or oil can to perches before the birds go to roost. Fumes from the nicotine destroy the parasites. This fluid will also kill mites if they come into contact with it. Badly infested flocks should be treated a second time in about ten days. Mites live around perches and roosting places, gradually spreading over poultry houses and farm buildings when not controlled.

Stock dips, formaldehyde or carbolic acid are some of the common materials used for spraying roosts and houses. An effective home remedy can be made by using one gallon of crude kerosene, one-half pint of crude kerosene, and, if necessary, this may be thinned with one to two quarts of kerosene. The easiest time to control mites and lice is in the spring, before they become too numerous.

Flock Will Respond to Well-Balanced Ration Eggs from chickens fed a ration full of vitamins A and D are better food than eggs from chickens fed rations rich in the vitamins, according to the results of recent research available to the department of poultry husbandry at the Ohio State university. Recent experiments indicate, says the department, that the amount of vitamin A and D supplied to the birds is directly reflected in the vitamin content of the eggs produced. Thus, in feeding his hens to maintain their health, the poultryman is feeding for eggs of better quality and more worth.

A ration for hens rich in vitamins would contain yellow corn, alfalfa leaf meal, or a high grade cod liver oil. Vitamin D prevents rickets and assists with the building of bone. Vitamin A builds resistance to disease and infections.

Early and Late Chicks Chicks hatched early have many advantages over those hatched late. As a general rule they are more vigorous; the mortality is less; the cockerels may be sold for better prices, and the pullets will mature in time to lay high-priced eggs next fall.

Just why the early chick is more vigorous is hard to explain. That less mortality is experienced is probably due to the fact that coccidia and parasites, such as worms and mites, are less active before the onset of hot weather. It is true that more trouble from these pests is experienced later in the season.

Poultry for Income Science has placed the rate of mortality among chicken flocks so low that it is now no longer a major risk. As an income source, both from meat and eggs, poultry offers returns measured fairly accurately by the number of chicks to be used. The initial investment in equipment is offered today at most attractive prices and since the life of equipment extends over a long period of years, the annual investment may be considered very low.

Select Vigorous Chicks Vigorous baby chicks have full bright eyes, downy fluff, are plump and have well rounded shanks. Other points to look for in selecting chicks include the following: Freedom from bacillary white diarrhoea, weight of eight pounds per 100 chicks at 24 hours of age, well headed body openings at which yolk was absorbed and richly pigmented shanks and beaks. Chicks from healthy breeding flocks and from birds high in egg production are always preferable.—Nebraska Farmer.

Diarrhoea in Fowls Diarrhoea may be caused by feeding spoiled food of some kind and garbage should be pretty carefully inspected before being fed. It may easily contain spoiled bits of meat or moist food of some kind. A dose of epsom salts, one pound dissolved in the drinking water of 100 fowls, or dissolved in a little water and mixed with a wet mash, so distributed that all can get their share, may be given to clean out the digestive organs of the birds.—Rural New-Yorker.

No Need to Cool Eggs Cooling of eggs that are being hatched in an incubator is merely trying to copy the hen's way of doing and is not necessary for good hatching results, states Iowa State college poultrymen. The hen has to leave the nest to get feed. This gives the eggs a chance to get ventilation and oxygen. Eggs should be turned four times daily from the third to the eighth day, and the chick embryo is likely to stick to the eggshell membrane and die, says a writer in the Prairie Farmer.

CONVENTION PERSONALITIES

Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith was making slow progress down a block long hallway in his hotel. Delegates pumped his hand at every step. He was affable but in a hurry.

Finally, at the end of the hall an exuberant supporter seized the governor's hand. "We're for you, Al," he shouted. "Organize," replied the practical New Yorker and passed on.

Mrs. Ruth Hanna Simms, formerly Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, who was defeated for United States senator from Illinois last November by Senator Lewis, observed the convention proceedings from the press box.

An upholstered divan was placed in the New York row for the comfort of Mrs. Elizabeth Marbury, Democratic national committeewoman.

Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, out of the congress, and Ruth Bryan Owen, outward bound, looked down from the press box on the arena where sat Representative Mary T. Norton, New Jersey delegate, still in. "I believe it is much more fun writing about what people are doing down there than to be down there trying to do something," decided Mrs. Owen. De-feated this year, she intends to quit before her term expires to avoid being a "lame duck." She will teach at a Florida college.

The press box was filled with the loveliest ladies who learned their politics from "pa." Now they write pieces for the papers, with a feminine poise that would have caused "pa" considerable amazement in the old days. The daughters are Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms, Mark Hanna's girl; Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the Commoner; and Genevieve Clark Thompson, dark-eyed daughter of Champ Clark.

