Billy Janssen, 21, Killed When Auto Crashes and Burns Near Kewaskum on Saturday Night

Victim Is Thrown Out When Car Hits Ditch, Rocks at St. Bridget's

FATALITY RAISES TOLL FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY TO SEVENTEEN FOR YEAR

A young rural Kewaskum man was killed in an auto crash late Saturday night, Nov. 9, when his car left a town road and crashed into a ditch west of the village, bringing the death toll on Washington county highways to 17 for the year.

Victim of the fatal crash was William W. "Billy" Janssen, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Janssen of R. 2, Kewaskum. Authorities reported that he was killed instantly in the mishap. Janssen would have been 22 years old this coming Monday, Nov. 18.

The young man, who was alone in his car, was traveling north on a town road three miles west of Kewaskum between Highways 28 and H, a short distance north of the St. Bridget's church, when the accident occurred. The Janssen car left the road at the bottom of a hill, veered into the right ditch, and traveled along the ditch for some distance, striking a large boulder and several other rocks. The impact apparently spun the car around, which was facing south after the crash, throwing the driver from the vehicle. The auto caught fire after the impact. The car came to rest on its wheels at the edge of a plowed field and Janssen's body was found several yards from the vehicle.

Three Kewaskum couples who were returning from the football game at Madison saw the fire from the highway and drove to the scene. Soon after, Tom Herman, who lives nearby arrived. After first checking inside the burning car, they discovered Janssen's body nearby. The mishap apparently occurred shortly after 11 p. m.

The Kewaskum fire department and ambulance were summoned to the scene and the blaze was extinguished. Washington county coroner Matt Goeden, Jr. was called and the victim was transported in the firemen's ambulance to St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. Janssen suffered a skull fracture and other injuries. The car was badly wrecked and burned in the crash. Fearing that Janssen may have had one or more passengers in his auto, the firemen made a thorough search of the area with their lights before leaving the scene.

William W. Janssen was born Nov. 18, 1941, at St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, and was a lifetime resident of R. 2, Kewaskum. He was a graduate of Kewaskum Community High school with the class of 1959 and had been an employee of Gehl Brothers Mfg. Co. in West Bend the past four years.

He is survived by his above mentioned parents, a sister, Darlene, at home; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Emma Janssen of R. 2, Kewaskum, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 12, at St. Peter's Lutheran church in the town of Addison with the Rev. Wilbert Krueger officiating. Interment was in Washington County Memorial park, West Bend. Friends called at Miller's Funeral home, Kewaskum, from 2 p. m. Monday until 11 a. m. Tuesday and at the church from noon to the hour of services. The funeral was largely attended.

Auto Hits Parked Car, Other Mishaps

A car owned by Robert Kroncke Sr., 49, 1407 Fond du Lac ave., Kewaskum, which was parked at the curb in front of his residence, was struck by an auto driven by David E. Brown, 25, 1118 Fond du Lac ave., early Sunday morning. Brown was traveling south on Fond du Lac ave. when he ran into the Kroncke vehicle, stating that he fell asleep at the wheel. The right front of the Brown car and the left rear of the Kroncke vehicle were damaged in the collision.

Five persons were hurt in a two car collision at 11:48 p. m. Friday on Hwy. 45 at the Andrew Gundrum home when Patricia A. Kind, 19, R. 2, Kewaskum, apparently lost control of her car upon rounding a right turn and the vehicle slid sideways and entered the left traffic lane where it collided with the right front of an auto driven by Robert J. Werner, 27, R. 4, West Bend. The Kind auto entered the east ditch and came to rest on its top following the mishap.

Injured were Miss Kind, face lacerations and a possible neck injury; Werner, fractured jaw, teeth and chest injuries; John E. Werner, R. 4, West Bend, possible skull fracture and concussion and facial lacerations; Barbara L. Werner, R. 4, West Bend, head and knee lacerations and bruises, and Sharon M. McKnight, Milwaukee, bruises and abrasions.

Cluro L. Newton, 47, R. 1, Kewaskum, suffered cuts to his mouth and lips and bumps when he swerved his car to avoid a bale of straw which was lying in the roadway and lost control and his car skidded off the road and rolled on its top in the east ditch on CTH M about 2½ miles north of Newburg.

