

Kewaskum Statesman.

KEWASKUM, WISCONSIN, FRIDAY, NOV. 27, 1936

Subscribe for This Paper and Get All the Home News
$1.50 Per Year

NUMBER 8

TWO COUPLES OBSERVE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

At their home in the village, Mr. and Mrs. William Bunkelmann, Jr. were surprised last Wednesday evening by the following people in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary: Mrs. Kate Klumb, sons Herbert and Carl of the town of Barton, Miss Rosalind Chesak of West Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kirchner and daughter of the town of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Art Roecker and family of St. Cloud, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Endlich of Menomonee Falls.

A very pleasant evening indeed was enjoyed by a large number of relatives and friends on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klein in honor of their 29th wedding anniversary. The following people helped celebrate the occasion: Mrs. Fred Belger, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Belger and son Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Belger and son Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belger, son Elmer and daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. August Bilgo and sons, Roger and August, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Backhaus, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stange and daughter Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klein and daughter Sylvia of Kewaskum; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Giese, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Dreier, son Charles and daughter Audrey of Fond du Lac; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bauers, son Tommy and Mr. and Mrs. Gust. Krueger of Campbellsport; Mrs. Harvey Melhos and sons, Kenneth and Andrew of Milwaukee.

The evening was spent in playing cards and bingo.

Additional Local

—Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Rosenheimer were Milwaukee visitors on Friday.

—Advertising in your local paper will aid your business—will draw trade to your own home town.

—Leo Vyvyan left last Thursday for the northern part of the state to go deer hunting with a party of friends from Milwaukee, namely Lloyd Benning, Ed. Newbauer, H. Rummel and Mr. Caroline. They returned this week.

—The following surprised Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dahm of Dacada on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Nov. 22: Mr. and Mrs. Math. Schmitt of Glenbeulah, Lawrence Schaeffer of St. Michaels, Mike and Alice Bath of Kewaskum, Mr. and Mrs. John Jaque and son Harvey of Port Washington, Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. N.C. Russell and son Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sanem, daughter Bernice and son Leroy of Dacada; Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

—Mrs. Helen Mayer, son Mike and daughter Katherine and Bill Breeze of Random Lake; Raymond Hill of Belgium, and Leo Jung of Fredonia.

The Vacant Chair — by A. B. CHAPIN

SR. MARY ACQUIN AWARDED GOLDEN KEY

Golden keys, the symbol of scholastic excellence at Marquette University, Milwaukee, were awarded to one graduate and five students in the college of liberal arts by the Rev. William J. Grace, S. J., dean, at the annual senior dinner-dance Tuesday night at the Medford hotel.

Among those who received golden keys was a former local girl, Sister Mary Aquin Miller, O. S. F., 36, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. F. Miller of this village.

Dr. Paul J. Mundie, associate professor of sociology, spoke on "Loyalty to a Liberal Education." Arnold Michaels, senior in the college of liberal arts, was toastmaster.

SEAL SALE BEGAN ON THANKSGIVING

"Christmas Seals do double duty. They tend a gas, holiday air to your Christmas letters and packages, and they fight tuberculosis," Clifford Rose, Seal Sale Manager said today, as workers in Kewaskum completed arrangements for the opening of the 1936 Seal Sale. The Seals went into the mail yesterday, Thanksgiving day, all over the United States.

Christmas Seal funds have supported anti-tuberculosis activities in Wisconsin for 28 years, and during that time great progress has been made, according to Miss Lorraine Noll, of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association, state seal chairman. The tuberculosis death rate is now about one-third of what it was in 1907, and more tuberculosis patients are receiving sanatorium care, thus preventing the spread of this disease.

"But there can be no hesitation now," Miss Noll added. "The campaign against this foe of human life must go on. For even today there are estimated to be more than 10,000 active cases of tuberculosis in Wisconsin. If not checked, this disease will spread, for it is communicable. When you buy and use your Christmas Seals this year you will buy protection for someone, it may even be a member of your own family."

Among the activities of the W.A.T.A. throughout the state are: tuberculin testing high school students, followed by X-rays of positive reactors; free chest clinics; health education work and public health nursing.

LOGGERS REMAIN HERE

The A. Martin logging crew of Clintonville, who spent last winter in this vicinity cutting logs, have returned again for the coming winter and are now situated with their equipment in the Math. Thull woods near St. Michaels where they are busily engaged in cutting down trees.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE KEWASKUM STATESMAN.

MISS RENETTA BECKER AND JOS. SCHWIND MARRIED

A pleasant surprise was tendered residents of this village this week when it became known that two of Kewaskum's popular young people, Miss Renetta Becker, daughter of Mrs. Henry Becker, and Joseph Schwind, were married in a quiet ceremony which took place at 3:00 p. m. last Saturday afternoon, November 1, at the St. Michaels parsonage, St. Michaels, Rev. A. J. Klappoetke, the pastor, tied the nuptial knot.

The bride is a graduate of the Kewaskum High school, class of 1929, and is employed in the office of the West Bend Aluminum company. Her husband is employed by the same company.

Mrs. Walter Schneider of Milwaukee attended the bride as matron of honor, while Mr. Schneider attended the bridegroom as best man. Both are close friends of the newlyweds.

The bride was very prettily attired in a duobonnet gown with hat and accessories to match. Her bouquet consisted of bronze chrysanthemums and mums. Her matron of honor wore a dark green gown, also with matching hat and accessories. Her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums and mums.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the bridal party at the Hotel Randolph, Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwind will make their home with the bride's mother in this village and will be at home to their numerous friends after Dec. 1.

May we join the many friends in offering congratulations and best wishes to the newly wedded couple.

BUETTNER-KELLING WEDDING RECENTLY

In a ceremony which occurred at 3 p. m. on Saturday, Nov. 14, the Rev. Herman C. Klingbeil united in marriage Miss Irma Kelling of West Bend, daughter of Charles Kelling of Dundee, and George Buettner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buettner of Lake Fifteen, town of Auburn, at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister in West Bend.

Attendants were Miss Marcella Buchner, a cousin of the bride-groom, who attended the bride as maid of honor, and Arthur Kelling, the bride's brother, who attended the bride-groom as best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony in West Bend, following which the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Missouri. Upon their return they will reside on the farm of the bride-groom's parents near Lake Fifteen.

SKAT TOURNAMENT AT MIKE LITSCHER'S

A prize skat tournament will be held at Mike Litscher's place at Lake Bernice on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29, commencing at 2 o'clock. First prize will be $25.00, and other prizes will be awarded according to number of players participating. All onlookers are cordially invited to attend.

Streets of a Kansas town were reported filled with cars recently when a new plant began to turn out an alcohol motor fuel made from farm products.

JACOB KUEHL INJURED WHEN CAR TIPS OVER

Jacob Kuehl, R. 3, Kewaskum, was injured on Tuesday afternoon of last week, about two miles northeast of Lomira at the Pete Beck corner, when a car driven by him collided with a tank truck of the Lomira Oil company, driven by Art Enderle. Both car and truck turned over from the impact and were damaged, especially the Kuehl car, which was almost totally wrecked.

Mr. Kuehl's injuries amounted to numerous cuts about the head and face which required many stitches to close the wounds. His leg and hip were also injured to a certain extent. Enderle suffered only a bruised hip.

WAYNE

By LEO WIETOR

Martin Keiser of Ashford was a pleasant caller here Saturday.

Jacob Schaefer of West Bend was a pleasant caller here on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Serwe and family spent Saturday at the Frank Wietor home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gritzmacher and Hilbert Gritzmacher were Fond du Lac callers Tuesday.

Otto Kruger of Theresa and Rudolph Hoepner of here spent Sunday at New Fane and Campbellsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kullman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borchert motored to Knowles, Lamartine and Eldorado on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borchert, John Schmidt and sisters visited Saturday evening with the Wallace Geidel family at Kewaskum.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Geidel and son John of Kewaskum, John, Lucy and Alice Schmidt of here motored to Wauwatosa Sunday.

George Sauder of West Wayne and George Washington Foerster of here left Saturday on a hunting trip in northern Wisconsin.

Quite a few people from here attended the 60th wedding anniversary in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Peter at St. Kilian Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt of Milwaukee and Mrs. H. Marose of Farmersville spent last Friday with the Schmidt and Borchert families.

Miss Hazel Brinkman and John Ensmann, both of Lomira, were united in matrimony in the Reformed church at Wayne Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Graf officiated.

