John Klumpjan Tell of Experience Aboard Ship Afire at Sea on Return Here From Germany

John Klumpjan, cousin of the late John Klumpjan, who was killed in the town of Auerswald, Germany, where they were on a ship, told of his experience aboard the ship on its return here from Germany. Klumpjan was on the ship with his wife and two children. The ship was on fire and they were in the water for several hours. Klumpjan was rescued by a lifeboat and he and his family were taken to a safe place. Klumpjan was injured and he and his family were in the hospital for several days. Klumpjan was discharged from the hospital and he and his family returned home. Klumpjan was very grateful for the help he received from the people of Kewaskum. Mrs. Kneuppel Injured in Fall Down Stairway

Mrs. Elizabeth Kneuppel, who resides on West Water street in this village, was painfully injured at about 7 a. m. on Monday morning as she was descending the basement stairway in her home, to do her weekly washing when she was seized with a dizzy spell and fell down the steps. She managed to crawl upstairs to an outside doorway where her moaning attracted the attention of Bob Romaine, a nearby resident, who was passing by on his way to work. He came to her assistance and, after summoning other neighbors, helped her into the house. A physician was called to give medical aid and in the afternoon she was removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital in West Bend for x-ray pictures which disclosed a fracture of the right pelvic bone and back injuries. It is possible Mrs. Kneuppel's back may also be broken although up to Wednesday evening the x-rays failed to reveal her misfortune to that extent. Mrs. Kneuppel is believed to have twisted her body in an attempt to keep from falling and this accounted for the injuries to the back and pelvic bone. However, it is hoped for the best. The injured woman suffered intense pain at first but is now resting quite comfortably at the hospital but it will be several weeks before she can return home.

St. Bridget's Church Is Scene of Wedding

St. Bridget's Catholic church in the town of Wayne was the scene of the marriage of a popular young couple at 9 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 29, when Miss Isabelle Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Campbell of the town of Kewaskum, became the bride of Albert A. Karius, son of Mrs. Caroline Karius of the town of Polk. The Rev. Philip J. Vogt of this village, pastor, officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Miles Campbell.

The bride was attired in a long fitted, white, non-crushable gown with train and leg-of-mountain sleeves. The gown was trimmed with pearls. Her veil, trimmed with Irish lace, fell from a pearl crown and her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and baby mums. The maid of honor attending the bride was Miss Florence Karius, niece of the bridegroom. Miss Florence Westerman, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Both wore non-crushable velvet gowns with diamond hats and veils to match and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Cyrus Campbell, brother of the bride, and Joseph Karius, nephew of the groom, as groomsmen. The ushers were Edward Westerman, cousin of the bride, and Anthony Karius, brother of the groom. Two nieces of the groom, the Misses Bernadette Hahn and Arlene Karius were flower girls.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner and supper were served at the home of the bride's parents, where 70 guests were entertained. In the evening a wedding dance was held at the Lighthouse ballroom, which was attended by about 600 relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Karius left on a honeymoon trip to unknown destination. Upon their return they will be at home after Nov. 15 on the groom's farm in the town of Polk.

Cong. Reilly Opposes Keefe in Talk Here

Congressman M. K. Reilly, candidate for re-election, in a campaign speech at the Democratic rally held in the Kewaskum Opera House last Saturday evening spoke in part as follows: "My Republican opponent, Frank B. Keefe, is continually telling the farmers in his speeches of the deplorable condition they are in as the result of a Democratic administration in Washington.

"Of course the farmers today are not as prosperous as they ought to be but they are a great deal more prosperous than they were when Mr. Roosevelt took office.

"I have before me a publication issued by the department of agriculture under date of October, 1938, which gives the net farm income since 1928. Now listen—in 1929 the farmers had a net income of $8,120,000,000 and in 1932 that income had shrunk to $2,742,000,000. In 1937 under Democratic rule, the farm income had risen to over $7,000,000,000 a year, or about an increase of 270 per cent; and in 1938 it is estimated that the farmers of the country will get over $3,000,000,000 more for their crops than they received in 1932.

"It is true that we imported in 1938 agricultural products to the amount of a billion and a half but it is also true that during the five year period 1925-'29 (Republican rule) we imported $2,286,000,000 more farm products than we exported, while in the last five years 1934-1938 we imported only $1,768,000,000 of farm products more than we exported.

"In other words, while Mr. Keefe is talking about the destruction of the home market, for our farmers, why doesn't he tell the farmers of our country that the last five years under Democratic rule they have had $500,000,000 less competition from foreign countries than they had in the Republican years 1924-1929.

"Most farm prices are too low today but low can be a candidate for office honestly tell the farmers that they are worse off in 1938 than they were in 1932 when their crops will bring them over $2,000,000,000 more cash than their crops brought them in 1932.

"Listen to Edward O'Neill, president of the American Farm Bureau (September 1938): 'Innumerable editorials in the Metropolitan Press have charged the farm program with failure because of low prices, but the farmer is better this year by a great margin than he was in 1932 when markets seemed literally bottomless.'

"Recent reports sent out by the department of commerce tell us that we are exporting this year, 1938, a billion dollars more of products of our farms and factories than we will import from foreign countries. It would appear from the records that our farmers and laborers are grabbing so to speak, much more of the home markets of foreign farmers and foreign laborers than we are giving away, as they say. Farmers have always been prosperous and our industries have been prosperous and our country when the balance of trade was in our favor.

"The statement that Mr. Roosevelt or his administration has sold the American farmer and the laboring man down the river is pure political bunk."

SURPRISED ON FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Martin were pleasantly surprised by a gathering of some fifty relatives at their home in the village Saturday evening in celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary. HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Cleaning Oven Dishes.—Marks on fireproof oven dishes can be removed by rubbing with common salt while the dish is still hot.

Care of Gas Stove.—To prevent a gas stove from rusting rub the entire inside with a flannel cloth which has been saturated with sweet oil.

Bright Silverware.—When your silverware becomes tarnished, place it in potato water and let it stand one hour. Take out and wash and it will look like new.

Keeping Mustard Moist.—Dry mustard mixed with milk instead of water will not dry out but will keep moist until it has all been used.

Table Linen.—To keep white table linen from turning yellow, wrap it in a fast-color blue paper.

For Cutting Bacon.—Bacon is such a messy thing to cut up when you're wanting it in bits for an omelet or waffle batter. Use the kitchen scissors, which do the job speedily, easily and tidily.

Try Vinegar.—Wipe the pantry shelves with a cloth dipped in vinegar. It gives a fresh and pleasant atmosphere to the larder and repels flies.

The Singing Kettle.—When a coal stove is used it is foolish to allow the teakettle to be empty at any time. One always can find a use for boiling or very hot water.

Avocation Into Vocation

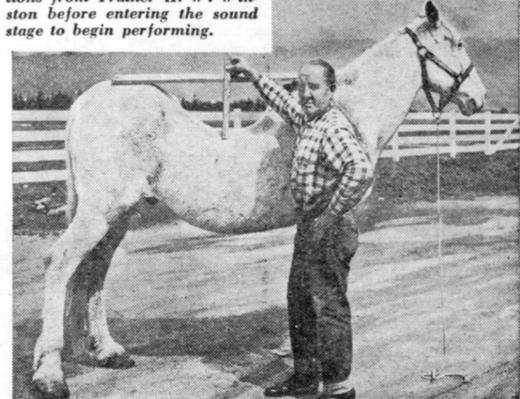

Picture Parade

Whether Hollywood producers need doubles for dangerous roles, or insects or animals for atmosphere, their wants can be supplied at almost a moment's notice. This constant striving for reality has made vocations out of many an avocation. Imitators find a ready market—when needed—for their specializations. Collectors can rent out their menageries, early vintage or imported cars and other objects needed for "props" or "gags" in colossal or just spectacular productions. Jack Lipsen (above) is the man with the thumb that is the envy of all hitch-hikers. It brings him $50 a day when used as a comedy gag, which isn't bad money for wearing a finger around.

