Golden Wedding Event Observed By Local Couple

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Groszklaus, 1195 Riverview dr., Kewaskum, was observed on Saturday afternoon and evening, Aug. 30, at the Labor Center in Kewaskum.

Mr. Groszklaus' marriage to the former Alvina Lillge took place at Immanuel Lutheran church in the town of Scott, Sheboygan county, on Aug. 30, 1919, with Pastor Gustav Kaniess officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Groszklaus were engaged in farming near Boltonville for 24 years. In 1943 they moved to Kewaskum where Mr. Groszklaus went into the carpenter business, from which he retired about two years ago.

Supper was served to 110 relatives and friends. Tables were decorated with gladioli and mums, miniature golden slippers and a three-tier wedding cake baked and beautifully decorated by their daughter-in-law.

Relatives and friends attending came from Milwaukee, West Bend, Waubesa, Adell, Random Lake, Boltonville, Fillmore and Kewaskum. The afternoon and evening were spent in card playing and visiting. Music was furnished by Dale Matthies.

The couple's marriage was blessed with one son, Floyd, one daughter-in-law, Beulah, and one grandson, Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. Groszklaus enjoy traveling, fishing and gardening and Mrs. Groszklaus also enjoys crocheting, knitting and tatting.

Children's Service Society Appeal for Funds Is Underway

DR. EDWARDS, MRS. CHAS. MILLER ON COMMITTEE

Joe is one of 343 placed for adoption by the Children's Service Society last year.

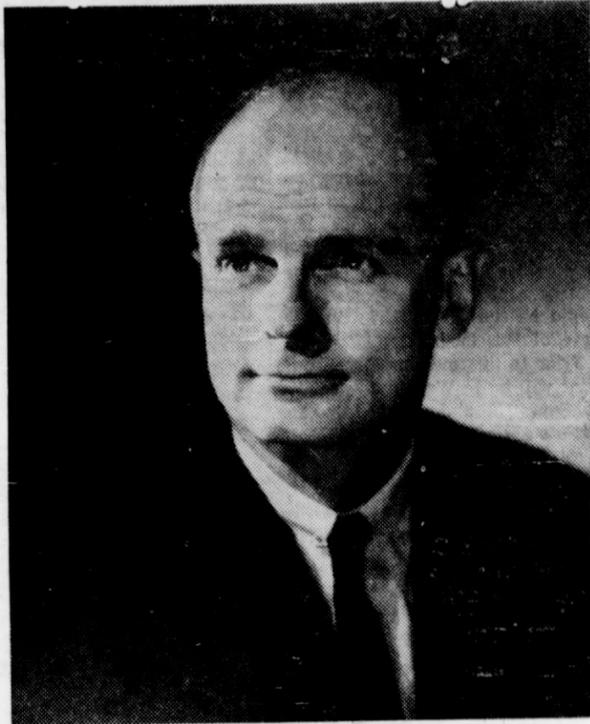

The Washington County Sponsoring committee of the society is making its annual appeal for contributions to meet the cost of helping local children and families. Letters have been mailed in communities where there is not an organized united fund.

Serving on the committee are Dr. Richard G. Edwards and Mrs. Charles Miller of Kewaskum; Ray Umbs, Allenton; Miss Helen F. Geddes, Hubertus; Clarence E. Schramm, Germantown; Mrs. James Albrecht, Jackson; J. J. Shinnars and Arthur Snyder, Hartford; Mrs. William P. Kratz and the Rev. Donald Priestaf, Slinger; and Judge Milton Meister and Bernard J. Zeigler, West Bend.

The Children's Service Society is Wisconsin's only privately supported child welfare agency not under sectarian auspices which provides an adoption program, foster family care of children and planning for unwed parents in all parts of the state. Last year forty-three Washington county people were helped.

Founded in 1889, Children's Service now has offices in eleven Wisconsin cities. Washington county children and families are served from the general headquarters in Milwaukee.

Proxmire Labor Day Speaker Here

SENATOR WILLIAM PROXMIRE

WELFARE CHANGE HAS MERIT, SENATOR SAYS

Senator William Proxmire (D-Wis.) told a Labor Day audience at the Washington County Central Labor Council's annual celebration in Kewaskum Sunday that President Nixon's proposal for an overhaul of the country's welfare system has a great deal of merit but he predicted it is sure to set off "a red-hot debate in the Congress."