Veterans of Wood Thank Red Cross Chapter for Party

KEWASKUM FRESHMAN, DALE DARMODY, PLAYS ACCORDION SELECTIONS

In a letter to the West Bend chapter, American Red Cross, D. C. Firmin, director of the Veterans Administration Center, Wood, Wis., extended thanks for the tenth annual party given at the Wadsworth library in observance of Book Week:

"We would like to express our deep appreciation for your continued interest and support of our annual Library parties. They are always very successful and much enjoyed by our veterans.

The party this year was a very enjoyable occasion. The attendance numbered over 200, and the home-baked cakes, apple cider and apples were as always a very popular treat. The men enjoyed the young accordion player, and the door prizes were an interesting and exciting part of the party.

Miss Florence Markus and all of us at Wood thank you for this most enjoyable occasion."

Mrs. Elmer Eisenman was in charge of arrangements for the party held on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 30. Members of the American Legion auxiliary, Lt. Ray Dickop Unit 36, joined the volunteer workers in performing the Red Cross service.

The ladies served an assortment of cupcakes, sheet cakes, cookies and bars. Since it was the Halloween season, the cupcakes were pumpkin faces, the cookies witches, goblins and cats. A very artistic centerpiece in fall decor from the greenhouse at Wood centered the table.

Bright red shiny apples from the orchard of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yahr were given as a courtesy to the veterans. These caught the eye of each veteran as they were passed. Sweet cider augmented the season's delicacies, and it brought back memories of the good old days when the veterans enjoyed their youthful pranks. As a convenience the cider was delivered directly to the library by John W. Plout from his new Sentry store at Elm Grove.

Dale Darmody, a freshman at the Kewaskum High school, entertained with his choice accordion selections. The veterans enjoyed his youthful talent and gave encouragement with their ready applause.

Veteran hospital administrators who visited the party were Mrs. Martha Lewis, Red Cross VA representative; her assistant, Mrs. W. Schwemmer; Fred Ritzman, recreation coordinator, and Miss Markus, librarian.

To make the party more interesting, prizes were given to the veterans holding a lucky number. These included shaving cream, lotions, white socks, styptic pencils, decks of cards, a lighted globe, paper mate pencils, nail clippers, jig saw puzzles and books.

Those attending and sharing their culinary art were Mrs. Herbert Schowalter, Mrs. Joe Kremsreiter, Mrs. Floyd Gessert, Mrs. Joe Reichert, Mrs. Hilda Herdt, Mrs. Pauline Day, Mrs. Roy Repp, Mrs. Art Boltz, Mrs. A. Ruehl,

Romaine Completes 19 Years As County Board Chairman

E. M. Romaine of Kewaskum, chairman of the Washington county board for 19 years, laid down the gavel and gathered his reports at the close of the annual meeting of the board last Thursday noon. The village of Kewaskum supervisor has been a member of the board for 24 years and was elected chairman for the first time in 1944.

Before closing the session, the county board transacted last minute business and took final action on the budget for 1964. The final budget as approved for the tax levy was $1,258,883.55 or $110,905.95 above the budget for last year. The board approved the hiring of additional traffic patrolmen to permit two patrolmen to man each squad duty on night shifts, granted pay increases to elected county officials and the two county judges and two court reporters. Other budget increases for several departments also helped boost the final budget figure.

ENROLLS AT MILWAUKEE SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING

Joseph J. Harter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aloysius Harter, R. 2, Kewaskum, has enrolled in the electrical engineering course for the 1963 fall quarter at the Milwaukee School of Engineering.

Harter is a 1954 graduate of Kewaskum high school.

A total of 1,119 students have enrolled for the 1963 fall quarter at MSOE, of which 411 are newly enrolled freshmen.

MSOE has acquired an IBM 1620 computer and has established a computation center for both educational and school and industrial research purposes. The new equipment has made it possible for MSOE to give a course in computer programming to all students and to encourage them to use the computer as a tool in classroom and project problem solving much as the slide rule is used.

