KHS Students Inducted Into National Honor Society

On the evening of Feb. 23, parents, teachers and friends gathered in the high school multi-purpose room to pay honor to Kewaskum High School's finest students. The occasion was the annual induction of new members into the Kewaskum Chapter of the National Honor Society.

The featured speaker at the ceremony was Rev. Daniel Schowalter, whose speech was entitled "Majoring in Minors." Rev. Schowalter explained the need to concentrate on the major purposes of life rather than the insignificant minors. Mr. Connors, principal, offered his congratulations to the new students after they had received their certificates.

As a result of the induction ceremony, 36 junior and senior members were added to the National Honor Society. This brings to 50 the number of members presently in the society.

New members inducted Feb. 23 are:

Class of 1970—Charles Battaglia, Darlene Baulender, Marie Ebert, Ann Fellenz, Karen Kreif, Jane Mueller, Gary Ramthun, Sylvester

German Measles Immunizations at Schools Next Week

FREE VACCINE OFFERED AT KEWASKUM WEDNESDAY

During the week of March 9, German Measles (rubella) immunizations will be offered FREE at school to all Washington county children in kindergarten through 5th grade. The FREE vaccine will also be offered to pre-school children in Day Care Centers and Head-start groups. In the evenings of the same week, clinics will be conducted in various areas of Washington county for pre-schoolers and 12 year olds whose parents wish to participate. The cost will be $1.75 per immunization dose. This is a new vaccine and should not be confused with Red measles vaccine which has been available for several years. The complete schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, March 10—Jackson Village Hall, 6 - 9 p. m.

Wednesday, March 11—Kewaskum Elementary School, 6 - 9 p. m.

Thursday, March 12—MacArthur School Gym (Germantown), 6 - 9 p. m.

Friday, March 13—Hartford City Hall, 6 - 9 p. m.

Rubella, or German measles is well recognized to be a common illness of childhood and frequently a parent may not even know his child has it. In adults, however, the disease is more serious. The most dangerous and tragic complication of rubella is primarily in the damage caused to an unborn child when a prospective mother contracts German measles during pregnancy. Rubella infection in the first three months carries a high risk of producing one or more birth defects in the baby. Sight and hearing impairment, mental retardation and heart damage are often the results of rubella infection during pregnancy.

Following the great rubella epidemic of 1964, approximately 20,000 children were born with birth defects. These rubella-damaged children are now ready for school and their needs in rehabilitation, care and education are of tremendous scope and cost. For example, education and care alone for a rubella-damaged child costs at least $9,000 a year, according to authorities in the field.

Now an end to this terrible toll is in sight. A proven vaccine has been developed for German measles. However, since this vaccine is not recommended for pregnant women, the best means of protecting the unborn child is by reducing the likelihood of rubella infection. The safest and most effective protection is eliminating the chance that the expectant mother will become infected by children.

Already some 30,000 children in the U. S. and abroad, have received the vaccine. So far, results have been excellent; the vaccine is safe and appears to provide long term immunity. The next step is to break once and for all the pattern of epidemic rubella. Parents and guardians — take advantage of this opportunity now.

DISCUSS FINANCING OF IMPROVEMENTS TO SEWAGE PLANT AT COST OF $200,000

By Ruth Held
of the Kewaskum Statesman

Opposition to the proposed construction of a two-story, eight-unit apartment building at the west end of Braatz Drive was voiced at the regular meeting of the village board Monday night.

Opposition was in the form of a petition expressing disapproval of 22 persons who reside near the site of the proposed housing unit and the personal appearance of Donald Steger, one of the petitioners.

He said that had he known of the construction plans for the apartment, he would not have bought the new home on Braatz Drive into which he moved two months ago. He pointed to the fact that there already is another similar apartment building on the street, which as of now, is only two blocks long.

Contemplated building plans were presented to the board at its February meeting when William Ruth, local realtor, appeared with Douglas Bloom, builder, of West Bend to inquire if the board would object to the construction of such a building. They asked for the opinion before they would proceed further.