Above, S. W. Allman, who gathers bats, spiders, bugs and snakes, examines part of his collection of tarantulas. At one time he had a call for a dozen big bats from a producer who didn't want to make a $400 trip to Arizona for them. Allman visited a mine near Los Angeles and returned with eight bats, renting them for $5 a piece. Right, Slicker, the trained seal, gets final instructions from Trainer H. W. Winston before entering the sound stage to begin performing.

No spine where the spine should be... Lionel Comport, whose specialty is supplying waybacked horses for "gag" purposes, wears the spine dip of one of his equine freaks. From top to bottom, it's an 11 1/2-inch drop. Nature, it seems, has provided this nag with its own saddle, bringing Mr. Comport $15 a day for his rental.

Two more different ways of earning a livelihood in a Hollywood. Mary Wiggins (left) examines the scrapbook filled with pictures of some of the stunts in which she has taken part. She thinks nothing of running a motorcycle through a fence, and her specialty is high and fire diving. Right, Cliff Jones shows some of the grasshoppers he rounded up for a "plague" scene. He gathered 35 barrels of the bugs, each containing 200,000 grasshoppers.

Floyd Gibbons' ADVENTURERS' CLUB

HEADLINES FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF!

"Dogged by Danger"

HELLO EVERYBODY: All John Gerien wants is a job that's safe. He tried out two jobs, but they were too hazardous. Old Lady Adventure stepped in and spoiled both of them for him. Now he's working at the safest job there is. That's what John thinks. Well, after seeing what happened to him on his other jobs, maybe he's right in his own case. Anyway, let's get on with the story and see how he made out with his first two.

In the beginning John wasn't worried about safety. He hadn't even started thinking about it when he signed up in the year 1917 to learn the trade of ironworker. He worked at that until the summer of 1922, and that year found him roaming around on the gaunt, iron framework of a skyscraper in Newark, N. J.

Plunged From Fourteenth Floor. John was on the fourteenth floor of that building. From where he stood he could look down clear to the cellar and see nothing but the large board that stuck out from each floor—boards that were there to set kegs of rivets on. He was looking at those boards just a few minutes before lunch time. Then the whistle blew and all hands ran for the lift to get down to the earth and eat.

John ran just a bit too fast this time. He missed his step and plunged over the side. Down he went. At the thirteenth floor he passed one of those protruding boards. A large nail sticking out from the end of it caught him on the jaw and ripped his face open clear to the temple. And then on he went again.

He passed the twelfth floor without even hesitating, but eleven was his lucky number. At the eleventh floor another protruding plank caught the straps of his overalls, and there he hung, with nothing but a couple of thin cloth bands saving him from a death plunge to the basement. Men came running from all over the framework, but there was little they could do for John. The plank would just about hold his weight—that was all. If anyone tried to walk out to get him, the board would break and then two men would hurtle to their deaths instead of one.

Somebody turned in a fire alarm, and the firemen worked out the problem. They rushed to the tenth floor and spread a fire net under the spot where John hung. An ironworker, armed with a long knife, crept out as far as he dared on the rickety board and cut John's overalls. Down John plopped into the net. "And that," he says, "finished me with ironworking."

Decided to Look for "Safe" Job. John went to the hospital with a badly torn face. When he got out he began to think of another job—and this time it was going to be a safe one. The safest one he could find was driving a milk wagon. What danger could there be in that. A bottle of milk never bit anybody. If it could, they wouldn't feed so much of it to babies. It was as simple as falling off a log—and a darned sight safer than falling off skyscrapers.

For two weeks it was fine. John didn't mind jumping out of the wagon every 10 or 15 feet to run in with a bottle of milk because it gave him a chance to get his feet on the ground, and that was a swell, comforting feeling. He was having the time of his life until one day, when he was just finishing up, he pulled into the railroad yard to load his empty bottles on a freight car. Then, half way to the yards, one of the hitching straps broke. The horse bolted.

Says John: "Nothing was holding the wagon away from the horse. When I pulled on the reins to try to stop him, the wagon would run into him and that would make him run all the faster. We shot through traffic and into the freight yard, and as we came to the yard I could see that the crossing gates were down. If I let him go, he would crash through those gates and right into the path of a moving train."

For a minute, John thought of jumping. Then he ruled that out. In the first place, jumping wasn't such a safe trick with the horse streaking along at what must have been a 30-mile an hour speed. And in the second place, he couldn't quite see the justice of leaving that poor fear-crazed horse to dash to his death without trying his best to save him.

They were half way to the crossing gate then, but John took a chance. He climbed out on the front of the wagon and started talking to the horse. He had seen fear-crazed horses calmed down before by a few reassuring words, but this horse wasn't to be talked out of anything. He ran on, faster than ever.

Played His Last Trump Card. John climbed back to the seat. That in itself was a feat. If you think it's any joke to move around in a wagon drawn by a runaway horse, just try it some time. John got back all right, but by the time he did, the horse was within 10 feet of the crossing. Then John played his last trump card. He dropped the rein, seized the other in both hands, and pulled with all his might. The bit dug into the horse's mouth and turned her sharply to the right. The wagon swerved, skidded along on two wheels, and then over it went, dumping bottles all over the place, and dumping John out on top of the bottles.

John lay on the ground, out cold. He woke up in the hospital with two broken ribs and a broken arm. Milk wagon driving a safe job? Bolony!

Then John stopped fooling around and got himself a job that really was safe. And if you ever walk around a corner and run into a cop spending a quiet evening shooting it out with a bank robber or a stick-up artist—well—maybe it's John. He's on the police force now.

Follow These Exercises to Keep Figure

By PATRICIA LINDSAY © Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

WHY is it necessary for the modern woman to use an artificial method to strengthen her muscles and to promote good health? It is because our manner of living offers almost no opportunity to use the larger, important muscles of the body—the abdominal, back and thigh muscles.

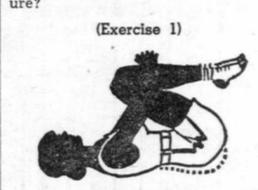

We live inactive lives. We travel by motor or train more than we walk. We do our housework with electrical aids or have servants do it for us. Most office jobs demand eight hours of sitting and frequently in poor posture. Selling work in stores requires the over-use of the legs and feet. Sewing, writing, bridge and many other so-called activities are actually inactivities!

Games No Substitute. You probably think that recreational sports such as tennis, bowling, badminton, golf and riding are sufficient exercise. But they are not. They stimulate the body through increased circulation and allow the skin pores to secrete waste but they do not build the body symmetrically because they are "one-sided." Seldom is a woman adept in using both her right hand and her left hand in sports.

Walking can be an excellent activity if it is done on soil which allows a spring to the step and if the body is carried with good posture at a steady pace and if you wear loose clothing and correct walking shoes. Swimming is the exception in recreational sports. It exercises all the muscles of the body providing no one stroke is overpracticed, and it develops the body symmetrically and beautifully.

These Exercises Will Help

So, you see, unless you can swim daily it becomes quite necessary for you to resort to corrective exercises if you desire good health and a supple body. Exercises that will offset the ravages of our sedentary, inactive living. Here are two for firming the vital abdominal muscles, or in other words, for flattening your tummy! Why not begin scientifically to develop a pleasing figure?

(Exercise 1) For Stout Woman

Lie flat on your back, arms at sides—parallel with body. Bend knees back to abdomen. Then pull knees with clasped hands back to chest, gradually raising the hips from floor three to four inches. Lower hips—keeping knees bent. Repeat four times and relax. Repeat not more than 12 times each day.

(Exercise 2) For Thin Woman with Protruding Abdomen

Sit on floor with legs wide apart and knees slightly relaxed. Place hands palm downward just behind hips for support. Now push your abdomen out, to right, back, to left—making a complete circle such as you would in a Hula-Hula dance! As you circle consciously tighten the muscles. Circle five times without stopping. Relax. Circle five times in opposite direction. Circle twenty times in all.

HINT-OF-THE-DAY

If you are the nervous, high-strung type of individual, why not learn to relax your way to poise. Take things easy. Rest. Exercise to relax only. Stop worrying.

It is never the thoroughly relaxed person who suffers from insomnia. Lack of sleep is usually a symptom of a harried mind or a nervous disorder. Much can be done to overcome insomnia.

Regular sleeping hours are quite necessary. Make it a habit to retire the same hour and to arise the same hour until you are relaxed.