49TH ANNIVERSARY

The 49th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Kilian Ruplinger of Campbellsport was celebrated by a Mass at St. Kilian's church, St. Kilian, Friday evening, Nov. 1, in their honor. On Sunday the immediate family was entertained at the Hon-E-Kor in Kewaskum for the occasion.

Reports Presented On County Mental Health Facilities

Detailed reports on Washington county mental health facilities were presented Monday at a meeting held in the county courthouse at West Bend. The information gleaned from this area will eventually be presented as part of a state-wide survey which will aid in forecasting future mental health programs in Wisconsin.

Chairman William Diebels, staff development supervisor of public assistance, expressed gratification at the well-prepared reports and the size of the meeting which indicated a growing awareness and interest of a vitally concerned public. Representatives of many groups, both public and private, contributed much experience and "know how" to the committee.

Among those presenting reports and recommendations was Rev. Louis Riesch, director of the Cedar Lake Home. He said that the home needed more beds for adequate attention to the mental health problems of the aging. Superintendent Arnold Korth of the Washington County hospital listed a 17 bed capacity for mental care. He added that the women's wards are over-crowded. Of great interest to the committee was the fact that no emergency set-up for the care of the mentally ill is available. Commitments to a state mental institution are of an immediate nature. Mr. Korth noted that this cannot always be done, for example a week end could cause a delay. The people are then admitted temporarily to the county hospital. In his recommendations Mr. Korth urged that the hospital be given a well-trained therapist, that tools be provided for the teaching of crafts, and better public relation between the hospital and the public. Public knowledge and understanding of the hospital's problems would reveal that some of its facilities "are obsolete, even hazardous", Korth indicated.

The Dekorra Foundation, which pioneered in bringing mental health concerns before the public, was represented by its chairman, Rev. Ralph Maschmeier of Jackson. Active in sponsorship of the Mental Health Center, the foundation also has financed institutes and speakers and provided information to the groups which include mental health programs a matter of present and future concern. The foundation also administers scholarships which are provided by the memorial fund set up to honor the memory of the late Judge Frank Bucklin. The scholarship awards are made to students who plan on a career in the field of mental health.

Dr. Dick Vodegel, psychiatrist of the Mental Health Center, indicated that the center could become the logical "hub" of future coordination between the various agencies which deal with mental health. He also called attention to the success of a juvenile court judge in Milwaukee who assigns some of the lesser young offenders to clergymen of their faith. It was the contention of Dr. Vodegel, that an informed and trained clergy could greatly aid in the "come-back" of those who had been mentally ill. Several clergymen of various faiths attended the meeting. The group also met Dr. John Ehrmann who will serve as a staff psychologist at the center.

President of the Washington County Association for Retarded Children, Mrs. Wesley Kuckuk, revealed that her group shared sponsorship of the summer recreation program and the Day Care Service Center. The association also sponsors bowling for the children and family activities; a summer picnic and Christmas party. Mrs. Kuckuk appealed for the help of local business and industry in finding employment for the mentally retarded.

In addition to reports made by county welfare workers, mental health as it applies to law enforcement was discussed. Assistant chief of West Bend police, Augie Zell, and Chief Clement Mueller of Hartford spoke briefly on problems raised in the course of their duties. Both indicated a concern that "follow-ups" should be made in the event that a patient might be transferred from one agency to another.

All information secured at the hearing of the Washington County Mental Health committee will be tabulated and made available to aid future programs both local and state-wide. Chairman Diebels thanked all who participated in the meeting for sharing their experiences and informing the public of both the services available and needs of new programs.

Children should be seen and not heard, says the old proverb. But don't mention it at home or the kids will give you a three-hour argument on the subject.

Tetanus Deaths Unnecessary, Says AMA Health Official

Despite the outpouring of new "wonder" drugs, man's ancient enemy, tetanus, has not yet succumbed to a cure.

Even so, death from tetanus, or "lockjaw" as it is commonly called, is "almost entirely unnecessary," says Raymond L. White, M.D., Director of Environmental Medicine for the American Medical Association.

"As a disease, tetanus is completely preventable," Dr. White noted. "The only reason it persists is that people fail to get immunized, or fail to maintain their immunity. Out of sheer neglect, three-fourths of the people don't have the protection they need."

