Bruce Koth to Head Red Cross Drive in North Half of County

Arvin Merwin Is Named to Serve As Village Chairman

The north and south half chairmen for the 1957 fund campaign of the West Bend chapter of the American Red Cross have been named as announced by Judge Milton Meister, chairman of the local chapter. An increased goal of $4,500 has been set for the township and village areas in the drive which is now underway.

Assemblyman Elmer Schowalter of Jackson has been named as chairman for the south half while Bruce Koth of Kewaskum was announced as north half chairman. In addition Edwin Moore of West Bend has been named as a co-chairman of the drive. Koth has named Arvin Merwin to serve as drive chairman for the village of Kewaskum.

ELMER SCHOWALTER

To be canvassed in the drive will be the towns of Jackson, West Bend, Barton, Trenton, Farmington, Wayne and Kewaskum and the villages of Jackson, Newburg and Kewaskum. The city of West Bend and village of Barton drive this year will be held in fall with the United Fund drive.

Schowalter will be in charge of the fund drive in the town of Jackson, town of Trenton, village of Jackson, village of Newburg, and town of West Bend. Koth's workers are collecting funds in the towns of Barton, Kewaskum, Wayne and Farmington and village of Kewaskum.

Koth is a tool engineer at Regal Ware, Inc. in Kewaskum and served as plant chairman of the Red Cross drive one year. Born in West Allis, Koth came to this village in 1950 after graduating from Marquette university, and at the present time is president of the Kewaskum Kiwanis club. He is married to the former Marjorie Schmidt of here.

A World War II veteran and former prisoner of war in Germany, Koth navigated a B-24 for the 8th Air Force. As a prisoner of war from the fall of 1944 until the end of the war when he was released by the Russians, Koth was greatly impressed by the work of the Red Cross and the help and services it provided for prisoners and their families.

The Kewaskum firemen answered a call to the Arnold Schmidt farm home one-half mile west of the village on Hwy. 28 at 12:15 p. m. last Thursday. It was a chimney fire call. Bandits Get Long Terms in Prison

Four gunmen who terrorized Washington and Kenosha county residents in a series of holdups and break-ins received additional 20-year jail terms when they appeared before Judge William C. O'Connell in circuit court at West Bend. The court room was crowded for the trial with many spectators standing. Judge O'Connell imposed a 20-year term for each county against each defendant. He said the terms would be served concurrently with each other but would run consecutively with the terms the four men received last month in Kenosha for crimes in that area.

The men sentenced include Edward Dummer, 24, Watertown, who pleaded guilty to two separate counts; Howard Zimdars, 19, Newburg, five counts; James Clark, 23, West Bend, R. 4, three counts; and Vernon Schilling, 28, Kenosha, five counts.

Dummer, Zimdars and Clark had been sentenced to 10 years in Kenosha's circuit court while Schilling drew a 12-year term. Zimdars now is in the state reformatory at Green Bay. The others were sentenced to serve in the state prison at Wau-pun.

The gunmen were found guilty of five robberies in the county at the Henry Techtmann farm, John Wiedmeyer farm, Larry's Supper Club, Henry Lemke tavern and store and Frank Miller residence at Barton.

The jail terms imposed at West Bend bring the sentences of all the bandits to 30 years except Schilling who will have 32 years to serve.

Indians Upset Waterloo But Are Trimmed By Highly Ranked Sauk City Team in Finals of District Tourney at DeForest

SECOND PLACE TO KEWASKUM
WINNER GOES TO SECTIONAL
MEET AT JANESVILLE

The Kewaskum high school Indians didn't "meet their Waterloo" against Waterloo but rather against Sauk City in state district tournament play at DeForest over the week end. DeForest is located a short ways north of Madison.

The Indians came from behind in the fourth quarter Friday night to upset a potent Waterloo quintet, 62-59, in their opening game of the tourney. In doing so they entered the finals of the meet Saturday night to be pitted against powerful Sauk City, one of the highest ranked teams in the state. They were outclassed by a very hot Sauk City five, 89-50.

