Vil. Board to Pay Railway $580 for Portion of Street

CITE CHANGES IN VOTING TIME, NOMINATION FILING

At its regular monthly meeting Monday evening the village board of Kewaskum accepted an offer made by the Chicago and Northwestern Railway to sell to the village for $580 a portion of Railroad st. which, according to county records, had never been deeded to the village.

The section of the street involved runs north from the center of Main st. to the center of First st. and Railroad st. runs parallel with the C. & N. W. tracks and right-of-way.

Appearing before the board was Mrs. Alpha Novotny of Sheboygan Falls to question a raise of $4,370 on the value of property she owns in the village at 1535 Fond du Lac ave. Wayland Tessar, village president, explained the re-evaluation of all properties and that the new figures represent 100 per cent valuation, compared with an 80 per cent rate before. Mrs. Novotny was told she should have appeared before the board of review in October but she said she was not aware that reassessment was done or that the board of review had met. She was also informed of her right to pay taxes under protest.

Also appearing were Geidel Brothers of Newburg, who claimed that three two-family duplex buildings they are constructing on Braatz dr. were assessed for full value. They stated two of the buildings were not complete at assessment time and construction on the third building had not begun. They were advised to pay the complete tax on the vacant lot and use their privilege of paying one-half of the tax on the buildings by Feb. 28. When the remainder of the tax is due Aug. 1, the board of review will have met and an adjustment can be made, the board informed them.

It was made known that the use of snowmobiles within the village limits is prohibited and Police Chief Roland Pledl was instructed to enforce this law.

William Martin, village commissioner, cited recent changes in state election laws, one of which requires polls to be open at a minimum from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., adding two hours to the polling time here. Board members agreed wages of poll workers should be adjusted proportionately. Another change pointed out by Martin sets the deadline for filing nomination papers for local offices at Jan. 30, instead of the previous deadline of Mar. 17. The board approved a resolution setting the number of poll workers at six.

The elementary school requested another street light near the school on Second st. and the request will be forwarded to the Wisconsin Electric Power Co.

The board denied the claim of $42 submitted by Robert Schmidt for cleaning out a sewer leading from the village main to his home at 315 Forest ave., on the grounds that the village is responsible for its sewer main only.

The two foreign exchange students and their American families were entertained over the holidays at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Edwards.

sewage treatment plant, was instructed to continue to check if shock loads are continuing to enter the plant and to make his report to Supt. Armin Oppermann.

Service in Area Interrupted by Power Failure

CAUSES MOTORS TO BURN OUT LOCALLY

A power failure Tuesday afternoon interrupted service in a widespread area when a 138,000 volt transmission line originating at Saukville and servicing this area failed. The trouble on the line was not immediately determined but an alternate line was later "cut in" to supply power until the difficulty could be reached.

Affected by the interruption in power were customers in West Bend, Slinger, Hartford, Campbellsport, Lomira, Kewaskum and as far westward as Watertown. It was reported that a number of motors at a local plant were burned out by the power interruption and some workers were dismissed temporarily. A motor also burned out at a local store.

The interruption to service occurred about 1:45 p. m. and was corrected about 35 minutes later.

George Strodthoff, manager of the northern division of the Wisconsin Electric Power Co., with main offices in West Bend, said the cause of the trouble was that a "jumper wire" or connector apparently broke, but remained in place which made detection of the failure difficult on an original survey of the power line from Saukville to the St. Lawrence substation in Washington county by helicopter. The break occurred at a point just south of West Bend and was repaired during the night.

Ambulance Calls

Friday, Jan. 5, 7 a. m.—Margaret Simon, R. 3, Campbellsport, removed to St. Agnes hospital, Fond du Lac.

Sunday, Jan. 7, 4 p. m.—Elaine Warsek, 930 N. 31st st., Milwaukee, removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, with a possible fractured knee suffered in a mishap at Wunderberg Ski Hill.

Tuesday, Jan. 9, 11:30 p. m.—Mrs. Carol Zimmer, R. 2, Kewaskum, removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital with a possible leg fracture suffered in a fall in the village.

Wednesday, Jan. 10, 4 p. m.—Lucille Schickert, 14, 1176 Western ave., Kewaskum, removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital with injuries she incurred when she was struck by a car at the intersection of Main st. and Fond du Lac ave. while on her way home from school.

Wednesday, Jan. 10, 11 p. m.—Arnold Zeimet, 138 Forest ave., Kewaskum, removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital with hand and arm injuries and leg laceration he suffered when he was pinned between a moving car and tree at his home. It was reported that Zeimet had parked his car on the garage drive and when he left the vehicle to open the garage door the auto began moving backwards. In attempting to leap into the car and stop it he in some manner became caught between the moving vehicle and an adjacent tree.