Crowds that thronged the hotel headquarters of Alfred E. Smith refused to leave until the "happy warrior" came from an important conference and made an impromptu speech. They wished to shake the hand of the 1928 nominee. "I'd like to oblige you," Smith said with a broad grin as he took a campaign cigar from his mouth, "but it's impossible. I've got important things to do, so look at me and let me go."

"Mr. Mayor, you don't know me, but I have met you before," said a man stepping up to Jimmy Walker at the sessions of the resolutions committee.

"Yes," beamed Jimmy, at his best. "Hope you are having a good time," said the admirer.

More yessing by Jimmy. "Yes, I'm from Chi, but you needn't be afraid, I ain't got no machine gun with me," assured the Chicagoan. "I see, I see," observed Jimmy. "Yes, I understand—traveling light."

Democrats who Helped Make Wheels Go Around At Chicago

Upper left: Sen. Wm. A. Barkley, Ky., who sounded the Democratic keynote at the Chicago convention; Upper right: Alfred E. Smith, New York, and William G. McAdoo, Calif., former bitter enemies. Lower left: Jettett Shouse, Kansas, Executive chairman, Nat'l Comm. and (next): Sen. Thomas A. Walsh, Mont., who battled for the permanent chairman ship of the convention. Lower right: Roosevelt leaders, left to right: Arthur Mullen, Neb., floor leader; John E. Mack, N. Y., nominator, and James E. Farley, N. Y. campaign manager.

Health Insurance for Your Family and Economy for Your Kitchen with a

Monarch Electric REFRIGERATOR

MONARCH Refrigerators incorporate all features accepted as standard requirements for dependable refrigeration. These include: adequate storage space, dependable, safe refrigerant, automatic control, efficient insulation, a wide variety of sizes and designs, and "SELECT-O-COLD," MONARCH'S 8-Speed Cold Temperature Control and Automatic Safety Shut-off Switch. Consider Modern Refrigeration for Your Home, then Consider MONARCH'S Reputation for Building Dependable, Quality Merchandise for over a Third of a Century.

Former Price $169.50

SPECIAL PRICE $135.00

Kewaskum Hardware & Electric Company

Phones 561-465

"Heroic Effort" Winner

Miss Vera L. Goodrich, Northampton, Mass., toiled in the Temple College Cafeteria, to pay her way all through school—and as a graduate teacher is rewarded in receiving the coveted "Heroic Effort" award.

ELMORE

Miss Betty Franey spent the week-end at Chilton. Mr. and Mrs. H. Dieringer spent Sunday at Green Bay. Carl Thebes of Chicago is a guest of the John Sanhehl family.

Miss Dorothy Richardson of Milwaukee is a guest at the home of Wm. Michels.

John and Frank Markert of Milwaukee spent the week-end with their brother Joe and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kleinhaus and son Wesley of Milwaukee called on relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude White and sons of Dundee spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scheuerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kleinhaus and son Allen of Fond du Lac spent several days with the Al. Struebing family.

Mrs. Gertrude White of Dundee and Mrs. Harvey Scheuerman and daughter called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mathieu Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. S. Sakols of Milwaukee were guests at the Frank Mathieu home Monday.

W. Seidl, who was seriously injured when he fell from a load of hay, when the trip rope broke, is somewhat improved.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridgets on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat. Dieringer and son and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dieringer and son of Milwaukee were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dieringer.

SOUTH ELMORE

Ewald Rauch of Wayne spent last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Rauch.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rauch spent last Tuesday evening with the A. Kuehl family at West Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Christ and son of Milwaukee were callers at the Christ Mathieu home Monday.

Mrs. Art. Rummel and son Bobby are spending the week with John Thill and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Volland.

Wesley and Jean Rauch of Oshkosh are spending their vacation here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Thill.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greiten and daughter, Ardell, and Math. Belsbier Sr. of Graton were guests of the F. Fleischmann family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Doeffler and daughter of Milwaukee were guests of the C. Mathieu family Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Drechsler and Fritz Kloomborg of Milwaukee were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Volland and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Geidel on Sunday entertained the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoelt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoelt of Saukville; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schroeder and daughter Ruth of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zuehke of the town of Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Geidel.

NEW INDUSTRIES FOR OLD

It begins to look as if we would see a lot of new things coming into general use before long. Big business organizations, who are not afraid that the depression is going to last forever but who are getting ready for the upturn by preparing to put new commodities on the market, are giving hints of some of the things we may expect.