Sauk City was ranked the No. 3 team in the state among the smaller schools this season. They have won 16 straight games without a defeat. The Cardinals reached the state tournament at Madison last year and have all but one member of that great team back this season.

Waterloo, which lost to Kewaskum Friday night, and Slinger, which was drubbed by Sauk City, 74-50, met for consolation honors in the first game at 7 p. m. Saturday and Waterloo was the winner, 69-62. The Indians and Sauk City squared off at 8:30 in the championship game. Second place awards were won by Kewaskum and the first place trophy and awards went to Sauk City, which now advances to the sectional tourney at Janesville this week end.

In the Waterloo-Kewaskum tilt scoring was even the first period with the teams deadlocked at 10-all. In the second quarter Waterloo went out in front, holding a 21-17 lead at halftime. In the third stanza the determined Indians fought back and cut the Waterloo margin to 33-32. In the last quarter Kewaskum outscored their rivals, 20-16, to notch the game.

Dave Mertzig, Indians' high scorer, had a great night as he pumped 30 points through the hoops. Bob Holzheuter, formerly of West Bend, and Bibow were top men for Waterloo, each scoring 12 markers.

In the championship finals Saturday night Kewaskum held Sauk City pretty well in check in the first quarter, which ended 18-14 in their favor, but the Cardinals began pulling away in the next period and continued to pile up a big margin as the contest progressed. Sauk City got off to an 8-point lead right at the start and this proved to be a big advantage to them. The Cardinals were ahead at halftime by 22 points, 42-20, and increased the margin to 39 by the time the tilt ended at 89-50.

Sauk City's "Shorty" Young (who is not short), paced his team in scoring with 28 points, as was expected. Mertzig and Jerry Opgenorth were top scorers for the losers.

Although a fine team, Sauk City was exceptionally hot against the Indians as well. They sank 70 per cent of their shots in the first half for a phenomenal average and their overall average for the game was 50 per cent. In other words every other shot went in. And they were not layup shots but attempts from well out on the floor. According to the Cardinals' coach, Kewaskum was one of the few teams this season to score 50 points against them, which is some consolation.

Farm feeds stored for long periods can lose some of their valuable nutrients.

The number of dairy farms in the nation is getting smaller, but the amount of milk sold from each farm is increasing.

KEWASKUM WINNER IN K-M DARTBALL TOURNEY

The annual Kettle Moraine Lutheran dartball tournament was held at St. John's Lutheran church basement, West Bend. Trophies were awarded the top four teams.

Because there were five teams tied in number of wins and losses, the four with the highest number of runs scored were declared the winners. They were Woodland Scott II, Slinger and Kewaskum in that order.

The season's championship play-offs took place Tuesday, Mar. 5, in West Bend. Participating were Theresa I, Scott II, Kewaskum and Slinger.

What can we expect now? March came in both like a lamb and a lion last Friday. The day started off clear with a bright sun shining and the temperature rose to a spring-like 40 degrees. But in the afternoon the wind kicked up to about 30 miles per hour, switched to the northwest, and the weather turned considerably colder as the lion roared. Probably indicates that we'll get all kinds of weather during this month.

Another holy season of Lent began on Wednesday. Lent is a time of self denial, penance and abstaining. And that doesn't mean cutting down on watermelon or giving up the game of lotto.

Rode over to DeForest, Wis. (which is quite a trip) Saturday night to see Kewaskum get trimmed in the finals of the district tournament. Personally we can't see the W.I.A.A.'s district tournament set-up this year at all. Kewaskum and Slinger were sent way over to DeForest, Oostburg to Denmark, and North Fondy to Plymouth for examples. Why couldn't these four sub-district winners play each other in a tourney close to home just as well instead of being assigned to a playoff north of Madison.