"If it weren't for medicine's continual concern over the possibility of tetanus—if practically every time a physician saw a wound he didn't take precautions against tetanus—the disease would rank much higher among human killers."

Tetanus is caused by a deadly poison emitted by certain bacteria which contaminate certain types of wounds—especially puncture wounds, or wounds with imbedded dirt.

The bacteria itself cannot survive long enough in the open air to infect wounds. But its seeds or spores can.

Tetanus spores are usually produced by bacteria growing within the air-free intestinal tracts of mammals, including man, and reach the ground in animal manure. Within the intestines, bacteria cause no harm to their host, other than to serve as factories for the production of spores.

Once on the ground the spores, which are unaffected by air, and are borne great distances on the wind, can survive for as long as 11 years. Besides cultivated land, they are commonly found in household dust and the grime of city streets. Some have even been detected in hospital operating rooms—tracked in on street shoes.

Puncture wounds are a common cause of tetanus.

The spores in some sections of the country are nearly as common as dirt, and await only the right kind of wound to start their chain of infection.

Because of its peculiar nature, tetanus has never been a mass killer like some infectious diseases. It is, however, a vicious enemy, killing 60 per cent of those it strikes.

Development of immunity against tetanus, says Dr. White, requires a series of inoculations —three injections four weeks apart, followed within six to twelve months by a booster dose. To maintain this protection, additional booster shots are necessary every four years.

"Protection," he said, "should begin early in life—one to two months after birth—for the scrapes and falls of childhood offer tetanus many opportunities."

"But adults need protection too. With the new emphasis on outdoor living, with accidents on the increase and with the spore of tetanus in the dust and dirt all about us, we can only look forward to an increase in this deadly disease unless we make better use of our good sense, get immunized and keep immunized."

JUNIOR GIRL SCOUT TROOP NO. 53 NEWS

At our last meeting we started on the health aid badge. The girls who have not made their telephone charts should do so and bring them to the next meeting.

On Nov. 25 at 7:15 p. m. there will be a cooky demonstration at the Electric Co. in West Bend. The Scouts in the 5th or 6th grades who are interested in going should bring their permission slips to the next meeting. We will try to provide transportation. The mothers are welcome to come to the demonstration, too.

The automobile did away with the horses. Now it is doing away with people.

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

MASTITIS MEETINGS HELD IN KEWASKUM, WEST BEND

The mastitis meetings we held last week in Washington county showed keen interest on the parts of farmers. There are many things to be considered in this program. Basically we find that a great deal of the mastitis we have in our dairy herds can be eliminated by the herd owner. There is nothing that one can do in terms of magic potions or chemicals to control mastitis. It is a matter of a proper milking procedure, with good equipment that operates properly.

Dr. Arlan Smith of the state diagnostic laboratory described, at the four meetings, how one should go about operating his milking program. First of all, he recommends that cows have comfortable places in which to stand. This means long wide stalls. He recommends preparing the cow properly. Dr. Smith says that water at 125 degrees, with a little sanitizing solution should be used. Wash the udder carefully and massage the udder for 30 seconds. Wait 15 seconds and then put the milking machine on the cow and milk her out as rapidly as possible. This, says Dr. Smith, is the best thing that a man can do. He further stated that no farmer should be operating more than two units to milk his cows. If he has a pipe line milker, he can possibly go to three units per man. He was very concerned about the equipment that a man uses. A milking machine should be large enough and in good enough repair so that the vacuum on those lines does not drop but very little when the milking machine is turned on. It should run at about 15 pounds of vacuum continually. Worn out motors, worn out pumps, dirty vacuum lines, or lines that are too small, have been a contributing factor toward improper milking of cattle.

There is no feed that can be fed to cattle to cause or cure mastitis, according to Dr. Smith. It is strictly up to the operator to do the job that will help control this situation. Thoroughness and carefulness are extremely important. Always remember that the udder on that cow is a very sensitive organ. Any undue stress or strain, or misuse on the part of the operator will cause trouble for the udder of that cow in years to come. A bulletin is available on mastitis control. It is a check off sheet which you can use as a guide to see if you are doing the kind of things that are recommended by people who have studied this program for many years. If you would like a copy of it, please let us know.