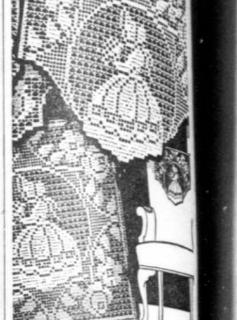

Do not overeat or eat too fast. Both are likely to give you restless nights. You can skip a meal a day if you wish. Or substitute for two meals each day, a glass of milk every four hours and glasses of fruit juices in between.

Do not resort to nerve sedatives unless your physician advises them for you.

Birthplace of General Sheridan The birthplace of Gen. Philip H. Sheridan was for some time a disputed point. Some historians said Albany, N. Y., some said on board the vessel while his parents were coming over from Ireland, and some said Somerset, Ohio. He was born in Albany.

Call 1848 'Year of Revolutions' Historians refer to 1848 as the "year of revolutions" because of the numerous uprisings which occurred that year throughout Europe.

Dogs for the Blind

The education for a guide dog involves three separate courses of instruction—one for the dog, one for the teacher, one for the dog itself. One for the dog's blind master. It takes four years to make an instructor. The animals selected are nearly all German shepherds. Males are used almost exclusively because they are less excitable, tractable, and must have eyesight and good hearing. Guide dogs start to school at 14 months. She is taught to stop at curbs, to lead her teacher around obstructions and to watch that the head does not strike anything.

WHAT to EAT and WHY

C. Houston Goudiss Describes Food Value and Versatility of Gelatin; Outlines Its Many Uses in the Diet

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS

WHEN we try to appraise the nutritional values of any one food in comparison with others, as a rule we have a difficult task. Most foodstuffs are composed of so many different substances that what is lacking in one will be supplied by another, and making comparisons may therefore be misleading as well as futile. But there is one food which is outstanding, not only because it is far less complex than most others, but because it is no exaggeration to say that without it, some of us might not be alive, and those of us who are alive would obtain far less enjoyment from our daily existence.

That food is gelatin!

What is Gelatin?

Gelatin is a protein food which has no equal as a carrier, binder and "extender" of a wide variety of other nutritive materials. Chemically, it is classed as a colloid, which means that in solution, it can be removed from its solvent by filtration. It is because of this that it is so useful in producing smooth, delicious ice creams and other dainties, free from ice crystals.

Gelatin is an almost pure protein—a kind of protein known as an albuminoid. It is not a complete protein, because it is deficient in three of the amino acids that are necessary both to support growth and repair body tissues. In this it differs from meat, cheese, fish, eggs and milk, which are known as complete proteins.

It cannot be used as the sole source of protein in the diet, because those three missing amino acids are necessary for the formation of new body tissue. But it is especially rich in lysine, one of the protein building stones that is particularly important in the diet of children. Experiments indicate that no other amino acid can take the place of lysine and that it must be furnished by the food if adequate nutrition is to be maintained.

That coupled with the fact that it is non-irritating and easily digestible accounts for the large part it plays in the diet of infants and young children.

How It Is Made

Contrary to old wives' tales, gelatin is not made from hoofs and horns. In fact, there is no gelatin in hoofs or horns. It is extracted from connective tissue in the skins and from the bones of food animals.

Every homemaker who has made soup by simmering a knuckle bone for hours, and has found the soup "jellied" after standing overnight in the refrigerator, has prepared gelatin on a small scale. The same principles are followed by the gelatin manufacturer, only he operates in a

Building, Maintaining Healthy Teeth

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS It is an alarming fact almost every adult in this great land of ours is affected by some form of oral disease, and that more than 90 per cent of our school children have decayed teeth. A prominent medical authority made the statement that if dental decay became rare, instead of almost universal, more than half of all sickness would be eliminated.

Remarkable and widely heralded advances have been made in our knowledge of how to control and prevent many dangerous and debilitating diseases. A decayed tooth is a poison factory, distributing its noxious product to every part of the body. In the body, that poison attacks and centers in the weakest spot. It may lead to neuritis, rheumatic ailments, dyspepsia, or duodenal ulcers. It may even be a contributing cause of heart disease.

Only a small percentage of our population is yet aware of the far-reaching effects of teeth upon health. There is a close relationship between health, teeth and healthy bodies, and between decayed teeth and sickly bodies.

By learning something of the importance of caring properly for the teeth, some men and women of middle age look and feel younger than their parents did at the same age.

I have endeavored in many of the WHAT TO EAT AND WHY articles, which have appeared in this newspaper over my signature, to point out the close relationship between diet and dental disease; between frequent and thorough brushing of the teeth with an efficient dentifrice so as to remove all food particles, and strong, beautiful teeth.

I have received many letters from readers of these articles, showing that homemakers are eager for sound, authoritative advice on the proper care of the teeth. To help these and other readers to know how to properly care for their teeth, I have prepared a booklet on BUILDING AND MAINTAINING HEALTHY TEETH which I am offering FREE, because I feel so strongly that this information should be in every home, knowing as I do, that the salvation of the human race may lie in saving their teeth. Address, C. Houston Goudiss, 210 S. Desplains St., Chicago, Ill.

Safety First "You young ruffian!" exclaimed the old lady, indignantly. "What do you mean by standing there throwing stones at that little boy?" "I'm scared to go any closer, lady," came the reply. "That kid's got th' measles."

Not Himself Rastus—Yo' ain't yo' self no more? Sick or sumpin'? Mose—Got insomnia. Keep wak'ing up every few days.—Atlanta Constitution.

raw vegetables, such as carrots and cabbage, or the tart flavor of some fruits, may likewise be modified by serving them in a gelatin base.

And it doesn't require statistics from nursery schools to tell mothers how readily children eat gelatin desserts when they are brilliant with color and flavored with orange, raspberry, cherry, strawberry or other well liked flavors. Every mother knows this from her own experience—and I rather suspect that many mothers describe these attractive molded desserts as the prize to be won in return for cleaning the plate of the main course!

In the Reducing Diet Both men and women who are counting their calories, in an effort to avoid overweight, or to reduce, can profit by taking gelatin salads and desserts, which satisfy hunger without providing unwanted fuel value.

In cases of digestive disturbance, gelatin is frequently recommended because of its bland taste, and because it leaves no residue in the lower intestinal tract.

This same splendid food is also advised by doctors when a high protein diet is desired to speed growth, or during convalescence from an illness. Gelatin may be added to broths, milk, fruit and vegetables, and these, in turn, may be incorporated in solidified gelatin.

Indeed, this many-sided foodstuff has come to play such a wide and varied role in nutrition, not only by itself but by enhancing the value of other foods, that it must be numbered among the products that help to increase national health and vigor.

Questions Answered

Mrs. S. B. L.—Even in the so-called goiter belt, simple goiter may usually be prevented by the administration of small amounts of iodine to every young girl, before and during adolescence, and also to expectant and nursing mothers. The amount required is quite small and may be given by a physician in the form of iodized salt.

New All-Day-Long Dresses

THESE two designs are so good looking and slim-lined that you'll enjoy wearing them for shopping and runabout as well as at home. Make whichever one you like the best not only in such sturdy cottons as percale and calico, but in challis, jersey or flat crepe. In warm wintry colors, with fresh white accents, they'll look extremely pretty and smart. Both are easy to make as boiled dressing. Each pattern includes a detailed sew chart.

Buttoned Down the Front. This softened version of the classic shirtwaist has fullness over the bust and a slight blouse at the waistline, which makes it easy to wear as well as to work in. The skirt has a nice flare to it. Shrugged shoulder sleeves and white cuffs and collar add to the crisp, smart look, and make it more becoming. You'll find the capacious patch pockets very handy!

For Large Figures. Here's one of the most becoming and comfortable work dresses you ever had on, if you're in the 36 to 52 size range. Every detail is designed to give you freedom of movement, and to make you look thin. The armholes are ample. The darted waistline looks slim without being tight, and it blouses just a bit for greater ease. The scalloped front, braid-trimmed edges and white collar (with long lines, becoming to full faces) trim it up just enough. This is a diagram design, so you can turn off half a dozen of it in no time!