Despite their shellacking at the hands of the great Sauk City high school team in the finals, after beating a highly regarded Waterloo team in the meet opener Friday night, the Indians and their coach, Ernie "Doc" Mitchell, and assistant Walt Bade deserve a big pat on the back for their fine record this season. After getting off to a poor start the team found themselves after the holidays and climbed from the lower end of the standings to finish up in third place in the Tri-County with a 9-5 record. The Indians finished the season by winning six in a row and eight out of the last nine. They extended their streak to nine victories in succession by winning three tournament contests before finally being eliminated by Sauk City, which team was ranked No. 3 in the state among the smaller schools this year and went all the way to the state tournament last year in competition with much larger schools. And Sauk City has most of the same team back this season. By the way, a surprisingly large crowd of Kewaskum fans followed the team to DeForest, which is a long ways from home.

While on the subject of basketball, "Killy" Honeck, who sponsors the Kewaskum entry in the Land o' Lakes loop, showed his spirit and hospitality by putting on a good feed with refreshments for the members of both the Kewaskum and West Bend teams, their wives or friends, and helpers Sunday night in his garage office after the Chev's title tie clinching win over the Lithias. And guess what kind of suds the "Lithias" were drinking. Everything was swell except for one guest spilling his egg nog.

Here's what a neighboring paper had to say about the recent attempted burglary in the village. "Small towns generally can take care of such situations quite proficiently as Kewaskum's police chief proved."

A fox is known to be a foxy animal but the foxiest one of all was the one which outfoxed a local hunter on a recent expedition. The way we were told the story the fox apparently didn't think much of the nimrod's shooting ability. Figuring the safest thing to do when the hunter aimed, the fox ran right up to the huntsman who fired away from a distance of only a few yards and sure enough missed. Wonder who was hunting whom. Hope he didn't bite you. Should have had a little salt.

Chevs Edge West Bend, 100-96, to Clinch Tie For Second Half Title

HORICON PLAYS FINAL GAME HERE SUNDAY; OLD TIMERS TAKE ON RIVERS TEAM

Kewaskum's first half Lakes champions also clinched at least a tie for the second half title by beating the rival West Bend Lithias here Sunday night in a typical tight battle, 100-96. The Chevs need only a victory over Horicon in the final game here this Sunday to cop both halves and win the clear championship.

The 100 points scored by the Chevs marked the fourth time in the last six games they have made 100 or more. The tilt was very hard fought and well played with the determined Lithias making an all-out effort to upset Kewaskum. And they came close to turning the trick with a big rally in the last period.

CHEVS TO PLAY IN HOWARDS GROVE TOURNAMENT

The Kewaskum Chevrolets of the Lakes league have entered the Howards Grove Class "A" invitational tournament and will meet St. Peter A.C. in their opening game this Saturday night at 8:15 p. m. Fourteen teams are entered and all games will be played week ends.

The Chevs were ahead all the way but never by much of a margin. The count was 32-27 at the end of the quarter and 56-51 at halftime. Kewaskum built up a 12-point lead in the third stanza by scoring 22 points to the visitors' 17. This made it 80-68, about the largest margin of the evening. But in the last period the Lithias came back strong and tied the score with only a couple of minutes left. Then a bucket by John Tessar and two free throws gave the winners a 4-point advantage and they stalled during the remaining time.

Fouls and free throws hurt the Lithias. They committed 28 personals to the Chevs' 19. As a result Kewaskum sank 24 charity tosses to the losers' 16. Only one man fouled out and that was Jack Holfeltz of the Lithias.

Tessar had another one of his many big nights and was far ahead of the pack in scoring with 37 points made on 14 baskets and 9 free tosses. Although West Bend watched him like he was Marilyn Monroe and had three guards on him at times they couldn't stop his accurate jump shot. Others who figured strong in the scoring were Don Meisenheimer, who played a hard game, with 17 points, George Hanrahan 16, Frank Krueger 14 and Augie Bilgo 10. The top point makers for West Bend were Al "Tiger" Tennies with 27 and Jim "Spider" Kieckhafer with 20.

Horicon, the team which brings the season to a close here Sunday, holds down fifth place with a 4-4 record this half. A Chev defeat and a victory for Beaver Dam, which is a game behind the Chevs, would tie the teams and necessitate a second half playoff.