The proposal then touched off a lengthy discussion between board members but it won 6 to 1 approval on a ballot vote. It was noted at that time that the plans would need state approval before a local building permit could be issued. As of Monday night, a building permit had not been applied for.

Braatz Drive is located in a new subdivision west of Highway 45 and it is still being developed, although many new homes have been built there. Just beyond the site of the proposed apartment, the terrain drops and the street dead-ends into a small creek.

It was pointed out that future plans call for development beyond the creek with a street to be built on either side. The petitioning homeowners contend that the apartment unit will lower the resale value of existing homes; it will hamper further development of the street and it will, in general, detract.

Village President Cyril Wiator told Steger, "I suggest you contact both Walter Braatz of Racine who owns the land in the subdivision and Ruth who sells the land for him."

Financing of proposed improvements to the sewage plant at an estimated $200,000 was discussed and it was noted that the village has received verbal commitment from a financial institution to guarantee the funds. It is expected the improvement costs will be abated by federal and state aids.

The opinion was that it would be advisable to borrow the money as soon as possible, then re-invest it until needed.

Two members of the American Legion Post appeared to ask if the top of a hill in the village park could be leveled to make it easier to set up tables in a beer garden.

Romaine, Bohn Nominated in Primary Here

INCUMBENT ROMAINE RUNS FAR AHEAD OF OPPONENTS

Veteran incumbent supervisor E. M. Romaine, chairman of the Washington County Board, seeking reelection, received a strong endorsement in Tuesday's Primary Election in the village (District 9).

Out of a total of 291 votes cast in the village, which is considered a fair turnout, Romaine tallied 211 votes as compared to 68 for Francis Bohn and 10 for Mrs. Marlene Shepherd, who ran a poor third. It will be Romaine against Bohn in the Spring Election April 7.

Tuesday's Primary was one of the lightest vote-wise in the county in many years with only 1,375 votes being cast in the five precincts. All four incumbent supervisors seeking re-election in the county won nominations. The only other districts having primaries included West Bend's 1st ward, West Bend's 6th ward, Town of Addison and Town of Polk.

Primary elections are required by state statute for county board seats when three or more candidates seek election to a district seat.

Rain and fog which blanketed the county Tuesday are believed to have kept many voters at home.

Named Canadian 150 Attend Cub Regional Sales Pack Annual Blue Manager of Regal And Gold Banquet

Jock Donnelly

Jock Donnelly has been named Canadian Regional Sales Manager of Regal Ware, Inc. according to Ronald O. Reigle, vice-president—Sales and Management. This is a newly created position intended to serve the needs of a rapidly expanding Canadian cookware market for the Kewaskum manufacturer.

A native of Scotland, Donnelly came to Canada in 1957 to accept a position as interior sales manager of the Inghram Canadian Clock Company.

In 1967, he founded the Jock Donnelly Sales Company, operating in the province of Ontario. The new company served as a manufacturer's agency of which Regal Ware was the main product line.

In his new position, Jock Donnelly will direct all sales activities for the cookware firm in the entire Dominion of Canada. He will make his headquarters in the Toronto area where he resides with his wife May.

One hundred and fifty persons attended Cub Pack 44's annual Blue and Gold banquet on Feb. 23, which highlighted a successful year.

Guests of honor included Robert Sparks, scoutmaster; Jim Paul assistant scoutmaster; Vern Butz, institutional representative; Darryl Hanley, district representative, and Mike Gnacinski, neighborhood committeeman.

Mike's fine baritone topped the group sing after supper. Everyone enjoyed such oldies as "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," "Row, Row, Row Your Boat" and finishing up with "God Bless America."

An excellent wrestling exhibition was given and the point system and various holds were demonstrated by Mr. Harlow and two members of the KHS wrestling team.

Five boys received awards and Pack Master Pete Albers informed the group that the Cub Pack had been awarded an Honor Unit Ribbon for their progress.

The den mothers would like to thank all the Cubs' mothers for their delightful delicacies that helped make the banquet so enjoyable.