Sportsmen's Club Elects Officers

The regular monthly meeting of the Kettle Moraine Sportsmen's association of Kewaskum was held Tuesday night, Jan. 9, at the American Legion clubhouse. The main business of the meeting was the election of officers. New officers elected are:

President, George Hanrahan; vice-president, Maurie Struebing; secretary, Steve Liegl; treasurer, Bob Struebing; directors, Walter Schmidt, Ray Klein and Harold Westerman.

Following the meeting lunch was served at the Glacier Inn.

Cong. Bill Steiger Kewaskum Visitor

Congressman Bill Steiger was a visitor in Kewaskum Thursday. He was scheduled to hold office hours at the post office from 10 to 11 a. m. but when he arrived in his home city of Oshkosh by plane from Washington, D. C. some unexpected, urgent business confronted him that prevented him from arriving here until almost noon. His home secretary, Keith Mulligan, took his place in holding hours at the post office.

Cong. Steiger and his secretary also paid a visit at the Statesman office and he very graciously invited Postmaster Harry Koch, Village Commissioner Bill Martin and wife and the publisher and his wife to luncheon at the Wigwam Supper club. Sorry we had to decline because of a busy press day.

Following luncheon Cong. Steiger visited the Kewaskum Elementary school, especially to see Mrs. LaVerne Hron's fourth grade class, which had waited for him at the post office and missed him in the morning. The congressman and his secretary were amazed at some of the highly intellectual questions popped at them by the young fourth graders, who proved they were really up on current events.

From here Cong. Steiger drove to Hartford for office hours from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. and then returned to West Bend to hold hours from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. In the evening he appeared in Sheboygan.

FIREMEN INSPECT SCHOOL; PLAN FOR SOCIAL EVENTS

At 7 p. m. last Thursday, preceding their monthly meeting, members of the Kewaskum fire department made an inspection tour of the local high school building for fire fighting and protection purposes.

Both active and honorary members of the department will hold their annual stag party at the fire station this Saturday night, Jan. 13. Two weeks later, on Saturday night, Jan. 27, the 45 firemen, honorary members and their wives will enjoy their annual banquet at the Wigwam Supper club. Early in February the firemen will participate in the bowling tournament of the Badger Firemen's association at Grafton and in March the Badger association banquet will be held at the Belgium Community Center.

The district meeting will open at 11:30 a. m., with the business session starting after lunch. The speaker will be C. T. McCleery, Appleton, market administrator for federal orders 39, 45 and 51. Also, based on the study committee's report, the ADA board of directors requested a representative of the department of agriculture be present to answer questions regarding the marketing order procedures.

Completing the program will be showing of films and distribution of door prizes.

Nominations for committeemen, to serve three years, are: Robert Bird, Brownsville; Roger Fink, Mayville; Floyd Keuler, Mayville; and Les Woller, Fond du Lac.

Jaycee Outstanding Young Man, Bosses Night Program Set

CONG. STEIGER TO SPEAK AT WEST BEND DINNER

The annual West Bend Jaycee Outstanding Young Man and Bosses Night programs are scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 25, at the Linden Inn. The guest speaker is the Hon. William A. Steiger of the 6th Congressional District. Steiger will fly here from Washington for the event.

Bosses Night affords local Jaycees the opportunity of taking their bosses out for cocktails and dinner.

The Outstanding Young Man program is designed to honor outstanding young men in the chapter area. Several young men will be honored and one of them will be selected as the outstanding young man to receive the Distinguished Service Award.

Candidates need not be Jaycees. Any young man of Jaycee age (21-36) from the chapter area could be a candidate. A committee has been selected to scout for candidates. This procedure differs from past years when the chapter sent out several hundred letters to the business and professional community seeking candidates.

Among the members of the committee are: George Altendorf of The First State Bank; Dan Dayton of Town & Country Squire; Joe Ecker of Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co.; Carl Kircher of West Bend Pharmacy; Jul Kuhn of Kuhn's Liquor Store; Pete Nannetti of Jt. School Dist. No. 1; Ed Neumann of West Bend Company. Local citizens are urged to get in touch with any one of the above-named individuals if they have a suggestion for an OYM candidate. Names of proposed candidates can also be given to Ken Schmidt, Calvin "Kelly" Held, Jr. or Bill Wessing of the Jaycees or Atty. Gerald F. Marine, who is chairman of the event.

Another committee has been selected to choose the field of outstanding young men and the recipient of the Distinguished Service Award. The names of this committee are kept secret until the evening of the event.