MEETINGS FOR APPLE GROWERS NOV. 19-20

Apple growers in Washington county will be happy to know that the Wisconsin State Horticultural society meeting is coming up. It will be held in Fond du Lac on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 19 and 20. If you are interested in attending these programs, finding out what is new in the horticultural business of the state, we recommend that you attend.

MEETING NOV. 20 OF FARM MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION

We heard about new ideas and ways of doing things for many years. Now Agricultural Records Cooperative of our state is getting ready to do a job of keeping records for farmers on IBM equipment. While this is not a program that is being promoted, at least not at this point, it is a program that is available to farmers if they would like to use it.

The members of the Farm Management association of Washington county will be meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 20, in the extension office to hear about this program. The meeting starts at 8 p. m. Field man Carl Kolb and your county agent will be conducting the meeting and we invite all members of the association, as well as others who are interested, to hear what's new in keeping records.

Form County Group To Boost Goldwater

A committee to further the candidacy of Senator Barry Goldwater for President of the United States has been formed in Washington county. This committee is affiliated with the state Goldwater committee under the chairmanship of Wayne J. Hood of LaCrosse.

Dr. James Baumgartner and Mrs. Robert Claus will head the county group in the capacity of co-chairmen. Robert T. Rolfs will serve as secretary and Elmer L. Olson as treasurer. In the near future sub-chairman will be appointed in the Hartford, Germantown and Kewaskum areas.

Mrs. Claus, acting as spokesman for the group, indicated the reason for the early formation of the committee was the great amount of interest and enthusiasm the people of Washington county have shown in support of the man who is the nation's outstanding spokesman for states rights and decentralized big government. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the committee should contact Mrs. Claus at Federal 4-2698. Campaign material is available and may be obtained by contacting any one of the officers.

You can take a big step toward eliminating insect and disease problems in your garden next spring and summer by removing plant refuse this fall, says John Schoenemann, vegetable crops specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Fall Is Pumpkin Pie Time

The time of year can almost be told by the food appearing on the table. And, what says Fall faster than a spicy Pumpkin Pie? Its rich, golden brown color complements the turning leaves and the hearty flavor is just right with the nippy air.

Pumpkin Pie made with milk is as nutritious as it is delicious. Children and teenagers need 4 or more glasses of milk daily; adults 2 or more glasses. By using milk in cooking, you can help make sure your family will get the recommended daily requirement.

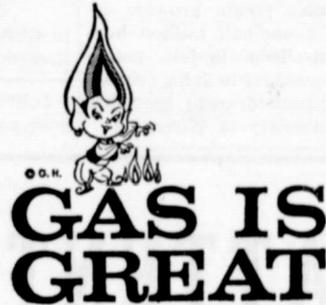

Serve Pumpkin Pie soon and bring Fall and good eating to your dinner table.

Pumpkin Pie

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 unbaked 9-inch pie shell | 1/4 teaspoon cloves |
| 3/4 cup granulated or brown sugar, firmly packed | 2 cups cooked or canned pumpkin (1 No. 303 can) |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 2 eggs, slightly beaten |
| 1 teaspoon cinnamon | 1-1/2 cups half and half cereal cream or whole milk |
| 1/2 teaspoon ginger | |

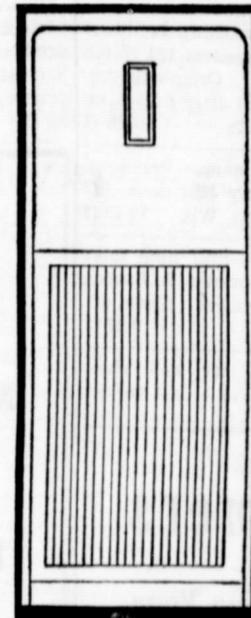

Whipped Cream

Measure sugar; blend in salt and spices thoroughly. Add pumpkin and eggs; stir to blend. Add milk and stir until the mixture is smooth. Pour into unbaked pie shell and bake in a hot oven, 425°, for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350° and bake 40 to 45 minutes, or until a thin-bladed knife inserted midway between the crust and center comes out clean. (Center will still be soft.) Remove from oven and cool on a wire rack. Serve with slightly sweetened whipped cream. Makes 6 servings.