Local Residents Enjoy Hawaii Tour

Mrs. Ray Keno and son Dick of Kewaskum, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Staehler, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Backhaus of St. Michaels were among a group of 30 tourists who recently returned from an AAA Hawaii 4 Isles tour. Rev. Vincent Schneider of St. Therese parish, Kenosha, also accompanied the group.

Mrs. Bonnie Stein of Waukesha was the tour escort and travel agent for AAA. They were greeted with orchid leis and kisses from a hula girl upon arrival at the Honolulu airport.

The weather during their stay averaged around 80 degrees so they were able to have an abundance of Hawaiian sunshine and received only a little rain one morning while at the Coco Palms on the island of Kauai, where they then observed a beautiful rainbow hovering over the coco palms. It was a most beautiful sight.

They spent about five days at the Holiday Isle Hotel in Honolulu at Waikiki Beach on the island of Oahu. While there they also viewed the Don Ho Show at the International Market Place in Honolulu, National Memorial Cemetery at Punchbowl Crater where thousands of our U.S. war veterans are at rest, went on the Pearl Harbor cruise on the ship Leilani, visited the Polynesian Cultural Center in Loie, where the South Pacific was represented in capsule fashion featuring the customs of Tahiti, Samoa, New Zealand, Tonga, Fiji and Hawaii. They also enjoyed Polynesian food at the center where they enjoyed some "Poi."

The other three islands visited were Kauai, Maui and Hawaii.

On Kauai they viewed Waimea Canyon, called the Grand Canyon of the Pacific, and the beautiful Fern Grotto, "the birthplace of the Hawaiian wedding song."

On the island of Maui they observed pineapple and sugar cane plantations and also an ancient whaling town at Lakina.

On the big island of Hawaii they arrived at Kona, the black sand beach, on Hawaiian Airlines to enjoy a 147-mile bus tour from Kona to Hilo around the volcano area. They were able to observe the volcano eruption which occurred in January of this year and was still active in some areas with sulphur vapors erupting from the surface.

These were some of the highlights of their tour. The group also enjoyed some fantastic entertainment by the dancing hula girls and ukelele music by the Hawaiians each evening after dinner at the hotels.

A visit to the orchid nursery ventured their most enjoyable venture and a night's stay at the luxurious Orchid Isle Hotel from where they departed the next afternoon for Hilo airport to board a Pan American jet leaving behind some beautiful 80 degree weather to arrive in Wisconsin 8½ hours later in below zero temperatures.

They all shivered with their sun tans and wished they could go back, but still were anxious to get home after the 13-day tour they all enjoyed tremendously, visiting our beautiful 50th state.

Jr. Woman's Club Thanks Villagers

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club surpassed its goal of fifty filled trading stamp books for Project Concern through the generosity of many of the Kewaskum residents. THANK YOU. A special thanks also to the girls of Cadet Troop 72 and Junior Troop 53 of the Girl Scouts for their efforts in collecting stamps.

Community involvement in this project has meant that a grand total of fifty-five filled books were collected. Valued at $110.00 this contribution will greatly aid the medical self-help programs of Project Concern.

For those people who are interested in reading about Project Concern in more detail the book "Vietnam Doctor" by Dr. James Turpin, founder of Project Concern, is in the Kewaskum public library. Donated by the Junior Woman's Club, this book gives an interesting look into the founding of Project Concern and also the work done at the Project Concern clinics in Hong Kong and Vietnam. Do make an attempt to read this enlightening book.

den at the annual picnic. A decision will be reached after board members take a personal look. The area involved is about 130 feet long and 40 feet wide.

Village Commissioner William Martin said he has received applications from two professional instructors for the position of swimming instructor in the summer recreation program and it was decided to interview both.

Board members agreed that the 25 mile per hour speed limit on River View Drive should remain as such after reviewing a suggestion from an area resident that the speed limit be raised.

Martin was instructed to contact the State Highway Commission to request re-surfacing of Main St. Armin Oppermann, superintendent of public works, was instructed to work on specifications for a new garbage truck. Because only one bid for electric door openers for the fire department doors was received, bids will be held open until March 31.