First in importance among these, it seems to us, will be the type of individual dwelling house. Engineers, architects and technical men of all kinds have been talking a great deal about excessive cost and the perishable nature of most houses. Now a big company has been formed in Chicago to manufacture houses in such a way that they can be readily erected anywhere with a minimum labor. This is something different, we understand, from the "ready-cut" frame houses that have been on the market for years. These new houses will have steel frames and pressed steel outer walls, with flat roofs, and many windows, and will be equipped with electric refrigeration, heating units and everything complete at around $3,500 for a six room house. It will take only four days to put up one of these houses, and if the owner wants a bigger one he can "trade in" the old one as he would an automobile. And after the first payment there will be only one mortgage, which can be paid off at around $30.00 a month.

Another new industry of which we have seen several announcements is that of devices for "air conditioning" homes, offices and shops. This scheme of keeping the temperature and moisture the same, winter and summer, and providing clean, fresh air all the time, works well on a large scale; so there seems to be no reason why it shouldn't work well on a one-room or one-house scale.

From Detroit we hear of something revolutionary in automobile design and construction which is expected to come out this summer: a new type of light weight, low cost, high speed car with bigger balloon tires than we have seen yet.

It looks to us as if men who are big enough and smart enough to make money and keep it are not worrying about whether business will come back or not. They know it is coming back and they are getting ready.

CEDAR LAWN AT ELMORE

Gust. Kruger of Campbellsport made this village a business call on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Struebing transacted business at the county seat last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kleinhaus and son Wesley visited relatives in this village last Sunday.

Miss Betty Franey and friend spent the week-end at Hilbert, the guests of Miss Bobby Thiel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rathman of Milwaukee spent over Sunday with the Fred Stoll family.

Miss Dorothy Richardson of Milwaukee is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. William Michaels.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dieringer and son Wayne of Milwaukee visited with friends here Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wals and son of Kohler were welcome guests at the Tom Franey home Independence Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Noodlecheck and Mrs. William Rauch, Sr., spent Thursday evening with the Ed. Rauch family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Noodlecheck of Marshfield are spending their vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. William Rauch, Sr.

John and Frank Markert and Gerhard Wifer of Milwaukee spent over the Fourth of July with the Joe Markert family.

George Yankow, chairman of the board of supervisors of the town of Ashford, looked after public affairs in the town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kleinhaus and son Allen of Fond du Lac were entertained at the Albert Struebing home over the week-end.

Clarence Senn is visiting his father, John Senn, who is engaged in doing state road construction work at New Holstein, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fitzlaff and sons Lawrence, Jr., and Eddy of Milwaukee spent Saturday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil C. Dellert.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt. Dieringer and son Jerome of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dieringer and son Peter of here spent Sunday at Sturgeon Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kleinhaus and family of Fond du Lac, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Struebing visited with Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Kohn at East Campbellsport Monday.

The following people appropriately observed Independence Day with headquarters at the Tom Franey residence, while picnicking at Lake Bernice, those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Buyer of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ratz and daughters of Sheboygan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kluebert and son, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Buyer and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Buyer and children of Fond du Lac, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gremminger and son of Campbellsport.

White pine blister rust found in 23 Wisconsin counties was accidentally brought to Wisconsin from Europe on white pine planting stock purchased through an Illinois nursery. It was discovered in Polk county in 1915 and since that time has spread to the other 21 counties, authorities state.

Your Favorite Photo Enlarged

FREE FREE

The Kewaskum Statesman has made arrangements with the Metro Art Studios to make beautiful Enlargements in lifelike colors with frame complete for its readers. (Send for sample photo enlargement)

How to Get an Enlargement Free

1. Send us $2.00 for one year's subscription to The Statesman and secure FREE a lovely $1.35 portrait enlargement, made from any of your favorite snapshot films or photos. It will be enlarged to size 7x5 inches in lifelike colors, complete with frame and easel.

2. These make wonderful gifts. Everybody wants a beautiful picture of baby, mother, dad or sweetheart. Get yours now. If you are already a subscriber, you can get a Portrait Enlargement by sending us an additional year's subscription or a renewal to the Statesman. (Send film or photo, films preferred but any photo will do if you have no film).

3. Your originals will be returned unharmed together with the Enlargement in a few days after we receive it. SEND US YOUR SUBSCRIPTION OR RENEWAL TODAY.

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

Kewaskum, Wisconsin

The Kewaskum Statesman, Kewaskum, Wisconsin.

Gentlemen:—

I enclose $2.00 with (File Photo) for one year's subscription to The Statesman and one beautiful Photo Enlargement, hand painted in lifelike colors with frame complete.

Name _____

Address _____

Write or Print Clearly

If one picture is to be taken out of a group, mark an (X) lightly with pencil on body of person or mention the one to be enlarged.

Nobody Loves a Policeman!