The Patterns. 1618 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 40 and 42. With long sleeves, size 18 requires 4 3/4 yards of 39-inch material; 3/4 yard for contrasting collar and cuffs; 2 yards of braid. With short sleeves 4 1/4 yards.

1624 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 38 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39-inch material; 3/4 yard for contrasting collar; 3 yards braid for trimming.

Bowling in Ireland Bowling in Ire is done on the open roadway and bears no resemblance to the more sedate variety popular in America.

In Ire it is a game of strength as well as skill. Usually two men from widely separated places are the contestants, each being backed by the entire population of his own town. The course is of three to four miles in length, the idea being to negotiate the distance to an agreed-upon public house in the fewest number of throws, using a 26-ounce iron ball. The best of the bowlers can throw the heavy ball about 70 yards with an additional roll of about 100 yards. Often the contestants play across corners or even over houses to shorten the distance.

The Fords Tell Their Plans for 1939

IF WE KNEW anything better we could do for the country than make good motor cars, we would do it.

By every one doing his best in the job he thinks most useful, this country is going to regain its momentum. We have tried to do our best in our job.

When business was suddenly halted in its recovery more than a year ago, we determined that we should keep going anyway, if not at full-volume motor car production, then at getting ready for greater motor car values that would help future production.

EXPANDING FOR THE FUTURE

We began to build 34 million dollars' worth of new plants and equipment. We felt that if we could not employ all our men building motor cars, we would employ as many as we could building better production facilities.

We were told, of course, that this was no time for expansion, that a wiser business policy would be to "hold everything"—which means, stop everything. But no one ever got anywhere standing still.

Besides, we are not defeatists. We do not believe this country has seen its best days. We believe this country is yet in the infancy of its growth. We believe that every atom of faith invested in our Country and our People will be amply justified by the future. We believe America is just beginning. Never yet have our People seen real Prosperity. Never yet have we seen adequate Production. But we shall see it! That is the assurance in which we have built.

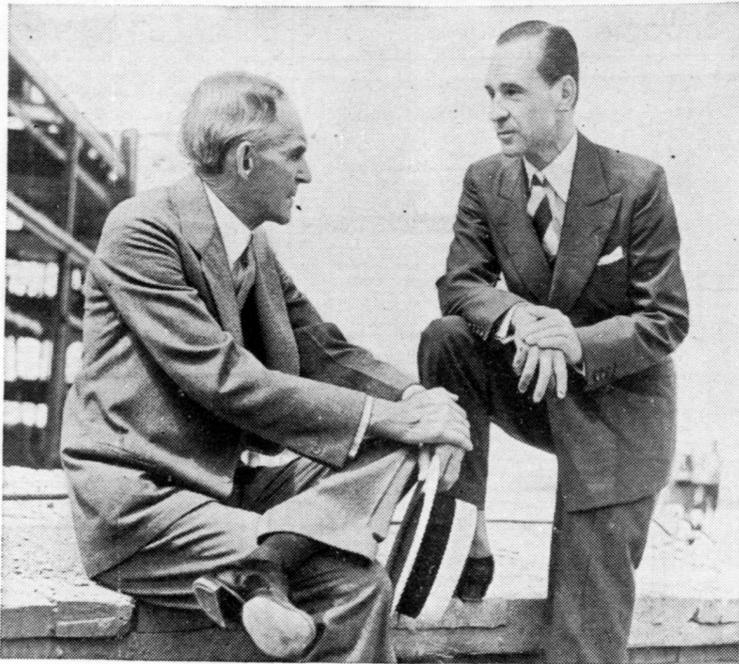

Business is not just coming back. It will have to be brought back. That is now becoming well understood in this country; for that reason 1939 will be a co-operative year. Manufacturers, sellers and buyers will co-operate to bring back the business that is waiting to be brought back.

This construction program is almost completed. It has increased activity and payrolls in a number of related industries. It has given us better facilities for building better cars and trucks, and eventually our new tractor which is being perfected.

THIS MEANS MORE VALUE

The current program has provided a new tire plant, which will turn out a part of our tire requirements . . . a new tool and die plant that will help us cut the cost of dies . . . and a steel-press plant that will enable us to make more of our own automobile bodies. These are in addition to the plants we already had for producing glass, iron, steel, plastics, and many other things.

We don't supply all our own needs, of course, and never expect to. The Ford engine is one thing that no one's hand touches but ours. Of nearly everything else we use we build some quantity ourselves, to find, if possible, better and more economical ways of doing it. The experience and knowledge we gain are freely shared with our suppliers, and with other industries.

Henry and Edsel Ford, on the occasion of the 35th anniversary of the founding of the Ford Motor Company, June 16, 1938

We take no profit on anything we make for ourselves and sell to ourselves. Every operation, from the Ford ships which first bring iron ore to the Rouge, is figured at accurate cost. The only profit is on the finished result—the car or truck as it comes off the line. Some years, there is no profit for us. But we see to it that our customers always profit. A basic article of our business creed is that no sale is economically constructive unless it profits the buyer as much as or more than the seller.

Our new plants have helped us build more value into all our cars for 1939. That means more profit on the purchase to the purchaser.

We have not cut quality to reduce costs.

We simply will not build anything inferior.

NEW TESTING EQUIPMENT

While we were putting up new plants to produce cars, we constructed new equipment to test them. The first weather tunnel of its kind ever built for automobile research went into operation at our laboratories this year.

It makes any kind of weather to order. The weather it delivers every day would take months to find in Nature. Our cars are weather-tested to give you good service in any climate anywhere.

In other tests, every part of the car is punished unmercifully. Then our engineers tear it down to see if they can find abnormal wear or any sign of weakness.

The money we spend on tests saves you money on repairs. And your family car is safer and more dependable when we put it in your hands.

THE NEW CARS

We have two new Ford cars for 1939—better cars and better looking—but we also have an entirely new car.

It's called the Mercury 8. It fits into our line between the De Luxe Ford and the Lincoln-Zephyr. It is larger than the Ford, with 116-inch wheelbase, hydraulic brakes, and a new 95-horsepower V-type 8-cylinder engine.

We know that our 1939 cars are cars of good quality. We think they're fine values in their price classes.

With new cars, new plants, new equipment, the whole Ford organization is geared to go forward.

Put a McCormick-Deering Farmall on Your Farm

GETTING more work done—if more money in the bank appeals to you, take a tip from us and put a McCormick-Deering Farmall on your farm. It is the ideal power plant with which to farm. You can use its power through drawbar, belt, and power take-off.

The Farmall plants up to 60 acres in a day, with 4-row planter. In cultivating, with a 4-row outfit, it cleans 35 to 50 acres a day, and in later cultivatings, 50 to 60 acres a day. Two-row work in proportion. It handles all haying jobs, cutting a 14-foot swath with 7-foot power-drive Farmall Mower and 7-foot trailer mower attached; also rakes, loaders, etc. Plows two furrows, pulls all seed-bed implements, and operates grain and corn harvesting machines.

You can see the Farmall on our floor. Inspect its features with us and find out how it is possible and practical to farm without horses when the Farmall is on the job.

Rome-Berlin Axis May Crumble
If Germany Is Given Colonies

By Joseph W. La Bine

Foreign

At best, Germany, Italy and Japan are unnatural bedfellows with nothing in common except totalitarianism and a grudge against the world.

First step in this direction has been taken by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler in presenting African colonial negotiations, October of 1938 will be remembered primarily as the month when America first stood up and barked at modern imperialism.

Within 24 hours two barks came from Washington. First was President Roosevelt's precedent-shattering condemnation of nations employing force (Japan), exile (Germany) and repression (Italy) as instruments of national policy.

This was but percussion in the new American overture of preparedness. Chiming in are plans to strengthen military and naval forces so that "the Western hemisphere may work out its own interrelated salvation."

Thus, if Britain and France deny it, the U. S. admits Japan has become the Far East's No. 1 power and bids fair to dominate the Pacific unless stopped.

Next Der Fuehrer may turn his eyes to Japan, which now controls one-time German islands forfeited after the World war.

Nor do observers overlook the chance of a German-Italian breach over Hungary's Czechoslovakian claims, now handed to the Rome-Berlin axis for settlement.