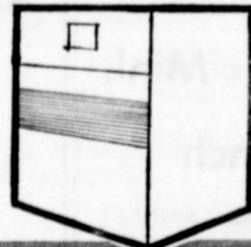

...AND IT COSTS LITTLE TO ENJOY CLEAN, HEALTHFUL, AUTOMATIC GAS HEAT

Members of the Kewaskum FFA chapter are convinced that a good farmer has good safety habits, particularly with corn pickers. He carries a fire extinguisher and first-aid kit on the corn picker. He's formed the habit of shutting off the picker every time he leaves the tractor seat, and he wouldn't begin to unclog, oil or adjust his machine while it's in motion.

Chevs to Play Lakes Opener At Port Sunday

FOND DU LAC AND PORT WASHINGTON NEW TEAMS IN LEAGUE THIS SEASON

With all the beautiful warm weather this fall it is hard to believe that another basketball season has rolled around already. But the fact remains that the football season is nearing the end, only a few hardy golfers are still making the rounds of the course, winter is approaching, and basketball is at hand.

Opening games in the Land o' Lakes league will be played this week end. The Kewaskum Chevrolets will open the 1963-64 season at Port Washington Sunday night. Port, along with Fond du Lac, is a new team in the loop this year. They replace Horicon, Hustisford and Cedarburg, which have dropped out to make the Lakes an 8-team league instead of nine. Horicon had been a league member many years. Kewaskum now represents the smallest city in the loop by far.

Other opening contests will find defending champion Watertown at West Bend and Mayville at Menomonee Falls on Saturday night and Beaver Dam at Fond du Lac Sunday night.

The Chevs will begin the season with an expected roster of about 12 players. Except for three new faces, the team will be composed of the same members which made up the squad last year. Veterans returning include Augie Bilgo, Don Meisenheimer, Tom Larsen, Al Tennies, Frank Krueger and Otto Ramthun. Dan Scheid and Gene Pieper of Campbellsport, who played with the team some of the time last season are expected back although Pieper is attending college and may not be available for all games. Homer Justman will be back but can only play in the Sunday games because the Blue Echoes orchestra, of which he is a member, has bookings on Saturday nights. Newcomers are Al Koepke of last year's high school team, Mark Rosenheimer and Don Theusch, former high school players returning to action.

here next Friday, Nov. 22, and Rosendale there on Tuesday, Nov. 26. Kewaskum will also play a non-conference game after the holidays at Lomira on Jan. 7.

DEER GUN SEASON WILL OPEN STATE-WIDE NOV. 23

The deer season for the bow and arrow hunter will close on Nov. 19 and reopen for the period Dec. 7 thru Dec. 31. The deer gun season will open state-wide on Nov. 23 at 6:29 a. m. The sale of the big game hunting license will close at midnight Nov. 22. In other words an individual who might wish to hunt deer with a bow and arrow in the December season must purchase his license on or before Nov. 22. The only exception is that a member of the armed forces arriving home during the season may upon presenting his furlough papers to the county clerk obtain such license.

The big game hunting regulations are available at all license depots in the county. Be sure that you read them before hunting.

Serving of Game to Guests Prohibited

At this time each year we get many inquiries relative to the serving of game.

Many times successful deer hunters wish to put on a party for their friends, a club, a church group, etc. This could also include a hunter who had a successful pheasant hunt in the Dakotas, a successful elk hunt in the West or who had bagged a moose in Canada.

The statutes prohibit the serving of game to guests. This section of the statutes applies whether such animals were taken within or without the state. The same section, however, states "The Conservation Commission may in its discretion issue permits authorizing the serving of lawfully taken and possessed wild animals."

Should you wish to put on such a party feed, it is necessary that you apply for a permit well in advance of the date you set for the affair to allow time for processing your application and issuing the permit. To be safe you should allow at least a week. The permit is issued for one specific date only. Your conservation warden has applications for applying for the permit.