HOLD LIME MEETING

County Agent E. E. Skalsky held an interesting meeting at Wietor's place last Wednesday. Farmers brought samples of soil, which were tested, to get an idea of how much lime should be used per acre. Those in need of lime are requested to see the County Agent.

NOTICE OF BOARD OF AUDIT MEETING

The Town Board of the Town of Auburn will meet at the Town Clerk's office at the home of Reuben Backhaus on Monday, December 7, 1936, from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m., to audit all accounts against the town for which proper claims are filed.
Dated Nov. 25, 1936.
Reuben Backhaus,
Town Clerk

ECHO TO THE DIAMOND JUBILEE OF MR. AND MRS. PETER

(By J. B. R.)

Wenzel Peter and Katherine Peter were united in wedlock at St. John's Catholic church, Milwaukee, November 29, 1876. At that time, undoubtedly, the heartfelt wish of many was: May the youthful couple always be happy, and live to see their diamond jubilee, full of vigor and full of happiness! And that wish came true.

With cheerful seriousness and with serious cheerfulness, Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Peter celebrated their diamond jubilee at St. Kilian's church, St. Kilian, November 19, 1936. The Rev. John B. Reichel officiated. The festive day was observed with renewal of vows and so-called high mass at 10 a. m. The attendants were Ralph Peter, St. Kilian, the youngest grandchild, dressed in a black velvet suit, and Gladys Bojak, Milwaukee, a great-granddaughter's child, attired in a sky blue velvet dress. The church was decorated in a becoming and very appropriate manner.

The Jubilarians were encircled by their children: Anna (Mrs. Jacob Felix), Cecelia (Mrs. Joseph W. Mayer), and George W. residing on the home-stead. Four of their children have already been summoned by the angel of death: Mary (Mrs. William Batzler), John, Joseph, and Louisa. A son and daughter-in-law shared the joy of the festive day: Joseph W. Mayer and Mrs. George W. Peter. Grandchildren crowned the happiness of the diamond couple with their presence: John, Frank, Mary (Mrs. Norbert Heiting), Leo, Alfonso, Rose, Kilian, Catherine, and Anna Felix; Cecelia (Mrs. John Beisbier), Helen (Mrs. Walter Westerman); Martha, and Jerome Mayer; Leonard and Ralph Peter. Even great-grandchildren saw the happy day of the Jubilarians: Ardella, Richard, and Lorraine Westerman, Robert Felix, and John Heiting. Also a great-granddaughter's child gladdened the hearts of the Jubilarians by her presence: Gladys Bojak, Milwaukee. Besides the above mentioned, a very large number of relatives and friends attended—a most powerful evidence that the diamond jubilee couple has many acquaintances and loyal friends.

The impressive church ceremonies were followed by a very tasty dinner and supper and hearty reception at the nicely decorated school auditorium. The tables were trimmed with blue and golden yellow, displaying a huge diamond-shaped cake as center piece.

Guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Petersik, Mr. and Mrs. George Petersik, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Petersik, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kudek, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. Ed. Kirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Kronschnabel and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bojak and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Poulsen, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beierle, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Bojak, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wislar, all of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petersik, Wauwatosa; Mrs. Carl Wilbus, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. John Petersik and daughter Irene, Campbellsport; Mr. and Mrs. John Beisbier, St. Lawrence; Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Heiting and son, West Bend; Dr. N. E. Hausman, Frank Felix, Kewaskum; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Westerman and Walter Westerman, St. Bridget.

The school children and church choir made their charming appearance in the afternoon at the place of the merriment. A well chosen entertainment was staged by them to the surprise of all. Tender sentiments were expressed to the diamond groom, as well as to the diamond bride. The cocked ears and signified faces of the listeners spoke of the powerful impression the hearty words and songs made upon the heart and mind of all. In the evening, the Guntly orchestra's musical talent shone forth in all its brilliancy. Scarcely had the first tunes been sounded—young and old alike caught the charm, and cheerfully hopped and hopped. Every foot step seemed to say: When is refreshed the mouth and heart, the feet then crave to do their part.

Well merited friendship and love were tendered the Jubilarians from all sides. It was a pleasant, cordial gathering, the arrangement was most becoming, and the general good humor deposited on each countenance gave evidence of the festive joy within. The Jubilarians seemed to be transported in a sea of bliss, from which delightfully emerged the most glorious memories adorned with a diamond wreath. This joy, this true, genuine, hearty familiarity of cheerful people will remain as a lasting remembrance among all who have spent these happy and pleasant hours with the diamond couple.

May the Jubilarians, henceforth, for many years to come, see a diamond prosperity, whose reflection was beaming in their eyes on their diamond wedding jubilee.

SUFFERS SEVERE BURNS

Miss Mildred Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer of near Five Corners, was removed to St. Agnes hospital, Fond du Lac, last Sunday, as the result of being severely burned while at her home.

MOST UNUSUAL DOUBLE WEDDING EVENT

A most unusual, and seldomly occurring double wedding event, was held in Sabotha Lutheran church at Milwaukee last Monday evening, Nov. 23, when Miss Laura Heberer, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heberer, of the town of Auburn, was joined in holy wedlock to Mr. Harold Setzke of Milwaukee, by the Rev. Arthur Tacke, pastor of the congregation to which the bride belongs.

Immediately after the above ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. William Heberer, parents of the bride, were addressed by their pastor, the Rev. C. J. Gutekunst, of New Fane, in honor of their golden wedding anniversary. After the ceremony a reception was held in a nearby hall, attended by many friends from New Fane and Milwaukee, who extended heartfelt congratulations to both the newly married couple, and to the venerable couple who have gone along life's pathway together for fifty years.

The union of Mr. and Mrs. Heberer, (nee Penschbacher), was blessed with eleven children, all of whom are living. They are: Clara (Mrs. Emil Noffke), Lydia (Mrs. Adolph Quisler), Oscar and Solomon, all of Milwaukee; Elsie (Mrs. Tony Geider) of Wabeno; Miss Emma Heberer, George and Clarence of Milwaukee; Arthur and John of the town of Auburn, and Laura (Mrs. Harold Setzke) of Milwaukee. Besides these there are twenty-one grandchildren.

The Statesman and the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Heberer and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Setzke join in extending congratulations to both couples.

WAYNE CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING SATURDAY

The Wayne Reformed church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Hazel Sylvia Brinkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brinkman of Lomira, and John H. Engman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Engman, Theresa, solemnized by the Rev. Mr. Graff at 3 p. m. Saturday in the presence of an assembly of relatives and friends.

White brocaded velvet was worn by the bride with a long veil of tulle. She carried white chrysanthemums. Miss Clara Brinkman, the bridesmaid, wore white transparent veil and carried orchid chrysanthemums. Elmer Engman was the best man.

Sixty guests were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents where dinner was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Engman will reside in Lomira, where the bridegroom is employed at the Starr brewery.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF HENRY FIRKS THURSDAY

Those from afar who attended the funeral of Henry Firks at New Fane last Thursday were as follows:

John Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Krueger, Chas. Krueger and August Krueger, of Clintonville; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Voss, Eddie Voss, Huzo Knack, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pethon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luebeck, Carl Knack, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schultz, Mrs. Martha Noble and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schultz of Black Wolf, Winnebago county; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christian of Mayville; Mr. Aug. Firks, Otto Firks, Adolph Firks and family, Miss Viola Manthey, Mrs. Friedrich, Mrs. Huebner, Mrs. Wagner and John Krueger of Theresa; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Firks and Arnold Firks of Racine; Mrs. Lydia Bruesser, Ralph Bruesser, Henry Schneberger and Anna Schneberger of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Buss of Sheboygan Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Schultz of Plymouth.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB

The regular meeting of the Kewaskum Woman's club will be held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Rosenheimer on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 28, at 3 o'clock. The topic will be "The College of Crime" (Child Welfare).

TO SPONSOR CARD PARTY

The club will sponsor a card party to be held in the high school gymnasium on Wednesday evening, Dec. 2. Admission 35c. All card games will be played. The public is cordially invited to attend.

SPECIAL LUNCH AT JOS. EBERLE'S SATURDAY EVE

A special home-made bratwurst and champagne buffet lunch will be served at Eberle's Buffet Saturday evening. Don't fail to come and partake of these delicious meats.