The internal revenue service must really love poor people—it makes so many of them that way year after year.

Brothers Hurt in Crash; 3 Mishaps Occur in Village

Two West Bend area brothers who are former residents of Kewaskum narrowly escaped serious injury or death when the car in which they were riding collided with a semi-trailer truck near Alenton early Friday.

Hiram Justman, 22, of R. 4, West Bend, and his brother, Howard, 34, of 247 S. Main St., West Bend, were injured at 2:05 a. m. Friday when their eastbound auto, driven by Hiram, collided with a semi-trailer truck operated by William Aldridge, 21, of McHenry, Ill.

The accident occurred as Aldridge who had been traveling east and missed his turn at Hwy. 41, pulled north onto CTH WW, backed across Hwy. 33 and onto Wild Live Drive, then proceeded northward and turned west onto Hwy. 33. As he was turning onto the highway he saw the Justman car approach, he stated, and the vehicles collided. He was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

The Justmans were both taken to St. Joseph's Community Hospital at West Bend where their condition was reported improving Monday.

A mishap which occurred at 3:18 p. m. Friday involved a car driven by Leiva E. Schultz, 24, of R. 2, Kewaskum, and a parked auto owned by Lioba P. Gartland, of R. 2, Campbellsport. Local police reported that the Gartland vehicle was properly parked in a stall north of the entry to the Sentry foods store. The Schultz auto was turning into the next stall and in doing so scraped the Gartland car on the left side. The left side of the Gartland auto was damaged. In a freak village accident which occurred about a half hour later, at 3:50 p. m. Friday, on Main St. in front of the post office, two driverless vehicles were involved in a collision. An auto owned by Gary A. Reigle, 21, of 224 North Ave., Kewaskum, and a pick-up truck owned by Richard H. Kuehl, 30, of 1041 Milan Dr., Kewaskum, were properly parked at the curb. The Reigle car jumped into reverse gear and rolled backwards striking Kuehl's truck. The right rear of Reigle's auto and front bumper of the Kuehl vehicle were damaged.

Autos driven by John R. Dreher, 20, of 1541 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum, and Leo L. Wietor, 60, of 910 Sunset Dr., West Bend, collided on Fond du Lac Ave. about 50 feet south of Main St. at 12:15 p. m. Wednesday. Police Chief Donald Hlavaty reported that Wietor was southbound on Fond du Lac Ave. and Dreher pulled away from the curb into the southbound lane and struck Wietor's car in the right side. The left front of the Dreher car and right side of Wietor's vehicle were damaged.

Miller's Furniture Store wishes to announce that bedsprings are back on a pre-war quality basis. Anyone whose bedspring has broken coils, sags or is generally worn out need hesitate no longer in replacing it for fear of getting so-called "victory" merchandise. Wooden frames are a thing of the past and coil counts are back to normal.

A telegram from the war department was received by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boettcher of Wayne informing them that their son, Pvt. Earl Boettcher, was seriously wounded in action in France.

Schrauth's tavern at Lake Bernice, formerly known as Schrauth's pond, near Elmore, a landmark in the vicinity, has finally changed ownership after being operated by the Schrauth family more than 80 years. A deal was made whereby John Schrauth sold the tavern to Henry Drefahl of Milwaukee, who will take over March 15.

At the annual meeting of Holy Trinity parish it was reported by the pastor, Rev. F. C. LaBuw, that the entire debt of the congregation has now been cleared as a result of the generous efforts made by members of the parish. Included were many improvements made to the church, rectory and school. All parish officers retain their office. Plans were made for a parish picnic this summer.

"Heinie" Foerster, Jr. has purchased the 60-acre former Ensenbach farm and property near Wayne from Paul Steffans. Harry Maaske, local real estate broker, sold the 8-acre farm of Mrs. Ziemann to Christ Kober of Kewaskum.

William Schaub received a telegram from the war department informing him that his son, Pvt. Homer Schaub, was slightly wounded in action in Germany in February.