British royalty symbolically corresponds to the U. S. flag. Since the Czech crisis proved Great Britain's empire is becoming vastly independent, a little flag waving is entirely proper.

U. S. railroads, arguing before President Roosevelt's fact-finding committee, have claimed a 15 per cent pay cut is the only solution to their problem.

Northwest—Before the interstate commerce commission have appeared stockholders of two huge lines, Chicago & North Western, and Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific.

Southwest—An I. C. C. examiner has recommended reorganization of the Missouri Pacific line with sharp reduction in its fixed interest debt.

South—Placed before the I. C. C. is a plan for merging the Gulf, Mobile & Northern railroad with the Mobile & Ohio line.

Chief significance of mergers and reorganizations is (1) that railroads will become economically sound; (2) labor will suffer through decreased employment, though wage levels probably will not be cut; (3) scores of small communities, originally built to follow the railroad's line of expansion, will find themselves isolated without rail service.

Knotted inseparably in recent news have been Japan's conquest of China and world democracy's attempts to strengthen their military-economic positions against German-Italy-Jap aggression.

Flowers and plants, like human beings, must have plenty of sound sleep in order to give their best. But how can we insure this and combat "night starvation" in the plant world?

That's the question a Scandinavian by the name of Johansen set out to answer. After a long and patient study of plant repose, says Pearson's London Weekly, he found

Treasury

Inconveniently close to election day have come piecemeal reports and offhand predictions concerning the U. S. fiscal situation.

Despite upswinging business, the U. S. treasury deficit for the current fiscal year jumped above one billion dollars October 20, leaping forward several million dollars a day.

Revised, the 1939 fiscal deficit prediction stands at $3,984,000,000, second largest in New Deal history. By next June 30, when the public debt will hit $40,000,000,000, compared with $16,000,000,000 in June, 1931.

Through a "pump-priming" will help business, the 1940 budget will be unbalanced. Only by continued spending can the administration hold a mass vote for the 1940 election, thereby forestalling the normal swing to Republicanism.

It is far more painful to pay than merely file away the bill, and next winter's congressmen will present at least five new methods of making John Public pay:

(1) A 10 per cent "one shot" income tax levy to garner $263,000,000 needed for increased armament; (2) a processing tax to pay for the agriculture department's proposed "domestic dumping" program for crop surpluses; (3) removal of tax exemption from local bonds, also on official salaries; (4) extension of social security to include farm laborers, domestics, bank employees, seamen, self-employed, etc.; (5) lowering of income tax exemptions under $1,000.

Cooltest of all concerned with fiscal affairs has been the man in direct charge, Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. Unworried by mounting gold reserves ("We have plenty of storage space") he predicts improved business conditions will cut relief rolls and help the budget, which observers now think will run to $8,000,000,000.

Only Morgenthau's fear has centered around the British pound sterling, whose declining tendencies have adverse effects on U. S. commodity prices and export trade.

When his investigations first opened, the Dies congressional committee on Un-Americanism confined most of its probing to Fascism and Nazism. Neither of these "isms" has much support among U. S. politicians.

But with election time approaching and its witnesses becoming influenced by political fever, it was natural that the probe should turn to a more popular "ism"—communism.

First came the charge that Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins was impeachable for failing to support aggressive deportation proceedings against communistic Harry Bridges. Madam Perkins replied that she was awaiting court decision on a test case, that proceedings could move no faster than the courts themselves.

Next the committee asked why Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan had taken a passive interest in the 1936 sit-down strikes, only to learn that Governor Murphy had commented that "sometimes events make laws malleable."

President Roosevelt, hopping mad by this time, jumped in to charge the Dies committee is providing a "forum" for politicians with election-year axes to grind. Though recalling that no such reprimand was forthcoming when the LaFollette civil liberties committee held its hearings, impartial observers agreed the Dies committee might have done a less impassionate job in 1937 or 1939.

At Anaheim, Calif., miles of surplus third-grade oranges were dumped when federal diversion funds ran out, leaving the $8-per-ton price unsupported.

At Prestonsburg, Ky., 34-year-old Fleming Tackett married 10-year-old Rosie Columbus.

That the better a root rests, the faster it awakens and grows. "Very well," said Johansen to himself, "if plants react to a good sleep like humans, why shouldn't their sleep be induced in the same way as it is in human beings?"

Trend

How the wind is blowing . . .

TIME CLOCK—Film actors earning up to $1,000 a week, and all extras, now punch time clocks each morning under new union contract with provision for overtime work.

"NOBODY"—A baby born to one of 200 sad-eyed Jewish refugees living in a ditch in the Czechoslovak-German "no man's land" has been named "Niemand," meaning "nobody."

"BANG" WARFARE—Japanese troops patrolling streets of newly captured Canton, disperse terrified Chinese by merely pointing their guns and shouting: "Bang!"

U. S. LANDLADY—Women hold 25 per cent of all U. S. jobs (apart from domestic service), are beneficiaries of 80 per cent of all life insurance, own 50 per cent of all corporate stock, operate 60 per cent of savings accounts.

HAIR RAISING—Mrs. Dorothy Kantack of Chicago has won a divorce decree against her husband who protested against her new "upswing" coiffure.

Bruckart's Washington Digest
Dies Committee Bares Activities
Of Radical, Communist Groups

Unseen and Malignant Growths Are Being Bred Into Our National Life by Agitators Who Seek to Destroy Our Government; Spread Poison in Ranks of Labor.

By WILLIAM BRUCKART
WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—"Unless something is done to curb radicalism in my section, there is going to be an awful clash and a lot of people are going to get hurt."

So spoke Fred W. Frahm, superintendent of police of the city of Detroit, Mich. And his statement was made before a committee of the house of representatives, a committee charged with exposing to view the un-American activities of certain groups in this country.

It was the statement of a man who is serving a city in an official capacity and who has gone through 246 sit-down strikes which he asserted were the direct result of agitation by the radicals to which he referred. He looks for more in the near future and added, by way of emphasis, that "these communists and radicals do not want to seek adjustment of differences between labor and management; they want to make trouble all of the time."

Through a number of weeks, the public committee before which Mr. Frahm testified, has been taking testimony, gathering evidence, digging here and there its effort to uncover the activities of subversive groups and expose them to public view.

It has been the contention of the chairman, Representative Dies of Texas and some other members of the committee, that most of us are not aware of the unseen and malignant growths that are being bred into our national life. They are out to destroy our government, to bring to us the type of thing that has made Russia famous.

Mr. Dies is a sincere and honest legislator, and he is trying to do the job assigned him, even when several of his committee members have sought to balk his efforts. But there is much more to be done in the direction of exposing radicalism and the chiseling, cheating, cowardly efforts the agitators put forth.

Charge Communists Active In Government Offices
What I am wondering is why Mr. Dies has not sent his investigators into the very offices of the federal government, itself. Or, if he has done that, as it is gossiped about, then why shield anybody? Why not turn the spotlight of publicity on the individuals who want to destroy the American system, the American form of government, American tradition, the American profit system of doing business?

There has been much talk in the last several years about the operations of communists within the very walls of the government, men and women who are boring from within as termites destroy lumber, and we ought to know the truth. If they are within the government, they ought to be exposed and chased out of the western hemisphere; if they are not operating as is gossiped around, then their names ought to be cleared. In any event, I hope the Dies committee goes on and shows the cancerous nature of groups that do not believe in our system, whether they be Russians, or Germans, or Italians, or British or what have you.

It has been the favorite device of the radicals and their henchmen to characterize any official who attacks them as being a subject for the insane hospitals. Their game has been to laugh people out of court whenever an effort was made to tell of some of the things the agitators were doing. Many will recall an investigation by a house committee several years ago where the witnesses were laughed down and a courageous superintendent of schools from Gary, Ind., was made to look foolish because of the charges he made. Well, if my opinion be worth anything, the folks who were the suckers in that play were the supposedly intelligent members of congress who made up the committee. It was they who fell for a trick of propaganda. Either that was the case, or the members of that committee were just plain dumb.