The Wisconsin Senator said: "There are great merits in President Nixon's welfare proposals. There is great merit in the devices the President has suggested we build into our welfare system for providing a work incentive. In other words, the welfare system the President has proposed would make work more attractive to able-bodied persons on welfare than staying on the dole. The reverse is now the case.

"There is great merit also in another feature of the President's proposal which would bring about an even distribution of welfare to people all over the country regardless of the state they live in. This would slow down the massive migration to our large metropolitan areas from rural states with low welfare assistance. This migration is part of the reason for the unrest in our cities today.

"At the same time, however, the President has greatly understated the cost of his program. It could be very high. The cost could be in the area of $5 billion to $10 billion.

"The assumption underlying the President's cost figures is that there will be no recession. But if he is wrong and unemployment increases, the cost of this program will skyrocket.

"Unless we cut other spending sharply, we cannot undertake this new welfare program without much higher taxes, more inflation or both. This means we must cut military spending, space spending and public works."

'Open Welfare Day' Meeting Is Held By County League

The Washington County Welfare League held what they term "Open Welfare Day." Many civic organizations were there stating their backing the W.C.W.L. on the stand they must take because of the recent budget cuts. There was a meeting at the old court house Thursday, Sept. 4, at 7:30. Assemblyman, Fred Schroeder was at the meeting Thursday night discussing the issue. Just a few organizations that were present Thursday night were the Human Rights Council, the churches and their organizations, the Young Democrats, United Migrants, and several welfare leagues throughout the state.

These same organizations will be present Friday donating baked goods to be sold to raise funds to feed these families that have been cut off aid. Assemblyman Fred Schroeder has stated that there must be more urging to bring in more training programs. This is an absolute necessity to train our people so they can help themselves.

The W.C.W.L. took place in the Labor Day parade Sunday at Kewaskum. It is believed this is the first time in history that a welfare league has been represented in a Labor Day parade. Assemblyman Schroeder stated he hopes to spend a lot of time at the bake sale Friday, discussing the issues with the public.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

After the great, misunderstanding so-called humanitarians have stopped all live turkey shoots, what will they do next to keep themselves occupied?

For many of these people who have written to the editors condemning the Kewaskum Turkey Shoot and damning the Kiwanians with vicious and slimy names, a sort of occupational therapy has developed for them and has probably been useful in keeping them busy. Many Kiwanians and local officers have received letters from this self-appointed clan, that, believe me, are unprintable. For months now, we have ignored these busybodies, but some of us have felt that the newspapers have overbalanced by far the coverage given to those who would stop this wholesome event that harms no one and provides recreation for thousands.

This is our 17th annual Turkey Shoot; we have had 14 without a word of complaint; our children have grown to be good citizens and have been involved in less trouble than 99% of the communities in this country. They are not butchers and murderers as accused by these self-appointed humanitarians in letters to editors and to us.

What will be in store from these "anti-anything bugs" in 5, 10, or 15 years? Would you believe no slaughterhouses in the country? Will they say it is too cruel to kill animals... a meatless society?

Surely Mrs. Harry Hunt and her tribe will want to stop all hunting of game animals, because maybe by that time they will have discovered that the turkeys that are shot and immediately killed and bled at our shoot suffer less than game birds or animals.

Perhaps by then one of their group will be able to translate the language of these non-humans and discover that others receive inhumane treatment. Perhaps a rabbit, squirrel, deer, pheasant, partridge, duck or goose will inform them that they are all not immediately killed when amateur humans shoot at them.

Perhaps it will be told by a knowledgeable translator that one game animal told of being shot in the leg, torso, and the neck, lying wounded, bleeding and suffering for days, hoping that someone would come along and take it out of its misery. But instead it slowly recuperated, healed and lived to be shot at again the next fall.

Perhaps it will be told about the fish who was proud to have been caught, finally to serve its purpose as food in this society, only to be thrown back into the water because the human decided it was too small. The fish had no chance to grow up, because it slowly died with a hook left in its mouth. Please don't misunderstand us... there is little that can be done about the situations above, but never, at any time, does any turkey that is shot at our shoot have to suffer more than a few seconds from the time it is shot.