In the preliminary game at 7:15 p. m. Sunday the Kewaskum old timers will take on the Rivers team, which has finished its season. Such former standouts as Killy Honeck, Des Smith, Roger Schleif, "Hefty" Backhaus, Merrill Krueger, "Mix" Marx, Barney Prost, Inky Keller (?) and others are expected to be in uniform. Anyone else between the ages of 30 and 90 is welcome to play. This game alone should be worth the price of admission.

RIVERS TEAM LOSES FINAL GAME TO WEST BEND, 70-52

The Kewaskum Rivers team lost their season's finale to West Bend Sunday, 70-52, to wind up in a tie for sixth place in the standings. The season does not end until this coming week end but Kewaskum has a bye in the last round. The team won 3 and lost 4 this half.

The only time the losers were ahead was in the first quarter, 24-21. Kewaskum made only 3 points in the second period to the visitors' 13, putting West Bend ahead 39-32 at halftime. A poor third stanza in which they were held to 4 points while the opponents tallied 15 made it 54-36.

Russ Rodenkirch had a big night for the losers with 31 points for high honors. Engeleiter led West Bend with 20.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE IS LEADING CAUSE OF HEART, BLOOD VESSEL DISEASES

High blood pressure—hypertension—is the leading cause of heart and blood vessel diseases, affecting an estimated 5,000,000 Americans, reports the Wisconsin Heart association.

However, a majority of those suffering from the disease can be helped by proper medical care, the association says. By proper medical care is meant that the person should:

1. See his doctor regularly, and co-operate with him in carrying out his instructions.
2. Try not to worry. Worry, nervous tension and emotional stress all help push blood pressure up.
3. Get plenty of sleep, taking a short nap or two during the day if possible. Blood pressure is lowest during sleep and rises during waking hours.
4. Rest before becoming tired thus avoiding the tenseness and irritability that go with fatigue.
5. Engage in mild exercise but avoid competitive sports in which it is difficult to quit when tired.

6. Keep his weight normal—overweight overworks the heart.

R. G. Edwards, who heads the 1957 Heart Drive in Kewaskum, reports that the new booklet, "Your Blood Pressure" is available by sending a letter or postal card to: Wisconsin Heart Association, 411 W. North Avenue, Milwaukee 12, Wisconsin.

Wisconsin farmers had livestock valued at $640,000,000 on their farms at the beginning of this year, according to the inventory made by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service for Wisconsin.

Many catbirds return to the same area each year, and can even pinpoint their return to the same acre they occupied the previous year, says R. A. McCabe, University of Wisconsin wildlife researcher.

A COMPARISON OF MAIN CAUSES OF DEATH, 1900 AND 1955
(In Percentage of Total Deaths for Each Year)

Life expectancy in the United States has increased from 47 years (in 1900) to 70 years (in 1955). Deaths from infectious disease and tuberculosis (see chart) have decreased sharply. With more people living into the age brackets where cardiovascular diseases take their greatest toll, death from diseases of the heart and blood vessels now claim more lives than all other causes combined. This dramatically underscores the importance of research, education and community heart programs carried forward by your Heart Association, and supported by the Heart Fund.

Beware of Slick Seed Salesmen!

The seed "gyp" artists now are making their rounds declaring open season on farmers in many of the states where the bulk of the grain crop is raised. You see them come into a territory each year with fancy claims, special propositions, fast talk, and most of all a high price.

We don't assume that many farmers get taken more than once or twice, but if they do you can be sure few talk about it. That in itself is the biggest asset the seed "gyp" has since after a farmer is once taken and does not complain, he leaves the territory wide open to other unsuspecting victims.

Here is how the slick seed operator works. He will come into an area and use the name of the local banker, dairyman, or other businessman in a careless manner.

This implies endorsement and throws the farmer off guard. Then he will tell the farmer that his company was selecting some really good farmers to grow seed oats for it.

Fortunately, the dupe is classified as just such a farmer. The deal sounds good; his company would handle the trucking and cleaning and pay 50 or 60 cents per bushel over the Chicago No. 2 price for all the seed his firm needed. All the farmer has to do is have the seed certified and it would pick it up.