Lewis Cannot Break Grip Of Communists On C. I. O.
Concerning the sit-down strikes about which Mr. Frahm testified, I want to boast that I wrote of communist participation in those sit-down strikes when they were happening. I had several letters thereafter, calling me crazy and describing me as a red-baiter. Mr. Frahm now has put into official records the facts that must be obvious to any real American, and he further has expressed the opinion that John J. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., cannot break the grip that the communists have on his organization. That may be the reason why Mr. Lewis has been so silent the last several months. Maybe he sees that the labor group of which he was so proud has become a gargantuan monster tax payments declined by $21,475,182, making a net decrease of $9,983,596.

In September, a quarter income tax collection month, there was a similar decline. Corporation income tax payments increased by $11,439,492 over September of last year, but individual income tax collections dropped by $18,711,989.

Excise taxes on liquor, cigarettes, automobiles and other products declined 10 per cent in the first quarter of the current fiscal year.

Union Boycotts "Chest"—After hearing charges of its leaders that coercive methods had been used to obtain money from workers for the Waukesha community chest, the local machinists' union voted to fine any of its members who made contributions.

Will Reopen CCC Camp—Announcement has been made at CCC headquarters in Washington that the national forest camp at Laona, Forest county, which was closed Oct. 1, will be reopened as soon as a company is available.

Eye Railroad Merger—The state public service commission will send representatives before the federal interstate commerce commission to protect Wisconsin interests in the proposed consolidation of the North Western and Milwaukee railroads.

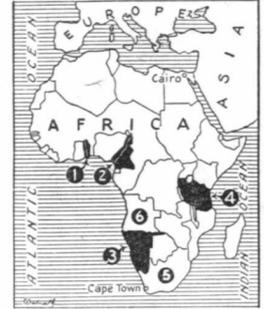

Can Abandon Heating Utility—An order of the public service commission authorizes the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Co. to abandon its heating utility at West Bend, on which the company reported a loss of $8,000 a year. The plant served 24 customers, to whom the utility will give about $10,000 toward the purchase of furnaces and other heating units.

Wisconsin Cities Safest—Three Wisconsin cities have won places in honor groups in the 1938 traffic safety contest of the National Safety Council. Milwaukee led cities of 500,000 population or more, with a traffic death rate of 4.9 for every 100,000 population. Beloit and Wausau, with no deaths for the first nine months, were leading in the group of cities with 10,000 to 25,000 population.

Post Dry Milk Standards—Standards for Wisconsin's dry milk industry were issued Oct. 25 for the first time by the state department of agriculture and markets. The regulations apply to dried or powdered milk, skim milk and buttermilk. Standards will limit butter fat content, moisture content and bacteria count in dry skim milk produced for human consumption. Packaging requirements are also prescribed. The regulations will become effective Dec. 1.

Admits Poisoning Husband—A life sentence was imposed upon Mrs. Florence Peters, 38, mother of four children, after she pleaded guilty at Madison to the poison death of her first husband, John Kessenich, in 1930. Relatives of Kessenich, who was a Dane county farmer, recently obtained an order for the exhumation of his body and an examination by toxicologists disclosed that it contained poison. Mrs. Peters admitted that she administered the poison because Kessenich refused to divorce her. She also confessed to attempts to poison her second husband, John Peters.

Shot From Dark Kills Two—Authorities of Sauk county are investigating what they believe to be the ambush slaying of Patrick and Maurice Healy, brothers, in a wooded section seven miles north of Reedsburg. The Healys, bachelor farmers, were training coon dogs near their home when a shot came out of the darkness. Patrick was instantly killed and Maurice died two days later. Maurice told the district attorney that he saw "three shadows" moving away from a thicket after the shooting. Evidence shows that the two men were killed by one blast from a gun loaded with buckshot.

Wisconsin News
Briefly Told

Sues for Strike Injury—Alleging that he was injured during disorders attending a truck drivers' strike last spring, Carl Kudinger is suing the city of Oshkosh for $10,000 damages.

Assembly Candidate Dies—The Republican party was left without a candidate for assemblyman in the Adams-Marquette counties district when L. G. Miller died following an operation.

Muscular Burglars—Thieves broke in the Milwaukee road depot at Hartford and carried away a 500-pound safe containing $55 in cash and several hundred dollars in Western Union certificates.

One Pupil School Closed—The 88-year-old rural school house of district 7 near Hartford has been ordered closed by a vote of residents of the district. Its only pupil, a boy of 5, will attend the Hartford city schools.

Callahan WATA President—John Callahan, state superintendent of schools, has been chosen president of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association, succeeding the late Dr. L. M. Warfield. He will take the office Jan. 1.

Warns Hunters of Rabies—The state board of health has issued a warning to hunters in southwestern Wisconsin to beware of what is described as the worst epidemic of rabies among skunks and foxes in the history of the region.

Accept Building Grant—Hope for a city-county building at Madison was revived after the Dane county board voted 49 to 30 to accept a PWA grant of $531,900 to help finance its share of the building cost. The proposed structure would cost $2,088,000.

Wins Pay Suit—Philip B. Morrissy, one of several state oil inspectors discharged by former State Treasurer Henry in 1933, has won a judgment of $2,082 for back pay in a suit in Dane county circuit court. Judge Reis held that Morrissy was entitled to pay from Nov. 1, 1933, to Dec. 27, 1934.

Eye Railroad Merger—The state public service commission will send representatives before the federal interstate commerce commission to protect Wisconsin interests in the proposed consolidation of the North Western and Milwaukee railroads.

Can Abandon Heating Utility—An order of the public service commission authorizes the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Co. to abandon its heating utility at West Bend, on which the company reported a loss of $8,000 a year. The plant served 24 customers, to whom the utility will give about $10,000 toward the purchase of furnaces and other heating units.

Wisconsin Cities Safest—Three Wisconsin cities have won places in honor groups in the 1938 traffic safety contest of the National Safety Council. Milwaukee led cities of 500,000 population or more, with a traffic death rate of 4.9 for every 100,000 population. Beloit and Wausau, with no deaths for the first nine months, were leading in the group of cities with 10,000 to 25,000 population.

Post Dry Milk Standards—Standards for Wisconsin's dry milk industry were issued Oct. 25 for the first time by the state department of agriculture and markets. The regulations apply to dried or powdered milk, skim milk and buttermilk. Standards will limit butter fat content, moisture content and bacteria count in dry skim milk produced for human consumption. Packaging requirements are also prescribed. The regulations will become effective Dec. 1.

Admits Poisoning Husband—A life sentence was imposed upon Mrs. Florence Peters, 38, mother of four children, after she pleaded guilty at Madison to the poison death of her first husband, John Kessenich, in 1930. Relatives of Kessenich, who was a Dane county farmer, recently obtained an order for the exhumation of his body and an examination by toxicologists disclosed that it contained poison. Maurice told the district attorney that he saw "three shadows" moving away from a thicket after the shooting. Evidence shows that the two men were killed by one blast from a gun loaded with buckshot.

Union Boycotts "Chest"—After hearing charges of its leaders that coercive methods had been used to obtain money from workers for the Waukesha community chest, the local machinists' union voted to fine any of its members who made contributions.

Will Reopen CCC Camp—Announcement has been made at CCC headquarters in Washington that the national forest camp at Laona, Forest county, which was closed Oct. 1, will be reopened as soon as a company is available.

Wait, Mother
Ask Your Doctor First

Never give your children anything but "Bargain" remedies to take less you ask your doctor.

A mother may save a few years giving her children unwise medications. But a child's life is so close beyond pennies. So—ask your doctor before you give anything to your child.

And when giving the children's remedy, milk of Magnesia, always ask for "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia."

Because for three generations Phillips' has been favored by physicians as a standard, safe and gentle for youngsters.

Many children like Phillips' because it is so gentle. No flavored tablets that children don't like. Each tablet contains the equivalent of one ounce of liquid Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

A bottle of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia costs but 25¢. So you can afford the genuine. Children's mothers ask for it by its full name: "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia."

and checked up. Our patrolman reports that your father was knocked unconscious for a while. Bruised and cut a little. The doctors said it wasn't bad. I suppose his wife's with him. It's the General Hospital.

"Thank you, officer." Dale's voice expressed his relief. "We were afraid it was more serious." After another short drive, they found Mrs. Brady in the hospital's reception room in company with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson.