Kewaskum ended up in a tie for second place with Lomira in the Tri-County conference, each having a 5-5 record. Oakfield and Rosendale tied for first with 6-4. Members of the team included "Hefty" Backhaus, Merrill Krueger, "Red" Stautz, Donald Wierman, Augie Bilgo, Roger Schleif, Allen Stahl and Ralph Koth.

Service news: Pfc. Wesley Kuehl arrived in New York from England where he was confined to a hospital eight months with a broken leg and knee cap which he sustained in training there. Pvt. James Andre, who has seen duty in Africa twice, Sicily, Italy and France since going overseas, wrote his brother, John, Jr. describing the invasion of southern France on D-day. Jim took part in the invasion. He hit the beach right after the first troops landed and with an army engineers demolition crew blew up a huge anti-invasion wall. His group set a new world record in unloading and may be awarded a special medal.

THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL CURRICULUM IN HOME ECONOMICS

By Jeanette Vetter

The home economics curriculum for the junior high school girls in the Kewaskum area is very diversified. A year-long plan deals with topics of interest to all students and includes necessary laboratory work and discussion of problems to be faced in upcoming years. Girls are given the opportunity to work with other members in class, and they may plan and carry out experience projects at home.

The beginning section of junior high home economics deals with the definition of home economics. It is looked upon by the students as a course presenting many different aspects of the home. Students learn that they will not spend one semester studying foods and the remaining semester learning to sew. Instead, they realize that homemaking deals with many areas of life, and can be applied to all future life situations.

The next topic studied is getting along with others. Girls are made aware of the importance of getting along with family and friends. Activities concerning personality and getting to know one another better are included in the unit.

Another part of the course is child care and development. Because these girls are actively involved in babysitting, techniques and skills are discussed and practiced. Safety plays a major part in this unit on child care.

A longer unit included is clothing selection and construction. Girls learn the basics of purchasing and selecting their own clothing with the application of color, style, texture, quality, and cost. They also learn the use of a sewing machine, and make a small item such as a totebag, apron, or locker caddy, along with a more difficult, wearable item. Students participate in a class style show at the end of the unit.

Good grooming is incorporated into the clothing unit. Girls learn the necessity of cleanliness, and apply the subject matter to their own lives. Care of clothing is also considered a part of good grooming.

The study of foods and nutrition is always of interest to junior high girls. Not only do they study food nutrients and similar groups of foods, but laboratory sessions allow for practice and sampling of various food items prepared by the students. Diet facts and fallacies, table setting, food purchasing, and general preparation techniques are also studied.

Home furnishings, or interior design, is another unit in the curriculum. Basically, this is a unit designed for the individual student. Emphasis is placed on the girl's room at home, its change and possible improvement. Girls study room arrangement, color, design, and efficiency. Results of the home project are the determining method of success.

Throughout the year, time, money, and home management are incorporated into each unit. A short session at the end of the year correlates all of the management techniques, with additional studies made.

Subjects dealt with are of importance in the daily lives of students today, as they are beginning to think about their future role in life as possible wives and mothers. Problems encountered by homemakers at present are dealt with; new homemaking methods are discussed and applied to activities and projects in the classroom. Up to date reference material and resource individuals are also a part of the curriculum. Each part of the course lends itself to future application in any of the courses offered by the home economics department in the high school.

The middle class is that group of people who live in public like the rich do—and in private like the poor do.

Kewaskum Woman Vice-President of New School Club

Along with a new school comes new clubs. Students in the office occupations division of the West Bend Vocational-Technical School's Business Department, under the supervision of Ron Hall, received charters from state and national associations for post-secondary business education students Tuesday evening at a dinner held at the Moraine Supper Club in West Bend.

Mrs. Beverly Maurice of West Bend, president of the newly-formed West Bend chapter of Wisconsin Business Education Club, presided over the chartering dinner. She welcomed club members and guests and introduced the club officers: Mrs. Carl Grissman of Kewaskum, vice president; Miss Michele Weiss of Saukville, secretary; Mrs. Carol June Haynes of Hartford, treasurer, and Mrs. Irma Albrecht of Slinger, historian. Club advisors are Miss Louise Ap-lin and Mrs. Nancy Grasser, instructors in the Business Department.