DEATH OF NICK RODEN NEWS REACHES HERE

Relatives in this vicinity and St. Michaels received word this week of the death of Nick Roden, aged 75, a former resident of St. Michaels, at his home at Modesto, California. He was a brother of the late Adam Roden and the husband of Kate Fellner, a sister to Hubert Fellner. The Roden family have been residents of Modesto for the past 21 years.

Recalling "Glorious Betsy Patterson"

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

WHEN Father Time closes his books for 1936, whom will he write down as "the man of the year" and "the woman of the year"?

Opinions as to the former may differ but it's not likely that there'll be any disagreement on the latter. For the woman whose name has been on every tongue, not only in America, but all over the world, is Mrs. Wallis ("Wally") Simpson of Baltimore, Md. Whether, during the coming year, King Edward VIII of England marries her or doesn't marry her she probably will be, in 1937, as most was in 1936, the most talked-about, most written-about and most pictured woman in the world.

And thus does "history repeat itself" once more. One hundred and thirty-odd years ago another Baltimore woman was also a topic of international discussion because she was the central figure in a romance. Whatever may be the future of "Wally" Simpson, she will have to be a remarkable career indeed if it matches that of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Elizabeth Patterson was the daughter of William Patterson of Baltimore where she was born February 6, 1785. William Patterson was not only the wealthiest man in Baltimore but he was also one of the leading citizens. When his daughter had reached the age of 18, she was no longer considered a child. Elizabeth Patterson—she was "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

After the marriage, Jerome and his bride went on a honeymoon tour which took them to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston where brilliant entertainments were given in their honor. But their happiness in their love was short-lived. Four months later Jerome had his first word from Napoleon. It was an order for him to return to France forthwith—but without his bride. Furthermore, the French consul—general in New York was directed to prohibit all captains of French vessels from receiving on board "the young person to whom Citizen Jerome has connected himself."

That was the answer to Napoleon to Jerome's confidence that his brother would approve of the marriage and to Betsy's confidence that her beauty would win the emperor over when he saw her. But, despite this evidence of Napoleon's hostility, the young couple sailed in March, 1805 in one of William Patterson's fast clipper ships for Lisbon, Spain. There they found a French frigate waiting to prevent Betsy's landing. Still believing that Napoleon could be persuaded to acknowledge the marriage, Jerome preferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this

So the marriage was postponed until December 24, 1803. All legal formalities were carefully complied with. The marriage contract was drawn up by Alexander Dallas, later secretary of the treasury and vice-president of the United States. The Most Rev. John Carroll, bishop of Baltimore and founder of Georgetown college, performed the ceremony with many dignitaries present.

After the marriage, Jerome and his bride went on a honeymoon tour which took them to Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Boston where brilliant entertainments were given in their honor. But their happiness in their love was short-lived. Four months later Jerome had his first word from Napoleon. It was an order for him to return to France forthwith—but without his bride. Furthermore, the French consul—general in New York was directed to prohibit all captains of French vessels from receiving on board "the young person to whom Citizen Jerome has connected himself."

That was the answer to Napoleon to Jerome's confidence that his brother would approve of the marriage and to Betsy's confidence that her beauty would win the emperor over when he saw her. But, despite this evidence of Napoleon's hostility, the young couple sailed in March, 1805 in one of William Patterson's fast clipper ships for Lisbon, Spain. There they found a French frigate waiting to prevent Betsy's landing. Still believing that Napoleon could be persuaded to acknowledge the marriage, Jerome preferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Yours affly E.P.

time, Jerome's resistance having been broken down, that body issued a decree annulling the marriage.

Betsy probably was not greatly surprised at this, for she had realized for some time how weak-willed was her husband and after the first ardor of their marriage had cooled, it was probably her ambition rather than her love for Jerome which made her persist in trying to win Napoleon over. Despite the fact that the emperor had balked at that ambition, she seems to have had a great admiration for him and without giving up her claim that she was the legitimate wife of Jerome, she accepted a pension of 60,000 francs a year from Napoleon. But she refused a pension of 200,000 francs from Jerome, declaring "I prefer to be sheltered under the wing of an eagle rather than to be suspended from the bill of a goose."

Not Room for Two Queens. As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

Meanwhile the Bourbon dynasty had been restored in France and Louis XVIII had begun his short-lived reign. But despite this fact, "Glorious Betsy" (for she was still a beautiful and charming woman) still dreamed of seeing her son become emperor of the French. Young Jerome did not share his mother's ambition for him. He wanted to be an American citizen and live a normal American life. So, during a visit to America, unknown to his mother (but with the hearty approval of old William Patterson, his grandfather) he wooed and won Susan Williams, a Baltimore girl.

Betsy Patterson Bonaparte screamed with rage when she heard the news of her son's marriage. For a long time she continued unconquered to the match. She refused to send any message of congratulation when a son was born to Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte and Susan Williams Bonaparte on November 5, 1830. But eventually she forgave her son and her heart warmed to her grandson, who had refused to do and by this ferred to deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

As a reward for deserting his wife, Jerome was made successor to the imperial throne in case Napoleon died leaving no heir and in 1807 he was made King of Westphalia. In the same year he married Princess Frederica Catherine, daughter of the King of Wurttemberg, and offered his American wife a residence in Westphalia. To that offer she replied, "It is, indeed, a large kingdom but not large enough to hold two queens."

Napoleon's star which had risen so swiftly and so brilliantly began to descend in 1813 and the French were expelled from Germany. Jerome was now a king without a kingdom but after Napoleon's return from Elba, he rejoined his brother and commanded a division in his army during the historic 100 days while the emperor's star flamed again in the skies. Then it descended for all time at Waterloo and St. Helena ended his dream of empire.

Gone now was Betsy Patterson's hope of ever reigning as a queen. In 1815, by a special act of the Maryland legislature, she divorced Jerome to prevent his claiming any share of her fortune. In that year she returned to Europe. A new ambition was stirring in her. She had reconciled herself to never becoming the wife of a ruler but she might be the mother of one. If ever the Bonaparte dynasty were restored, her son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, might be called to the throne. So she dedicated her life to bringing about that event.

also bore the name of Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte.

Into the Third Generation. As he grew older she began to dream her dream again. If her son could not become emperor of the French, perhaps her grandson might. So she watched his career with pride—graduation from West Point, a short term of service in the United States army, then, at her suggestion, he resigned to enter a French regiment. He won distinction in the Franco-Prussian war and after the fall of the second empire, when Napoleon III lost his throne, her hopes soared high. Then her castles in the air came crashing down about her ears once more.

For her grandson, instead of remaining in Europe to take advantage of any opportunity which might come to him in the swirl of French politics, came back to America—and married an American woman! She was Mrs. Newbolt Edgar, a rich young American widow whom he had met in Paris. Again "Glorious Betsy" raged but eventually forgave him for after the deposed Napoleon III had died there was revival of talk of a restoration of the empire. There was still the possibility that her grandson might be called to the throne.

But that possibility was never realized for on April 4, 1879 died came at last for "Glorious Betsy" Patterson. Her amazing career had covered the span of nearly a century.

She had wanted to be the wife of the king, then the mother of an emperor, then the grandmother of an emperor. And in all of these she failed. One wonders if there would have been some recompense for her if she had lived to see one of her grandsons rise to a high position in the land of her birth. For one of her grandsons, Charles Joseph Bonaparte, the younger son of Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, became first the secretary of the navy and later attorney-general in the cabinet of President Theodore Roosevelt.

But it is doubtful if even this distinction for one of her blood would have been any satisfaction to her. For three-quarters of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

Western Newspaper Union.

of a century the golden bees of Napoleon had buzzed in her ears their deceptive promises of a false hope. She was determined that the world should look upon her as royalty. Anything less than that she could not accept if she were true to the ideal she had set for herself in her dreams. That was her tragedy—the tragedy of "Glorious Betsy" Patterson.

POTATOES EVER DIET MAINSTAY

Monotony Can Be Avoided by Varying Preparation.

By EDITH M. BARBER
POTATOES are certainly a mainstay in our diet. We do not tire of them and they can be prepared in an almost endless variety of ways. And yet there are some people who have them boiled, mashed, baked and boiled again week in and week out.

Have you ever made savory potatoes? They are delicious for a luncheon dish or served with meat at dinner. Pare and slice six good-sized potatoes. In a saucepan melt one tablespoon of bacon fat and in it cook two sliced onions until they are a very delicate brown. Add the sliced potatoes and cook until they have browned slightly, then put in one tablespoon of chopped parsley, one teaspoon of salt, one-fourth teaspoon of pepper, and one-half cup of water. Cover closely and cook slowly for twenty minutes. Add one-half cup of milk and cook fifteen minutes longer.