Of course there are two things not fully explained. First, in order to get the seed certified the farmer would first have to clean it and second, the seed house would buy all the seed oats it needed but come crop time its need suddenly disappeared.

Another favorite trick is to have the farmer sign a fancy order blank which is replete with small six-point type. If the farmer reads it carefully (which practically none do) he will find that some place it says if the seed salesman cannot deliver the type of seed contracted for he can substitute varieties.

This then brings on the "big switch" at delivery time. In most cases, the seed which is delivered is not the more expensive variety for which the farmer contracted.

Even if the farmer gets the seeds he actually bought, he will find that he has probably paid about twice the price he would have to pay to his local feed dealer or elevator for the same seed.

In some areas, county agents have been a great help in this problem. We know of one county agent who takes aggressive action as soon as he hears the seed swindlers are operating in his area.

This county agent has a regular radio program and he immediately goes on the air to warn his farmers about the gyp artist. Even with such swift action he finds that some of his farmers get stuck with the fancy seed oats.

Farmers can identify these artists if they are careful. Most of them are strangers; they are in a hurry and say that other farmers in the locality are begging for the seed. They often sell a variety which is not suited for the locality and they have a contract which is riddled with loopholes and small type.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 4

Claim All Exemptions for Yourself and Dependents

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. These articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants, and the Wisconsin Society of Certified Public Accountants in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

Many people overpay their taxes because they cheat themselves on their personal exemptions.

Here is how to count your exemptions (each one takes $600 off your taxable income):

One exemption for yourself, two if you are 65 or over, two if you are blind, three if you are both 65 and blind. The same applies to your husband or wife.

If your husband or wife died during 1956 you can still file a joint return claiming the exemptions, including those for age or blindness, to which the deceased would have been entitled at the time of death.

Who Qualifies

One exemption of $600 can be taken for each person who fits the definition of a dependent. This $600 is not doubled for age or blindness, however, as in the case of your personal exemption.

To count for an exemption, the dependent must:

(1) Have less than $600 gross income for 1956 (except that this does not apply to your child if he is under 19 or is a full-time student).

(2) Have received more than half of his support from you, unless you file a Multiple Support Agreement (see below).

(3) Not file a joint return.

(4) Be either a citizen of the U. S. or a resident of the U. S., Canada, Mexico, Canal Zone, Panama and in some cases, a serviceman's child living in the Philippines.

(5) Live with you (absence while attending school does not interfere) or be a close relative as defined in the instruction book or be a cousin receiving institutional care for a mental or physical disability who had lived with you before going to the institution.

Multiple Support Agreements

If you shared with others in the support of a dependent, but none of you provided more than half the support, you may still be able to arrange among you for one of the group to have the $600 exemption. You might agree, for example, to take turns in having the exemption from year to year.

The one who claims the exemption must have contributed more than 10 percent of the support, and he must be a member of a group who altogether provided more than half support, and that person must have been entitled to claim that dependent except for the requirement of providing more than half support.

In order for one of the group to have the exemption all other members of the group who contributed more than 10 per cent must sign declarations that they will not claim the dependent. The Internal Revenue Service provides Form 2120 (Multiple Support Agreement) for this purpose.

Children and Disabled Dependents

There is a deduction of as much as $600 for care of children under 12 while the breadwinner works. This child-care deduction is available to mothers, widowers, divorced and legally separated persons, who are allowed to deduct expenses paid to someone other than a dependent for the care of a son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter under the age limit. This regulation also applies to any dependent of any age who is mentally or physically incapacitated.

A working wife is entitled to this deduction if her husband is physically or mentally incapable of providing support. Where the husband is not disabled, the working wife may also take the child-care deduction only if a joint return is filed, and the $600 limit must be reduced by the amount of the couple's gross income exceeds $4500. It should be kept in mind that you can't take this deduction if you take the standard 10 percent deduction.

The instruction book which comes with your tax form gives further information. Help is also available by telephone or at offices of the Internal Revenue Service. The Revenue Service urges you to consult a properly qualified advisor if you decide to seek outside help.