Dale McKenna, State Senator for the 13th District, was the guest speaker. He spoke to the group of full time students on the problem of the 70's—pollution.

Presenting the charters for Wisconsin Business Education Club and Office Education Association to the president was Arthur Weiner, assistant director, research and planning for Area Vocational-Technical District 10. Also representing the District 10 staff at the ceremony was Ron Koski, business education coordinator.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond memory of our dear husband and father, Herbert Siegfried, who passed away March 12, 1969:

Time speeds on, one year has passed,
Since death its gloom, its shadow cast,
Within our home so full of cheer,
God took to him, husband and father dear.

We miss him and we ever will,
His vacant chair no one can fill,
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in Heaven we will meet again.

God took him, led him by his hand,
Not now, but someday we will understand,
So while he rests in peaceful sleep,
His memory we will always keep.

Sadly missed by his wife, Mrs. Maria Siegfried, and daughters.

Dairy Management, Marketing Meeting For County Farmers

Dairy farmers will have an opportunity to participate in a dairy management and marketing meeting, according to Maurice Hovland, county agent.

The area meeting is scheduled for Monday, March 9, for farmers of Washington and Ozaukee counties, at the court house auditorium, Hwy. 33 east, West Bend.

The program will feature Jim Crowley, UW dairy science department, talking about production as a part of marketing; and someone of the university agricultural economics department talking about financing dairy farms in the 1970's.

Charles Farr, of the Wisconsin Federation of Cooperatives, will discuss federal milk orders of the future; and Truman Graf, ag econ department, will talk about dairy marketing adjustments for the 1970's.

The meeting begins at 9:45 a. m. and will be finished at 3:30 p. m.

Hovland said that any dairy farmer, or other person who has an interest in the dairy business, should plan to attend this meeting, because of the tremendous changes forthcoming in the total dairy picture in the years ahead.

Mayville Beats Indians in Finals Of District Tournament Here, 72-60

KEWASKUM ELIMINATES N. FONDY IN OPENING GAME

In the heralded battle of conference champions for the championship of the Kewaskum WIAA District tournament held here over the weekend, Mayville defeated the Indians in the finals Saturday night, 72-60, to advance to the regional tourney at Beaver Dam this weekend.

After a kluster showing against Campbellsport in the tournament opener Friday night which they won, 73-64, Mayville bounced back with a vengeance Saturday night to whip the Indians in the championship showdown. Kewaskum had reached the finals with a decisive victory over North Fondy Friday, 77-60.

The finals were played before a packed house of wildly screaming Mayville and Kewaskum followers. While Mayville fans rocked the rafters after their team's victory, those from Kewaskum were left in gloom and tears. There is no need for Kewaskum to feel ashamed about losing to Mayville, which has a very fine team. The setback brought the season to an abrupt ending for the Indians. Remember also that Kewaskum was without the services of their injured junior ace, Clark Eichstedt, who was leading scorer on the team.

Bear in mind that Mayville won the Northern Little Ten conference championship with a perfect 10-0 record. The win over Kewaskum was their 15th in succession, indicating their strength. So far they have a glittering 18-2 record for the season. Both Mayville and Kewaskum's Scenic kingpins entered the title game with identical 17-2 records.

Mayville was the better team in this particular game. They outshot the Indians, were more aggressive, controlled the boards, and harassed Kewaskum's offense with their press. Accurate free throw shooting has been a strong point for the Indians all season but they failed to hit against the Cardinals.

Mayville now only needs to hurdle the Beaver Dam Regional for a second straight trip to the Manitowoc Sectional. The Cardinals will meet Pardeeville, a 58-44 winner over Poynette in the district finals, Friday. In the other opening contest Oakfield is paired against Waupun. The only team which figures to give Mayville trouble is Oakfield, Tri-County conference champion with a 12-0 record. The Oaks were ranked third in the state among the smaller schools.