That's an old saying but it isn't true any more. At least, it hasn't been true since F.O. Alexander added "Finney of the Force" to the list of famous comic strip characters. For "Finney" with his twinkling humor and his shrewd comment on people and the common everyday events of life, is a lovable character, as thousands of newspaper readers who have followed him, through his various adventures will testify. "Finney of the Force" is a regular feature in this newspaper with whom our subscribers are acquainted, and all enjoy him. Then tell your friends about him, for they will enjoy him as much as you do.

"Snow Child" Goes North

Mrs. Edward Stafford (Peary), daughter of Admiral Peary, the famous "snow baby" born in the Arctic circle, is now returning to within 14 degrees of the pole to unveil a stone shaft erected there to her noted father.

ST. KILIAN

Orville Strachota visited with Lloyd Openorth at West Bend the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strobel of Hartford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Strobel Sunday.

Miss Odilia Simon of West Bend is making an indefinite stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bonlender and family of Chicago visited with Mr. and Mrs. And. Bonlender and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Flasch, daughter Frances, and son Paul, visited with Mrs. Leandra and Conradine at Milwaukee Tuesday.

The Misses Barbara, Theresa, Hildegard and Frances Bajek of Milwaukee visited several days with Mrs. Anna Felix and family.

Dedication chicken dinner at the St. Bridget's church, St. Bridgets on Tuesday noon, July 12th immediately after ceremonies. All are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John Amerling, Mr. and Mrs. James Milligan and daughter, Arlene, of Stanley visited Saturday with the Andrew Flasch family.

Let us forget—July 5th—Baseball game in the afternoon on the school diamond, Bingo and other amusements in the evening. Dancing begins at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thelen, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thelen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Math. Thelen and family of Ashford, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Paeetter and son Harvey and friends of West Allis, Mrs. Jos. Oppenorth of West Bend, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Strachota Sunday evening.

The white of eggs can be placed in a jar, sealed and put into a refrigerator and will keep perfectly for days, home economics workers state.

Youngest Delegates Meet

Mary E. Ball, Lexington, Tenn., 22, and William P. Holloway, Texarkana, Tex., 22, youngest delegates to the Democratic convention at Chicago, found time to greet each other before the battle waged hottest.

Microphone Finds Break

When a water pipe in Germany breaks the fault is found without extensive digging, a new invention of German scientists locating the trouble through a microphone. A sensitive electrical detector, placed on the ground above the pipe line, locates the sound of running water at the break. This is heard through the microphone connected with the detector.

Order by Odor

Sign in a Reading (Pa.) delicates men—if You Can't Smell It We Haven't Got It.—Pathfinder Magazine.

What's Your Favorite Sport?

Is it Baseball, Football, Basketball, Track, Golf, Tennis, Boxing, Wrestling, Bowling, Racing ... or what?

Whatever it is, you'll find something about it in this newspaper. For, in addition to giving you news of local athletics, each issue contains authoritative and interesting comment upon all the various branches of sport which engage the attention of the American people today.

Turn to the sports department, read the articles in it, look at the up-to-the-minute pictures which illustrate it and then tell your friends about this interesting department in their HOME NEWSPAPER!

Bobby Jones Successor

Gene Sarazen, New York, with a brilliant 66, four strokes under par, equalled Bobby Jones's record of winning both the British and American open golf championships in the same year.

Good Old Bunk

Bunk is a kind of grease that makes the wheels run smoothly, harmless flapdoodle to keep people interested. You kiss your wife to show her that you still love her. She knows just how much you love her without being kissed; yet she likes it.—American Magazine.

They're Always Going In Being led into temptation seems to be a popular pastime with a lot of people.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

O. K. KUNNEL b. b. m. Doctor of Discretion

Study the policy of the successful business firm and you usually find that it has a "Doctor of Discretion" directing its activities. Just like O. K. Kunnel B.B.M., who knows that letter heads and printed matter sent out by his firm establishes the "character" of that firm. Therefore they must be of the best. In our commercial printing department we produce letter heads and printed matter for many of the most successful business firms in Kewaskum. Let us submit samples and quote prices on your next printing order. No obligation on your part.

Phone 281

Statesman Printery Kewaskum, Wis.

Braves Live Volcano

Rikan Konishi, Honolulu Japanese, received $1,000 reward for going down into the fire pits of Kilauea volcano to recover the bodies of two who had fallen or leaped to death.

MATH. SCHLAEFER OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted Campbellsport, Wisconsin

LEROY WEBER
Teacher of Violin, Sax and Clarinet
Dance Orchestra—Dealer in Band and Orchestra Instruments and Repair Work—Phone 442—433 South St West Bend.

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON
R. G. EDWARDS, M. D.
Office Hours: 10:30 a.m., 2-4 p.m., 7-8 p.m.
Phone 591
Kewaskum, Wis.