Now, Mrs. Hunt and her trumped-up cohorts say nothing of game hunting. Why not? Because they are participants in hunting and fishing, and they enjoy this; and therefore, naturally, this makes it right. They have designated themselves as great animal-tarians and they will call the shots, telling what is right and what is wrong. We realize that, in most instances, degrading another is not smart, and in a way we are sorry that we have to defend ourselves and our fund-raising project.

Although our Turkey Shoot may have received recognition, think about this: what about the recognition that these animal-tarians have received? Who was Mrs. Hunt before she started writing letters to the editors about the Kewaskum Turkey Shoot?

How do we Kewaskum citizens feel? If anyone thinks that we live only for our annual Turkey Shoot in this little town, forget it; but once the Shoot was started, sportsmen and others enjoyed it, and thousands of people have come each year to enjoy all of the events. Hundreds of our citizens have sacrificed money, sweat, and yes, even blood from minor injuries while working. Why? Can you think of any other project in a small community such as this that would provide our children with Little League baseball uniforms and equipment, tennis courts, swimming beach, swimming pool, scholarships, a Boy Scout sponsor, etc.?

We work hard handling turkeys. It is not easy, nor is it fun, but by gun we give our customers their money's worth, and we supply for our children a few of the things big-city dwellers have and take for granted. We wish Mrs. Hunt and folks like her would do something worth-while for our society, such as hitting at the real core of crime instead of blaming our little old Turkey Shoot for all of today's crime and crime in the future.

Sincerely,
A Group of Interested
Kewaskum Citizens

Over 400 state guardsmen, officers, WACs and nurses of the 1st Battalion, 1st Infantry Regiment, Wisconsin State Guard and attached units held a 3-day training bivouac at Mauthe lake over the weekend. The troops, including a band, came to Kewaskum via special troop train and traveled to the lake area by truck. Kewaskum was a liberty town for many of the guardsmen Saturday night. Visitors were allowed at the encampment Sunday and 3,000 attended. After the bivouac the village gave the men a rousing send-off.

Lakes Team Edged In Final Game 7-6

With some help from the umpires, Thiensville-Mequon shaded Kewaskum there Saturday night, 7-6, to bring a long season for the locals to a close in the Lakes circuit. Kewaskum wound up in 7th place with a 4-11 record for the season. The team still has a postponed game with Barton but the tilt will not be made up because neither club is in the running in the loop and the contest would have no bearing in the standings.

Thiensville-Mequon took a 5-1 lead with a big 4-run second inning but Kewaskum kept pecking away with single runs in the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th innings to tie the score at 6-6 after the winners had also added a run in the 5th. The winners needed the last of the 9th frame to win with a run scored on a hit and an error.

R. Colburn and A. Timm shared mound duties for the winners. They gave up 8 hits, while striking out 9 and walking five. Joel Fehlhaber was on the hill for Kewaskum and also was nicked for 8 hits. He whiffed 11 and walked 5.

M. Gengler and G. Moore each got 2 hits for Thiensville-Mequon and C. Elbe lashed out a home run in the very first inning. However, the hitting star of the contest was Kewaskum's Mark Heise with 3 for 4, including a round tripper. C. Jacak collected 2 safeties.

West Bend won the Northern division crown by shading Sheboygan, 1-0, Thursday night. But the Lithias were quickly ousted from the grand championship playoff series over the holiday weekend, losing to Lannon, 5-1, Sunday and to Dousman, 5-4, Labor Day.

Several Injured In Two Accidents

Despite the long holiday weekend, only two accidents were reported which occurred in this area or involved Kewaskum persons during the past week.

Two youths from Kewaskum and area were injured in a single car crash at 12:45 a. m. Monday on Hwy. 33 about 400 feet west of CTH M. The accident occurred as a car, driven by Robert A. Wilson, 19, Kewaskum, was westbound on Hwy. 33 and the auto went into a skid as the car came out of a right turn, causing the driver to lose control. The vehicle left the road and entered the north ditch, struck a power pole and continued into a ditch.

Hurt in the mishap were Leroy Schmidt, 18, of R. 2, Kewaskum, who suffered a cut on the left arm and a bump on the head, and Donald Mitchell, 18, Kewaskum, who sustained back and rib injuries. Both were passengers in the Wilson vehicle. It was reported that other passengers were also injured.