At the start of the game the Indians did catch Mayville a bit by surprise by taking a 9-2 lead in the first few minutes. At this point, however, the Cardinals started to jell. Sophomore Jeff Stieve contributed four baskets and scoring ace Chuck Feller two as the Cardinals outscored Kewaskum, 11-2, the remainder of the quarter to take the lead, which they never again relinquished. Feller, the Northern Little Ten scoring champ finished the game with 31 points to top all scorers. He scored 41 points the week before against Waupun and is rated as one of the all-time basketball greats of the Little Ten. Stieve kicked in 13. All-conference Dick Bartelt with 15 points, Steve Stern with 14 and Randy Koth with 13 paced Kewaskum.

Mayville coach Bob Wojtusik said, "We're better defensively now than we were a year ago. It was our press that really got us going after a slow start. Our guys did a great job of cutting off Kewaskum's top scorers, Bartelt and Butschlick when it counted. Stieve certainly doesn't play like a sophomore and Feller's just great. We've had a 37-5 record since Chuck has been on the varsity."

A rebound basket by Stieve in the final 10 seconds of the first quarter put Mayville ahead to stay. The real blitz came in the second period when the Cardinals went on a 25-point scoring spree for a 38-23 halftime lead. Reserve guard Al Toelner gave the winners a shot in the arm with three baskets in the second quarter. With Toeller, usually an outside scoring threat, attacking from an unexpected area, the normal lanes were open for the Cardinals. Feller banged in 10 points and fellow frontliner Dennis Fechhelm made five straight free throws.

In contrast, Bartelt, top Indian scorer, waited until 20 seconds before the half before hitting his first basket. Kewaskum's catch-up game never did materialize as Feller added 11 points in the third quarter in a variety of ways to give his team a 55-36 lead. A late Kewaskum spurt brought the final margin to 12 points. Kewaskum scored 10 straight points in the final quarter, causing fans to buzz, and gave the Cardinals a scare with 24 in the period. Bartelt led the belated charge with four straight buckets. However, it came too late.

The Indians dug their own grave by hitting only 13 of 36 shots the first three quarters. They finished with 10 for 22 in the last quarter and had only 23 of 58 in the game—a 39.6 per cent reading. The Cardinals hit on 29 of 57 shots for a neat 50.9 per cent and had 14 of 21 success at the free throw line.

In Kewaskum's opening night 77-60 win over North Fondy, they took the lead in the first quarter and the Orioles never threatened in the easy victory for the Indians. It was their third defeat of the season by the Indians. Bartelt attacked North Fondy from the base line for 25 points. Butschlick and Stern gave Kewaskum nice scoring balance with 16 and 14 points. The Indians connected on 29 of 68 shots and took the boards away from the Orioles (which they couldn't do against Mayville). Steve Euhardy paced North Fondy with 14 points. Surprisingly Mayville got a strong argument from Campbellsport in the tourney opener Friday. The Cougars gave them some uneasy moments and forced them to huff and puff to earn the 73-64 victory. Campbellsport closed in to within five points in the fourth quarter. Feller and Stieve, both 6-foot-3, gave Mayville complete control of the boards. They each snared 20 rebounds and the Cardinals had matters in their own way in this department, 59-32. Mayville hit on 30 of 68 shots (44 per cent) while the Cougars finished with a frigid 31 per cent. Dennis Pieper, nifty Campbellsport sophomore, nifty Campbellsport honors with 27 points as he popped shots over the much taller Cardinals. Tom Breitzman was next best with 23. Feller was held to 22 and Stieve added 17.

Mayville Principal Apologizes for Team's Behavior

The following letter of apology was received this week by Ed Connors, Kewaskum High School principal, from Dennis L. Mair, Mayville High School principal, regarding his school basketball team's behavior immediately following Mayville's victory over Kewaskum in the Saturday night, when the Cardinal members tore down the large "We're No. 1" sign from the gymnasium wall in front of a packed house:

March 2, 1970

Mr. Ed Connors, Principal
Kewaskum High School
Kewaskum, Wis.