"Have you heard about Walter? They took him to the hospital this morning."

"That can't be. I saw him last night, out dancing with a girl." "So did his wife."

Don't you wish you had electric heat?

The heat that can't make dirt!

This seldom happens in an electrically heated home. Electric heat can't make dirt. Ask any of our electric heating customers. They'll tell you that for real cleanliness you can't beat electric heat. It's as clean as sunshine itself.

You don't have to dust nearly as often with electric heat. There's far less tattletale dust on tables, walls, windows, curtains and drapes stay clean longer. You save on decorating costs.

Facts explode the "high cost" myth

Some people would have you believe you have to be made of money to enjoy electric heat. Not so. In a properly insulated 6-room house you might expect to pay about $200 a year for electric heat. That's about $60 more than you might pay for some other kind of heat. But electric heat is so clean and trouble-free you have less decorating expense, no annual service checkup charge and practically no maintenance costs. And when you heat your whole house with electricity, you qualify for a special low bargain rate for all the electricity you use, for any purpose—even air conditioning.

Students at New UW Center in West Bend Will Have Spare Time for Work

Going to college full-time is a demanding business. With term papers, laboratory work, reading assignments and exams, it seems that students would have time for nothing but school.

But for the average college student that's simply not true.

And when students who begin college at the new University of Wisconsin freshman-sophomore center in West Bend next September get adjusted to the routine, they will find—as college students have always found—a surprising amount of free time.

How each student spends his spare time will be a personal decision, but if patterns at the 11 existing centers are repeated, more than half the Washington County Center students will use some spare moments for part-time employment.

Students now attending a center work for many different reasons: some because their parents cannot help, others because they want the feeling of independence that comes with earning their own money. Still others work to save for later education.

One sophomore coed at the University of Wisconsin Center in Green Bay works a total of 23 hours a week at two jobs and uses her earnings to pay all college and living expenses.

"My parents couldn't possibly help with my schooling because they can't afford it," she says. She feels the responsibility has been good for her. "I'm very happy that things are the way they are."

Independence is a major factor. "I think many could get by without working," says Herbert Scidmore, student adviser at the University Center in Marshfield. "Many students just don't want to ask their parents for help."

The type of jobs that students can get depend on two factors: what's available and what they can do. The more skills a student has the better the job he's likely to get. Students at other centers work as lab technicians, service station attendants, bartenders, retail clerks and any number of other relatively "unskilled" jobs.

The average student earns $1.50 an hour and works about 15 hours weekly.

A number of students have been able to find employment right in the center. They help themselves and the center at the same time by serving in the libraries and as assistants to faculty and the administrative staff.

In many cases jobs have been arranged through a center's Office of Student Affairs. These may be either federally sponsored work-study jobs or regular employment. Work-study jobs are part of the university's financial aid program and are only open to students who meet a defined financial need. The federal government pays a large portion of the wages in these jobs.

"We are especially interested in arranging work-study help here," says Harry Maxwell, dean of the Washington County Center. "Applications are now being accepted and I would like young people in the area who are interested to contact the center soon. Work-study is an excellent way for the student to gain experience in his field and earn income at the same time."

The effect that working has on grades naturally is different in each case, but in general, center students do not believe that working hurts their academic standing.

"Working hasn't affected my grades," says Eunice Adamany, Rock County Center coed and part-time lab technician at Janesville's Gibbs Manufacturing Corp., an electronics firm. "I do spend a lot of time rushing around so there isn't much time on my hands."

Eunice works several days a week from 7 a. m. to 9:30 a. m., drives to the center where she stays until late afternoon, and then goes back to work from 4 to 7 p. m.

"I think you do better when you're working," says Kathy Stubbs, a freshman at the Green Bay Center. "If I had more time I wouldn't use it studying as efficiently as I do now." Views of the relationship between working and grades differ, but there seems to be a general agreement that, as Carol Hartman, a Manitowoc County Center student put it, "You begin to appreciate a college education more when you work because you've earned the money to pay for it yourself."

One of the mysteries of life is why people with brains are too busy to use them.

The person who talks all the time has nothing to say.

Mothers Escalate Birth Defects War In Nationwide March of Dimes Drive

A nationwide march, calling for escalation and all-out efforts to win a war, is planned for the week of January 21. Feelings run high in favor of this cause and none will oppose it.

Everyone is a hawk in the battle against crippling birth defects which strike a quarter of a million newborn babies every year in the United States.

This year, more than a million mothers have volunteered to serve the March of Dimes in its continuing fight against the heartbreak of birth defects. Marching Mothers know that March of Dimes funds conquered polio in the 1950s and freed them from fear of this childhoodcrippler.