Remove the potatoes carefully to a hot platter and over the top sprinkle one-half cupful of grated cheese. These potatoes are a very nice substitute for scalloped potatoes, and as they are cooked on top of the stove do not take as long as those done in the oven. And it is not always desirable to heat the oven for just one dish, and it takes little gas to cook these over one burner. Another potato dish that will almost make a meal is prepared by paring potatoes of uniform size and cutting a round hole through the center of each potato. Boil them gently in salted water until almost tender. Drain, place a curled-up slice of bacon in each hole and place in a hot oven until the bacon is crisp and the potatoes are thoroughly done.

Sometimes small sausages are placed in the holes in the potatoes and either baked in the oven or put under the broiler to cook. These also are good and the potato takes up fat and flavor from the sausage. Potatoes can be baked, the inside scooped out and mixed with milk, butter, salt, and grated cheese, put back again and the potatoes put in the oven to brown. Chopped cooked meat or fish can be added to the potato before it is returned to its shell.

Nut Potato Croquettes.
1/4 cup cream or milk
2 cups hot mashed potatoes
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1 cup crushed Brazil nuts

To the hot potatoes add the cream or milk, baking powder, seasoning and half the Brazil nuts. Spread mixture on plate and cool. Shape, roll in nuts and cook in deep, hot fat, 300 degrees F., until golden brown. Drain on soft paper.

Stewed Potatoes.
3 tablespoons butter
3 cups diced potatoes
Salt
Pepper
2 cups milk

Melt the butter in a frying pan, add the potatoes and seasoning, and stir over the fire until the fat is absorbed. Add the milk and cook slowly about half an hour. More milk may be added if needed.

Codfish Balls.
4 or 5 medium-sized potatoes
1 cup picked salt cod
1/2 cup prepared salt cod
1 tablespoon butter
Pepper
1 egg or 2 egg yolks

Pare and slice potatoes and cook until potatoes are tender. Drain, mash and beat until smooth. Add butter, pepper and egg. Drop by tablespoons into very hot fat, 395 degrees F., and cook until light brown. Drain on soft paper.

If mixture is too soft to hold together a tablespoonful of flour may be added. Add finished cakes, however, should be irregular in shape. If croquettes of regular shape are desired add the flour, shape and dip in flour before frying. Garnish with bacon fried in deep fat and with sliced lemon.

Baked Beans.
1 quart beans
1/4 pound salt pork or 1/4 pound corned beef
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon mustard
1/2 cup molasses
Boiling water

Soak the beans in cold water over night. Drain, cover with fresh water and cook until soft. Drain and place in an earthen bean pot. Bury the meat in the beans. Mix salt, mustard and molasses and add one-fourth cup of boiling water. Pour over the beans and acid enough boiling water to cover. Cover, and bake in a moderate oven, 325 degrees F., eight hours.

Rich Muffins.
1/4 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
1 cup milk

Cream the butter, add the sugar and egg well beaten, sift the baking powder and salt with the flour, and add to the first mixture, alternating with milk. Bake in greased gem pans twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven (375 to 400 degrees F.).

Hire Man Who Knows
The preparation of the surface before exterior painting work is undertaken is of tremendous importance. For this reason, it is the greatest wisdom to employ a master painter who knows fully what needs to be done.

Painted Furniture
Painted furniture has been notable since the days of the Pharaohs and beautiful painted pieces from that period have been found.

Harvest Colors for Room
An attractive living room can be keyed to the coppers, yellows and hennas of harvest time.

The Household

By LYDIA LE BARON WALKER

TODAY we hear very little about plain sewing, a term once in common usage, to define the usual run of hand stitching. Where were dressmakers who cut and fitted, and often designed clothes, and seamstresses who did the plain sewing. When sewing machines came into use, the seamstresses were expected to use them satisfactorily as well as to do beautiful hand sewing.

In this era of ready-made garments, neither the seamstress nor the dressmaker are as essential as formerly. What with up-to-date patterns, with electric machines, and simple-to-make styles in lingerie and dresses, the woman at home manages to do such sewing as is needed apart from the clothing she purchases ready to wear.

The necessity for her to know how to mend, and do plain sewing in the best way is easy to realize, especially as this means saving of that precious quantity—time.

First Essential.
A well equipped work basket is the first essential. It is disheartening to sit down to sew and discover there is no silk or cotton in the colors needed, or in the right numbers.

This matter of the numbers in white thread is sometimes not fully appreciated. The size most often required is 70. But this is not fine enough for numerous uses, and it is too fine for others. 40 is a number that is coarse enough for most hand sewing needs. If a woman has a spool of numbers from 90 to 40 she is ready for most sewing requirements in the matter of white cotton. The expert home seamstress has a wide range including 100, and also extra coarse cotton such as 20 and even 12.

Sale Starts Tomorrow

lasts
10 DAYS
only

COMPLETE
LAUNDRY
OUTFIT

All for $49.50

Perhaps you wonder how a complete outfit like this, including a genuine Speed Queen washer, can be sold for $49.50.

Ordinarily, it could not be done. But, through the cooperation of 4 manufacturers, this unusually low, bargain price has been made possible.

The Speed Queen washer is a newest 1937 model with full size porcelain tub—submerged aluminum agitator—swinging balloon roll wringer that locks in 8 different positions—and the famous lifetime “arcuate” drive transmission with machine cut gears. A hand-some machine to look at—and a marvelous machine to wash with. Come in and see it.

If you intend to go to the Tractor and Implement Show on Thursday, Dec. 10, at Milwaukee Auditorium, come and get your admission tickets from us free. Register early so we can make arrangements.

A. G. KOCH, Inc.
KEWASKUM

Here's What You Get
for $49.50

SPEED QUEEN WASHER
genuine 1937 model with full size porcelain tub.

SPEED QUEEN LAUNDRY TUBS
made of durable galvanized iron and equipped with casters.

IRONING BOARD
folding type, standard size.

ELECTRIC IRON
complete with cord and plug.

YEAR'S SUPPLY OF SOAP
includes 40 boxes, a year's supply.

—August Buss spent Monday of this week at Milwaukee on business.
—Mr. and Mrs. Gregor Harter were Fond du Lac visitors last Saturday.
—Mrs. Roy Schreiber and daughter Jacqueline were West Bend visitors on Friday.

—Mrs. John Brunner is spending the week at the home of her son, John, at Chicago.

—Lester Borchert of Wayne and Harry Koch were Fond du Lac visitors on Saturday.

—Mrs. Lena Barry of Milwaukee spent the week-end with the Arnold Martin family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller of Milwaukee spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. August Miller.

—Mrs. Arthur McNeesh of Black Creek, Wis. spent Saturday with the J. H. Martin family.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ramthun attended the funeral of Mr. John Mellus at Batavia on Sunday.

—Mrs. Henry Weddig spent the forepart of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Pinter at Milwaukee.

—Mr. and Mrs. August Oelhafen and son Tommie visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Groeschel Friday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kruse and Edward Geiger of Milwaukee spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Gust. Klug.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Binder of Fillmore spent Friday afternoon visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Groeschel.

—Mr. and Mrs. August Bilgo and family and Mrs. Walter Belger spent Saturday afternoon at Fond du Lac.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roth and daughter of Fond du Lac spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Kleineschay.

—Harold Claus, who is attending State Teachers college at Oshkosh, spent the week-end with friends here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Art. Koch, son Harry and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Koerble were visitors at Milwaukee Sunday evening.

—Fred Kleineschay left Friday for Monticello where he will spend several weeks with his sister, Mrs. Derendinger.

—Mrs. Emil Backhaus and daughter Viola were guests of Clyde Horn and family at Saukville on Thanksgiving day.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schneider of Milwaukee spent Friday evening and Saturday at the Witzig and Zelmet home.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Erdman and daughter of Cedarburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weddig and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buss of West Bend were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Buss on Sunday.

—William Schaefer spent the week-end at Madison and also attended the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game on Saturday.

—Mrs. John Schmidt, Mrs. Mary Ann Honeck and son Joe of West Bend visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Schaeffer on Sunday.

—Mrs. Frederick Schroeder of the town of West Bend spent last Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Weddig, and family.

—Mrs. William Hansen and sons of Savannah, Ill. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Martin and daughter Mary Saturday and Sunday.