A mishap which occurred at 5:05 p. m. last Wednesday involved autos driven by Franklin E. Nolting, 229 Main st., Kewaskum, and John P. Fell, R. 2, Kewaskum. The accident took place on Fond du Lac ave. at the intersection with Clinton st. Chief of Police Donald Hlavaty reported that Fell was southbound on Fond du Lac ave. and Nolting was preparing to turn north onto the avenue. Nolting said his view was obstructed by a parked truck causing him to pull into oncoming traffic. Jeffrey Ruplinger, 2, of Campbellsport suffered a swollen leg in the mishap and was treated by a local physician. The right front of Nolting's vehicle and right front of the Fell car were damaged.

Horicon to Open Football Season Here Tonight; Squad of 107 Reports

Indians Have 14 Lettermen Back on Squad

TWO ALL-CONFERENCE SELECTIONS RETURN

The Kewaskum Indians of the Scenic Moraine conference will pry off the lid on the 1969 football season in a non-conference game with the Horicon Marshmen of the Northern Little Ten conference here tonight (Friday) at 7:30 o'clock.

This will be the seventh meeting between these two schools and a keen opening game rivalry has developed between the Indians and Marshmen. Of the six previous meetings, Kewaskum has won only one, and this was the only game of the series played at Kewaskum. However, all of the games were close and hotly contested. Meeting Horicon for the second time at home, the Indians will be out to avenge a 13-7 heart-breaker last year and gain in the series.

The Indians have a big, experienced line but lost their quarterback and one running back through graduation. But they have two good quarterback replacements in Junior Mike Doherty and Senior Lee Rammer. Doherty is a nifty runner with Rammer the better passer. With 14 lettermen returning, Kewaskum also has much depth and hopes to use this game as a springboard to get them on their way to a winning season.

Head Coach Joe Harlow reports that Horicon has a fine "first 11" but lacks depth and many of his players will have to carry the load on both offense and defense. Therefore injuries during the season could prove very costly as each injury is the same as losing two men. The probable starting backs for Coach Roger Meyer's Marshmen will be running backs Elroy Thrun and Mark Sullivan and quarterback Joe Aumann. Horicon had a 5-3 record in the Little Ten last season.

The 14 lettermen returning to the team include the two above mentioned quarterbacks, Doherty and Rammer; Ron Theusch, senior, tailback; Glen Weinreich, senior, fullback; Randy Koth, senior, offensive end and defensive half; Steve Stern, senior, defensive end; Tom Butchlick, senior, defensive end; Russ Gavin, senior, Leon Schultz, senior, Lloyd Laatsch, senior, and Larry Bunkelman, senior, all tackles; Syl. Schoofs, guard; Leo Gundrum, senior, linebacker, and Jim LaMarche, senior, defensive half. The above list shows that four big veteran tackles are back in the line.

Out of the above group, tackle Leon Schultz and linebacker Leo Gundrum were first string all-conference choices last year. Schultz also received honorable mention on the defensive all-conference squad. Gavin and Stern received honorable mention. All are back to do battle with another year's experience.

Other prospects who are strong contenders for varsity jobs and have shown much ability include Bob Krahn, junior, back; David Schacht and Ken Kreif, two juniors who are fighting it out for the position of first string center; seniors Greg Arndt, guard; Gary Martin, tackle; David Schaub, defensive guard; Glen Staehler, linebacker; Jim Tessar, end; Dan Stoffel, defensive end. Two sophomores may have earned possible starting jobs in the line, namely tackle Kim Rodenkirch and guard Steve Schoofs, and a junior, Joe Backhaus, may be a starter at defensive half. One other good back prospect, John Nohr, has the whooping cough and will be lost for a time.

A large squad of 107 boys reported to the coaches for football this season. (This is a very large squad indeed considering that a big school like West Bend had only 34 candidates for their squad this year.) The Indian squad includes 50 freshmen, 24 sophomores, 14 juniors and 19 seniors. Coaches this year are Joe Harlow, head coach and offensive coach; Pete Ritter defensive varsity and line coach; Jim Westphal, defensive backfield coach; Neil Denniston, JV coach; Tom Larsen and Howard Zemlicka freshmen coach.