Now, determined that children handicapped by birth defects be given a better chance in life, and in the hope that unborn generations will be spared, volunteers will march through their neighborhoods on behalf of the 1968 March of Dimes campaign.

They will urge people to contribute to the important work carried on by medical teams at 100 March of Dimes birth defects centers and to support the voluntary health organization's research and education programs.

For the fifth consecutive year, actress Jane Wyatt is serving as national chairman of the March of Dimes Mothers' March on birth defects. As in the past, Miss Wyatt will personally lead the drive in her Southern California community, calling on her neighbors to ask them to give to the March of Dimes.

A frequent visitor to birth defects centers around the country, Miss Wyatt is staunch in her belief that the fight can be won if enough support is given to those who are leading the way.

March of Dimes-financed Centers conduct a triple attack on birth defects—the Great Destroyer. In addition to diagnosis and treatment, scientists are studying the causes of defects and ways of preventing them.

No birth defect ever touches one person alone. One American family in 10 knows the tragedy of a child with congenital handicap, either mental or physical. For this reason, the March of Dimes pays close attention to educational efforts which bring greater understanding of the problem to more people.

IT'S NO SECRET that actress Jane Wyatt again will lead more than one million volunteers in the national Mothers' March for the 1968 March of Dimes campaign against birth defects. The happy fellow learning the good news is National Poster Child Timothy Faas of Whittier, Calif.

Mothers' March volunteers also want parents and future parents to know about sound health practices which can mean everything to their children.

This year they will carry a personal message, "For Women Only," from Dr. Virginia Apgar of The National Foundation-March of Dimes. An internationally recognized medical authority, she developed the "Apgar Score," widely used throughout the world to determine the condition of an infant immediately after delivery.

In a personalized note, Dr. Apgar begins with the importance of prenatal care. She urges mothers and future mothers to have a complete physical check-up and to talk their husbands and fiances into doing the same. Health histories and any family background of birth defects should be given to the doctor and his advice followed faithfully during pregnancy. Dr. Apgar warns against taking any drugs or medication—even aspirin—during pregnancy without a doctor's approval.

To mothers marching against birth defects, it is not enough to be concerned for just one week in January. The March of Dimes, and all who are associated with it, have a twofold purpose. They want every child born with a severe handicap to lead a happy, useful life in a society which fully accepts him. Beyond this, they are working to keep such blows from striking others. The task calls for wide support.

Indian Cagers Whipped Three Times in Week

TROUNCED BY LOMIRA, SLINGER, CAMPBELLSPORT

The Kewaskum Indians probably wish the Christmas vacation would have lasted a week longer. Returning to action after the holidays, they had a busy week and a disastrous one, playing three games and losing all of them by decisive scores.

Opening with a non-conference game against Lomira, third place team in the Tri-County league with a 4-2 record, here last Wednesday, the Indians took it on the chin, 70-57. Dave Burkholder scored 23 points to lead the Lions, who made 31 of 68 shots from the field, Kewaskum hit only 17 of 57, but connected on 23 of 38 from the foul line, which kept them in the game. The Lions were called for 26 fouls to only 11 for the Indians. Terry Koth and Jim Schuster shared scoring honors for the Indians with 15 points apiece. Lomira had a 39-33 edge in rebounds over Kewaskum's small team. The Lions led at halftime, 27-23.

Getting back to Scenic Moraine play here Friday, the Indians, as expected, lost to a strong Slinger five, 78-61. The Owls upset league leading North Fondy Tuesday, 75-65, to move into a tie for first place. Mike Duehning, a 6-foot-6 pivot, was the leading light behind Slinger's balanced offense here. He took advantage of his height to score 25 points against Kewaskum as the Owls won their eighth game in nine starts. Marv Tanck kept the Indians from falling out of sight in the game with 18 points. Teammate Schuster lent a helping hand with 12 points and Perry Koth managed the same number. Kewaskum trailed at the intermission by 13 points, 37-24.

Playing at Campbellsport Tuesday night the Indians really hit the skids when they were walloped by the past place Bells, who hadn't won a conference game all season, 63-47. Campbellsport presented first year coach Bob Collins with his first victory by opening up a 28-20 halftime lead over the Indians and increased their margin in the second half. In the fourth quarter the Bells widened their advantage by sinking 10 straight free throws. They connected on 12 of 15 gratis attempts on the night. Senior John Stoffel came up with a big game for the Bells. He plunked in 25 points and took charge of the boards to grab 15 big rebounds. Schuster's 15 points paced the losers.