—Mrs. Emil Riecke of West Bend and the Robert Jansen family of Barton were visitors at the Arnold Martin home Saturday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stark and Mr. and Mrs. Val Seymour of Cedarburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Backhaus and family Sunday.

—Buy now while stocks are complete. We will hold your purchases for Christmas delivery.—Miller Furniture Store and Miller Electric Store.

—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Groeschel made a short visit with Mrs. Amelia Mertes and the Harvey Kippenhan family at Campbellsport on Sunday afternoon.

—Miss Leah Martin of Milwaukee spent from Saturday noon until Sunday evening with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Koerble here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Simon Stoffel, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols Stoffel and family spent their Thanksgiving as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schmitt at Milwaukee.

—Frank Felix, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Millan of Chicago, spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Felix, at Edgar, Wis.

—Lawrence Guth of Jackson spent from Thursday until Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Hannah Burrow, and Mrs. Barbara Bilgo, Mrs. Minnie Mertes and daughter Mona.

—A number of little friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. E. Miller on Monday in honor of their daughter, Mary Ellen's 6th birthday anniversary.

—The Misses Ella Windorf, Louise Martin, Margaret Browne, Viola Daley and Lillie Schlosser were at Madison Sunday where they called on Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schultz.

—Chas. C. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Oppenorth were at Madison Sunday where they paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schultz.

—Edward Campbell and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Campbell attended the funeral services for Frank Finnegan, which were held at St. Mary's church, Eden, on Monday.

—Mrs. Harvey Mehos of Milwaukee spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klein, while her husband was on a deer hunt in the northern part of the state.

—Jacob Schlosser, Jr., who was employed in the office of the White House Milk Products company at West Bend for several years, has been transferred to the company's office at Manitowoc.

—Maysie Greig's New Novel, "Challenge to Happiness," A Dramatic Story of Modern Love in a Great City, Begins in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed With Next Sunday's SENTINEL.

—Mrs. Mary Hutchison of Milwaukee spent several days this week at the home of Mrs. Henry Becker.

—Mrs. Fred Belger returned home Sunday after spending two weeks with her daughters at Fond du Lac.

—Mrs. Emil Backhaus and daughter Viola spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Backhaus at Markeean.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Sell and family were guests at the home of Mrs. Chas. Piper at Cascade Sunday.

—Give her an individual gift. Good selections of fine cedar chests at $3.95 to $26.50.—Miller Furniture Store.

GROCERY SPECIALS

Oxydol 2 reg. size boxes...19c
1 large size...20c
1 Giant size...59c

Lava Soap 3 large bars 25c
3 small bars 16c

Pillsbury's Cake Flour, 2 1/2 lb. pkg. 21c

Salted Crackers, 2 pound box 17c

Wisconsin Peas, 3 cans for 29c

COFFEE

Wisconsin Corn, 3 cans for 29c

Bulk Peaberry, 3 lbs. 47c
Maxwell House, lb. 26c
Del Monte, lb. 26c

BULK DATES Unpitted, 2 lbs. 19c
Pitted, 2 lbs. 23c

Oval Sardines, Tomato or Mustard, 2 cans 19c

Bulk Apricots, 2 lbs. for 21c

Peas and Carrots, 2 20-oz. cans 33c

Bulk Prunes, 2 lbs. for 17c

Clorox or Hilex 1 qt. bottle 19c
1 pt. bottle 10c

Bulk Peaches, 2 lbs. for 15c

Eagle Lye, 3 cans 25c

Cereal Postum, package 22c

Hawkeye Jam, 2 pound jar 19c

Dee Catsup, 2 14-oz. bottles 25c

Gold Bond Peanut Butter, 1 lb. jar 17c

All Kinds of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables
All kinds of Nuts, Dried Fruits, Candied Fruits, etc.

L. ROSENHEIMER
DEPARTMENT STORE
KEWASKUM, WIS.

—Mike Bath visited with friends at Barton Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Theo. R. Schmidt were Milwaukee visitors on Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Colvin and Miss Agnes Busch spent Friday at Fond du Lac.

—Mr. and Mrs. Myron Perschbacher attended the auto show at Milwaukee on Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flasch of St. Kilian were guests at the Jos. Eberle home Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fischer and family of Woodland spent Sunday with Louis Schaefer and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlaefer and children of Lomira visited with Mrs. Catherine Harter on Sunday afternoon.

—Next Sunday, Nov. 29th, will be the first Sunday of Advent, to continue for four weeks to the festival of Christmas.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumann and son Howard of Milwaukee visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Kral and family Sunday.

—Allyne and Eldon Ramthun, Jr. of West Bend visited the past week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ramthun.

—Carroll Haug of St. Francis spent Thanksgiving day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Haug, and sister, Rosemary.

—Do your Christmas advertising early! Be wise! Advertise your products in your home newspaper and watch results!

—Dr. F. E. Nolting attended lectures and clinics at the Milwaukee General hospital Friday, given by Dr. Roy F. West of Seattle, Washington.

—Mrs. F. E. Colvin, Mrs. Wm. Prost and Mrs. A. P. Schaeffer attended the Electric School for Cooking at West Bend on Monday and Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Perschbacher and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schaefer spent Friday at Madison and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schultz.

—Among those from Kewaskum who tried their skill at deer hunting in the northern section of the state during the past week were: John Exta, Jack and James Andrae, Marvin Martin, Leo Vyvyan and William Windorf, Jr.

—New Eyes for Old, Bones Shortened to Order, Voices Manufactured and Other Modern Miracles of "Human Repairs" Explained in an Illustrated Article in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed With Next Sunday's SENTINEL.

—Mrs. F. E. Nolting attended lectures and clinics at the Milwaukee General hospital Friday, given by Dr. Roy F. West of Seattle, Washington.

—Mrs. F. E. Colvin, Mrs. Wm. Prost and Mrs. A. P. Schaeffer attended the Electric School for Cooking at West Bend on Monday and Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Perschbacher and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schaefer spent Friday at Madison and also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Schultz.

—Among those from Kewaskum who tried their skill at deer hunting in the northern section of the state during the past week were: John Exta, Jack and James Andrae, Marvin Martin, Leo Vyvyan and William Windorf, Jr.

—New Eyes for Old, Bones Shortened to Order, Voices Manufactured and Other Modern Miracles of "Human Repairs" Explained in an Illustrated Article in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed With Next Sunday's SENTINEL.

Local Markets

Wheat ..... $ .80-1.00
Barley—old and new ..... $1.00-1.50
Oats ..... 42c
Beans in trade ..... 6c
Cow hides ..... 5c
Calf hides ..... 10c
Horse hides ..... $1.75-2.25
EGGS ..... 24-31-37c
Potatoes, per 100 lbs. .... $1.20-1.35

LIVE POULTRY

Leghorn hens ..... 94c
Heavy hens ..... 144c
Light hens ..... 104c
Old roosters ..... 10c
Ducks, colored ..... 12c
Ducks, young white ..... 11c
Leghorn broilers, light ..... 114c
Broilers, white and barred Rocks ..... 124c
..... 134c to 144c
Markets subject to change without notice.

Things To Consider

When Choosing a Bank

There is something more personal and confidential in banking transactions than in making ordinary purchases of merchandise.

Safety of funds, naturally, comes first. Such factors as high standard of service to customers, courteous attention to every detail, a willingness to co-operate and discuss your money affairs in confidence are also highly important.

In choosing this bank as YOUR bank, you find these all-important points of service at your command. We invite your business on a basis of banking strength, good management, considerate and courteous service—always!

BANK OF KEWASKUM
Kewaskum, Wis.

1936 CHRISTMAS 1936

SHOP LEISURELY—CHOOSE QUALITY

Christmas lists get harder to fill the longer you wait. Shop early and buy quality gifts, its not too early to choose now. Let us help you whether its an intimate gift for women or personal gifts for men or a gift for the home—one of our Radios. Shop early—we'll lay aside any gifts for you.