Kewaskum will play a seven game schedule, six of them conference contests. A new school in the conference this year is Hartland Arrowhead (recently of the Southern Little Ten) which replaces Random Lake. Next year Mayville will also join the Scenic Moraine.

The schedule follows:
Friday, Sept. 5—Horicon here (non-conference).
Friday, Sept. 12—Pewaukee here
Friday, Sept. 19—North Fondy

Lakes Team Tips Old Timers, 4-2

The annual baseball game between the regular Kewaskum Land o' Lakes league "9" and a team of Kewaskum old timers was played Sunday afternoon. The old timers gave the Lakes nine some pretty keen competition although winding up on the losing end, 4-2.

The starting lineup for the old timers included Norm Held, left field; Dennis Konkel, second base; Wayland Tessar, first base; "Mix" Marx, pitcher; Augie Bilgo, third base; Clayton Stautz, center field; Don Meisenheimer, shortstop; Bob Staehler, right field, and Dick Edwards, catcher. When their aging bones began to ache they were relieved by Carl Koepke, John Tessar, "Hefty" Backhaus, Norbie Serwe, Frank Uelmen, "Barney" Prost, Bob Hanson, Jerry Buchel and Ricky Boden.

"Mix" Marx started on the mound for the old boys and was followed by Backhaus and Serwe. Between the three of them, they gave up nine hits and struck out seven. Their control was beautiful and they failed to walk a single batter. The Lakes team used five pitchers in an effort to check the "heavy hitting" of the old timers. Joel Fehlhaber started and was followed in turn by Al Koepke, Jerry Marx, Earl DuBois and Fred Bruhn. Actually, though, the old timers got only as many hits as the Lakes team used pitchers—five in all. Despite all their hurlers, the Lakes "9" couldn't fool the sharp-eyed old timer hitters, striking out only three, while also walking three.

Stautz and Bilgo paced the "alumni" with two hits apiece. W. Tessar got the other one. The Lakes lineup was so jumbled up in the scorebook it was impossible to tell who got the hits.

Like the New England boy and the poet, 4-H youths find plenty of inspiration for mind-stretching and using their hands to master skills. Projects are designed to arouse their curiosity and raise questions. The more they learn, the more competent they become to experiment, explore and find the answers, believes the Cooperative Extension Service which supervises 4-H.

And there are rewards both intrinsic and material.

More than $1 million contributed annually by private sources is channeled to 4-H members through the National 4-H Service Committee. Funds are used for county, regional, state and national awards ranging from certificates and medals to $1,000 scholarships. And educational aids covering many subjects are published and distributed to 4-H leaders and members.

For nearly 50 years, private funds have augmented the public-financed 4-H program. Some of the oldest and largest business enterprises in the U.S. have supported 4-H work since its inception.

Among the scores of 4-H sponsors are: Allis-Chalmers, Armour and Company, Carnation Company, Coats & Clark Inc., The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, General Foods Corporation, General Motors, Illinois Central Railroad and International Harvester Company.

Also, Kerr Glass Manufacturing Corporation, Montgomery Ward, Moorman Mfg. Co., Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation, Ralston Purina Company, The Singer Company, Santa Fe Railway System, and Wilson & Co., Inc., A Subsidiary of Ling-Temco-Vought Inc.

4-H Proves Old Adage

"You'd scarcely expect one of my age to speak in public on a stage," recited a 7-year-old school boy. "Don't view me with a critic's eye, but pass my imperfections by... tall oaks from little acorns grow. These thoughts inspire my youthful mind to be the greatest of mankind..."

This lad was not a 4-H'er, but he could have been. He lived in New Ipswich, New Hampshire in 1791.

Fifty years before a poet had written "Tis education forms the common mind; just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined."

Today's 4-H youngsters exemplify those often quoted lines, as did the first Heart-Hands-Health youth of the early 1900's.

Boys and girls work on projects that frequently shape their lives and future careers. Millions of 4-H alumni say early 4-H training was a big step toward their success.

"Learning-by-doing" has always been the 4-H way. Showing and sharing new knowledge gained and skills learned is part of the 4-H pattern. The steps to growth are unflinching.

A pre-teen girl enrolled in a clothing program starts out by making a simple item and progresses according to her ability. By the time she is in high school, she makes most of her own clothes. As a teen 4-H leader she teaches younger members how to sew.