Specific guide lines have been established as to the circumstances under which a permit will or will not be issued. They are as follows:

A permit will not be issued where the principal purpose is to provide material gain to any individual, tavern, restaurant, hotel or any other private establishment, whether direct or indirect.

Permits may be issued to allow serving of game by civic clubs, sportsmen's clubs, churches, and other organizations of similar purpose and where any proceeds that may accrue from such serving are used for a recognized public service.

Permits may be issued for serving private parties where the applicant, because of the number of guests or other justifiable reasons desires to serve game at a public location. It must clearly be established that the game to be used is legally possessed and the party will be strictly private.

Historic sitesecing pilgrimages are becoming increasingly popular in Wisconsin. As guides for these tours, the State Historical Society has prepared a new series of pamphlets describing historic sites in Wisconsin. For free copies of "See Historic Wisconsin" and "Wisconsin Historic Sites and Museums, 1963," write to the State Historical Society, 816 State Street, Madison. For free copies of brochures on individual sites write to Villa Louis, Prairie du Chien; Museum of Medical Progress, Prairie du Chien; Stonefield, Cassville; Old Wade House, Greenbush or Circus World Museum, Baraboo.

Judith Falk Bride Of Roger Lickman

Miss Judith Catherine Falk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer W. Falk, R. 2, Kewaskum, and Roger Lickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lickman, 1714 Taylor Lane, West Bend, exchanged wedding vows during a 10:30 a. m. Mass in Holy Trinity church, Kewaskum, on Saturday, Nov. 9. The Rev. John T. Budde officiated.

Fashioned of Peau de soie, the bride's gown was trimmed with Alencon lace. Her shoulder length veil was gathered to a crystal tiara.

Honor attendant for the bride was her sister, Mary Jane Vass, while another sister, Phyllis Du Bois, Ann Graf, sister of the bridegroom, and Lu Werner, a friend of the bride, served as bridal aides. All were dressed alike in Kelly green satin brocade gowns and carried white muffs. Crystal tiaras completed their attire. Little Miss Janice Falk was her aunt's flower girl and wore a miniature copy of the bridal gown.

Wynand Paulus, a friend, was best man for the bridegroom, while another friend, Paul Koenings, James Falk, brother of the bride, and Don Graf, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, attended as groomsmen. Ushering duties were performed by the bridegroom's cousin, Jerome Seubert, and the bride's brother, Wilmer Falk, Jr. Master Mat Graf carried the wedding rings. He is a nephew of the bridegroom.

A dinner at the Glacier Inn, Kewaskum, was followed by a reception and dance at West Park ballroom, West Bend.

The newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Florida and other southern states, following which they will be at home in West Bend, where the bridegroom is employed as a maintenance man at the White House Milk Co. His bride is a payroll clerk at the Enger Kress Company.

BACKHAUS-KELLING

Miss Theresa M. Backhaus and Arthur A. Kelling, Jr. were married during a 2 p. m. double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Matthew Urban in St. Michael's church rectory, St. Michaels, on Saturday, Nov. 2. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ernst R. Backhaus, R. 1, Random Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Kelling, Sr., R. 1, Random Lake.

Mrs. Bernadette Mondloch attended her sister as matron of honor. Mrs. Elaine Larson, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Jim Waech, a friend, were bridesmaids. Peggy Mondloch and Cynthia Ann Diels, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Harold Backhaus, a brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Lee Larson and James Waech.

A wedding supper was served at Old Fort Silver, Silver Creek, for about 250 guests, followed by a dance for about 400 guests. After a honeymoon in northern Wisconsin the couple will be at home at R. 2, Kewaskum. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kelling are employed at the West Bend Company.

Young pigs will not survive cold temperatures. Keep temperatures between 80 - 90 degrees in the farrowing pen, says Robert Grummer, livestock specialist at University of Wisconsin.

NEW CHEVELLE!

BY CHEVROLET

The kind of handling ease you'd expect in a smaller car. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

Only a car that looks as good as this could come between Chevrolet and Chevy II. Come on down and stare at it.

New Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses*!

And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too.

Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.