MRS. K. ENDLICH

Eyes Tested—Glasses Fitted
Wm. Endlich, Optometrist
JEWELER
Established 1906

AUCTION

On the old ZIORGEN HOMESTEAD now occupied by the undersigned and located on County Trunk M, 2 miles south of Myra, Washington County, 4 miles southwest of Newburg, 5 1/2 miles southeast of West Bend, 7 1/2 miles northwest of Cedarburg, Town of Trenton

Thursday, December 3rd, at noon
In case of bad weather on the above date, then sale will be held Friday, December 4, at noon

LIVESTOCK—10 Holstein and Guernsey Milch Cows, some fresh, others to freshen soon, all cattle T. B. and Bang's disease tested; 5 Holstein and Guernsey Yearling Heifers; Red Polled Bull, 1 yr. old; Holstein Bull, 1 yr. old; 5 good Work Horses; Chester White Boar, ready for service, good ttry boar; 6 Chester White Shoats; 50 White Rock Pullets; 50 Hens. MACHINERY—Large amount of Farm Machinery too numerous to mention FEED—100 bu. Oats, 10 ton Hay, 75 bu. Ear Corn, TERMS—Amounts of $10 and under, Cash. Over that amount credit of 3 and 6 months on approved notes bearing 6% interest from date of sale. ERNST AHNER

Art Quade, West Bend, Auctioneer

IGA SPECIALS

IGA CORN FLAKES, 11c
DILL PICKLES, 18c
ASSORTED BEVERAGES, 15c
WALNUTS, large budded, 25c
IGA TOMATO SOUP, 17c
SALAD DRESSING, 29c
DICED BEETS or CARROTS, 19c
IGA CAKE FLOUR, 23c
IGA GREEN ASPARAGUS, 25c
PEANUT BRITTLE, CHOCOLATE DROPS, BIG BEN JELLIES, YULETIDE MIXED, 10c
IGA CRANBERRY SAUCE, 15c

JOHN MARX

—Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klein of Hortonville, Mr. and Mrs. John Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Merzel of Oakfield, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thill, Mr. and Mrs. Christ. Mathder, 4th, Byron Martin. The door prize also went to lucky Mr. Schneider.
—Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Reinders and family and Mrs. Florence Reinders attended the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reinders in the town of Barton on Sunday.

KEWASKUM STATESMAN

D. J. HARBECK, Publisher
WM. J. HARBECK, Editor
Entered as second-class mail matter at the post office, Kewaskum, Wis.
SINGLE COPIES 5 CENTS

TERMS—$1.50 per year; 75c for six months. Advertising rates on application.

AROUND THE TOWN

Friday, Nov. 27, 1936

—Mrs. Irene Demler of West Bend spent Sunday at the Wm. F. Schultz home.

—Ray Zelmet, Raymond Smith and William Martin spent the week-end at Menasha.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bath were to Milwaukee Sunday where they visited with relatives.

—Mrs. William Stagy and Mrs. Henry Becker were West Bend visitors last Thursday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heisler of Theresa were visitors at the Louis Heisler home Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Art. Troedel of Milwaukee visited at the Wm. F. Schultz home on Saturday evening.

—Mrs. E. L. Morgenroth spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. John Sweeney at Chicago.

—Mrs. Mary Hutchison of Milwaukee spent several days this week at the home of Mrs. Henry Becker.

—Mrs. Fred Belger returned home Sunday after spending two weeks with her daughters at Fond du Lac.

—Mrs. Emil Backhaus and daughter Viola spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Backhaus at Markeean.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Sell and family were guests at the home of Mrs. Chas. Piper at Cascade Sunday.

—Give her an individual gift. Good selections of fine cedar chests at $3.95 to $26.50.—Miller Furniture Store.

—This week's winners at the schafskopf tournament held at the Lester Dreher tavern on Tuesday evening were as follows: 1st, Walter Schneider; 2nd, Alfred Kral; 3rd, Ray Klein; 4th, Byron Martin. The door prize also went to lucky Mr. Schneider.
—Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Reinders and family and Mrs. Florence Reinders attended the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reinders in the town of Barton on Sunday.

West Bend Theatre

Friday and Saturday,
Nov. 27 and 28
Adm. 10-25c; after 7 p. m. 10-30c
THE DIONNE QUINTUPLETS

"REUNION"

with Jean Hersholt, Slim Summerville, Rochelle Hudson, Robert Kent, John Qualen, Alan Dinehart
Added: Buster Keaton Comedy, Cartoon and 1-reel Novelty

Sunday, Nov. 29

Continuous show from 1:30 to 11.
Adm. 10-25c; after 6 p. m. 10-30c.

"3 Men on a Horse"

with Frank McHugh, Joan Blondell, Guy Kibben, Carol Hughes, Allen Jenkins
Added: Comedy, Cartoon and Latest News Reel

Monday and Tuesday,
Nov. 30 and Dec. 1

Adm. 10-25c; after 7 p. m. 10-30c
2-EXCITING FEATURES—2

"Without Orders"

with Sally Eilers, Robert Armstrong, Frances Sage, Charley Grapewin

ASSOCIATE ATTRACTION

"The Case of the Black Cat"

with Ricardo Cortez and June Travis

Wednesday & Thursday,
Dec. 2 and 3

Adm. 10-25c; after 7 p. m. 10-30c

"Sutter's Gold"

Starring EDWARD ARNOLD
with Lee Tracy, Binnie Barnes, Katharine Alexander and many others

Added: Technicolor Cartoon, Musical and News Reel

COMING—Dec. 6-7, "Tarzan Escapes;" Dec. 8, Sybil Jason in "The Captain's Kid;" Dec. 9-10, Katherine Hepburn in "A Woman Rebels;" Barbara Stanwyck in "Banjo on My Knee;" Eleanor Powell in "Born to Dance;" Edward Arnold in "Come and Get It"

MER MAC

Friday and Saturday,
Nov. 27 and 28

Adm. 10-25c; after 7 p. m. 10-30c

KEN MAYNARD in

"Avenging Waters"

SPECIAL ADDED CARTOON—"Scrappy's Puppet Show," 25

Scrapie Puppet Theatres will be given away free both nights after the first show. To the holders of the Luck Herald which will be distributed at the door each night—See trailer and lobby advertising for further information

Also Comedy, Musical featuring Claude Hopkins and Orchestra, Pathe Topics and Chapter 6 of "The Black Coin."

EBERLE'S BEER GARDEN

LUNCHEAS AT ALL HOURS
Specials on Saturday Evenings
LITHIA BEER ON TAP

Finest Liquors and Mixed Drinks

Buy Your Used Cars

on My Budget Plan
No Finance Charge or Interest.
10 Months' Time to Pay

ALL USED CARS
GUARANTEED

* K. A. HONECK

CHEVROLET GARAGE
KEWASKUM

M. L. MEISTER

ATTORNEY
Over Bank of Kewaskum
Office Hours: Thursdays 1-4:30 p. m.
Kewaskum, Wis.

Math. Schlaefel

OPTOMETRIST
Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted
Campbellsport, Wisconsin

FIVE CORNERS

By MISS RUTH SCHLEIF
Lester Schlieff transacted business at Fond du Lac Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Glass and son Frederick visited at Sunny Hillside on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Koepsel and daughters, Ruth and Alice, visited with relatives at Theresa Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Wolfe and family and Mrs. Anna Wornardt were dinner guests at the home of Fred Schlieff and family Sunday.

Miss Mildred Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meyer, suffered severe burns Sunday and was taken to the St. Agnes hospital at Fond du Lac.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Terfenden, son John and daughter Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prost visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schlieff and family.

Order the Statesman now!

With Our Neighbors

Items of Interest Taken From Our Exchanges Which May Prove of Value to Our Readers

CAMPAIGN AGAINST RAFFLES

FOND DU LAC—Co-operating with county and state officials, marketmen of Wisconsin have opened a campaign against poultry raffles, which are in direct violation of state laws. The raffles have been termed as "racketeering of underfed birds." Fond du Lac county officers have been ordered to arrest all promoters of raffles.

BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

CAMPBELLSPORT—Mrs. Jos. J. Smith sold her furniture store and funeral home to Arthur E. Berge of Valders, Wis. Mrs. Smith and L. G. Lyness will assist Mr. Berge. The new funeral home, which the late Mr. Smith started building in the summer, was completed recently. Mr. Smith was fatally hurt in an auto accident Sept. 23.

ASYLUM SELF-SUPPORTED

WEST BEND—For the 14th consecutive year the Washington County Asylum and Home have been self-sustaining, a report submitted by Mr. and Mrs. George Blank, superintendent and matron, respectively, and Trustees H. F. Schroeder, Chas. W. Walter, and Frank Salter reveals.

OVERHEAD OPEN TO TRAFFIC

LOMIRA—The Lomira overhead on Highway 67 was thrown open to traffic last week and many local folk got out their cars and took a spin over the huge structure, which is the second largest in the state. The project is complete with the exception of the lights and these will probably be installed in the near future.