Dale applied himself assiduously to his breakfast, eating the toast Lee prepared and refusing a third cup of coffee regretfully. "Now come in the other room and smoke a cigarette before you go."

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK—A few years ago, this writer had the job of getting up an amateur entertainment. Robert Sherwood was just an added starter, but he ran away with the show. He is six feet, six inches tall, of lath-like dimensions and has a trick of undulating both his chest and his Adam's apple at the same time, when he sings.

Call of the Winter Mode For Versatile Fur Styling

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

SEEING the beauty, the elegance, the artistry, the charm and versatility of this season's fur fashions it would seem as if each and every designer is possessed with the idea that nothing short of a masterpiece must be turned out in order to meet the demands of a fastidious public.

The double-breasted reefer new "longer" jacket centered in the group is in rich Persian lamb. This is an ultra chic style with the "new" look that makes it convincingly of 1938 vintage.

The new fur showings give the impression that furriers find it no "trick" at all to manipulate fur with as much sang-froid as if it were the most tractable and supple fabric.

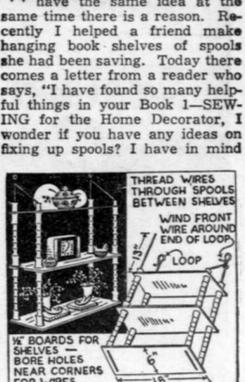

Those cunning little tips of yore! See them this season clustered, prince of Wales fashion, atop tiny velvet evening caps or surmounting upswep curls that give the correct evening coiffure.

This charming satin evening gown is in a modish zinnia-rust color. The short puffed sleeves and the flaring skirt hemline are important style features.

Fur-trimmed capes are enjoying great popularity. A new evening wrap is the best tonic for fashion ennui.

Hanging Shelves You Can Make of Spools

By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

WHEN a number of persons have the same idea at the same time there is a reason. Recently I helped a friend make hanging book shelves of spools she had been saving.

A little less than 12 1/2 feet of wire was used for the shelves shown here. Two sizes of spools were used. Shelves, spools, wires and all were finally painted to match the brightest tone in the room color scheme—in our case it was peacock blue.

The smartest fashion going is such fur-jacket costume. There are such legions of fur jackets this season and they embrace every silhouette from bolero to the widely exploited "longer" jacket and the furs employed in making them run such a gamut of luxury and novelty, that the best one can hope to do is to touch a few highspots in describing them.

A new fur to some of us, guanaco by name, is receiving a lot of attention this season from the spectator sports angle. This tawny fur is attractively streaked with white.

Those cunning little tips of yore! See them this season clustered, prince of Wales fashion, atop tiny velvet evening caps or surmounting upswep curls that give the correct evening coiffure.

There is promise too, that intriguing ostrich neckwear and ostrich-trimmed evening wraps will frequent the winter fashion scene.

Among the lovely new laces brought out this season comes a most attractive sequin-embroidered type. Floral motifs patterned throughout are wide-spaced, giving a very new look.

"We were waiting to see if you came here."

Something to do with some evidence. He was very anxious to know about his trip. He called me that the reporters were waiting all the time. He laughed and said, "But I'm worried for there might have been some reason. Can you understand?"

father is well enough tomorrow, I'll arrange for someone to bring him home. I may drive him up myself. We can take care of you and Mr. Farwell, too, if you'll stay over."

"Thank you," Dale interposed, "but I must start for home. I ran off with the family car and my father doesn't know where I am."

"And I'm going with Dale," Lee announced promptly. "I shan't let him drive home alone after he was good enough to get out of bed and bring me here. And you're sure you're all right, aren't you, Mother? Very sure?"

"Of course, and so thankful. Good night, dear. Good night, Dale."

there wasn't anybody else." Her head bent towards him. "Oh, do you mean that?" The bronze curls nodded a hesitating assent.

"My dear . . ." Two hands were laid on her shoulders. "Look at me. Are you telling me . . . Do I count as much as all that, Lady Lee?"

"Yes, Dale. As much as that." "I didn't dare let myself believe it. I kept telling myself you might have called somebody else."

"I couldn't call anyone else. There never has been anybody else. Oh, she ended with a shamed little whisper, "you're making me tell you so."

MANAGER EDWARD JOHNSON'S musical atchary at the Metropolitan comes along slowly, and we aren't yet quite musically self-sustaining.

Dogs Have 'Reached Back' Borzoi dogs are lanky in appearance, but they are sturdy in bone. Their backs rise in a graceful curve, something that is not desired in other breeds, because it is a fault that fanciers call "reached back."

Regarded Honey Bee Ill Omen The Indian regarded the honey bee as an ill omen: "Too much like white man."

Fits Like Glove

This charming satin evening gown is in a modish zinnia-rust color. The short puffed sleeves and the flaring skirt hemline are important style features.

Nightgowns are replacing pajamas. In this gala day and age, jewelry is a "must" with sweaters.

Ostrich Restored To Ancient Glory

Comes again the ostrich upon the fashion scene, as naturally it must, since the current season is one of greater pomp and splendor.

There is promise too, that intriguing ostrich neckwear and ostrich-trimmed evening wraps will frequent the winter fashion scene.

Fall Styles Call For New Corsetry

In the new silhouettes the trend is toward an uplift bustline, that gives more of a corseted figure. Since the call is for a slenderized waistline that extends into a sleek and slim body line up to the bust it is very necessary to look into this matter of the new corsetry that designers offer in order to conform to demands of a "different" figure from that heretofore advocated in fashion's realm.

New Season Laces Most Attractive

Among the lovely new laces brought out this season comes a most attractive sequin-embroidered type. Floral motifs patterned throughout are wide-spaced, giving a very new look.

Ask Me Another A General Quiz

The Questions

- 1. Where is there a pillar of wrought iron that has weathered 15 centuries without rusting? 2. What portion of the people of the United States are city dwellers? 3. How high have birds been known to fly? 4. How did the name of Lloyd's of London originate? 5. What are the oldest living things on earth?

The Answers

- 1. In the courtyard surrounding the Kutub Minar, near Delhi, India. 2. For the United States as a whole 56 per cent of the people live in towns and cities; in the South only 33 per cent are city dwellers. 3. Originally the London underwriters met at Edward Lloyd's coffee house, the institution dating as far back as 1688. 5. The age of the macrozamia trees recently found in the Tamboorine mountains of Australia is estimated at 12,000 years, the oldest living things on earth.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germladen phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

CHAPTER X

"What a night," Lee sighed, looking about as Dale brought the car to a stop in front of the Brady house.

"I'm all right. You'd better trot in before you have to explain to the Watch and Ward Society where you've been all night."

"I'm sorry, Father," Dale said breathlessly, a few moments after taking leave of Lee.

Voters of Washington County

The Democratic County Committee Calls Your Attention to These Facts:

Paul Hemmy—

PAUL HEMMY, Democratic candidate for State Senator, 13th District, pledges to serve the voters of this district to the utmost of his ability. He will not be a "rubber stamp" for the whims of a Governor, but will be independent to represent the interests of the farmers, laborers and businessmen of Washington and Dodge counties. PAUL HEMMY has the ability to be a good State Senator and deserves your support.

Reward Good Service—

At the present time you have in the county offices the following: HENRY O. SCHOWALTER, Member of Assembly; CHARLINE CARPENTER, County Clerk; CLARENCE C. KIRCHER, County Treasurer; LEO R. BURG, Sheriff; H. MEYER LYNCH, Coroner; JOSEPH P. WENINGER, Clerk of Circuit Court, and EDWIN PICK, Register of Deeds.

These officers have given you an able administration, serving you in a courteous and efficient manner. You have found them always ready and willing to serve you. When you go to the polls on Tuesday, November 8, vote for these candidates and let them know that you have appreciated their good work.

Lloyd H. Lobel—

LLOYD H. LOBEL, Democratic candidate for District Attorney, pledges that if elected he will give you an efficient, vigorous and honest administration. LLOYD H. LOBEL has had the training and experience to be an able district attorney and he should have your support on November 8.