AFS STUDENT TO SPEAK AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEET

Miss Johanna "Han" Doorenbosch of Tilburg, Netherlands, who is spending this school year in Kewaskum on an American Field Service scholarship, and residing at the Orville Kern home, will be guest speaker at the Saturday, Jan. 13, meeting of the Kewaskum Woman's club.

Miss Doorenbosch's appearance will provide members and guests an opportunity to meet her and become better acquainted with the way of life in the Netherlands.

Hostesses will be Mrs. R. G. Edwards, Mrs. Burns Nelthorpe and Mrs. Wilmer Falk.

County Holstein Breeders to Hold Meeting, Banquet

Cyril Rohde, chairman of the Washington County Holstein Breeders association, has announced that their annual meeting and banquet will be held at St. Kilian's Catholic church, Hartford, on Thursday, Jan. 25, at 7:30 p. m. As in the past, the association extends an invitation to all Holstein breeders to attend.

Rohde indicated that the board of directors feels they have arranged an outstanding program. Following the banquet the annual meeting will be held, with election of directors. Young men and women who have been active in the Holstein association during the past year will be honored. Speakers will be Zane Akins, fieldman of the National Holstein association, and Merle Howard, formerly of Mooseheart Farms and now a member of the Pieper Bros. sales organization of Watertown.

According to Rohde, the association's board of directors was interested in information on sales of cattle to out-of-state areas. Consequently they surveyed sales agencies that feature Holstein cattle. Howard has had considerable contact with selling to faraway markets. It is interesting to note that Howard judged the Washington County Fair dairy show several years ago.

Tickets for the banquet are available from the board of directors, who are: John Horlamus, Christ Mayer, Deward Proeber, Phillip Frey, Dick Mayer, Edward Melius, Robert Heid, Thomas Wiedmeyer, and Cyril Rohde. They may also be purchased at the university extension office in West Bend. Price of the tickets is $2.50 per person. Reservations must be made not later than Monday, Jan. 22.

Present National Safety Award To Red Cross

Donald Ensenbach, chairman of the West Bend chapter of the American Red Cross, reports that in the December issue of the Newsletter it was announced that the American Red Cross has received the National Safety Council's Public Safety Distinguished Service to Safety award.

This is the first time such an award has been made. In making this initial presentation, the Safety Council, cited the Red Cross for its accomplishments in support of accident prevention. The honor was extended at the Public Safety Conference dinner of the National Safety Congress in Chicago.

A. B. Murphy, ARC national director of safety services, represented the organization and accepted the award from Howard Pyle, president of the NSC.

"We feel especially honored to be named the first organization to receive the award," Murphy said. "This is a fine accolade to the 2,600 chapters of the Red Cross who, last year, conducted training in first aid, small craft, swimming, and life saving courses. It is also a well-deserved tribute to the professional staff of the safety services of the American National Red Cross who have been instrumental in the training of thousands of volunteer instructors to conduct these courses in their communities."

State-Federal Meet Slated at Madison, Schroeder Reports

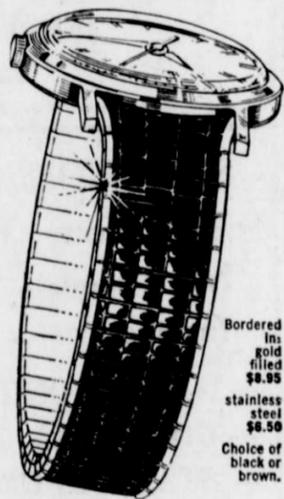

"A State-Federal Legislative Conference will be held in Madison Friday (Jan. 12) to discuss state-federal revenue sharing, inter-governmental relations, grant-in-aid programs, and communications between our state and federal governments," Assemblyman Fred Schroeder (R-West Bend), reported today.

The conference will be attended by state legislators and several congressmen from around the state.

In the last session of the 1967 legislature, various problems were discovered relating to federal legislation that was passed in the 90th session of Congress which will greatly affect this state. One example was the federal meat inspection act. The assembly agriculture committee has held meetings with the State Department of Agriculture to assure Wisconsin consumers that they would continue to receive safe and wholesome meat products.

"It is imperative," Assemblyman Schroeder concluded, "that we maintain state-federal cooperation in developing program goals, standards, and requirements to implement legislation. We must coordinate state and federal activities to solve the problems of this state."

Harry likes to stay right on top of things.

Like your bumper.

If you don't want to be "it" when some guy in a hurry starts playing bumper tag, just slow down. He'll probably go around you. Even if he doesn't, you'll open up enough interval between you and the car ahead to avoid a possible sudden stop and sock.

Whenever, wherever you drive... drive defensively. Watch out for the other guy. He may be in your rearview mirror.