Dear Mr. Connors:

Please consider this letter my personal apology for the inexcusable behavior of our basketball team last Saturday night immediately following the championship game between Kewaskum and Mayville. The tearing down of your Pep Club sign by our basketball team was most embarrassing to our school and our community.

This unsportsmanlike act could have created a serious crowd control problem. The mature conduct of your team and your students prevented this from happening. Even though you lost the ballgame, I am sure you gained many friends and also retained your No. 1 rating! I'm sorry I can't say the same for us.

Again, may I express my sincere apology for our unsportsmanlike behavior.

Sincerely,
Dennis L. Mair
High School Principal

Copies of this letter were also sent to Marshall Boyd, superintendent; the school board president, Ernie Mitchell, athletic director, and Walter Bade, coach, of Kewaskum High School, and to Robert Deetz, superintendent, Delmar Boeder, board of education, Phil Collins, athletic director, and Robert Wojtusik, coach, of Mayville High School.

Bartelt Picked On Scenic All Conference Team

CLARK EICHSTEDT HEADS SECOND TEAM SELECTIONS

Three members of Kewaskum's championship team received honors on the Scenic Moraine conference all-star team released this week by coaches. Dick Bartelt was a first team selection, Clark Eichstedt was named to the second team and Randy Koth was an honorable mention pick.

Hartland Arrowhead's John Dolan and Pewaukee's Brian Brattebo, who finished one-two in the conference scoring race, headed the all-star team. The two seniors were the only unanimous picks on the first team. They were joined by Larry Gundrum of Slinger, Steve Strenger of Grafton and Bartelt of Kewaskum.

For Brattebo, a sharpshooting guard, it was the second straight year on the all-conference team. He finished second in scoring to Dolan, 307 to 304. Dolan befuddled opponents as he and his Hartland teammates made their conference bow. Despite his lack of size (5-11) Dolan played inside and used tremendous leaping ability to get his points.

Gundrum and Strenger, both second team picks last year, made the first team this time around, while Bartelt, who sat out his junior year on the Kewaskum squad, wound up leading the Indians to their first Scenic basketball title.

The 6-foot-2½ Bartelt was recognized around the conference as a deadly baseline shooter. His 227 points, 7th best in the conference, paced the Indians to a nifty 13-1 conference record.

An injury (broken wrist) suffered in practice probably cost Kewaskum's talented junior Clark Eichstedt a first team berth. Although he missed the last five games of the schedule, he headed the second team selections with nine points in the voting. Eichstedt, also a 6-foot-2½ frontliner, was leading the Indians in both scoring and rebounding when he suffered his hair-line fracture. He also excelled as a playmaker.

Kewaskum, as befits a champion, had another of its players, Guard Randy Koth, cited when honorable mention picks were announced. Koth was a timely scorer, good dribbler and ball handler, and usually brought the ball up court as a playmaker.

Following are the Scenic all-star selections:

FIRST TEAM — John Dolan, Hartland, 5-11, senior, 14 votes; Brian Brattebo, Pewaukee, 6-1, senior, 14 votes; Larry Gundrum, Slinger, 5-11, senior, 13 votes; Steve Strenger, Grafton, 6-3, senior, 10 votes; Dick Bartelt, Kewaskum, 6-2½, senior, 10 votes.

SECOND TEAM — Clark Eichstedt, Kewaskum, 6-2½, junior, 9 votes; Ted Sprinkman, Slinger, 6-0, senior, 7 votes; Jim Gantner, Campbellsport, 5-9, junior, 6 votes; Harry DeLeeuw, Grafton, 5-10, junior, 5 votes; Wilbur Henry, Germantown, 6-0, sophomore, 5 votes; Dennis Pieper, Campbellsport, 5-9, sophomore, 5 votes; Rick Wank, Pewaukee, 6-4, senior, 5 votes.

HONORABLE MENTION — Randy Koth, Kewaskum; Chuck Cruz, North Fond du Lac.