Campaign Misrepresentations—

One of the disappointments of this campaign has been the effort of one of the other political parties to misrepresent the record of our Member of Assembly, HENRY O. SCHOWALTER, by citing the legislative roll call of the Farmers Equity Union. The following should be pointed out regarding this so-called "roll call":

1. That the Farmers Equity Union had no members in Washington County during the session of 1937 or the legislature. Our Assemblyman, on October 4, 1937, wrote to this organization asking for a list of their members in Washington County, so that he might contact them. He was informed that they had no members in his county. These letters are open to public inspection at the office of Assemblyman Schowalter.

2. That in comparing the record of Assemblyman Schowalter with that of State Senator Panzer, the identical bills or amend-J bills were not used. At least 5 out of the 16 were different. It is unjustifiable to so misrepresent the truth that a voter is led to believe that the records of two men are compared on the same basis when actually that is not the case.

3. That the "roll call" fails to show what the 16 important farm bills are. Here are just a few: Compulsory teaching in all high schools of the monetary powers of Congress; military training at the University of Wisconsin; creation of the WDA (a state corporation to get around the restrictions of our state constitution); and a joint resolution relating to special rules for the special session of 1937. "Are these important farm bills?"

Assemblyman Schowalter was born on the farm, has two brothers who are farmers, and has a law practice which depends on the welfare of the farmers of this county—certainly he had everything to gain by voting for every farm bill he sincerely believed would be of benefit to the farmers.

The fact that our assemblyman did not vote for every bill just because it was labeled "farm bill" or "labor bill" or "small businessman bill" is the best indication that he studied the legislation before him and then used his best judgment.

Anyone can vote for the record "for the farmer or laborer," but it takes study and courage to pick out those which in the long run may actually not be for the best welfare of the state.

Henry O. Schowalter's Legislative Record

1. Stayed on the job every day during the seven months the Legislature was in session.
 2. Wrote to more than 500 farmers, laborers, business and professional men, school district, town, village and city officials for advice, information and suggestions on the many problems that came before the legislature.
 3. Used his best judgment, with the background thus obtained, in voting on legislation.
 4. Refused to bind himself to any group, clique or party, thereby remaining strictly independent at all times.
- Irrespective of your political beliefs, you can conscientiously vote for HENRY O. SCHOWALTER as your Member of Assembly.

Message From the Coroner

To the Voters of Washington County:

It is gratifying, indeed, to receive so wonderful a vote of confidence as was given me at the Primary. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and rest assured your confidence shall not be misplaced.

Each year your Coroner renders to the COUNTY BOARD a complete analysis of all his cases and activities together with fees and expenses and after this report is accepted and approved by that HONORABLE BODY it is published in all our County Newspapers. If you have not already read these reports please do so, I am sure you will find them interesting and instructive.

This year we have had fewer fatal auto accidents and much credit for this fact must go to the excellent work done by our new "WASHINGTON COUNTY SAFETY COUNCIL"

It may interest the public to know that this COUNCIL is made up of prominent public spirited men representing every part of the County, who meet each month, at their own expense and without pay, and devote many hours of time and effort to promote and maintain "Safety on our Highways." More power to them!

I want to acknowledge the hearty cooperation I have always received from the public in general and the PRESS in particular in the administration of my official duties. It has made it a pleasure to have served you the past six years and when reelected I shall continue to give the Coroner's office the same careful, courteous and economical attention.

Sincerely,
H. Meyer Lynch

Here Is The Truth
About
FRANK B. KEEFE
Republican Candidate for Congress

FRANK B. KEEFE has been a resident of the Sixth Congressional District his entire life. He has lived among the people of Winnebago County and they know his splendid qualifications for the office which he seeks. He has conducted a clean campaign and will continue to campaign in the same manner.

The candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket, through public statements of his own and through his hired mouthpieces, is conducting a last-minute campaign of mud-slinging and misrepresentation concerning Mr. Keefe's candidacy and the stand he has taken with respect to Old Age Pensions. They say Frank B. Keefe is promising the aged $200 per month and that he is proposing a sales tax to pay this money.

BOTH OF THESE STATEMENTS ARE UNQUALIFIED FALSEHOODS BECAUSE FRANK B. KEEFE HAS NEVER AT ANY TIME OR ANY PLACE, ADVOCATED PAYING OLD AGE PENSIONS OF $200 PER MONTH, AND AT NO TIME OR ANY PLACE HAS HE EVER ADVOCATED A SALES TAX. Mr. Keefe has repeatedly stated his distinct opposition to a sales tax as a means of raising revenue to pay pensions.

This whole argument, dug up by the candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket, is intended to accomplish just two things. FIRST: he hopes that by misrepresentation he can paint Frank B. Keefe's candidacy as being "rattle-brained" on the subject of Old Age Pensions, and hopes thereby to attract to his standard certain conservative votes. SECOND: the primary purpose of creating so much talk about Old Age Pensions is to throw a smoke screen to cover up the record of the present Democratic Congressman from the Sixth District, and to try to HIDE FROM THE PUBLIC HIS RECORD IN CONGRESS ON THE GREAT QUESTIONS OF LABOR, UNEMPLOYMENT, SOCIAL SECURITY, AND AGRICULTURE.

LET THIS BE CLEAR . . . FRANK B. KEEFE has a record of 28 years of continuous and successful business training and experience. HE OWNS HIS OWN HOME and has a splendid family. HE LIVES IN THIS DISTRICT AND WILL CONTINUE TO LIVE HERE. He realizes that there is a problem in America to be solved—namely, the proper care of aged people. He has taken the position that under the pension scheme advocated by the Democrats—which in operation has given aged people an average of $19.25 per month—no self-respecting old couple can live upon any such pension, and be and remain good citizens. FRANK B. KEEFE believes that pensions to the aged must be fair, decent and liberal, but that BEFORE ANY PENSION CAN BE PAID THE MONEY MUST FIRST BE PROVIDED. Under the scheme of the present Congressman he would increase the opportunity for further pensions but does not tell the people where he would get the money to pay such pensions with. He does not explain to the public where the money is coming from to pay the present little pensions.

FRANK B. KEEFE has definitely taken the position that the farms and homes of the people and real estate owned by the people can NOT be made to bear any more taxes. The state and county share of the present pensions constitutes a heavy load for the home owner and farmer to bear. Consequently a new method of raising funds to take care of the aged must be devised.

The Federal Government can not forever go on borrowing money for this purpose. The suggestion, therefore, of the Townsend organization that BEFORE ANY PENSIONS ARE PAID A TAX MUST BE LEVIED TO RAISE THE MONEY WITHOUT RESORT TO REAL ESTATE TAXES, APPEARS TO BE SOUND LOGIC. They suggest a transactions tax. There is a vast difference between a transactions tax and a sales tax, as it is generally known. A transactions tax would hit into the transactions of Wall Street and similar financial centers that a sales tax would never reach.

FRANK B. KEEFE has openly stated to public meetings everywhere that he refuses to commit himself to the administrative provisions of any bill until those provisions are definite and clear. He has indicated that he will vote to give the Townsend people a fair hearing in Congress, and NO REAL AMERICAN COULD DO LESS THAN THAT. The type of law that would develop out of such a hearing would be determined by the Congress of the United States.

We therefore urge upon voters of this district the simple fact that the candidate on the Democratic ticket has failed to discuss the real problems and is now throwing mud in his frantic efforts to avoid defeat.

FRANK B. KEEFE IS SOUND, FAIR, INDEPENDENT AND FEARLESS. Principles come before mere party labels. FRANK B. KEEFE WILL BE THE REPRESENTATIVE OF ALL OF THE PEOPLE OF THE SIXTH DISTRICT AND NOT A MERE RUBBER STAMP FOR WHATEVER PARTY MAY BE IN POWER.

VOTE FOR TRUTH BY VOTING FOR FRANK B. KEEFE, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, SIXTH DISTRICT.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters:

(a) A voter upon entering the polling place and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used.

the candidates of the party have been erased or a name shall be written in or a cross mark be placed in the square at the right of the name or names of candidates in another column.

(f) After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen.

(b) If a voter wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party he shall make a cross or other mark under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the circle made for that purpose.

(c) The ballot should not be marked in any manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all shall be issued to any one voter.

(g) A voter, who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of two election officers in marking same, to be chosen by the voter; and if he declares that he is totally blind, he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county.