MARSH SWEEP BY FIRE

HORICON—Several thousand acres of Horicon marsh including one estimate as high as 10,000, were swept by fire which raged for several hours on Sunday, Nov. 15. The fire was believed to have been started by a match from a careless rabbit hunter.

OBSERVE 60TH ANNIVERSARY

PLYMOUTH—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laack, well-known residents of Sheboygan county, who make their home with their daughter, Mrs. John Schroeder, in this city, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary last Wednesday afternoon and evening, when a company of relatives and friends were entertained in honor of the occasion.

POLICE RADIO NET VOTED

FOND DU LAC—County board members here voted to co-operate with Outagamie and Winnebago counties in setting up a police radio system for the lower Fox River valley. Wattage of the Winnebago county station will be increased and the other two counties will equip squad cars and motor bikes with receiving apparatus. Cost of the project to Fond du Lac county will be $3,320.

TWO HUNTING ACCIDENTS

HARTFORD—This region was the scene of two hunting accidents Sunday, Nov. 15, in which Peter Margraf, Rich. field, 25-year-old railroad section employee, received the contents of a shotgun in his right hip, and an unidentified Milwaukee lad, was shot in the eyes. Both were patients at St. Joseph's hospital, this city.

SLOT MACHINE DRIVE

CEDARBURG—By resolution the Ozaukee county board has asked the sheriff and district attorney to enforce laws governing slot machines and other gambling devices.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

WEST BEND—Saturday, Nov. 14, marked an auspicious milestone in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lueck, pioneer residents at the south end of Silver lake in the town of West Bend, for on that day they had the distinction of observing their golden wedding anniversary. The date also marked the 35th birthday of their son, Edmund.

DISPLAYS BLACK WIDOW SPIDER

CAMPBELLSPORT—In a shipment of goods recently received by Walter Lade from Terre Haute, Ind., a large black spider was found in the excelsior used in packing. Mr. Lade believes the spider is what is known as a "Black Widow" spider, a very poisonous species. Walter captured the big fellow and has it on display.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE KEWASKUM STATESMAN.

"London Okeh, but—"

NEW YORK... "London may have its attractions for Wally Simpson," smilingly stated Sally Simpson (above), as she landed here, "but here's one American girl glad to get home, to husband and baby."

work Hubby is Harry Joe Brown, movie director.

DOWN THE KEWASKUM SCHOOL LANE

STAFF:

Editor—Dorothy Becker
Assistant Editor—Laura Hirsig
Athletic Editor—Willard Prost
Humor—Orville Reysen
Typists—Jeannette Krautkramer and Ruth Mary Fleischmann
Special Editors—Marcella Prost, Lucille Backhaus, Lloyd Backhaus, Lloyd Schmidt, Marcella Heisler, Helen Rosenthal, Dorothy Smith, Doris Sell, Ruth Janssen, Rose Lecher, Jeanette Werner, Viola Hawig, Iris Bartel and Clarence Werner

EDITORIAL

The basketball season has rolled around again and the time for pep meetings has begun. Pep meetings! Parents, do you know what they are and the purpose they serve? When a team is representing its school, it wants to know that the student body is behind it. Before every game the students do their best to show their enthusiasm for the success of the team which is to perform a few hours later. When anyone is inspired, that feeling is clearly shown by the action and the tone of the person. So it is with the student body; they have the highest hopes that their team will do its best and they show this attitude with appropriate cheers, songs and programs. The amount of noise they make indicates pretty well how much they are behind their team. That's all a pep meeting is.

GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

The children in the primary room are dramatizing the story of "The Turkey That Ran Away."
The sixth grade social science class is studying about the Feudal Age.
The eighth grade is reviewing all the arithmetic they have had this year. The art class is making Christmas cards.

IN THE CLASSROOMS

The social problems class has begun the study of public health and how a community, through natural limitations, can determine its own death rate.

The American history class is completing the chapter on "The Completion of Our Independence," which deals with the Alien and Sedition Acts, the downfall of the Federalists, and the Louisiana Purchase.

We are also giving oral news reports on topics, taken from our weekly paper, the Scholastic.

Six-weeks exams are being conducted this week in all of the English classes.

Members of the senior English class are busy working on their topics. They have written to the Wisconsin Library Commission for information and also to other establishments where work in their certain field is carried on. One girl has written to Ellis Island, the "Gateway to the New World." Through Ellis Island must pass all immigrants who enter the United States through the port of New York.

Another girl has received information from Mexico from the National Railways of Mexico officials.

Still another has written to the Wrigley Company for information on the manufacture of gum.

The topics chosen by the seniors for further study are becoming more interesting with every bit of new information.

IN THE SPORT WORLD

The Kewaskum High school basketball team traveled to Brandon on Friday, November 20, and were defeated by a score of 19 to 5. The local boys played ragged and their shooting was very erratic, scoring only one field goal. They also were very ineffective from the free throw line, missing 14 free throws.

AROUND SCHOOL

The various grades are working on numbers to be presented as part of the annual Christmas program. The juniors are preparing a one-act play which will be the major part of the high school's contribution to the program.

The grade and high school teachers are spending the Thanksgiving recess at their respective homes.

Norbert Breitenbach has been absent for more than a week due to an injury to his leg, suffered when he fell in an excavation near his home. Claire and Bernard Horn, who formerly attended the Elmwood High school, enrolled with us on November 9, both as sophomores. We are happy to have these young men in our school.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is busily working on a number of songs which they will sing for the Christmas program. One hundred new song books have been purchased for the student body.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

THAT Arnold Schladwiler is Kewaskum's most important hair dresser? He practices on the girls in the freshmen class.

THAT Russell Belger has taken an interest in the farm, now that he has a girl friend living on one?

THAT Bernice Roden's hobby is dancing?

THAT Claudia Beisler is "it" in the freshmen class?

THAT Mr. Furlong asked a certain sophisticated sophomore where the potato beetle was first found, and that sophomore replied, "On the potato?"

THAT Fred Dorn actually asked two girls to dance at a recent party?

THAT the two-day vacation is appreciated by all the students?

THAT a certain senior girl just simply "can't take it"?

THAT Marcella Heisler is still interested in newspaper work? (How can she help it?)

THAT a certain junior boy from Wayne has taken a fancy to a certain dark-haired, brown-eyed junior girl? (Are we right, Porky?)

THAT the students must either decide to rule themselves or they shall be governed by dictators. (Have you met our Hitler?)

Cedar Lawn at Elmore

By JOHN L. GUXED

H. C. Johnson is hauling hay for Burr Kniekel this week.

O. W. Heldt of Campbellsport looked after business here Monday.

Herman Sann of North Eden called on the Burr Kniekel family recently.

Jack Franey of Milwaukee is visiting his brother, Tom Franey and family.

Mrs. Florence Kniekel visited her son, Burr Kniekel and family here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Abel attended the grocers' banquet at Oshkosh on Thursday.

Mrs. Rose Dieringer and son Irving transacted business at Kewaskum on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Hauser attended a devotional meeting last week at Milwaukee.

The village school will be closed on Thursday and Friday for its Thanksgiving vacation.

Tom Franey's dog unfortunately was fatally run over by an automobile last Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Kniekel spent Sunday with the Irving Odekirk family at South Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Stannick Lucky and son and daughter of West Bend were entertained at the home of Rose Dieringer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schrauth and children of Random Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jaeger of Ashford were guests at the Ed. Rauch home Sunday.

Fortunately, Thanksgiving being on Thursday, November 26th, in keeping with the observance of Mrs. John L. Guxed's birthday, which is Nov. 26th.

Mr. M. J. Weis of here left Tuesday morning for Evansville, Indiana, for a visit at the home of his childhood days, including those of his parents, relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Becker, son Wayland and daughter, Mrs. Louis Sabish, and Mrs. Bartel Becker left Monday for Ellsworth, Wisconsin, where they attended the funeral of a near relative.

WINS SPELLING CONTEST

Miss Laura Geldel, a pupil of the Elmore school, recently won first place in Ashford township in a spelling contest held at Campbellsport.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Mrs. Bertha Mueller of Milwaukee, a former farm resident of this immediate vicinity, passed away. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. H. Mott at Milwaukee. Burial took place in the family lot on Friday, Nov. 20th, in the Elmore cemetery.

GAMBLING CLEANED UP

FOND DU LAC—Acting on signed complaints filed at his office, Sheriff G. W. Booth raided several roadhouses in the rural districts of the county over the week-end and seized all gambling devices that he could find. Most of the slot machines and other gambling devices which have been in operation in the city and county are now removed, officials said.

Hog supplies will be short until about 1940 in the estimation of the Washington Business Week Bureau. High prices for meats, it predicts, will reduce the per capita consumption and cause a shift in consumer eating habits.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE KEWASKUM STATESMAN.

NEW PROSPECT

By MRS. J. P. UELMEN

Edward Nehring of Chicago and Earl Bartel of Kewaskum were callers in the village Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Uelmen spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Uelmen at Campbellsport.

Mrs. Augusta Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Uelmen visited Sunday with Mrs. Mary Uelmen at Campbellsport.

Mrs. Wm. F. Schulz and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker of Kewaskum, spent Sunday with relatives at Oshkosh.

Charles and August Krueger of Clintonville visited Friday with their aunt, Mrs. Augusta Krueger, and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sook and son Ellis of Wauconsta visited Sunday with Mrs. Sook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bartel.

Mr. and Mrs. August Jandre were Fond du Lac business callers Tuesday.

Gust and Emil Flitter of Wauconsta spent Sunday with the John Tunn family.

Mrs. Clara Schultz, son Archie and Mr. and Mrs. Schowhouser of Waukesha spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Romagne and the Richard Trapp family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jandre and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trapp, son Gerald and daughters Virginia and Marilyn and Mr. and Mrs. August Jandre and son Harvey attended the eightieth birthday anniversary celebration of Grandpa Jandre at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Backhaus, at Elmore Tuesday evening.

Careless smokers started more fires in forests last year than were started by railroads, logging, and debris burning; more than three times the number caused by carelessly left campfires; and more than three times the number set by lightning.

More turkeys for the table at favorable prices were available this Thanksgiving than was true a year ago in the estimate of the Wisconsin Crop Reporting Service. There are about 15 percent more Wisconsin turkeys and about 30 percent more in the nation.

Subscribe for the home paper now!

New Baseball Mogul

ST. LOUIS... Above is Donald Barnes, head of a syndicate which now owns the St. Louis American League baseball club, the Browns. Barnes announces that Rogers Hornsby will be retained as manager of the club for 1937.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE KEWASKUM STATESMAN.

County Agent Notes

FARMERS URGED TO SEND SAMPLES FOR TESTING

Madison—Farmers and local dealers were urged today by A. L. Stone, director of seed and weed control of the department of agriculture and markets, to send samples of any seed they wish to have tested as soon as possible to the State Seed Laboratory, Agronomy Building, here.

"During the months of February, March and April, as many as 100 or more samples come in daily, with the result that even with 10 or more employees at work in the laboratory, it is almost impossible to take care of them rapidly enough to give satisfactory service to the senders," Stone said.

STATE FAIR HAS TWO SUCCESSFUL YEARS

Madison—Two most successful years in history are reported for the Wisconsin State Fair in the biennial statement made today to the Department of Agriculture and Markets by Ralph E. Ammon, manager of the state fair.

These years were the most successful in both attendance records and net profits. "In fact," Ammon reports, "they are the only years in the 86 which the state fair has held that a net profit has been shown without the use of any state appropriations in the operation of the fair."

No state appropriation was used for either the 1935 or 1936 operating budgets of the state fair. After paying all bills including more than $85,000 in premiums to the farmers of the state, the fair will show a net profit of $21,000, which, added to the premiums paid, brings the total operating profit above $100,000 for the biennium.

A new all-time attendance mark was set in 1935 with 361,148 admissions. This mark was shattered in 1936 with an attendance of 429,146. The high mark previous to 1935 was in 1920 with a 327,394 attendance.

Record exhibits in all livestock departments and many other departments of the fair were also reported for 1936.

THIS YEAR MORE FEED CAN BE PURCHASED

Although feed costs are somewhat higher this year, more feed can be purchased with a hundred pounds of milk than during the months following the drought of 1934, the crop reporting service of the Wisconsin and United States departments of agriculture stated today.

While feed costs have declined slightly since the drought months this summer, the average cost of a thousand pounds of Wisconsin dairy ration during October was $17.52, compared with $16.01 for October, 1934. The average price received for milk sold by Wisconsin farmers last month was 53 cents per hundred pounds higher than October of 1934.

AGENT'S OFFICE KEPT BUSY TESTING SAMPLES OF SOIL

During the past week the County Agent's office has been kept quite busy testing samples of soil for acidity and phosphorous content. More than 250 samples have been tested, of which more than one-half showed a decided need for lime. This soil testing service is given Washington county farmers without charge. Any farmer wishing to have acidity tests of his soil made should gather a number of samples of each field he wishes tested, and bring them to the County Agent's office.

Anyone wishing to purchase agricultural lime is urged to telephone or write the County Agent's office. When the present supply of orders has been filled the pulverizer will be moved to a new location. Agricultural lime will be delivered to your farms, if the distance does not exceed ten miles, for $1.25 per ton. The lime may be applied during the winter months.

BANG'S DISEASE TESTING

The office will gladly assist any farmer wishing to sign up for the Bang's Disease Testing program. Many farmers prefer to have their herds tested during the winter season, and are now sending in their applications.

PLAN FOR COUNTY-WIDE WINTER FARM MEETING

Plans are now being made for holding a county-wide farm management meeting during the winter months. A definite date for this meeting is to be announced in the near future. Such meetings are designed to help the farmer in organizing his farm business for greater profit. Also to acquaint him with the present farm credit situation. The meetings will be held in the afternoon.

Farm management studies in several counties in the state reveal the fact that many farmers are trying to carry on under too heavy a debt load. Information is now available as to the size of farm business desirable to meet a maximum debt load, the effects of diversification of income on farm profits, and what production must be maintained to make a successful farm business.

The lamb crop was 9 percent larger in 1936 than a year earlier. All of the increase occurred in the western sheep states. Although lamb prices will be strengthened somewhat in the next few years by the small total supplies of livestock for slaughter, they will probably be affected much less than prices of hogs and cattle.

After declining during the drought months of the past summer, the Wisconsin farm price of milk cows is again rising, and has now reached about the level reported in the early months of the year, according to the state crop reporting service.

Twenty-five Years Ago

November 25, 1911

A very pretty wedding took place on Tuesday at the St. Michael's church when Miss Elizabeth Schneider and Jacob Schladwiler, both of St. Michael's, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Last Saturday afternoon at 4:30, Rev. Greve united in holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Emma Stark and Mr. A. Honeck, both of the town of Kewaskum.

On the occasion of her 18th birthday anniversary, Miss Beinda Backhaus entertained a number of her friends at her home last Saturday evening. The evening was very pleasantly spent in singing. A number of songs were rendered by the Misses Gots and Backhaus. Those present were: Miss Groth, Adela Dahlie, Jeanette Schuler, Alma Schlieff and Messrs. Nicholas Stoffel, Oscar Kocher, Peter Haag, Alfred Schoetz and Peter Hillert.

The Athens Society of the Kewaskum public school has arranged the following program for November 29th, in the main room of the school building. Music, by the school; declamation, John Strachota; recitation, Irene Peters; declamation, Math. Beisler; no solo, Elma Groeschel; recitation, Hilda Weddiger; reading, Emma Wittberg; declamation, Laura Brandstetter; music, Maurice Rosenstamm; music, song by the school; declamation, Theodore Schmidt; declamation, Alphonse Rosenheimer; declamation, Willy Kethen; recitation, Rose Ortmann; music, song by the school.

DUNDEE

By MRS. E. G. ROETHKE

Anton Seifert and Mrs. Norma Seifert spent Tuesday in Milwaukee.

Miss Marie Uelmen of Fond du Lac spent Saturday and Sunday with her folks.

Mrs. Emma Seefeld entertained her children and their families at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Paik and family of Milwaukee spent the week-end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ludwig of Milwaukee spent the week-end with the Vilas Ludwig family.

Miss Ileen Gilroy of Milwaukee spent from Friday until Sunday with her father, Edward Gilroy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schiemer of Cascade visited Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. James Mulvey.

Teddy Koenigs of Campbellsport spent the week-end with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kruger.

The Messrs. Claude Cough, Henry and William Q. Jidrow and Erva Lath, both of Milwaukee spent Sunday with C. W. Baetz.

Mr